

YOU ARE BEING SUED
AND YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR PROPERTY

The Connecticut Superior Court requires that this notice be sent to you about the residential foreclosure process. This is not legal advice. Please read it carefully.

It is important that you learn about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid programs and other non-profit organizations that you may call for information about foreclosure.

To protect your rights, you should speak to an attorney or go to the foreclosure clerk, foreclosure caseflow coordinator or Court Service Center in the Court where your case was filed for information on what to do next. If you do not take action, you could lose your property.

If you do not file an Appearance form with the Court, you will not get important notices about your case AND the Court may make a decision (enter a default judgment) against you. File the Appearance form at the Court where your case is pending.

You should also work with your lender or other person bringing this lawsuit or, if this foreclosure involves your home, to contact a HUD-certified housing counselor during this process.

If this foreclosure involves your home, you may be eligible for the Foreclosure Mediation program. Information about the program is attached to these papers and is also available at any Superior Court Judicial District courthouse or on the court's website at www.jud.ct.gov. To locate assistance near you, you may call the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority's call center toll free at 1-877-571-2432. Customer Service Representatives are available Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. You may also call 2-1-1 for other help.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION

You may be contacted by people offering to help you avoid foreclosure. Please follow these precautions:

1. Get legal advice before entering into any deal involving your house.
2. Get legal advice before paying any money to anyone offering to help you avoid foreclosure.
3. Do not sign any papers you do not understand.

Legal Resources

Foreclosure Prevention Clinics: The Connecticut Fair Housing Center, together with Homes Saved by Faith, regularly presents free clinics for homeowners facing foreclosure. The clinics offer information from a Center attorney on how to prepare for court and what resources exist for homeowners. After the presentation, homeowners can discuss their situations briefly, one-on-one, with an attorney. The clinics are typically on weekday evenings in either Hartford or Fairfield County. Call 1-888-247-4401 or visit www.ctfairhousing.org for more information on dates and locations.

Judicial Branch Foreclosure Volunteer Attorney Program: Volunteer attorneys are available to give advice and answer questions about foreclosure at certain courthouses in the state. Homeowners facing foreclosure throughout Connecticut are welcome to attend. Call 860-263-2734 for additional information, or visit http://jud.ct.gov/volunteer\_atty\_prgrm.htm.

Foreclosure Manual for Self-Represented Homeowners: The Connecticut Fair Housing Center publishes "Representing Yourself in Foreclosure: A Guide for Connecticut Homeowners," a free manual describing the foreclosure and mediation process for self-represented homeowners. Copies are available from CHFA/HUD-approved housing counselors, on www.ctfairhousing.org, or by calling the Center at 1-888-247-4401.

Statewide Legal Services (SLS): SLS provides free legal advice and referrals for callers qualifying for its services (guidelines include income limits). Call 1-800-453-3320 or 860-344-0380 or visit www.slsc.org for more information.

Court Service Centers: In certain Superior Court locations, Court Service Centers provide public access computers, printers, fax machines, copiers, phones, and work space for self-represented parties. Refer to www.jud.ct.gov, and go to the Quick Links menu on the home page of the Judicial website for more information.

How Foreclosure Rescue Scams Work. People in foreclosure are often the target of "foreclosure rescue scams." Be very careful of non-lawyers who ask you to pay a fee for counseling, loan modification, foreclosure prevention, or a "forensic audit" of your loan documents, regardless of their promises or claims. Many out-of-state attorneys target Connecticut residents: you should never pay attorneys that you do not meet. Contact the Department of Banking for more information at 1-877-472-8313 or visit www.preventloanscams.org.

Mortgage Crisis Job Training Program. The state-funded Mortgage Crisis Job Training Program is a project of The WorkPlace, Inc., in partnership with the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority (CHFA), Capital Workforce Partners, and Connecticut's workforce system. The Program helps homeowners increase their job skills and earning potential. It offers customized employment services, job training scholarships, financial literacy, and credit counseling. For information call 1-866-683-1682 or go to www.workplace.org/mortgage-crisis-job-training-program/.

Financial Assistance Programs. Connecticut's 12 Community Action Agencies (CAAs) help people meet immediate needs through services such as Eviction and Foreclosure Prevention, energy/heating assistance, food pantries, and weatherization. CAAs also empower people to improve their financial future through employment services, financial literacy training, and other programs. To locate your local CAA call the Connecticut Association for Community Action at 860-832-9438 or visit: www.cafca.org/our-network.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
SUPERIOR COURT
JUDICIAL BRANCH

ADA NOTICE

The Judicial Branch of the State of Connecticut complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation in accordance with the ADA, contact a court clerk or an ADA contact person listed at www.jud.ct.gov/ADA.

