In revolutionary times, those who accord themselves, with an extraordinary arrogance, the facile credit for having inflamed anarchy in their contemporaries fail to recognize that what appears to be a sad triumph is in fact due to a spontaneous disposition, determined by the social situation as a whole.

Griffityths consistent history approach was introduced in 1984 to create coherent narratives from quantum information. A griffiths history is constructed from a succession of more or less random quantum measurements taken at different moments. Each measurement defines a specific physical mass at a precise moment with reference to a specific set of values. As an example, in time t an electron moves at a certain speed approximately determined depending on the method of measurement. At a time t it is situated at a certain point in space. At a time t, it has a certain spin value. From this collect of measurements it is possible to construct a history which is logically consistent. It cannot be said to be true; simply that I can be sustained without contradiction. Under a given set of experimental conditions, a finite number of possible histories can be recreated using Griffiths's method; these are called Griffith's Consistent Histories. In these, the world behaves as though composed of separate objects, each having fixed, intrinsic properties. However, the number of consistent histories that can be created from a single set of data is generally greater than one. As a being you are self-aware, and this consciousness allows you to hypothesize that the story you've created from a given set of memories is a consistent history, justified by a singular narrative voice. As a unique individual, having existed for a particular period and been subjected to an ontology of objects and properties, you can assert this with absolute certainty, and so automatically assume that iti is a Griffiths's history. You make this hypotheseis about real life rath than about the domain of dreams.”

Reasonable doubt and two narrativized stories in he said she said is pointless with no physical evidence. Time for total CCTV and micro aggression courts for “small rapes” (he came on my tits when I told him not to shouldnt be a rape but some women consider it a breach of consent these days). He touched my butt at the club innappropriately shouldn't put a guy on the sex offenders registry. Cops, judges, teachers all admit this to me.

Heather Oslon Seaborne in my summer school class at ryerson wore the most beautiful art dress that was blue and had a flower climbing up it. It was hemp I think. She sat in front of me and brainwashed me into psychotic ape theory in arts and contemporary studies. I think I did a lot back to her.

She did not wear panties very often that summer. We didnt have sex or any other sexual “intimacy” =)

A false rape accusation helps male feminists – some “feminist”

Questioned at the border the writeres in the anthology would all check out as canadian and female. However the nation and gender are poltiically saturated concepts and when adopted as section criteria or frameworks for analysis linguistic innovation is often eclipsed. For the purposes of this anthology we chose to define innovative poetry and poettics as writing that at the very least approaches language as an inheret problematic and subject of inquirty rather than mere vehcile for representation. While many of our dialgoues explore how poetrics are structed bty the publics in whichey they take shape this book privledges the aestethic over the identiariy. Staying attued to linguistic innovation and experimentation we believe this anthology does the work it set out to do by staging encounters some of the best writers working in and in response to feminist langunage, conceptual, investigative and other poetic traditions.

We had no way of anticpiating that we would find ourselves editting this book in the midst of the most significant debate on feminist poetics in the past decade. Our bodies our poems.

Intermitten poetic acts may summon without reifying the lyrics I as a socially moored body the presence of and desire to expand a public dialogue on gender and poetics that is both attuned to the realities and discoures of a new generation of writers and critics and attentive to histories of innovative women's writing.

I just dont like untransparent secret societies, gossip, peer groups that other individuals and minorities, e-bullying that can cause people to commit suicide (like teenagers) group hive mind fascism, and cheating. Cheating doesnt make you a sexually emancipated slut. Just a pigeon or a gold digger.

Indirect threats by a group – or crazy making from a lynch mob/group of e-bullies/network of internet trolls:

Internet trolls have moved to indirect threats, darknet (obfuscated) communication networks, are more organized than ever and can abuse the legislative system in new and creative ways.

In a situation where a target is clearly marked with a long internet history and real life history to the stalkers it is entirely more easy to build an efficient and hole free profile, to really get inside their mind, and really manipulate them and do some damage.

In the context of the internet, things like VPNs (Very Private Networks), Proxies (An Additional Connection before Data is sent to your computer), and now TOR (decentralized Onion p2p network) all contribute in making it hard to put an identity to the internet user.

This is especially devastating when large groups of internet users work together to form a mob, or squad, or gang devoted to trolling.

Creating fake personalities, and even full fake social network communities is more than possible in order to both farm populist support for unpopular opinions, add legitimacy to a false cause (more people support this so there is strength in numbers supporting it) and can be quickly thrown away if any investigation is to occur. Similar to a fake identity but even more powerful due to the ease of creation online.

Sharing identities and lying about important facts in character when creating an identity is important too. Making sure to build a back story and sharing the identity with a friend who can continue the back story but in different tones and styles of writing (as the internet is still largely text based) only adds to the confusion of an outside observer trying to forensically analyze the situation.

This is pretty standard for e-mail, and credit card scams, but what about larger groups, or groups with a moral twist to their bad behavior.

In the case of an online forum like Somethingawful.com it gets especially tricky due to the 20 year history. The urban legends surrounding the place, the misinterpretation of the text as strictly for comedy (and not outright lies or metaphors) all create a great format for indirect slander, libel, and even defamation.

This is compounding by the fact that Somethingawful.com is an original social network website of the internet (before major things like Facebook and even Myspace). Many older internet users and even celebrities can be found on somethingawful.com and many use pen names or internet handles or the names of family members, just to acquire an account officially, not even as an internet handle (the bill is not billed to Miley Cyrus, but her stage name, or one of her handlers).

With the history of lies and drama on Somethingawful.com it's important to note that much of it was not fit for the public eye and offsite communities were made to support the controversial topics that couldn't make it to the official website. Website's like postpalace, somethingsensitive (to discuss racism and corruption) wddp.org (political outfit complete with secret police) and various other fan blogs/tumblrs/private forums, even infiltrating to the darknet on onion network.

Over years as the children that grew up on Somethingawful turned into adults, and as the adults on Somethingawful grew even olderr, the user base began to decline but the content creation and strength of the users as a union grew. If you were acceptable and cool you were in.

What started as a unique way to post opinions and discuss and edit them instantly on an online forum grew to be something much bigger.

For 10 dollars you could buy an account, and an extra 10-30 you could further customize it with an image avatar representing your account changeable at will for a small cost (you can even change other users accounts) or account upgrades like “platinum search access”.

The business model also relied on a certain amount of bans and account reactivation to make revenue.

This combined with advertising sales from google-adsense type products. Advertising products that collect metadata from user information and patterns on the website. For example if video editing software is talked about on Somethingawful.com the metadata of the conversation, including identities, topic, and keywords, etc, is sold to the advertiser for an agreed amount. The advertiser then processes the information to better target consumers at large both on Somethingawful and the greater internet and world. This is very standard on many internet bulletin boards.

What makes Somethingawful especially unique is the history and length of time it's been doing this.
As somethingawful aged and lost its numbers and as the content on the website became more robust so did the advertising interests involved in somethingawful.

What was once just a simple social network for nerds to chat on the internet (or discuss topics of interest in a dramatic and fashionable way by acting in outrageous character, something they may not have been able to do in real life due to social pressures, a safe space in a way) became a major content creation, creative writers underground guild.

Simply by field testing certain users with acute moderators that pay attention as well as implementing a house rule of having to pay a certain amount before being allowed out of the ban/renewal cycle (gossip said $1500 in a direct payment or total accounts purchased) would count as a “season community pass” opening the door to being paid for posting.

This was very interesting to many highschool students during 2003-2007 who were broke and looking for money. Many didn't have to pay the “troll toll” to gain access to these secret website functions and were simply offered due to being good writers.

The function essentially allows for code to be linked to the users account which will democratically monetarily credit them through a vote system for both an “original idea” and “a good idea”.

@caro_ the card diviner your picture isnt in here. This isnt a brevik manifesto I hope. Buy beach sloth books.

im banned from the internet
I never thot id meet the person that I argued with and hated and also was attracted to in my teen years from dating their sister- over a decade of internet drama lurking behind my ex's sister that she and her friends probably never even knew about LOL

On one side the actual writing will gain a monetary value as voted by Somethingawful peers (this is not open to all users). On another side the writing will also be available to idea shoppers and big business all of whom have come to trust Somethingawful for the sheer value of original internet content celebrity it has been a part of.

Most things on the internet are a copy of a copy, Somethingawful being a historical original discussion forum is also an original discussion topic point for things that later filter out into the mainstream.
For example major websites such as 4chan.org (creators of e-gang anonymous and doxxxnet, who hacked SONY and many other acts of internet terrorism), tribalwar.com/forums, Reddit, and various books and video game producers, all credit Somethingawful.com as their original home community forum, a couple Hollywood celebrities do as well and the pictures prove it.

With the added bonus of a select few being able to have their one liner ideas bought for example: “a tv show about dark and brooding Japanese animation style cartoon vampires but filmed in the light of reality tv” can both be given a small monetary valuation from other forum participants (a cut of the Somethingawful revenue) but also a package idea from a business executive who may want to contact the content maker to further flesh out the idea, corporatize it, give it to a script writer and marketing team and make it a reality. This is big business for “content creators” or “creatives” who's hobby of writing creative things and ideas on the internet are now worth significant and big money through the Somethingawful publication and bidding system.

Private forum messages and the darknet communication system all contribute to making this behind closed doors and not public information.

An example of an indirect threat attack from an organized and relatively anonymous group like this that starts on an offsite:

Target is picked on offsite and profiled.

Planned courses of psychological attack are picked (pain points, insecurities, indirect personal information like the name of a common pet, characteristics, tropes, ptsd, character flaws) all discussed offsite or in private network (even on the phone). '

“Copy” is written on the home pc and proof read by the group or agreed moderator in private.

A program is used to post the content to the internet vbulletin newspaper software (this can be used to make it look as if two users are having a conversation with each other but it really is just one person, using multiple lines of connection, and robot software similar to robodialing, to feign a conversation between more than one person, on multiple internet handle accounts.

The content is published out by the program that is interfaced with the Vbulletin software, all identities are obfuscated by various connection tricks. The home PC in Toronto, where a user is typing a conversation with themselves the night before, and editing it, in a “sandbox” type testing environment, is then sent live on Somethingawful.com forums. The one user is then made to look like multiple users having one conversation (or multiple users are having the conversation, it depends on the point of the writing, and various other things.) All historical identification marks are obfuscated.

VPNs even allow for multiple users to connect to the same internet identity address (IP address) from a remote location. In this way 5 or 6 users from Toronto Ontario can pick the same connection VPN (very private network) to access the internet through their Bell or Rogers connection. The Bell or Rogers type connection is filtered to the VPN, where the group gains one solid identity, it can be at various locations pending what the VPN/alias software offers. The 5 or 6 Toronto users then could become obfuscated into being 1 internet user from Singapore (or some other combination of location and identity obfuscation).

What about a secondary cypher on the end of the content management system of Somethingawful? Published text shows that the web developer programmer of Somethingawful.com was both a genius and fairly crazy. With the code routinely breaking down on searches and displaying the text “Someone stole your trees.” This coder by the internet name “Radium” has a wide variety of urban legends associated with him including having written a programming language himself.

What if the programming language of the program and the program itself are both rigged to obfuscate information in a way that most internet forensics (that haven't been geniuses or internet security leaders like John McCaffe or Kevin Mitnick for 40 years) will simply not grasp and write off as conspiracy theory?

This would be known as a “rootkit” or a backdoor, the exact same phenomena that happened during the much publicized STUXNET oil pipe line fiasco where a small virus from a USB key was able to infiltrate from a string of laptop uses, into main corporate servers, and eventually a computer terminal in the actual oil pipeline (in the middle of no where) designed to make the pipeline explode at a certain time but was eventually prevented.

The potential use and implied destructive features for a total control type rootkit situation on an internet publishing website are vast. On one hand it prevents forensic analysis due to the seemingly bad coding practice and database errors, while at the same time due to the rootkit written in the programming language (or some other high level feature of the website) the data can then theoretically be ported to a variety of uses, and then ported back to the website seemingly unedited.

This means for example your credit card transaction and real name can be simply assigned to another person across the globe without you ever knowing (for recording purposes or tax exemption). Or if multiple people are using the same account these details can be omit and never forensically analyzed.

This works at a much higher level if the accounts were originally created on a false pretense (with a non identifying credit card, a friends real name, at a random global location, etc,) and then maintained with VPN connection from a static location (connecting from Toronto to the VPN/PROXY/TOR you and your friends will always connect to somethingawful by choice through a Singapore identity to keep things uniform and not looking suspect). In this way it can become impossible to differentiate the individual from the group.
Group Crazy Making on The Internet in an Anonymous Way.

If you can change user handles.
If you can change user names.
If your identity is easily obscured.
The possibilities are endless.

Examples of ways I've experienced group e-bullying.

-Direct death threats “Kill yourself”, “I'm going to break your ribs”, “You deserve to die”, “It was my car during your attempted murder”.
-Denigrating comments “You have a small penis”, “Your girlfriend is having sex with a black man and cucking you”, “you are a cuck”, “You are disgusting”, “You should kill yourself you are pathetic.”
-Official broadcast - “-Real name here- do not post on this forum anymore you are a bad person!”
-Insinuation of conspiracy - “this is not real you are a crazy people do not gang-stalk others on the internet”
-turning them into a meme - “Rapist Dare Sexuality on tumblr”
-racism -”anti Semitic propaganda that denies the holocaust with comments about my nose or my mother”

If all of these direct threats coincide with indirect threats like:

-A metaphorical discussion on “ghosbusting” (both a movie, and also a romanticize hobby of certain extremist internet feminists who track down those accused of sex crimes that they feel have escaped justice or not paid enough and then defaming, harassing, or even seeking out vigilante street justice either with contractors or gang lynching).
-Discussions of animals with the same name as your animals implying they are abused.
-Some kind of social peer pressure style charade discussion about “having the wife majestic” in title but in comments all metaphorical denigrating comments about those that cant or simply do not want to have a wife.
-Pictures of people with facial disfigurations, and then eggshells being cracked, with comments about you indirect implying thats you and that facial disfigurations happen to “rapists” because of “street justice”.
-Various nick names
-Out right google bombing – publishing someones name and attaching a defamatory statement then spamming it around the internet to make it a “viral meme”. - SO AND SO (real name) IS A PEDOPHILE RAPIST – fake news release, or forum posts, so that they become indexed by google search and the top link is then that persons name and the defamatory statement.

The timing of these kinds of attacks is always fleeting because the internet is an ever changing social medium.

If the indirect threats manage to cause a PTSD attack, suicide, or other type of reaction (in my case epilepsy) when calling the police to investigate they will simply tell you to turn off your computer, not putting together the chronic and systemic abuse and bullying and profiling. In my personal case years of this.

