

Many people are wondering about the 50/50 marches on 2/5/25. We have seen posters and have been wondering where it's all originating from. Is it safe? Is it official? In summary, YES, very much. It is a large and wonderful movement being organized by many people.

Below is a synopsis of the 50501 movement (this synopsis has been endorsed by the 50501 organizers).

50501 is a movement that started posting on Instagram 5 days ago. Their Reddit community was created on January 25, 2025 and they currently have 54,000 followers.

They have been promoting, sharing, making art, collaborating, and organizing non-stop since its inception. They have a spreadsheet! (link below).

Their linktree includes tips and resources about protests and knowing our rights.

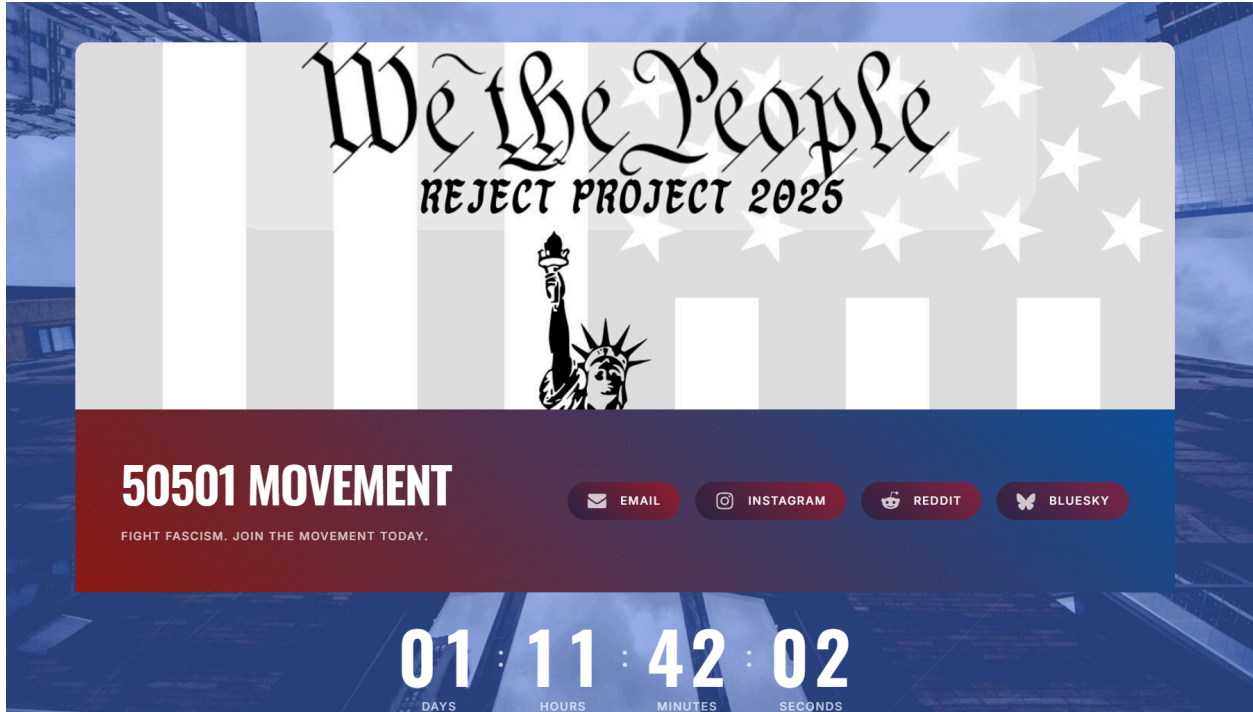

The date is fast approaching. Below is a quick synopsis with source links. I created this so I fully trust the sources. 😊

50501 - A Brief History 😊

50501 website:

<https://50501movement.carrd.co/> (There is a countdown on their website. It reflects urgency ❤️)
Their tagline: Fight Facism. Join the Movement Today.

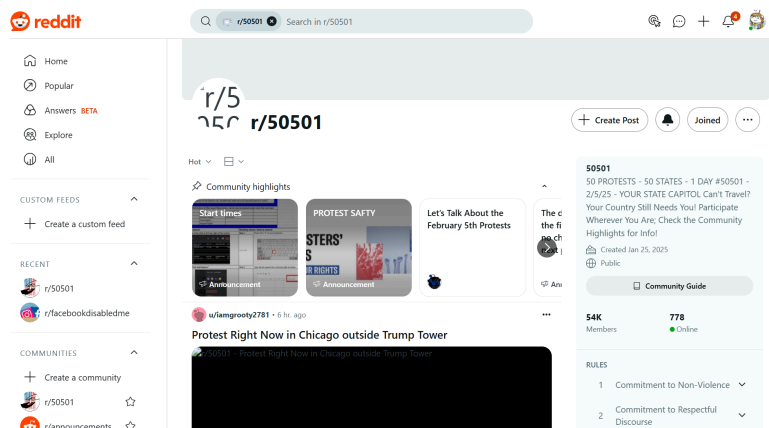

As I write this, there is one day, and 11 hours and 42 minutes before the marches begin. Probably eastern time. 😊