The Court's Foreclosure Mediation Program is set up to help eligible homeowners and their lenders or mortgage servicers see whether they can reach a fair and voluntary agreement under the supervision of a neutral mediator employed by the Court. The program addresses all aspects of the foreclosure including any assistance options that may be available through your lender or mortgage servicer to help you 1) keep your home, or 2) gracefully exit from your home by way of a short sale, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, or negotiated sale date or law day.

The objectives of the mediation program are:

- To determine whether the parties can reach an agreement that will either:
  1. Avoid the foreclosure by means that may include programs that are available through your lender or mortgage servicer; or
  2. Expedite or facilitate the foreclosure in a manner that is acceptable to both you and your lender or mortgage servicer.
- To reach this determination with reasonable speed and efficiency, with both parties participating in the mediation process in good faith, without unreasonable and unnecessary delays.

What you must do:

1. Fill out the Appearance form and Foreclosure Mediation Certificate. These forms are included in this packet. You must file them with the court no later than 15 days after the return date. The return date is printed on the upper right part of the Summons form in this packet. You do not have to come to court on the return date. The court cannot notify you of the date and time you must come for your first premediation meeting until you file these forms.
2. Mail a copy of the Appearance form and the Foreclosure Mediation Certificate to the Plaintiff's attorney at the address of the attorney or law firm on the Summons form, and to any other party who has filed an appearance in your case.
3. Start gathering documentation so that you will be prepared to meet with your mediator. Lenders typically request copies of the following documents:

- Most recent utility bill (gas, electric, or water).
- Most recent real estate property tax bill.
- Evidence of amount of homeowner's association dues or condominium fees, and whether current or delinquent.

- Homeowners' insurance declaration page.
  - Hardship letter — A letter explaining what happened that prevented you from making your mortgage payment, and that indicates whether or not the hardship has been resolved, signed and dated by all borrowers.
4. Within 35 days from the return date, your lender or mortgage servicer will mail you a packet of forms, their list of required documentation, and other information about your loan or your property. A copy will also be sent to your mediator. Upon receipt of this packet, complete the forms provided, gather any additional documentation on the list, and bring the completed forms and documentation to your scheduled premediation meeting with your mediator. You can read more about this meeting in the next section below. Do not mail the completed forms and documentation to the court.

The Mediation Process

If your return date is October 1, 2013 or later, the Foreclosure Mediation Program will consist of two stages:

- Premediation — During this stage, you will meet one-on-one with a mediator to review your financial information and to discuss possible options. If necessary, the mediator will assist you in completing forms and gathering the documentation required by your lender or mortgage servicer. The mediator may also refer you to other resources that can help you, such as the housing counseling agencies listed on the attached Notice of Community-Based Resources. You may have one or more meetings with the mediator, but premediation will end approximately 12 weeks from the return date on your Summons. At the conclusion of premediation, the mediator will ensure that your documentation is delivered to your lender or mortgage servicer or its attorney, and will determine whether mediation with your lender or mortgage servicer will be scheduled. If the mediator determines that mediation will not be scheduled, mediation will terminate. If mediation has been terminated, you may ask the Court to be included in mediation if you think the mediator has made a mistake or if you have had a change in circumstances. If the mediator determines that mediation will be scheduled, you will receive notice of the date and time of your mediation in the mail. The first mediation will be scheduled no later than 5 weeks from the date your forms and documentation are delivered to your lender or mortgage servicer, or its attorney.
- Mediation — If mediation is scheduled, you will meet with a mediator and a representative of the lender or mortgage servicer and its attorney to review any assistance options that may be available to you through your lender or mortgage servicer. You may be asked to submit additional documentation as part of the mediation process depending on your situation. By law, the representative is permitted to participate in mediation by phone as long as the representative is knowledgeable about your case and the types of assistance that may be available to you. If you are represented by an attorney, your attorney may appear for you after the first mediation as long as you are available to participate by phone. If you do not have an attorney and if there are 2 or more self-represented borrowers, then after the first mediation session, it is likely that only one of you will need to come to mediation if the other(s) are available to participate by phone.

Other Information you should know:

The information you provide during the mediation process will be treated as confidential and will not be shared without your consent with anyone besides your lender or mortgage servicer, its attorneys, and a court-employed mediator with the Foreclosure Mediation Program.

Prior to your premediation meeting(s) with the mediator, if you need help filling out the forms, gathering the required documentation, or preparing for mediation, you may contact one of the housing counseling agencies listed on the attached Notice of Community-Based Resources (JD-CV-126). However, if you are not able to get help quickly enough, you must do your best to fill out the forms and gather the documentation yourself. The mediator will give you additional help during the premediation process.

If your spouse is not a borrower on your loan, but you wish to have them attend mediation with you, your lender will need your written consent in order to discuss your loan with your spouse.