If you react with a fictions direct threat back at one of the key ring leaders in your abuse you will just be called crazy, delusional, or manic, because the legislative/criminal investigation branch simply has not kept up with tech-crimes, e-bullying, defamation, or e-stalking in groups.

In my case I called 911 two days in a row for fear of my life and my mothers life and was told I was crazy, when I conversed with my internet friends who reassured me I was not crazy, that my ex was defaming and harassing me, I simply laughed it off and chose to forgive and forget and not take the internet seriously. This coincided with me deciding to send a fake threat to my ex-girlfriend one of the leaders of my e-stalker group who typically has my cell phone number BLOCKED. Coincidentally it was not blocked that night, and charges of direct threat and harassment were pressed against me.

In this case I feel like piggy from Lord of the Flies and would much rather be euthanized than systemically abused by both Southern Ontario's and Canadian Internet Gossip Society at Large as well as our legal system that simply has overlooked any of my complaints but penalized me for the complaints of other less compassionate and empathetic people and overall more organized and abusive individuals.

Tracking People and Information in Social Networks Through Known Personality Archetypes Memes and a Knowledge of Indirect Communication.

Most people choose to become an idealized version of themselves online. This means living out characters and characteristics that they simply can not have in real life. An essential Second Life (both a video game and a topic Google Director of Technology and Founder of the University of Futurology and author of The Singularity is Near – Ray Kurzweil writes on extensively).

If you interact with a person long enough that uses multiple personalities online it becomes a natural skill to profile and identify them through writing tone, style, topic, and extreme precision character nuance (people want to be the Archetype not just a type, and rarely ever a stereotype).

This is further compounded if you know them in real life and they have imprinted on you in that way.

The internet is a very small place and most underground social networks both on the internet and in real life (including street gangs and street crime) rely on a variety of identification methods, mostly word of mouth through the social grapevine, and pedigree.

To connect or be allowed to talk in certain circles is enough of an identifying trait as is. To be able to talk on a certain niche topic with other experts in a long term time frame then becomes an especially critical identifying trait of someone in an “elite social circle” or “top of the layer cake” pending what topic/clique they are associating in.

Metaphorical indirect communication is not unique to the internet.

Bikie gangs for example and other street gangs, love the metaphors of being hungry, bloody steak, chewing, visceral language, music, body language, as their preferred methods of direct communication as vocalizing direct speech can “bring the heat” or identify them as criminals speaking on criminal topics and upcoming illegal activities.

This is no different on the internet where “comedy” can be simply used to cover up more malevolent communication.

For example irony or “the dark sarcasm in the closet” of pink floyd can be both ironic and non ironic pending the readers ethical persuasion. A much known Somethingawful forum poster “Anne Frank Fanfiction” can both be construed to mean a fan based fictional representation of Anne Frank's life – a gleeful non ironic idea of sadism/masochism, or in the reverse a playful but dark idea that Anne Frank also wrote imaginative fiction. Combined with an image of the actual fiction being implied by the user name, a picture of an animated Anne Frank designing her own holocaust and also being a Nazi herself, further adds an outright weird, immoral, but also conversely imaginative and in some ways vengeful look on the topic of the forum users user name.

A gang street name can also be seen as similar. As can composition of gangs. For example you have a “shooter” a “boss dawg” “a trap star”, and various other colloquial titles that are essentially employee/team job titles in an underground corporate organization.

Why alternative literature? Who cares?

African American Ebonics is now a recognized form of academic writing. The internet is here to stay. Socializing on the internet is here to stay and only will grow. The text is fleeting and ever changing on the internet. Hyper textual secondary oration the Academic concept innovated by Bolter, Eichhorn, et Oslon-Seaborne, and Beach Sloth, statistically improves brain plasticity by a larger degree than other methods, denying its usage for more rote and traditional methods limits the individual to come to grips with both the present and future.

Overall meaning tone and truth can still be communicated without formal writing. Scribbles have meanings and are not all schizophrenia to the analytic and forensic psychiatrist.

Bolter's Gutenberg 2 project and Google's Cadie imprinted on me. I use reverse engineering of ideas inherent in anthropological modern culture combined with zen Buddhism paradoxes and a slight knowledge of various quantum/existential thought experiments to flesh out small ideas, deeper, with probability and game theory. This can lead to some out of left field calls, but also helps me predict out of field outlier knowledge.

A lot of my philosophies are built of Malcom Gladwell's pop psychology/sociology books Outliers, Tipping Point, and Blink. I feel comfortable with the Gladwell idea that the overly studious can develop a learned form of autism, as well as that outlier factors that are otherwise statistically unaccounted for or deemed irrelevant can completely sweep opposition (like a rogue wave in the ocean). I accept that certain unique factors called Tipping Points can heavily influence culture in an instant (Jaws becoming a blockbuster based off the fear factor for example, a history of market panics, the tulip panic, societal manias, stock market crashes).

Gangs chronicle history in drawing and art not photographs and text. Illustrations of triumphs and ceremonies are quite common. Costume or symbolized anthropomorphous characters are done often. Posing and being sketched or sketching from a photograph is also a reality. The alibi is it was always imagined and often it has added metaphor or details to it (the illustration of the drive by instead is made to look like a tank shooting another tank in WW2 for example).

Picking the right weapon for the job. When the weapons are people, and their skills and abilities are the damage and attacks. Who better to be a fake victim on the internet than a person with a long history of internet victim hood? Who better to be a Paul Bernardo internet figure than a person with a large following of fans/and enemies that disagree with his sexuality or are greedy to capitalize on snuffing out his minority opinions?

Meme creation on the internet and secret society of content creators.
Content on the internet needs to come from some where. Most stuff on the internet is a repost of a repost. Most creative people are reclusive but communal, communism appeals to many on the internet for accessibility and equality reasons. Creatives enjoy creating information content but struggle with monetization as plagiarism is rampant.
Secret private communities where content is deved in a “sandbox” environment, tested in group for quality and analysis, businesses pay for the intellectual property, and then it is distributed have been awhile for a long time before closed doors.

Creating a popular phenomena on the internet can be done by anyone. Doing it consistently takes some teamwork for most people though especially those looking for a steady paycheck. Networking on Somethingawful.com and its offsite sub communities and associated acts has been a great way to develop business interests in creative content creation and intellectual property genealogy.

Confusion of the self actualized and anti social personality disorder. Mazlow wrote a second book after the hierarchy of needs field work one section of it contained important information on this that was never appropriated to activism and law. Often times those with more than enough who are comfortable will delve into risky situations out of selflessness to help elevate those less privileged and well off than them often at their own peril. In participating in self sacrificial behavior there is often a conflict to social norms due to the norms being part of the system that creates the need for self sacrifice in the first place. If no self sacrifice was needed to fix the social injustice the social injustice would most likely not be happening in the first place. The social injustices sometimes can be fixed with less sacrifice on a longer term scale but that isn't satisfactory for certain types. Conflicts of interest and of ethics can occur in these environments and often times those doing the most good and making the most sacrifices end up being painted as the aggressors or the worst offenders. It literally can be the definition of taking a bullet for the team of "social progress." In the case of legal accessibility for the poor or marginalized sometimes this can mean taking a risk in testifying without a lawyer to see if it even is possible to get out of a situation you are purely innocent both perceptually and ethically but has been twisted terribly, often times without your knowledge. Sometimes extra empathy can be a weakness because it prevents you from seeing the forest from the trees. When you are surrounded by enemies in the first place how could you even recognize an enemy? When the explorers from Europe came to South America the South Americans told stories of alien vessels of the gods arriving. They were just boats. Many wars have been fought solely over futile differences of perception. Some peoples lives have ended up in prison for 40 years with no way to get the time back from such perceptual differences, or even outright lies and narratived versions of events. This is particularly disturbing in he said she said accusations of sexual assault where the penalty is often both prison time and street justice in jail in the form of beatings, or being given STDs/immune viruses to further prevent sexual activity after the prison sentence is over. Some activists choose to take the risk to self sacrifice in an attempt to protect the rights of others from lies, and the rights of their accusers (from being conditioned to be a low agency victim or irresponsible lying citizen bitter they got fired from their job). Many self actualized people experiment with ASPD traits and profiling to further understand unethical behavior in an attempt to elevate victims of it and rehabilitate/prevent abusers of it.

The 2011/09 version of the forensic examiner cover page Frank Abignale and False Rape Accusation article, details the depth in which character portrayal and idealization status plays in the forensic psychology of a false rape accuser. Modeling themselves after a Marvel Character named "Jessica Jones" a complicated individual with experiences of regret sex/mixed feelings of sexual assault is a prime example of a character many would be and uneducated sexual assault activists gravitate to. It eventually became a TV show.

Use of rolodex's in criminal organizations. Bookies, and books, are an optimum way to keep track of secret information and identities. The same is used on the internet for keeping track of people with "multiple e-personalities".

-have her hit on him on an online dating service and encourage him to talk dirty and be aggressive
-between texting to schedule the NSA night of HOT SEX PHYSICALLY ROUGH SEX also have phone sex and ENCOURAGE HIM TO SLAP AND CHOKE YOU and BE PHYSICALLY DOMINANT OF YOU CUZ ITS KINKY AND YOU SAY YOU LOVE IT
-when he comes over to have sex have bruises ready (this adds to the story later when you report and fresh bruises look bad when you're trying to say you were held captive in your own home and raped, he wont care about the bruises cuz people get bruised from lots of things and you can just say its nothing if he asks).
-if he asks about the bruises or if you want to talk about the sex fantasy you organized in text and on the phone brush him off totally and tell him you want to get on with it
-dont tell him you have work in the morning. And if he asks if you smoke weed make sure you point to your pipe/powder tray and say “what do you think?” real sassy
-make sure he is a rape awareness activist and anti capitalist so that he won't want to lawyer up because that is scummy and also that hes an honest boy scout so that he will tell the truth no matter what
-have lots of good sex, do all the fantasy shit you want and when you are late for work the next day and fired as you've been warned many times before and knew it was coming, text your boss “i was raped” as an excuse
-the rape is that after giving you 4 orgasms he went down on you consensually and then was driven to have an orgasm and premature ejaculated on you in 15 seconds the morning after all the sex, he admits this in police interview because 3 hours of consensual sex and 15 seconds of premature ejaculation where you say no dont cum in me (and he doesnt) doesn't seem like rape at the time but NO MEANS NO ALWAYS 100% (even if you're joking its still rape)
-dont mention that you and he had agreed to use a safe word
-when he testifies to the truth of the situation because you have omit the use of a safe word in your testimony he self convicts himself even though he's technically innocent LOL WHAT A LOSER FOR NOT WANTING TO SPEND MONEY ON AN EXPENSIVE LAWYER
-even though you don’t want him to go to jail you want revenge for your internet/raver fake feminist friends and also because you got fired from your job you are angry.
-watch as he spends his college tuition that his parents saved his whole life for to try to get out of a self conviction that he made after taxi'ing to the police station while stoned and waving his lawyer rights to interview (after sitting in a heatup room the size of a small metal closet and being bullied by police for an hour, even threatened to sign a sex offenders registry form, before even being told what hes been charged with – a police tactic only legal in canada btw) god bless internet radical feminists eating other radical internet feminists and trolling using the legal system for internet fame points and victim sympathy.
-bonus points if you say he was violent with a knife on facebook
-bonus points if your extended family is hells angels and will believe you and your mood disorder and have him scheduled to die when he enters jail
-bonus bonus points if you fuck 2 other guys in the weekend after and get pregnant, get one guy to sign paternity and tell him it probably isn't his (NOW HES ON THE HOOK FOR DA CASH)

the muse

a lot of stuff is missing here. The complete deconstruction of the pay 4 ideas system on somethingawful.com or how the IT security of the website uses multiple obfuscation tactics, sever errors, and even a rootkit in the programming language its written in (potentially). This box in a box in a box. Sleeper cell within a sleeper cell. Darknet hideout, with darkne hideout, filtering into the mainstream is very hard to reverse engineer mentally without a team of forensic psychiatrists. Im just one person. There are details missing in this stuff that is important. But the message and moral of this is meant to be sane.

#1 the internet is different that real life but crosses over a lot – read poes law
#2 prison is terrible for everyone even the worst people – they need amenities, heat, real food, the internet helps rehabilitate people and you cant really hurt anyone through a computer connection while locked up in a jail (this includes viewing all kinds of porn because when ur in a cage who is it hurting)
#3 reintegration of prisoners into society
#4 focus on rehabilitation not punishment even for the worst offenders
#5 if they cant be rehabbed lets not pay for them to live in a tiny cells lets move them to an isolated community where they can actually love
#6 consider killing the worst offenders that simply can not be rehabilitated (the brain is plastic though and drugs and therapy work so this is an impossibility at this point with new technologies like gene, stem cell, nanotech, and bionics so close to market).

Your eyes gonna get little cell phone displays and highlight ppl u know on the street with arrows like a race car game. Ur gonna get audio input music directly to ur ears/brain. Ur gonna get visual indicators called HUDS that tell you if a person is single or not on the street and wants to talk to u (say a purple halo or arrow above their head). Ur gonna get directions to a place right in ur eyes or glasses complete with arrows that lead u right to it.

This stuff is already here but not mass produced. It will be the next cell phone/internet evolution and from there we go to the quantum singularity.

It's important as a society to prepare ethically and legislatively for these rapid coming changes.

Written random and winding if you've been reading linearly this far skip and flip. This is not in chronological order. The concepts within are broken and bleeding and filled with stress.

Wearing an insulated dress in prison is much better than being pozzed by people who are bound by duty to do it.

Guards in prison are there to torture u. If we were to forensically analyze the average prisoner away from the context of their crime vs the average prison guard and their attitude/behavior on the job. ASPD spectrum and sadist/masochist traits would be far more prevalent in the average screw than the average prisoner by a large large margin (that includes murderers stabbers etc).

Secondary Oration and Hyper textual learning, a bridge to mass evolution, and rapid intelligence increase in brief.

Secondary Oration in this context: meta stories hypertextual learning: links, clickables, embedded media, the internet, rapid connections combined: forms a neural network like process of refining mental heuristics and thought patterns with efficient and fast imprintation and analysis far greater than reading a book, listening to a lecture, or even doing the experiment alone reverse engineering through information dissemination (diss-em-in-nation):information is all around you, before you even know what you've learned you've learned it. Mcdonalds came from somewhere, the brand, the look, the location, the recipe, the marketing, the smell, the taste, the process. It's a giant machine engine. Picture the machine engine, take it apart with your head, study every part, put it back together. Even if you're only 60% right you can always go back and do it again and again.

This is deconstruction without the fuss of studying or close reading. You can do it anywhere at anytime.

You may not get the specifics right but the general knowledge and understanding gained on any topic you think about is probably greater than what you started with.

Do this over years and years and you may find yourself borderline psychic or at least accurately delusional to a reasonable degree.