Early History

It seems 50501 began as a Reddit thread. It was established on Reddit on January 25, 2025 (9 days ago). <https://www.reddit.com/r/50501/> They currently have 54,000 followers.

(Please go there. Follow them. They are taking action and we can all help!)

Their spreadsheet is below. There is a row for every state, and columns with dates, times, organizer contacts, links to permits! It continues to fill in with details and organizers stepping up. I went to the Colorado column, clicked on a link, and found Denver's march on the calendar of event permits https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1-rraq_sRU6n-rvGj45AxscxouGVcH03efhMQHJYzc6w/edit?gid=0#gid=0

I went to their Instagram page (link below). Their page is full of art promoting the 2/2/25 march in all 50 states, hence their name 50501. Their Instagram posts are dedicated to spreading the world. Reminder: their first post was 5 days ago (as of 2/3/25). I find this inspiring and impressive. THIS is the art we have all been seeing and sharing and wondering about. They are 50501 posters. (See screenshots at the end)

The link in their Instagram page goes to a Reddit thread in which the “Political Revolution” community on Reddit (with 173,000 followers) announces they are partnering with 50501 (screenshot below). Political Revolution was established February 3, 2016. This was a time when we were hoping to prevent disaster in 2016. See their tagline below.

Political Revolution

This subreddit is part of the Political Revolution as envisioned by Bernie Sanders. We represent a movement promoting activism, raising support for down ballot progressive candidates, and spreading awareness for the issues focused on by the progressive cause.

The screenshot shows a Reddit post from the subreddit r/Political_Revolution. The post title is "We are OFFICIALLY partnering with r/50501!". The post is a discussion and has 198 upvotes and 9 comments. The content of the post includes a welcome message and information about a partnership with r/50501 for a protest on February 5th.

We are OFFICIALLY partnering with r/50501!

Discussion

We have a partnership with the r/50501 mods, and we will be assisting with organizing, and encourage cross-collaboration between the groups.

50501 is a Nation Wide protest happening in 50 states, 50 capitals, in one day on February 5th.

Political Revolution has been organizing for the last 8 years, and we will be continuing to build our coalition on the ground.

You can join a 50501 protest in your state by going to <https://events.pol-rev.com>.

If you don't see an event for your state, you can make one!

You can also make any type of organizing event, public or private.

WELCOME TO THE REVOLUTION!

One of the amazing things Political Revolution offers is an even calendar! I have been searching and searching for a calendar like this: <https://events.pol-rev.com/>

Here is the discussion page about their partnership:

The comment section includes this comment:

50 States. 50 Protests. One Day.

(There will be more than one)

The 50501 Movement is a nationwide, grassroots protest happening on February 5, 2025 (and other days in the future), in all 50 states to take a stand against fascism, authoritarianism, and attacks on democracy. We are a decentralized, people-powered movement dedicated to resisting policies that threaten our rights and freedoms.

On February 5th, we are showing up in force at state capitol buildings, city halls, and federal buildings across the country. This is not just a protest—it's a call to action for everyone who refuses to stay silent in the face of injustice and wants to continue to organize and allow new options to unfold from unity.

Join us. Bring your voice. Bring your community. Because silence is not an option.

They don't seem to be on Facebook, but this guy Cliff Clash IS and I COMPLETELY AGREE with him! Thank you Caitilin Seidensticker Ashley for sending me this!!!

Cliff says:

“Tell everyone, post on all platforms, get groups together, make signs. Don’t ask me 10,000 questions. Get tough and get resourceful. If you need someone to hold your hand on every step of every action, you won’t make it through this and should consider trying to flee the country. We’re all going to our state capitols and protesting. Real simple. Lead, follow or get the f out of the way.” - Cliff Clash (The badass!)

<https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=603433379275636>

Please attend the 2/5/25 marches!!! Please bring your friends. Please show up for democracy.

Find your local permitting website and see if it’s on the calendar. If it is. GO! Our rights are still ours. We must keep them. Together we can do this.

Thank you for reading. Please share.

This march is real, and we should all be there.

With Love - Jackie