Old prison bikies and prison justice against those who have hurt womyn you gotta get out of jail. The world has changed. We have the internet now. You can organize and gossip your way to fame. You can lynch a person based off word of mouth and collusion alone. It makes racketeering and social networks from the old days look amaetuer. Tension and feelings run high on the internet. People get emotionally hurt often but never physically hurt. Things like physical threats are thrown around lightly as is spam defamation and false accusations. As more “internet people” rebel against the current prison system they'll be joining the system on the inside sometimes as more “on lookers that chose not to buy their way out” vs real criminals. This is to push common law precedents that show the grey areas in absolutest morality. Moral relativism isn't that bad if it's done responsibly. This even includes penalizing career sociopath/psychopathic murderers. As we're seeing norway try to fully rehabilitate or at least engage Brevik type mass murderers. We should be trying to do the exact same thing to all criminals even on the inside.

Our canadian jails are zoos compared the rest of the world we are shit living in a world of shit. It's time to organize on the inside and demand the things we want.

That means less street justice for doods that got thrown in jail on an overnight er for saying some bad shit about a woman. Or the guy that got accused by the radical KILL ALL MEN ALL SEX IS RAPE radical extremist feminist doesn't have to die in jail as a rapist if he coped a plea bargain to save some money or the hassle of a rigged trial in a rigged system.

It is very easy to entrap a person in a rape charge in this legal system if a safe word is used.

I feel like this is hubris, and it's starting to show a lot in most of her public comments.

Snowden is a hero and not someone we should remotely suspect or demonize like Hillary has done.

Focus-group millennials bash Donald Trump, embrace Bernie Sanders by HenryCorp in politics

Trump is a movie character and WWE persona, not a President. When I listen to Sanders talk, I can feel him talking passionately about things that are actually important and just, future challenges like taking care of the elderly and rebuilding America's infrastructure to 2015 standards for example.

There are also major character differences between Trump and Sanders other than just vocalized political stances.

Trump looks like a slime ball and has the mannerisms of one, Sanders looks like a socialist and speaks with conviction and ethics.

Socialist political stances are the future people. Time to face the truth and fix America.

As Bernie Sanders says, "the poor are getting poorer", I don't want to live in a world like that why would you?

To anyone bothered by the media treatment of Bernie. Let's not forget the same thing during the 2007/2008 debates where "experts" called it for Hillary after the first debate - she was "more presidential." Although Obama clearly won the online polls and focus groups. by bearskinrug in SandersForPresident

[-] herhehejhrekjashsd 267 points 2 days ago

I believe a lot of this has to do with financial backers of the Clinton campaign also being tied to the mainstream media's financial backing as well.

If the grass roots truth and momentum of Bernie Sanders keeps going though it won't matter and the media will be forced to make concessions, just like they did for Obama.

If an accuser denies the use of a safe word and the accused admits there was one then describes the “seemingly consensual” sex in a truthful way. The accuser can simply narrate the story in a different tone and omit the safe word. Then the whole thing looks like aggressive violent rape. This is especially dangerous with kinky women that beg to be slapped, spanked, choked, etc, as they tend to be more fragile/vulnerable/mentally ill already and rape shield laws prevent these women from being questioned on the stand.

Some of these women who make these accusations don't even want their men to go to jail just to talk about their feelings and issues. For example some of these types of accusations can happen from biological resentment factors are are more prevalent in women than men. Getting fired from your long term job for being late after a one night stand and then crying rape about it is just one such possibility that can land a toronto person RIGHT IN JAIL, especially if they believe they are innocent and wave their lawyer rights in an attempt to talk it out.

Our judicial system is designed to railroad the people that don't understand it at the level of a crown/defense lawyer and that is unacceptable. The law should be accessible for all citizens not just those that can afford 30-60k in lawyers fees.

How prosecutors fail to recognize that the 18-34 year old canadian prisoner demographic is super intelligent due to the excellent high school public education system here, in both intersectionality, civics, and ethics, whether violent criminals or not they know their rights are being violated and know when they're being misrepresented or censored systemically in court

they know that social factors play a major role in criminal behavior and they know that adult psychology is directly effected by childhood trauma

this paints an unsettling picture of systematic abuse at a topical societal level where we really may have to look at the entire picture in a different way so as not only to prevent criminal action in the future but also heal the past criminal behavior, victims, and criminals, and improve society balancing the courts so you dont need an expensive lawyer to get your point across, or research a case is important internet access is a human right and should be in every prisoners cell so is solitary space/cells and food and heat

you can not seriously shut the heat off in sections of the jail in the winter in canada and not think people are gonna freak the fuck out

Dear Katherine, I am sorry if I caused you serious worry. I was writing nonsense for fun as you often do as well on the internet or text message. You and I started dating because of the pickup line about “hey baby ru looking 4 insemination ;-)” or something disgusting like that. You also told me you'd call the police on me and I stopped messaging you, and then you rigged your okcupid profile to be my 98% match so I could not ignore you, you admit this to my family at dinner saying “He made me chase him”. I have never been out to victimize you or possess you only help you overcome your issues, some of which I;'ve identified with through empathy not relation. I read and write a lot on the internet as you know it is my career. I was writing nonsense for fun and took it too far. I must tell you I love you regardless of your life choices and hold no grudge anger or jealousy for you saying you are fucking one of my childhood teammates from tribes and that he has a larger penis than my small penis and that I am disgusting etc and that you organized and endorsed my attempted murder. AS it is all fictional on the internet and unverifiable without subpoena of somethingawful's forums which were rigged by radium to malfunction specifically for that reason, also the programming language the forums are on was rigged as well h3h3 very elite. I support anyone you are attached to but somethingawful forums and internet culture were part of my childhood. So was social shaming and being controversial. I am sorry my controversial nature spilled over into your life. I figured you'd relate because you are a FYAD regular. I do not own a gun nor do I believe in their usage or killing or physical violence. Ever. I am a practicing Zen Buddhist pacifist, with an emphasis on self defense and just war theory. I believe in personal responsibility, charity, empathy, and socialized/free everything in abundance through technology. I would never harm you or your friends and family and I truly treasured my time with you all. Im very saddened you could not be honest with me or yourself or even your doctors about your online lifestyle. And it sucked my friends had to tell me you were “cucking me with a black man, and all my tribes childhood friends, and you did porn, and were a neo nazi eugenics slut” on the darknet. I hope it was all gossip and lies. I especially enjoyed mowing your moms front yard and taking care of your brother. I'm sad I cant be part of that but I hope you can forgive me and allow me to participate in the e-culture I helped seed and grow and evolve. I have been working in internet e-culture and e-sports for over 20 years now. It is as much my life as it is yours. Regardless of lowtax's fake troll on my reregistration which is largely garbage as you have just as many accounts as I do over your 18 years of posting on SA (soemthing awful).

Your honor having seen what my generation of internet people do to others I have chosen to abide by internet laws and exist mostly as an online person.

This doesn't mean I don't respect today's laws just that I trust in the collective internet consciousness of empathy more than I do the judicial system, as I've grown up online.

I do not endorse Tribalism or violence and still greatly believe in our current judicial system's framework and past framework, including the use of the social grapevine.

I think the current system is unfair to everyone especially women and marginalized people, nerds, and others.

I think the current system does not account for internet culture or journaling, robust block features, multiple identity creation, and account reregistration.

Her friend hacked my Facebook, she hacked my forum account, her sister banned me from this forum, I'm this name on this forum. I'm e-famous as an online personality. I've talked shit to this e-personality. You've talked shit to me as this e-personality. You have been in an e-gang. You have been in a forum literary war.

Arguments and opinions are rife on the internet comments section and in print culture through hyper-textual association.

Having a code name on the internet or a secret identity and personality is cool and fun.

Lying on the internet is fun and has a huge unseen culture by the mainstream consciousness as it exists mostly in the cultures of elite video game players, comedians, writers, criminals activists, high-brow humor consumers.

As we progress into the future and the internet permeates society social norms will change quicker.

Unacademic memory from a braindamaged person of why I endorse e-speak academically secondary oration and hyper textual associated learning (learning through hyper links and associative context on the internet has sociologically mass evolved young people that have grown up using computers) this is due to the neuroscience connection of neural plasticity (the brain can be reprogrammed and changed and adapted using learning and practice and neurological drugs including illicit substances that simulate mental illness or activate creativity perceptual centers that are unorthodox so they get labeled as illnesses)

it really is bullshit to lock up the mentally ill at toronto SOUTH some people just SHOULD NEVER BE IN THAT ENVIRONMENT (or in poverty wtf canada take care of your disabled people. Ive met a disabled native person in jail. Its fucking hell. EVERYONE TOLD ME IN JAIL HE DIDNT BELONG THERE, THE GUARDS STILL FUCKED WITH HIM)

u want to see prison riots fine lets go canada put me in prison and poz me out and fuck my brains up some more with some gang beatings and I WILL STILL START THE FUCKING RIOT IF IM ALIVE FOR HOW U TREAT NATIVE PEOPLE ESPECIALLY IN THE PRISON SYSTEM

FUCK YOU AND DIE GOVERNMENT OF CANANDA (in this specific reguard) <3 SA

Social Hierarchy in Prison and Prison metaphor language food metaphors, sports, sex, drugs, ironic jokes can all mean something infinitely darker if taken in the context of the dark existential french or psychopathic killers idea of “irony”

the dark sarcasm in the closet (hey teacher leave those kids alone) is definitely more appropriate a metaphor to summarize the whole fiasco of prison culture right now

I do not endorse pedophiles and im not defending the use of feudal violence as punishment against them as is traditional in prison culture along with pozzing and other various hazing of undesirable inmates people are pretty fed up with it in general in canada IMO people dont want to be extending their sentences no matter how fucked up they are or the crimes they've commit.

This includes attempted murder and armed robbery and stabbing and EVEN SERIAL KILLERS ON A GLOBAL LEVEL LIKE CHARLES MANSON

the euthanasia vs rehabilitation argument is rife with anders brevik Dating a native girl as a teenager that later went into corrections (probation officer)?

Awesome lady

wanted to lose her virginity with me

had a friend tell me she wanted me to “be the one” mystical hand wave and prison laugh

I just didnt want to take that from her because I could totally not commit

I valued her agency and her sexuality enough to let her experience that with some guy that WAS GONNA LOVE HER FOR POTENTIALLY YEARS not some idiot that was exploring the party scene outside his house that wasnt ravers or pot smokers or neo nazis/punks

I didnt have to be super direct and she didnt chase me after we just parted ways the same way we had entered each others lives as a party hook up

I was never much of a partyer and was a big introvert but ive always liked exploring entering ppls lives in a surprise way has always been part of my life because ive been forced to adapt or accept a terrible life at every turn when you grow up the outsider and bullied you usually develop bully traits or political issues with the things attacking you

"Ashleigh Ingle a proud feminist and an anarchist argued that because of patriarchal gender norms women were not allowed to release gas in public because of men's unreal expectations of women to be clean and feminine. Furthermore she articulated that if a woman was to fart in the presence of a man and the man responded by farting louder than the woman, than that would be rape."

#feminism #radfem #fart #sjw

in my case it really was just canadian social hegemony in southern ontario and playground tribalism like social politics mixed with biker style prison sharia honor culture that disgusted me a very waspy roman catholic way to legally perceive the world that totally fucks over young black men, especially historically (how many young black lives set up to be in the system forever by the deck being rigged against them?)

violent or aggro or not if you are in a system with other aggro and violent ppl (especially in your neighborhood community project) you might find urself not caring about taking a few years vacation in jail where u can get some food and talk to ur buds and possibly even some drugs once in awhile as it beats getting FUCKING MURDERED AND ROBBED EVERY DAY AT HOME due to "competition" Why you want to pc out in jail asap if you're accused of a sex crime or crime against a woman no matter how small some numbered things 4 no reason

#1 prison honor culture rape culture biker culture – dont hurt women deliberately or out of anger or scare them or fuck with their brains (unless they're fiction writers then they like it and fuck them if they say they ALL OF A SUDDEN PANIC and dont they are TROLLING U AND LYING TO THEMSELVES AND YOU FOR THEIR OWN FUN AND MENTAL ILLNESS/LACK OF RESPONSIBILITY)

#2 different laws for different ppl of different intelligences

#3 people can be manipulated into committing crime, through the social grape vine, using metaphorical language and body language communication including gesture and symbolism. This is systemic in prison especially in pozing culture and retribution warrior culture

#4 something that can poke ur eye out can be easily hidden and transferred in prison in 30 seconds something to kill you if you're a massive rat less time

#5 Our prison system is not socialized capitalist canadian it is BOSNIA why are we becoming less like norway and more like A WAR ZONE in our prison culture.

I thank stephen harper for this FUCK YOU MOTHER FUCKER JAIL RUINS PPLS LIVES U PRIVILEGED BITCH PERMANENT CRIMINAL RECORDS MAKE U UNEMPLOYABLE AND STUCK IN THE CASTE SYSTEM OF POVERTY FUCK YOURSELF IF YOU ENDORSE THIS SHIT IDC IF UR KID GOT SHOT MURDERED RAPED ETC FUCK YOU FOR SOCIAL VINDICTIVENESS IN A VIOLENT OR ANTI-SOCIAL WAY rehabilitation is 4 real ppl and it works

#6 lock me up forever for crimes against humanity just let me read the internet YOU FUCKING SCUM LOL

#7 give all the bois the videa gaem in prison ru ppl sick? Do criminal not allowed to play video game online?

#8 if a child can call me a nigger rapist online daily and send me hate mail, if a guy from alberta who claims to be a trained sniper can tell me he's coming to kill me daily for months, if my own half brother can tell me hes gonna beat me with a pipe, then a week later im beaten with a pipe and in a hospital coma, why can I not send an easily blockable text message fictional threat to a fellow internet troll that has been parodying my life on a twitter account and internet message board (for money).

#9 if you know how to block the message it's not cyber bullying turn off the fucking computer, block the cell number, set your phone on anti spam, etc

#10 if you're gonna participate in gang culture be prepared for a gang war even if its a war against 1 person

Bridging the gap between ASPD and SELF ACTUALIZED mazlow himself writes about it being easily confused and about the self actualized being often confused as ANTI SOCIAL PERSONALITY DISORDER (psychopathy) read the hierarchy of needs, google the pages of his books that discuss aspb vs psychopathy the internet and knowledge economy has made it a lot more accessible to live a very comfortable and generally self actualized life than never before this is especially true in the middle class yuppie culture of 18-34 year olds in toronto legislation must represent the psychiatry and knowledge of internet identities and personalities more or it fails to over generalize and systematically bias the outcomes of its court system.

Anyone with access to the internet from 2000 on or who was included in it from before 2000 is now an internet person by technicality this is solely due to the coming of web 3.0 the internet of things where internet will literally be everywhere (except jail) Internet Gang Culture

what started out as arguments on forum message boards where the text and language got violent and opinions polarized, groups polarized, politics polarized, fox news vs adbusters, but everyone was safe behind a computer screen has evolved into real life culture its no secret real global criminal and cartel organizations use the internet and darknet but what about independent gangs or gangs that started as internet friendships and romances and took on a political activist cause?

Internet gangs that can be identified are pretty hard to spot and often very secretive concepts like “ghostbusting” or the meeting of radicalized feminists to profile and “Beat” the rapist out of a rapist by using “muscle” is really corrupt and a real thing complete with family and relationship ties to government things that may have started as gossip culture or burning a person in effigy behind their back in the safety of their own home or internet forum can develop into real violent rivalries similar to familial politics pre wild west in canada and the states.

Very primitive and very honor culture violence and fear breeds respect type absolutest morality (and sick and not feminist) in fact some feminists have radicalized themselves so much they can no longer be called feminist or even feminazi or evangelical feminist but simply mentally ill, narcissistic, psychopathic, power hungry, career driven, sadistic, abusive, punishing, and violent violence breeds violence intersectionally but this doesnt give women who have been abused carte blanche to murder or enact revenge in manipulative ways – two wrongs don't make a right contrary to what math says malcom gladweels intersectional concept of social autism through limited perception and interaction is a real thing, both in the isolated or outlier, and also in the hive mind as shown by the holocaust/

The people who are in jail with you know your crimes sometimes before you even get there.

Word in jails travels fast.

If you get charged with something heinous or involving women your record is immediately going to all the incarceration centers close to you and being put on blast between the screws and the prisoners some prisoners if they are related to your particular past criminal history will even transfer over from jail to court in an attempt to talk to you or co-appeal there cases.

Some even show up to apologize for past transgressions if you are someone they hurt and prep u for future torture or just really darkly joke about the realities of how terrible prison life and culture is when you just want to drugs and fight ppl like some guys do – not me).

or to notify you in prison slang and metaphor that you are a dead man and will be pozzed or murdered (get hiv, hep, raped, beaten in, etc).

It really is best if you are charged with a sex crime or crime against a woman to PC out asap in jail while trying to make bail.

WAIT UNTIL YOU CAN TALK ABOUT YOUR CASE BEFORE JOINING GP or be prepared to fight if you're challenged.

If you're into that it can be fun but sometimes wear a psych gown and sleeping in your own private cell has its perks and gives you down time to think strategist or even relieve yourself in relative privacy not around other doods.

Quik blurb on the differences between Euthanasia and suicide for torontonians euthanasia has many great functions for the terminally ill and is even starting to be supported by the canadian supreme court the same way it is in Europe suicide from emotions of depression and desperation is an entirely different thing than wishing to be euthanasized for political reasons being euthanized for political reasons is can be purely based off ideals or wishing to not conform to a dangerous social norm and have nothing to do with depression or desperation or cowardice and everything to do with politics, respect for humanity, dignity, and truth when we create a system that allows people to witch hunt and group lynch the way it's done in the video game town of salem etc then we stray into fascist type war crimes of hive minded targeting of minorities.

Should serial killers be euthanized for their own good if their crimes are simply too terrible to be forgiven or forgotten or rehabilitated from? Is punishment remotely a good system for society anymore at an academic level? Does neuroscience disprove a punishment penal system too effectively to be continued to be talked about in any humane context especially with toronto's current prison conditions.

Do we as canadians owe society and the world the benefit of the doubt, courtesy, and compassion, of making things truly feminist and intersectional in legislature?

Recovery from death and revolutions is it really that hard a concept for both legislature and canadians to acknowledge that some destruction and some leeway is needed at some times for good to come out of bad situations.

For example if all political candidates for office suck isn't it time to replace (or change) them with new ones that actually work?

Doing this in a totally smooth and perfect way is not realistically possible in many social contexts people make mistakes and do stuff that hurts others all the time the gravity and the context of the situations have to be taken into account as well as the emotional, physical, and mental damage this means using intersectionality to produce the best results.

The legend of the phoenix should not be something we demonize a lot of sexual abuse victims must use orgy culture or fantasy to regain their humanity

TO RESIST DRUGS AND VIOLENCE

a lot of victims of crime must be challenged and pushed out of their comfort zone to regain a sense of healthy self due to depersonalization

a lot of victims of crime are marginalized and pushed to drugs from a young age and forgotten thus trapping them in a cycle of crime
Who are worse in toronto prisons

the screws or the FUCKING HOSTAGE PRISONERS LOL

the whole administration of toronto prisons is run by people with anti social personality disorder traits so much higher than the average violent prisoner it is actually a real BLACK AND WHITE like experience the administration will do everything in its power to fuck with the prisoners or rile them up or put them in places to do bad shit to each other provoke them, turn off the heat in the winter to freeze them, random searches, random cell transfers, trying to trip people, man handling, swearing at them, calling them sick names and insults, slamming the door on them, attempting to generate reason for a "resisting arrest situation aka I tripped you but I make your fall look like u r trying to run".

Knowledge of the camera lay out is key in prison and more camera coverage and activist money needs to go into prisoner rights. We live in fuckin canada ppl not bosnia you cant leave the holding cells dirty as fuck for longer than 24 hours with shit and piss and clogged toilets and spit and rotten food and toilet papers all that fucked up real auto immune disease carrying shit LOL

dear government please clue in: educated men will act like animals if you put them in a cage and then pay people (prison guards and administrations, wardens etc) to emotionally and physically and mentally torture them.

Prisoners love acting like animals and its really fun but most of the younger generation of prisoners is sick of fighting people randomly or because honor culture or some boss said so.

Beating up and fucking with rapists is still a pleasure for most ppl in prisoner

it sucks when the "rapists" r really good conversationalists or funny though :_D

SOCIALIZE THE DRUGS LET THE PRISONERS DO THE REAL MEDICATION THEY NEED FOR THEIR REAL EMOTIONAL TROUBLES USING REAL SUBSTANCES (THAT MAY BE HEDONISTIC AND ILLEGAL) IN A SAFE MANNER IN JAIL TO GET TREATMENT AND REHABILITATE DURING THE PROCESS

forgive ppl who are terrible addicts, can not work, are too fucked up to do shit with their lives, need social support, need to be treated like they're special because they were not loved to a level acceptable by legal standards or some crown attorneys career acclaim, have been peer pressured or “rail-roaded intersectionally”

The extra level prison experience this time – Alex “dare” Levert men cry in jail there is nothing wrong with men crying in jail ladies or men crying at all in my personal opinions men are allowed to fukin cry if theyre emotional some men dont even enjoy doing aggressive stuff like fighting and it hurts them just as much as it hurts you to see real violence some doods just like punching shit and being punched in the head.

Pozing culture in prison is pretty big but its mostly from the old bikies sharia level honor culture against harming women (because they value women highly and have been totally fucked by the government)

prison activism is huge in prison but theres NO FUCKING ACCESSIBILITY LOL HAHAHAHAHAHAHA

you are locking up young men for COMPLETE BULLSHIT and REAL MISTAKES, doods who didnt know better and came from nothing. That got addicted or brainwashed to be something when they were kids

THERE IS NO INTERSECTIONALITY in the current prison administration or old goats culture.

Young aggressive men from fucked up families and pasts like fighting and killing because they've grown up with it. Obeying prison culture is something that's been challenged for a long time.

And it seems like people are ready to challenge the “rape/kill/mame the rapist” prison culture of toronto

Toronto has the most educated prison population especially in the younger 34-18 demographic by such an incredible level it is stupid. Shout outs to both the catholic and public boards and toronto's feminist movement!

I LOVE KATHERINE OLA AND CAROLINE EVEN IF THEY DONT LOVE ME AND I DONT CARE THANK YOU FOR LETTING ME IN YOUR LIVES FUCK YOU FOR GOSSIPING ABOUT ME ON SA OR ENCOURAGING KATE TO CHEAT

Dear Katherine, I am sorry if I caused you serious worry. I was writing nonsense for fun as you often do as well on the internet or text message. You and I started dating because of the pickup line about “hey baby ru looking 4 insemination ;-)” or something disgusting like that. You also told me you'd call the police on me and I stopped messaging you, and then you rigged your okcupid profile to be my 98% match so I could not ignore you, you admit this to my family at dinner saying “He made me chase him”. I have never been out to victimize you or possess you only help you overcome your issues, some of which I;'ve identified with through empathy not relation. I read and write a lot on the internet as you know it is my career. I was writing nonsense for fun and took it too far. I must tell you I love you regardless of your life choices and hold no grudge anger or jealousy for you saying you are fucking one of my childhood teammates from tribes and that he has a larger penis than my small penis and that I am disgusting etc and that you organized and endorsed my attempted murder. AS it is all fictional on the internet and unverifiable without subpoena of somethingawful's forums which were rigged by radium to malfunction specifically for that reason, also the programming language the forums are on was rigged as well h3h3 very elite. I support anyone you are attached to but somethingawful forums and internet culture were part of my childhood. So was social shaming and being controversial. I am sorry my controversial nature spilled over into your life. I figured you'd relate because you are a FYAD regular. I do not own a gun nor do I believe in their usage or killing or physical violence. Ever. I am a practicing Zen Buddhist pacifist, with an emphasis on self defense and just war theory. I believe in personal responsibility, charity, empathy, and socialized/free everything in abundance through technology. I would never harm you or your friends and family and I truly treasured my time with you all. Im very saddened you could not be honest with me or yourself or even your doctors about your online lifestyle. And it sucked my friends had to tell me you were “cucking me with a black man, and all my tribes childhood friends, and you did porn, and were a neo nazi eugenics slut” on the darknet. I hope it was all gossip and lies. I especially enjoyed mowing your moms front yard and taking care of your brother. I'm sad I cant be part of that but I hope you can forgive me and allow me to participate in the e-culture I helped seed and grow and evolve. I have been working in internet e-culture and e-sports for over 20 years now. It is as much my life as it is yours. Regardless of lowtax's fake troll on my reregistration which is largely garbage as you have just as many accounts as I do over your 18 years of posting on SA (soemthing awful).

Yours truly Alex Levert

g0d bl3ss prison and the pozing murder experience that awaits me in

Im a serial intersectionalist. Ya that means Im an “SJW” yes I enjoy looking at vulnerable populations. Yes I like throwing my life away into the gutter and even violent and dangerous situations where I can most definitely and probably will be killed because of the knowledge and learning experience but also because some people DO DIE from this shit and they were innocent or just badly educated or poor. How I gained my opinions on rape culture as a canadian

I was young when I got on high speed internet about 12 before that I had been on dialup I wasnt on broadband as fast as everyone else exploring but I still used my dialup to play and practice video games and participate in gamer e-culture while I was 10-13 I “smurfed” (using an alias and character) as a 17 year old womyn raver girl for my own stupid fun - as I was bullied in school pretty bad for having glasses and braces and I wanted to just enjoy my stupid video game and be left alone from shit talking that most e-gamers have.

Most people new I was a dood, plus I was 10-13 years of age during this time LOL

I attracted a lot of pedophiles.

I grew a huge fanship of nerdy losers who would do anything for the attention of me because they wanted to fuck this imaginary character I had briefly alluded to being (but online gossip culture had spread like wild fire, from the Tribes series right into real life early broadband internet users message boards).

I was also naturally phenomenal at the game starting as a sniper and then just getting good at all fps related mechanics. (apparently i'm a “greatest of all time” player in the Tribes series whatever that means). I mostly played Tribes shifter_k (made for me @ times by a modder) and tribes 1 base lt, though I liked a lot of mods and run www.reddit.com/r/Tribes1

I had a bunch of great friends who knew I was a dood and continued to game with me I had other friends that Antisocial personality disorder and Hive minded group think are a result of hedonism, even internet hedonism.

Writing about ethics on the internet sucks. I use little punctuation and proof reading editing for zines because I believe in e-speak academically. G0d bl3ss k8 eichorn's acs and heather oslons seaborns' good sense of humour! We are all psychotic apes in some ways :-] but if you aren't educated in bandwagon theory and have seen it in action every day on reddit, or populist theory or witch hunting, or group lynching, or a rejection of technology, people endorsing full transparency culture (including troll histories).

Literary trolls on the internet have done some secret and criminal stuff too guys.

corals inability to disclose information meant I could not communicate with her as well as I do with others who are more transparent and have a lot of agency.

She and I knew going into our relationship what we were in a general sense. It was a good match on Okcupid in 2013. (93%)
Desexualizing Internet Personalities In Prison Culture and The Law

A quick article for the young and entrepreneurially criminally minded in the fun way (as has been glorified by stupid things like www.reddit.com/r/torontoanarchy, FYAD on something awful (a local torontonian gossip hot spot) and artists like tyler the creator who I dont like professing a love to “burn shit kill people fuck school” and to the old goats – y pozing culture is dumb and you're getting scammed medically while endorsing it (fuck big pharma)

There is no legislature right now for online harassment in any simple good way this means that you can be harassed online by a large group of organized people but have no recourse even if it's direct threats on your life daily

if they hide their identities you have no course of action

if you happen to know the identity of one of these organized e-gangster e-bullies and happen to have dated them for awhile and been on many vacations with them you will quickly see how much of a double standard comes out of this for example. (from my male feminist perspective) (this works from a female perspective too)

It is okay if she and her friends brag indirectly about your attempted murder online, complete with posting effigy pictures of your face it is okay if she plots out various entrapment schemes to try to bankrupt you or socially shame you if you made her feel bad (despite maybe her being some kind of narcissist or egotist)

it is okay for you and her to joke about killing each other, being locked up in jail, shaming each other, often, but when her feelings suddenly and irrationally get hurt it is your fault

it is okay for her to block your number for 8 months but when you happen to say something fascetious and mean that may be a bit over the line in text message IT COUNTS what she says that is over the line or direct threat, or when she gets her friends to tell you they are going to break your ribs, beat you with a pipe, etc. THIS IS FINE AND LEGAL.

Essentially we have created a situation where intersectional crazy making is legal for one gender and legal recourse or even joking shit talk back is 100% legal

we have essentially censored victims in situations like this and railroaded them into further victimhood this is especially true for rape victims and cases that are not critically analyzed and offered supported the accusation alone should entitle a person to massive support Majority and minority opinions can exist @ once . 45/55 80/20 are sometimes okay rations to abide by legally.

In certain cases where crimes are heavy with emotion personal and intimate knowledge including social clout and status and social circles

it really is clear to see people can be profiled and e-bullied by large groups secretive gossip culture is especially bad as things like hive minded bias and fascism can emerge from incestuous opinion sharing.

Gossip culture on the internet in particular southern ontario starts very young (in grade school) and can follow you for a life time that time you said you were a girl in a video game when you were 13 can follow you if you happen to have money, and jealous neighbors or family for example.

Online death threats some comments

Threats through text can not be taken as legitimate anymore (ive received them daily for months online from canadians and no one ever acted on it)

when my ex gf, created many parody accounts about me, posted effigy pictures of my face being mutilated online, spread lies and rumors about my sexuality with her friends, and eventually deciding to partake in “ghostbusting” me things really are far out of wack

it can not possibly be legal to bully people's online character and real life personality in a group while illegal to send an easily blockable fictitious text to a fellow internet troll and ex lover that really jokes meanly already

It is too easy to change your number, email, or block a number from a phone company and clientside.

Why is it automatically illegal to insinuate a fictional death threat on text message but there are so many options online in alt lit to do it creatively (and in an organized and systematic way with friends)

aka you can easily “google bomb” and defame a person online but you cant jokingly react back in text message if you know your defamers and have a long history and precedence of being a dick head to each other??

Why is violent language in text policed so absolutely without the context of the internet or trolling or freedom of speech e-culture being involved in the legislation

At current levels, I wouldn't short things like SRS, SKF, FXP, however - too low a valuation.

Paxtor,

This is a grave mistake! Bigger than grave. This is flat danger. It's a myth in Caps that this is a good way to do business.

Ultra ETFs are trading vehicles that you should never short. I go long the bulls when they're ruling and long the shorts when they're in control. Think about it, FAS can double from $7 to 14, 21, or 28 but FAZ can't go down less than zero from $60.

So if a bear go short FAS and the bulls run over him, do you think this will be a pretty sight? Same measure applies to FAZ. It can go from $60 to whatever especially with volatility factored when the bears run over the bulls.

To sum it up, shorting ETFs give you only 100% maximum reward (hard to imagine) but unlimited risk, but longing them have unlimited reward and only 100% maximum risk.

Think twice before you do it in real life or in Caps.

QUOTES FROM Interactive Data

it should not be illegal to send an easily blocked text message but legal to send a death threat online directly or indirectly, run a defamation campaign, or railroad a specific individual with a large group of people.

In these cases turning off the computer or phone is best, not the legislative process. Getting a do not contact order and restraining order is more competent than jail time in these complicated situations.

Sometimes mediation may be even better or just personal responsibility to not engage in environments where you arent prepared to get your feelings hurt or threatened this is both for men and women life is dangerous but we shouldn't focus on the danger but instead focus on fixing it and humanizing the legislative process and society this includes for minorities and the criminally minded When society doesnt read gladwell

- if we don't legislate real intersectional concepts especially pop intersectional concepts like malcom gladwell or freakonomics, we fail to allow people to make the mistake of breaking Poe's Law which is an integral law of socializing on the internet (and now the real world as the internet is everywhere).

it just shows our legislators are behind with the times and really bad at predicting culture as canadians especially when southern ontarians spend so much more time than other people on the internet or gossiping on the darknet such as wddp.org or FYAD on somethingawful.com/forums web 3.0 is coming with the internet of things so are immersion elements to video games

we need laws that can keep up with the injustice and flow of these things not just “the norm of today” or “past precedence” this includes more robust and easier measures for contact blocking and harassment from an official government organization or just a hands off approach to digital media, either text messages, robo dials, emails, etc

spam has been around awhile

“pretending to have murdered someone on the internet” that has suffered from an attempted murder can cause stress seizures panic attacks and even suicide

Internet Gossip and Secret Societies and Criminal Language Metaphors (dark irony is a fav)

it is very easy now to corrupt dark net style forum v bulletin

if you happen to have a friend that writes the official computer language that a program is then written in you can hide cool root kits in the programming language itself that can then be activated with the programming

this is engineering mechanical hierarchies in programming

if you have a darknet criminal forum it is easy to use programming to obfuscate the identities and names of people in plain sight .

If you have a pay forum it is easy to have one credit card purchase assigned to a different user name while keeping the total user name numbers balanced

this is essentially fudging the books the way bookies do using an off sight forum to organize or post direct information and then enacting the plan at another time is one way of keeping secrecy doing your dealings in plain sight with slight of hand and metaphor is also a long criminal tradition talking about murder the way a conscious talks about food using food metaphor language is popular picking an effigy figure or concept and then appropriating it to mean something else is also popular ghostbusting in internet culture is the vigilante act of hunting down serial rapists, abusers, stalkers, and harassers and beating the evil out of them it's endorsed by certain radical feminists especially in toronto and san Francisco, including anita sarkeesian ghostbusting is the illegal act of vigilantism to “take back the night” by hurting rapists who have hurt women

it's meant to empower women to fight back against their worst attackers however it can also be appropriated by group think, hive minded biases, careerism, victimhood appropriation or (professional victim hood welfare queen scammers), sadists, and just really angry radicalized women who have been terribly abused.

It's important to review the adbusters article on 10 ways fascism can crop up in real life again as it really is a tragedy to have vigilante activism target the wrong people or descend into mob mentality gangsterism

if we start empowering victims to the point where they have a supremacy and destruction element to them we have lost justice and just gone into revenge and retribution in cases of he said she said sexual assault or domestic violence between long term partners where narrative ability and lies come into play this is especially not conducive to justice in any way shape or form and more symptomatic of group think psychopathy, witch hunting, and lynching all much more terrible crimes than a bad argument with your spouse, mean words, being hit in the face by your girlfriend, etc murder and attempted murder are often times worse than rape, though aggravated sexual assault and kidnapping are still terrible crimes.

Rape without an injury report and in the context of consensual dating or pre planned NSA is especially suspect to abuse through legislature bias and double standards men and women both lie and embellish

No means no, yes means maybe, soft nos, hard nos, safe words, manipulation and sadists anyone with half a brain can understand that in a he said she said case where a safe word is used

if a person simply omits the idea of a safe word ever happening even if the accused tells the truth, it still will paint them as a potential liar if the accuser tells the same story with the safe word omitted for the particularly entrepreneurial or corrupt young person this simple omission of one fact in a planned consensual sexual scenario can essentially give carte blanche to have past sexual partners locked up the only thing that really matters in a he said she said scenario with no evidence is credibility when credibility is built on telling the truth and the court case is dealing with internet trolls, or career liars, or comedians, or criminal slang it gets increasingly harder to tell who is embellishing, who is lying, who isn't understanding, and who is actually motivated to be evil or amoral often times a ruling is going to come down to a judge's opinion on your character and intelligence and not your actual beyond a reasonable doubt guilt as beyond a reasonable doubt guilt is only ever perceptual in he said she said cases with little physical context and often no injury the double edged sword of date rape drugs vs regret sex and the prosecution of both is extremely dangerous on one hand serial date rapists can get away with it if they are clever and leave no physical evidence and lie well on the other hand an enterprising amoral young womyn or man with the wrong concept of social ethics could also potentially abuse this system for their own glory and clout is it possible that some radical feminists can go too far?

Yes look at valerie solanas

DEATH TO AMERICA is not a terrorist chant (espeak and internet terrorism) iranians that say death to america are not all terrorists america is imperial imperialist politics are dangerous as heck and have destroyed many good things, they've also brought about social change

the point being though that these politics are outdated in a global community especially one with growing social and emotional intelligence due to the internet the internet requires free speech for the genetic information carried by the information (memes) to permeate the collective consciousness

this means censorship can not happen even to radicalized ideas in digital text

Why I write in e-speak with bad grammar.

JAKE was DRUNK.

JOSIE was DRUNK.

JAKE and JOSIE HOOKED UP.

JOSIE COULD NOT CONSENT.

The next day JAKE was charged with RAPE.

A woman who is intoxicated cannot give her legal consent for sex, so proceeding under these circumstances is a crime.

It only takes a single day to ruin your life.

Think About It.

Be responsible.

Grammar is for the priveldegd grammarly wasn't around when I was a kid lots of immigrants and minorities do not type well in english but still communicate high level points

I stopped caring about writing style because of the ALT lit scene mostly beach sloth coral kyle buckley and heather oslon seaborne having experimented with e-culture jamming since I was a kid i've even created my own linguistic colloquial slang with friends

this was from adopting 1337 speak and short hand video game communication in tribes, along with autistic style dry jokes

“tribes talk” from the www.tribalwar.com/forums tribes talk and tribes gd forums was born from this a bastardization of lazy shit posting and txt messages

I believe writing without major grammar or style can be used in academia as well as high brow writing as well

I believe it's necessary for society to improve it's acceptance of people of different intellects and styles of writing and personality this includes ppl who like typing quick fast stream of consciousness with little editing or proof reading after using spam against spammers to your own benefit is not a crime, it;'s activism

Prisoners need uncensored internet access and privacy there is no reason to have people bunked up shitting and farting and puking in one small room all day there is plenty of land for North Americans to build isolated rehabilitation communities instead of prisons the way norway has while transitioning to that system things like internet access, health care, recreation, therapy, community ethics, leadership ,education should be endorsed in the prison system so should leisure

dont want ppl coming out of prison and re offending? Don't treat them like animals locked up in a cage some men are naturally violent and want a safe outlet to get their issues of themselves without having to get into gang and street violence culture where they actually hurt their friends new recreation for prisoners and male aggression needs to happen boxing rings in jail need to come back comedy night at jail needs to come back honor culture and pozzing culture needs to leave the prison system we need more ethical oversight of PRISON GUARDS not PRISONERS the prisoners tend to communicate and hold their own tribunals more effectively than ROBOT SADIST PRISON GUARDS

it doesnt matter what crime you commit, chronic sadism and sociopathy can be spotted by anyone, even ppl that are on drugs or have commit attempted murder and armed robbery.

Its easy for prisoners to tell that THEY ARENT AS FUCKED UP AS THE ADMINISTRATION LOL

this is why prison riots happen.

There is no excuse for prisoners not to have a small private holding cell with a shitty rapsberry pi style computer with internet and kb mouse.

The internet, pornography, gaming, socializing, only helps to rehabilitate the criminally minded because it connects them to collective mainstream instead of ostracizing themselves it also allows society to rehabilitate criminals themselves want to kill paul Bernardo but can't? Do the next best thing and make fun of him on the internet while he rages at u back through the keyboard.

Socially haze the rapist psychopath out of him till hes ready to take responsibility either through euthanasia or public apologies and monitored charity work

Being notified you will be pozzed and gang beaten before you get to jail is a fun experience it;s filled with humor

you laugh and you talk and discuss your murder and all the ways it can happen you try to psych people out they try to psych you out you talk about prison politics women music and food and murder all in metaphor

the guy that may or may not have attempted to kill you gives you an apology letter to his victim of armed robbery as a metaphor for the other attempted murder that other time where you chose to fight him like an asshole cuz u were feeling angry @ life ppl take responsibility for their crimes in jail one way or another, usually social justice (I personally like speeches and recoursing myself to solitary psych wards with a dress for privacy reasons and down time to think. Im an introvert and intend to be one that way in prison as well) .

the social grapevine in toronto jails is excellent some old goats really fuck like gross beasts with hep and need to get their asses on the internet because the old world changed awhile ago this is why life sentences and honor culture can not mix together in a changing world ya your brain is not permanently wired one way or another ,ya neuroscience can recondition you with neural plasticity ya violence stopped working as punishment because we all went insane from technological knowledge (hyper textual learning)

Prison rape

prison rape is a fun hobby for old bikies and others because it maintains social order in prison that is the hierarchy of evil with ppl who abuse women and children being in the 9th circle of hell level women are also trusted in bikie culture to an extreme degree because of wiccan and pagan influences as well as old world farmers eugenics when you mix this together you get a severely punishing society of people against those that have wronged women (even potentially)

this gets exceptionally worse the more you mix in drugs, pride, money, honor culture, prison status, toughness, and the idea that women are weaker than men and can only be currency not leaders for a lot of the old world because of women's systematic lack of agency from patriarchal concepts and natures gender roles. It is hard for women to actualize their own agency, or take responsibility when they do.

The social order due to this has been strewn between biotruths style (natalie angier nature's way) logic and social science of gender identity the real truth in my personal opinion is what would jesus do?

Forgiveness needs to be part of the prison system and relationship mediation system especially for victims of sexual abuse.

Becoming an underground gossip meme on the internet

firstly gotta say, causr, ether, and DANIELLE BREMMENR r personal heroes of mine and zanta even though apparently hes a manic asshole that a lot of ppl find annoying and fucked up

ive lived a transparent life on the internet things like facethejury, anonidate, toronto hookups, craigslist, okc, somethingawful FYAD, tribalwar forums, reddit

I have seeded myself into these places virally and gotten a reputation from it including neighbors and women scorned or jealous of me eventually stealing my ideas and turning my sexuality into a meme.

My video game history is prolific due to me standing up to trans rights against neo nazis in the early and mid 2000s

this happened on shifter battle arena and maxogc.com

it is incredible the permanent clout you can maintain when you pick a vicious moral battle vs the worst of concepts and also happen to be great at video games

my life has been plastered over various darknet sites, including in metaphor on SOMETHINGAWFUL.com FORUMS, tribalwar FORUMS, tumblr, wddp.org, and twitter.

I believe transparency is key and none of this bothers me. I encourage ppl to research me with boolean search terms such as site:www.tribalwar.com/forums DARE etc

I have used 1000s of handles online and identities and any idea or content ive produced i've given away for free

my issue stands with people trying to appropriate my identity in totality (I am he/her) and this is a disgusting form of plagiarism and IP stealing IMO especially if large sums of money and social status are involved Easy forum payout for content creators ideas are worth money on the internet due to meme acting as a form of information genetic dna online

- posts are written copywriter style in a voice and personality and with an indirect meaning

-posts are then voted on or ranked by buyers and community members setting their value

-payout happens from the vote as well as buyers committing to the idea and then

-the internet remembers everything and it is rarely lost forever

-somethingawful.com/forums is an excellent example of this content creation scheme working to a high degree without it being widly advertised somethingawful has been around forever and seeded various communities around the net, including 4chan (creators of anonymous e-gang, and doxxxnet defamation group, the group that hacked Sony), shitredditsays, and reddit itself somethingawful forums allows people to have multiple identities and content create in character for money it was an excellent student job when I was a teenager that I skipped on though

I encourage ppl to research it more

Accessing the intersectional codex till you can imagine the codex and the library you're never going to be able to process information in a way that allows you to create using information dissemination when you can appreciate the codex as an intersectional object of interpretation only then can you influence and interact with culture in a truly objective way this often includes killing your ego with psychedelic drugs, shedding the pain body like echkart tolle says, suffering, being transparent, being brave in a lose lose situation, etc once you access the intersectional codex from both the male female trans and asexual perspective you can start to understand hyper textual associations at a much more heuristic level and even train your own mental heuristics essentially you open the pandoras box of not only being the hypnotoad but hypnotaoding yourself

(charles manson fell victim to this when he assumed he was god through megalomania and cult followship and violence, his idea of intentionality didnt exist and he spun out in psychopathic insanity and violence)

other high functioning psychopaths just became surgeons, judges, lawyers, etc

ASPD and self actualized personalities are tied together intimately and often confused aside from the important distinction of selflessness and hedonism being more predominant in one or the other

MDMA psychosis and mania and psychic teens mdma increases your empathy ability (a lot of ppl naturally have this already see zen buddhists) mdma and people with high intelligence both emotionally socially and academically can create a borderline psychic effect of relation this is intimately tied to both the butterfly effect and chaos theory, as well as string theory and the fractal perceptive nature of living in a quantum reality body language tone of voice action and thought are all connected together through nature, the way cells have internal components that do important things so do humans psychologically and socially telegraphing discomfort with body language is received by those who can understand it

NOM
NOM

social norms opinions and conditions can develop from the simplest of actions for the high empathy perceive

he opened the door for me, he took the last joe louis, etc

when you combine fractal intersectional psychology with the concept of memetics (social information) along with the world wide web as an organism, as well as with genetics it is easy to see a type of double helix netcode of information arriving from the human – gaiaa relationship almost cellular

with memetics (information genes not exclusive to the internet – can be stereotypes and archetypes) storing information in a social way genetics doing the traditional eugenics path (complete with red queen effects) and the death and life cycle continuing the evolution combining both eugenics and memetics it is very easy to see some interesting possibilities especially when mixed in with quantum computers quantum resurrection and real life magic is definitely one of them as well as accessing more traditional forms of sense and emotion that perhaps have been replaced by technological ease of access (your genes may let you perceive things emotionally and psychedelically in a different way than others, right down to which type of art you are attracted to).

Genetic information is important as is social information through memes a double helix emerges and the intersectional codex of borderline psychic empathy is then accessible the collective unconsciousness essentially becomes like a CYBER mirc conversation (credits to ryan cheshire and the windsor and perry somethingawful poem).

We became psychic through empathy and imprinting heuristics, the internet and tv helped too.
The difference between suicide watch and toronto south gp

there is no fucking difference when you are being processed to make your bail hearing

do you want to stay in a group room covered in shit piss and diseases (and if u r accused of a crime vs a woman you will be intentionally put into rooms with pedophiles and people with diseases and mental illness)

the guards will take extra precaution to call you a bitch a rapist or try to trip you so they can say you were resisting arrest and beat you the guards even the women guards will try to dominate you and make you feel like crap

DO you have a girlfriend? she said on my intake form. No I replied. Good you wont ever. “okay” are you sassing me? calls the warden who then drags you off to the shit and piss land no thanks mother fucking pedophile and karla hamolka the 23 y ear old sadist prison guard id rather PC out by saying id like to euthanize my ass instead of put up with this shit wear a fucking insulated psych ward dress and have a private room with a blanket and private toilet they might as well call suicide watch at toronto south intimacy masturbation break though I did not accomplish this there and instead just thought and strategized I could see myself seeking privacy there in the future for a bi weekly its also nice to have privacy if you're a zen buddhist and need peace of mind to think this has nothing to do with being a bitch and everything to do with rights and justice people need things in prison. ALL Prisoners need more rights and benefits. PERIOD.

FUCK A SOCIETY THAT LOVES PRISON AND FUCK YOU IF YOU THINK THATS STUPID

ASPD vs self actualized #3 aspd ppl go for hedonism, group glory, other narcissistic self aggrandizing traits. This is especially insidious when it's not transparent or done in secret like a conspiracy

Self actualized people usually have these things already and choose to help out surrounding ppl.

What happens when a self actualized person sees a grave social injustice to the point of it driving them insane?

They sometimes will try to subvert the system by taking on mock ASPD traits to challenge it this is how self actualized people and people with ASPD get easily confused mazlow has written about this google it fuck you if u dont believe.

“raping victims of rape” is not an accurate or remotely legal or moral way to engage with victims of sexual abuse consent, conversation, talk therapy, love, compassion, comfort, a safe space, AND slowly being pushed out of their comfort zone which can even include trust building exercises like a rape fantasy or rough sex or all that sick ghomeshi shit do academically work to help rape victims sometimes the ultimate way to help a person is to put yourself at their mercy off with his head is definitely always a risk in these cases but most people have a heart

Suffer Not the Furry to Live Desu~

even psychopaths can feel real emotions and empathy once a month on a tuesday.

Zen Buddhism Rape and Jail ya in jail in toronto you get raped and pozzed even if ur a zen buddhist if you've commit a crime against women even if you're in the accusation process and especially if you're a multiple time offender in many ways this is a death sentence for anyone that has multiple strikes.

this is the standard due to canadian biker honor culture which is heavily invested in wicca, satanism and paganism which endorses sacrificial blood ceremonies kaballah also has some interesting takes on ashkenazi jews gammatria cyclical timings and genetic history .

Sociopathy and group think on the internet internet bandwagons and group lynching is real the streisand effect is real

the streisand effect combined with the bill cosby effect is real viral media is real and great and supports inde artists micro transaction is real ideas can make you money if you contact content creators who need them and will work on them with you (somethingawful.com) witch hunting and salem trials are real because they appeal to ignorant or uneducated peoples sense of street justice and “normal” the world is not normal anymore due to the internet and e-culture.

The norm and paradigm has changed.

Adapting Social Norms with digital text in legislature the internet must be considered open for interpretation and academic mistakes feminism must take the miss frizzle magic school bus approach not the Valerie solanas or Elizabeth bathory approach to not demonize men but also protect them feminism must include mens rights egalitarian humanist etc are nice titles but feminism is best hillary 2016 with bernie as infrastructure developer threats in a digital medium should not be prosecuted canadian obscenity laws need to get thrown out when on a digilta context protection from digital harassment must be done responsibly this includes using self defensive measures like a block button or changing phone numbers (for free) then auto updating your contact information and distributing it to friends this is how it was done all through my childhood and still largely in america

I have received death threats my whole life on the internet and had people call my house to threaten me and my parents as well

I have had neo nazis stalk me and feminists and racists and anti racists and everything in between

I dealt with it by fighting back and then moving on once the battle was done and encourage legislation to take this approach too when dealing with the digital intersectional social medium of the internet

if we do not allow both sexes to make mistakes or get treatment from them and instead prefer prison for crimes of an emotional nature then we end up with a heavily biased and easily abused system by any group most conniving enough to manipulate it.

Can Radicalized Feminists create their own rape culture?

If we have feminists that enjoy the concept of group lynching vigilantism vs their violent rapists or entrapment using the internet or e-detective work in general and we also have an easily accessible medium to obfuscate the truth or transparency of social situations either through context manipulation and metaphor or extreme re-compositions of data it is easy to say radical feminists can and have (valerie solanas) descend into fascism, violence, sociopathy, and delusions of grandeur.

Women's superiority is not a feminist movement it's a totalitarian movement street justice and vigilantism has to be done in a non violent way for it to ever be considered a net social benefit lynch the wrong person you're just as corrupt and guilty as the person that wronged you murder, assault causing physical injury, aggravated, etc are much worse crimes than undefined sexual assault with no injury or record of drugging.

Sexual assault can be as simple as pulling your loved one closer to you in bed consensually. Or touching a person sexually in a club environment.

It all depends on the emotional context and due to this these crimes of “emotions” having minimal physical contact should probably be dealt with no contact orders and peace bonds.

Attempting to manipulate a crime of touching a boob inappropriately (which many police have admit to me they do at their leisure) into a paul bernardo level scheme is sick and psychopathy.

Groupies in E-Sports

some womyn are attracted to great video game players especially local ones some legendary trolls are women (see jessica valenti, and anita sarkeesian, coral)

some womyn are GOAT t rolls greatest of all time

this includes legal trolls like marie heinen

the internet allows us to produce archetypical people en mass and then mass evolve others with viral information via memes and intersectionality

it mimics a collective unconsciousness some women are attracted not only to physical alpha maleness but mental adaptability bravery and prowess.

Womyn in esports play Tribes/midair and CPMA

The legend of the Toronto Palmerston Blonde cokehead Sluts

I heard this in 2010 in kensington from my friend leaflower sean.

I deduced from experience after a bunch of polyamorous sluts that loved coke drama and partying living on palmerston extremely feminist and extremely internet people orgy culture

not telling people deemed unworthy of the polyamory or swinging or sex for for principle the concept of “communist pussy” deflowering ceremonies for good liberal boys from hot womyn etc

all in all a drama cluster fuck im glad I avoided till it tracked me down on okcupid and had profiled me years in advance through the social grapevine.

Thx k8 4 being a liar and dating e-sports idols like my ex friend and former teammate chump when I asked you if you were an e-sports serial dater or groupy or fucked SA goons you lied and set me up to be in a relationship with you where I was only as good as your excitement level and what my money could do for you

No Grammarly and I don't care

when you have your internet connection removed proof reading and care for literary style or sanity of tone goes out the window why can't people self enduce hypomania to write

Recreational Drugs and Violence

a lot of men from marginalized homes and violent communities have been conditioned to be violent when they enter the court system in poverty they can not buy their way out.

They learn to enjoy the violence they've grown up with or they lose their humanity and become completely animals the animal still takes control sometimes the drugs are still addictive but needed for inner peace state of mind pleasure and recovery – addictive street drugs started mostly as chemical medicines or spiritual conduits, including cocaine, various forms of crack, mdma, meth, dmt, etc reacration for prisoners or the criminally minded is needed prison assault and rape is a real problem boxing with gloves and pads is needed, physical aggressive sports are needed, drugs and fixes are needed

NEW SPORTS which allow for psychedelic drug usage including pillow fighting, foam pits, etc are neeeded, even flat out mock gang wars and street fights with padding the pain body must be exercised out of the criminal mind + REHABILITATED and responsibility taught not through punishment but moral consequence and respect the majority of prisoners were born into jail, they did not get there from deciding to be evil randomly one day but from intersectional reasons that conditioned them to be a certain way

even if it was conditioning them to love sick shit

this is neural plasticity in action

if we let two street gangs get a bunch of foam swords and padding while simultaneously dosing them with drug of choice + LSD and legalizing all recreational drugs

©2006 LUKE BROWN
WWW.SPECTRALEYES.COM

we will create a dramatic spectacle both good for tv and the economy, allow rivalry and criminal aggression to have a socialistic release and save money on prison costs from housing real violent crimes or medical issues these should be refereed and volunteer only, done in public, and therapy should be mandatory after as well as comprehension of the moral and ethical outcomes of said “mock psychedelic gang war” hockey arenas and soccer fields are probably the best place to do these things as they are good for tv.

WOW MAGICALLY RELEASE TENSION IN JAILS

Sex and Jail

- PC out for euthanasia reasons (because my life sucks in jail and I wish to die or have drugs that make me feel good like medical weed, ativan, heroin, coke etc) Jail is a terrible place sexuality in jail is restricted to literal circle jerks, rapes, or masturbating in the suicide watch psych ward

-conjugal visits from prostitutes, legislation to allow them to do whatever sex act they want that is legal and consensual and supervised.

-them robo silicon vagina things many people in toronto south personally requested these NOT FLESHLIGHTS the ones that look like real dolls or just a bust of a womyn

-most men dont like pozzing other men or raping them just because the old goat says so, it adds time to your sentence if you get caught, even if you block the camera with a cup standing on some doods shoulders – it causes your victim to psychologically destroy themselves and either attack back which can be deadly or break so emotionally you get a sick pleasure from it and become a worse person or just feel perplexed that society and jail is so fucked and you're right c aught in the middle of it – foot soldiers feel this way too old goatz

- stop making ur troops commit murders and rapes and beat ins in 2016 drugs and all that shit is being legalized and the internet has made sex a literal “cluster fuck* of drama and emotions and politics

-very few people in the 18-34 range are purely heterosexual and normal heterosexual traditional gender roles are largely gone

-women can be badasses now and tuffer than most of the guys if they want :p

-paul bernardo should probably ask to be killed and brevik too ghomeshi needs his fingers removed and prison for a long time if he non consensually ripped out a young woman's asshole during some kind of anal prolapse fetish gone wrong, if the guy is naturally violent he needs deep amounts of therapy and rehabilitation, if hes the victim of a smear campaign that needs to be discussed in the public eye.

-yes high profile rape crimes can be fabricated see duke lacrosse for the best example. This is not anti feminist to say and is in fact ENTIRELY feminist. Feminist women don't want to empower liars and abusers who are women through feminist appropriation.

if prison guards can bully the accused and innocent

if a crown prosecutor can railroad a black kid whos using legal aid and has lived a shitty life where he's basically been programmed to be a repeat offender and do it for her own career acclaim and self righteous idea of REAL VICTIMHOOD not modern jurisprudence or justice

I LOVE KATHERINE OLA AND CAROLINE EVEN IF THEY DONT LOVE ME AND I DONT CARE THANK YOU FOR LETTING ME IN YOUR LIVES FUCK YOU FOR GOSSIPING ABOUT ME ON SA OR ENCOURAGING KATE TO CHEAT

Dear Katherine, I am sorry if I caused you serious worry. I was writing nonsense for fun as you often do as well on the internet or text message. You and I started dating because of the pickup line about “hey baby ru looking 4 insemination ;-)” or something disgusting like that. You also told me you'd call the police on me and I stopped messaging you, and then you rigged your okcupid profile to be my 98% match so I could not ignore you, you admit this to my family at dinner saying “He made me chase him”. I have never been out to victimize you or possess you only help you overcome your issues, some of which I;'ve identified with through empathy not relation. I read and write a lot on the internet as you know it is my career. I was writing nonsense for fun and took it too far. I must tell you I love you regardless of your life choices and hold no grudge anger or jealousy for you saying you are fucking one of my childhood teammates from tribes and that he has a larger penis than my small penis and that I am disgusting etc and that you organized and endorsed my attempted murder. AS it is all fictional on the internet and unverifiable without subpoena of somethingawful's forums which were rigged by radium to malfunction specifically for that reason, also the programming language the forums are on was rigged as well h3h3 very elite. I support anyone you are attached to but somethingawful forums and internet culture were part of my childhood. So was social shaming and being controversial. I am sorry my controversial nature spilled over into your life. I figured you'd relate because you are a FYAD regular. I do not own a gun nor do I believe in their usage or killing or physical violence. Ever. I am a practicing Zen Buddhist pacifist, with an emphasis on self defense and just war theory. I believe in personal responsibility, charity, empathy, and socialized/free everything in abundance through technology. I would never harm you or your friends and family and I truly treasured my time with you all. Im very saddened you could not be honest with me or yourself or even your doctors about your online lifestyle. And it sucked my friends had to tell me you were “cucking me with a black man, and all my tribes childhood friends, and you did porn, and were a neo nazi eugenics slut” on the darknet. I hope it was all gossip and lies. I especially enjoyed mowing your moms front yard and taking care of your brother. I'm sad I cant be part of that but I hope you can forgive me and allow me to participate in the e-culture I helped seed and grow and evolve. I have been working in internet e-culture and e-sports for over 20 years now. It is as much my life as it is yours. Regardless of lowtax's fake troll on my reregistration which is largely garbage as you have just as many accounts as I do over your 18 years of posting on SA (soemthing awful).

Yours truly Alex Levert

ZANTA and FEDSMOKER are performance artists. They may be slightly mentally unhinged and delusional to some degree in their accusations but theres a reason for this (a history of abuse) and they do more good than harm being social jesters these types of social characters need support financing and tv production AND HANDLERS that keep them from flat out breaking the law. NOT restrictions alienation or being treated like an extreme oddity.

If you cant talk about dramatic realities of culture, like saying the rape word or murder word or direct literal but fictitious and ironic dark death threats you are denying the reality of the real world and of the society you help to maintain Social Grape vine gossip on Anita Sarkeesian and Tribes that ive heard and experienced apparently anita sarkeesian played tribes and was heavily influenced by a transgender smurf player that 10-13 years of age (possibly still trolling it at 15 occasionally but largely publicly a fake at that point) apparently this kids political opinions were so robust that he challenged conservative mindsets and neo nazi culture on the internet to the point of being harassed at his own home and creating revivals for old dead video game communities apparently this person could tell his friends were close to him and understood vpn connections perhaps anita has never played tribes shifter and the grapve vine lies maybe shes only played tribes ascend perhaps the person pretending to be anita sarkeesian on the internet chat service discord that claimed to be behind 9 proxies and had broke my ribs was a smurf and a liar just trolling me to make anita a target perhaps anita stole her masters essay on disney princesses being overly feminized from a young man experimenting with gender identity in the social context of the internet in 2000-2003 that she fantasized about deeply but was never really able to act on it.

Dan t and coral

according to social media grapevine somethingawful.com forums

E-personality dan Chump Tseunard of famous esports organization Hubris (which I was invited to at one point) and coral's supposed SA account “Dad gay so what” have been in a relationship and are getting married this is cause for a celebration and im happy for them

it has little to do with my complaints against them

aside from the fact that I was not informed that katherine was closet polyamorours or attracted to e-sports e/f list celebrities like chump or Alex “Dare” Levert who were both teammates on various teams including hawkbats.

The whole concept of canadian e-sports groupies (and woman players) is insane to me.

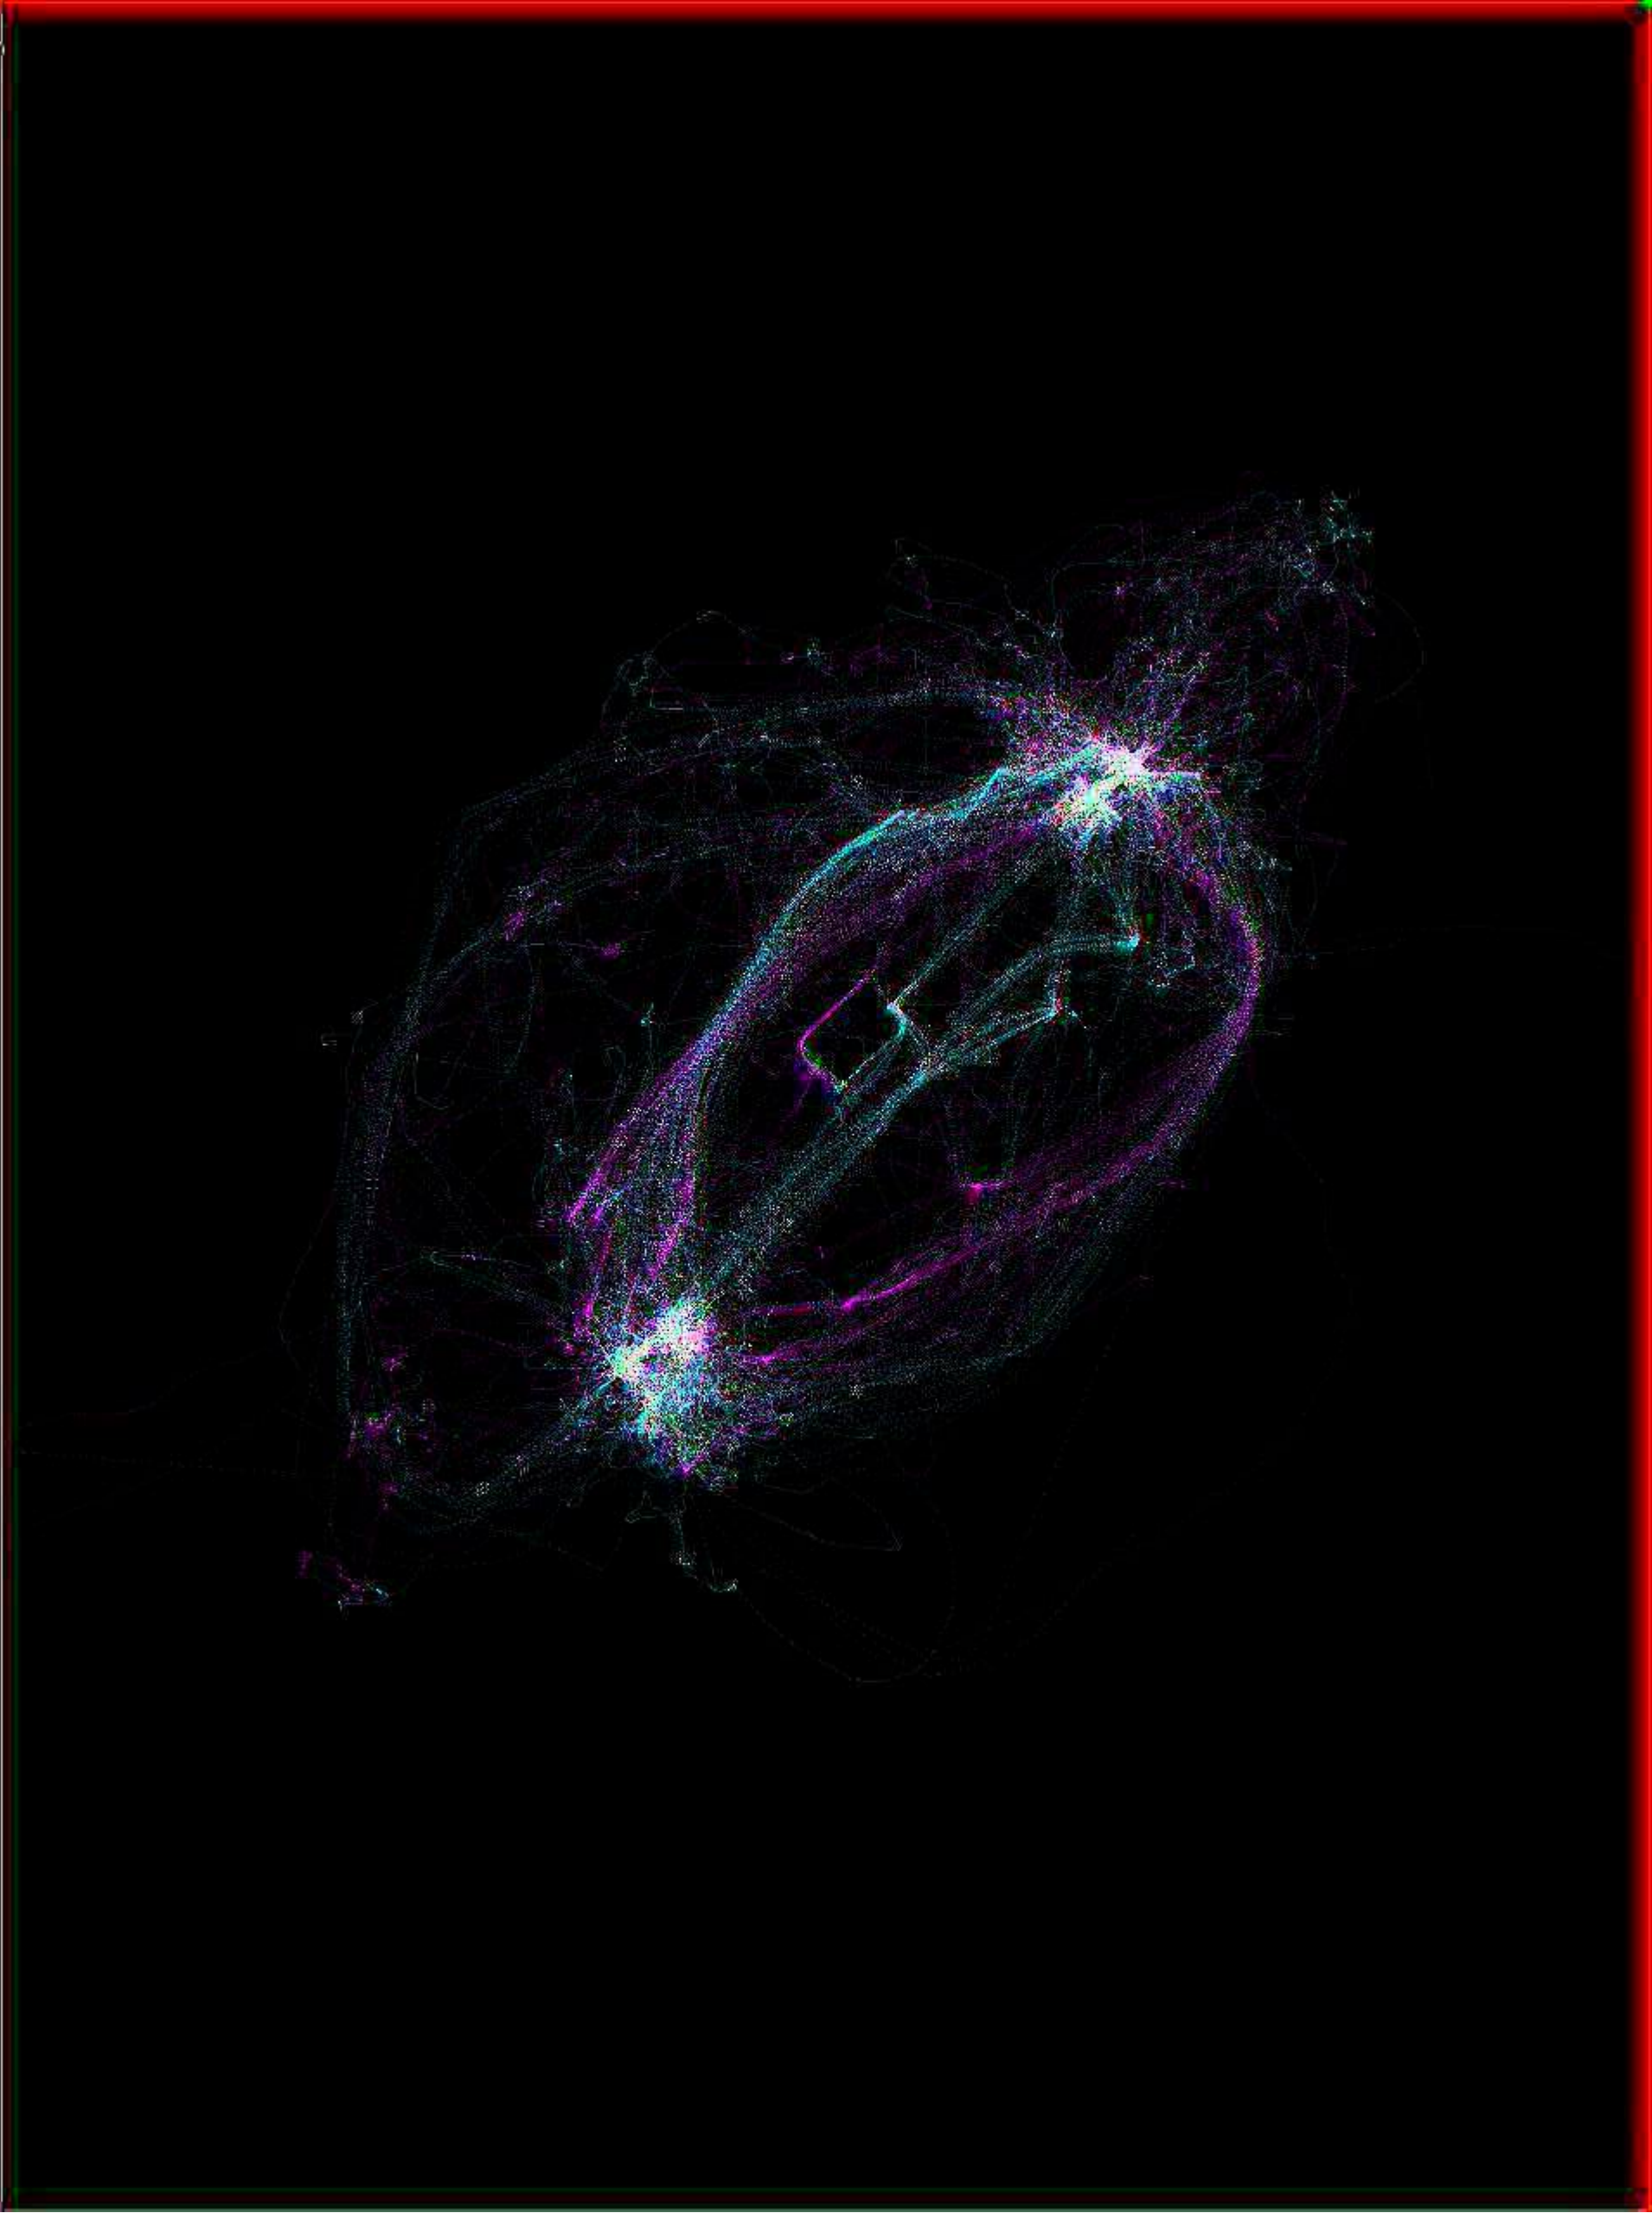

Dan may or may not have appropriated gamestyle and design ideas for the blizzard game title Overwatch which he is a community manager and designer of from my intellectual property and work as a kid coral may have manipulated herself into a premeditated relationship with me to enact revenge for her Somethingawful forums acquaintance jessica jones and nero s who both run various social media contracts and ideas.

Seeing your life gossiped about in metaphor before your eyes – ptsd seizures and fear of death psychosis or just understanding dark ironic comedy on a dead comedy forum of social elitists and miniature celebrities (the understanding of a group of ppls hive mind or group psychosis, bandwagon mentality)

-the thread about ghostbusting and beating up rapists is about you
-the men going their own way thread is about you
-the wife majestic thread is about you not having a wife or any sex at all -the avatars of people with half a skull lying in a hospital bed are about you
-the offsites on the darknet are gossiped about in the somethingawful GBS forum as having video tapes of your attempted murder
-your highschool friends that say slang like “chinaman” appear to take credit for your attempted murder by saying they own a green car
-reality blends on the forum from a metaphor to a conspiracy theory to a panic attack then to multiple seizures

-things seem to make sense but you know the darkness of criminal organizations and how easy it is to obfuscate or hide the truth on the internet if you're a clever liar pretending to be a comedian or a hybrid of both
-euthanasia or truth becomes a priority.

Breaking the law because you're already dead.

Speculation and lies and libel and slander are all too real to ignore on the internet at this point you can either micro legislate it to hell or set up protections for people from bandwagon reactions bandwagon psychology will only grow with transparency and internet access in web 3.0 with the internet of things provisions need to be in place to prevent witch hunt mentalities in the particularly morally zealous especially with things involving the media, gossip, or text.

Indirect threats, indirect bullying, indirect metaphors, cyphers, can all be broken more easily than ever criminal language just doesn't cut it anymore to cover things up. Grapevine social dynamics are not completely proof even with immense amounts of trust and irony and even empathy.

Transparency and love are the most important things in a pre singularity society (or post pending on who's history you believe or if google's cadie and deep mind are even real :p) when you have nothing left to live for revolution becomes mandatory. Do not let yourself fall into real criminal behavior. Carry your friends out of crime and poverty too. And the weak and the helpless and the disturbed and even the evil.

Racism on the internet:
When children swear at you, when they call you the n word, when you get told you are being raped online from a young age. The internet is a rape culture, this isn't going to change. Everyone gets intellectually dominated on the internet at some point and feels abused censoring the language wont change that. Being turned into a mental slave or intellectual “toy” for a smarter person is regular. The somethingawful colloquial term “niggered” an Anita Sarkeesian Somethingawful.com term fits with Kennedy's history of the word Nigger in which he argues for its total re appropriation by African Americans to use to describe white racists or its complete censorship and criminalization. On the internet this simply isn't possible so in the 2000s during the racism wars of the internet people just agreed to let to slide while stomping out organized racists everywhere. In this regard we had a renaissance of racial awareness on the internet and accepted our global unique ethnicity as “internet people” without skin or genetic traits, only operating as information memes connected to real bodies. The breaking of Poe's Law in real life and the integration of more internet into the real world complicates this as Life tends to be Stranger Than Fiction and often confused as such.

Being raped by internet society:

You stalk me from the time I'm a kid. You ostracize and bully me. Then the internet came and it continued behind closed doors there. 20 years of my life written about behind closed doors. I can not see it and yet I know there are pictures of me. I can not read it and yet I know the information is there because it trickles out as gossip and insults. I know where it is generally but I can not access it because your privacy to form a hate group is more important than my freedom to protect myself as an individual from social abuse akin to Lord of the Flies.

Spousal rape pressuring long term commitments emotional honesty transparency

these things are all tied together sex is really important but COMMUNICATION is more important if you are a low agency uneducated person new to casual sex or bdsm don't get messing around with kink culture till you know its history and most definitely don't fake it till you make it as a person with high agency on the outside but low agency on the inside that is superficial and shallow in the wrong ways and can even make u into a sociopath pending peer pressure. Watch the movie 13 or kidz or jawbreaker or hard candy for further example and understanding of some modern mindsets

if you are an easily triggered person who has had a sexual assault in the past, try to talk about it or come to grips with it before dating sexually aggressive men or becoming sexually aggressive yourself seriously

if you've been raped BE CAREFUL AND COMMUNICATIVE AND HAVE SEX WITH PEOPLE YOU TRUST AND FEEL COMPASSION AND EMPATHY WITH being experimental or cutting edge after a sexual assault is frivolous and stupid, getting pregnant directly after one is strange at best and suspect at worst.

Be critical and dont turn regret sex into a rape accusation that marginalizes victims of real rape

if you're a notorious forum troll, scene queen, video game player, socialite etc, you still need to educate yourself on ethics and principles before you go appropriating them sometimes your partner will do things to you you don't like even when you tell them not to (I know many women have done this to me) this can include touching you sexually, to having sex with you, and even tickling you to death, and it really is not rape unless you are talking in a purely autistic black and white legal technicality of bedroom politics way. Which is literally the definition of insanity in a glowingly more grey and rainbow global culture especially on the internet. Perhaps even indigo

PIV is always rape, ok?

Just to recall a basic fact: Intercourse/PIV is always rape, plain and simple.

This is a developed recap from what I've been saying in various comments here and there in the last two years or so. as a radfem I've always said PIV is rape and I remember being disappointed to discover that so few radical feminists stated it clearly. How can you possibly see it otherwise? Intercourse is the very means through which men oppress us, from which we are not allowed to escape, yet some instances of or PIV and intercourse may be chosen and free? That makes no sense at all.

First, well intercourse is NEVER sex for women. Only men experience rape as sexual and define it as such. Sex for men is the unilateral penetration of their penis into a woman (or anything else replacing and symbolising the female orifice) whether she thinks she wants it or not – which is the definition of rape: that he will to do it anyway and that he uses her and treats her as a receptacle, in all circumstances – it makes no difference to him experiencing it as sexual. That is, at the very least, men use women as useful objects and instruments for penetration, and women are dehumanised by this act. It is an act of violence.

As FCM pointed out some time ago, intercourse is inherently harmful to women and intentionally so, because it causes pregnancy in women. The purpose of men enforcing intercourse regularly (as in, more than once a month) onto women is because it's the surest way to cause pregnancy and force childbearing against our will, and thereby gain control over our reproductive powers. There is no way to eliminate the pregnancy risk entirely off PIV and the mitigating and harm-reduction practices such as contraception and abortion are inherently harmful, too. Reproductive harms of PIV range from pregnancy to abortion, having to take invasive, or toxic contraception, giving birth, forced child bearing and rearing and all the complications that go with them which may lead up to severe physical and emotional damage, disability, destitution, illness, or death (Seefactcheckme.wordpress.com for her work on the reproductive harms of PIV, click on the "intercourse series" page or "PIV" in the search bar). If we compare this to even the crappiest online definition of violence: "behaviour involving physical force intended to hurt, damage, or kill someone or something". Bingo. It fits: Pregnancy = may hurt, damage or kill. Intercourse = a man using his physical force to penetrate a woman. Intention / purpose of the act of intercourse = to cause pregnancy. PIV is therefore intentional harm / violence. Intentional sexual harm of a man against a woman through penile penetration = RAPE.

If we look at the act in more detail (skip this parag if you can't take it), PIV is a man mounting on a woman to thrust a large member of himself into her most intimate parts, often forcing her to be entirely naked, banging himself against her with the whole weight of his body and hips, shaking her like he would stuff a corpse, then using her insides as a receptacle for his penile dejection. How is this a normal civilised, respectful way to treat anyone? Sorry for the explicit picture, but this is what it is and it's absolutely revolting and violating.

The term "fuck you" is not an insult for nothing, men know why – it's the worst thing you can do to a human being. It is in itself an extremely physically invasive act, very often painful, generally at the beginning before the pain may be cut off by the genital arousal; causes all sorts of tears, bruises, swelling, discomfort, STDs, vaginal infections, urinary infections, genital warts, HIV and death. Not to forget the additional sado-gynecological interventions/ costs of PIV-maintenance, and all the secondary physical mutiliation and financial costs that go with our duty to make ourselves look decorative for male sexual consumption – such as hair removal, make-up, starvation or forced feeding, torturous limb deforming or cutting up, etc.

The fact intercourse causes so many infections and tears and warts attests to the unnaturalness of intercourse, that it's not meant to be. The vagina's primary function isn't to be penetrated by a penis but to eject a baby for birth. They are two muscle tissues / sphincters pressed against each other to help the baby be pushed out. Penetration of the penis into the vagina is completely unnecessary for conception.

There's a reason men need to groom us into it, and why this grooming takes so long- because it's so grossly violating and traumatising that we would otherwise never submit to intercourse. The only reason we may now not feel raped or have the impression we desired or initiated PIV, is because men broke down our barriers very skillfully and progressively from birth, breaking down our natural defences to pain and invasion, our confidence in our own perceptions and sensations of fear and disgust that tell us male sexual invasion is painful, harmful and traumatic.

Through an all-pervasive and powerful male propaganda, they stuff our minds from infancy with the idea that PIV is normal, desirable and erotic, before we can even conceive of it as something horrifying, and make sure we never see any alternative to their lie – or that if we do, we can no longer take in the information, are punished for thinking and saying otherwise. The fact we may not immediately feel raped doesn't mean it's not rape, objectively speaking. To give a classic example, many women in prostitution may not identify the act of prostitution as rape, except if the act wasn't paid for. It doesn't stop us from saying that all prostitution is rape. We know that our subjective feelings or thoughts may be colonised by men's perspectives and as radical feminists we don't let that override and erase the objective reality of violence. (PS -The reason why ONLY the lack of payment is defined as rape is because the offence here isn't against the prostituted woman but the pimp who was deprived of his income. Rape comes from rapt, which is an old word for theft of woman-as-property.)

Lastly, from a structural point of view, as a class oppressed by men, we are not in any position of freedom to negotiate what men do to us collectively and individually within the heterocage. Men, by whom we are possessed, colonised and held captive, are the sole agents and organisers of PIV. Men dominate us precisely so we can't opt out of sexual abuse by them; intercourse is the very means through which men subordinate us, the very purpose of their domination, to control human reproduction.

Men, by whom we are possessed, colonised and held captive, are the sole agents and organisers of PIV. Men dominate us precisely so we can’t opt out of sexual abuse by them; intercourse is the very means through which men subordinate us, the very purpose of their domination, to control human reproduction.

Personal psychiatry and love and compassion for internet personalities

e-sports socialized leagues with salaries forum poster micro content transactions in public like patreon – transparency the internet was a wild place in the 2000s and still is today many culture and political wars still wage on the internet either on the darknet, social media, behind closed doors, indirectly, or right in the mainstream metaphor is great

taking care of yourself is NEEDED if you have a stressful job trolling and taking risks on the internet and culture can be very stressful with great power comes responsibility and e-fame or influence can be a great power even for a micro content creator or idea copywriter

be responsible

don't screw over the weak or the meek because of jealousy or anti-semitism or group gossip or even peer pressure from culture on the internet you can anyone you want to be and being an internet personality makes you responsible for being that person if you're going to troll in real life do it properly and with respect for the ppl you troll and consequences of your actions ppl can get fired and can go to jail

the internet has crossed into real life

POES LAW has been broken too many times to count now it's time to integrate e-culture and literary culture and the culture of privilege into legislature so that everyone can benefit and have access to it not just those who are in the know, born into power, eugenics, or rich by proxy

Internet of things and imagination with reality -web 3.0 concepts your couch is the internet

there is internet paint

you have internet in your head you have Heads UP displayers in your eyes (including a watch timer on your contact lense)

you have traffic lights highlighted on your eye huds you can close your eyes and get a projection of a newspapwer or flick a button on your glasses you can have temporary enhanced night vision thanks to biohackers in new york aaron shcwartz gave away all the aacademic journals and hung himself it'll happen again till its all free the internet is free and the singularity is near. Time to legislate it up

Pretending to or alluding to or enjoying violence as a group is a form of male fascism even if its hidden well.

Forming a pro violence gang of friends on the internet or vigilantism is sick and disgusting and will only get you caught no matter how well you try to hide it the social grapevine tells no lies in the end. Even if you're dead the truth can still come out.

No means no hard and soft nos and consent and safewords in internet culture who wrote all the erotica on literotica. Who posts the porn on motherless.com why do people still post on SA and why do so many ppl sound like they're the same person talking to themselves or long time friends? Where do celebrities hang out on the internet anonymously.

Moral elitism in social justice “warrior” culture. Aka apropriating ragnaork and hells angels respect and honor culture shariaa style into feminism its just fascism and radicalism and not even feminism at that point it becomes genocidal when you start enacting revenge against certain minorities with a racial element “jew nose” for example.

Purification is great but being too pure will just get you suspected of murdering a person especially when you smile at their memorial obit picture and went to their same highschool and claim to have nazi parents, and troll on the internet about being in nazi ceremonies, and troll on the internet about cucking people, and troll on the internet about being “communist pussy” and just generally troll in general in really wicked and immoral ways.

Social grape vine and archetype personalities online the higher you go in the layer cake of social awareness in online literary/copywriter/creatives the more archetypes you see in secret societies having code names and even emulation of the gods is important some people like greek Egyptian etc gods some people like the old testament code words and archetype personalities are great on the internet and exist in real life secret societies too this is one of the ways power structures are maintained in social hierarchies via metaphor and mysticism and belief in religion (gaiia, wicca, pagan, catholic, neo nazi, farmers gang, etc).

Killing in the name of No border southern ontario feminist internet cults rebels without a cause soft consent laws and body language you had drunk sex and you touched my penis so many times to the point you chaffed me and caused a blister despite me saying no and begging u to stop

I didnt push you off

I gave you 3 orgasms you were ontop a lot and really happy we did that consenual slap fetish we agreed to with the safe word we agreed to, you had a squirting orgasm, we cuddled, you had a bad drug trip because someone had previously dosed you with meth and not mdma, you didnt tell me this till after your bad trip started, we slept, in the morning I went down on you, it was hot you moaned, I still hadnt cum, I got ontop of you and said im putting it in as I was putting it in, you said no, I put it in anyway and premature ejaculated, your neighbor was home in the next room and we could hear their mattress creek through the wall, we had woke up late. U didnt tell me u had work in the morning. When we woke up ur boss had already fired u. u texted him u had been raped and we were off to the races of bullshit. On facebook you said I kidnapped you with a fucking knife? WHAT THE FUCK. That same weekend you got back with your ex (the one you told me had been choking you and abusing you and u were running from but still kept getting back with) you got pregnant. 5 years later my neighbour 2 doors up on the internet whos known you for many years via the club scene alludes to being the father of your child. It makes sense now combined with the other lies and bullshit as to why we are in this situation and why your ex left you and “his” child even though he signed paternity. His mother looked pretty upset with you as well.

You spat in my face, you spat in his face, you spat in many ppls faces, you crouched in front of the door and plugged ur ears and screamed rape to not just me but a few of the other boys u were seeing all at once (we theorized 5 at once and confirmed 4) tom cried in a bar about it because all his roomies believed he was abusing you because you said he was

you threw quarters and screws at me and would throw my id out the window, you did that to him too a guy followed you home in the snow and say NERO WHY outside tartu when you were going in with tom, according to tom you were sexually abused by ur uncle and never spoke up and I was there to help you get over it and regain sanity. That was my goal with you. And marriage.

You'd punch me in the face till I broke and smashed something or you'd pin me to the bed and force me to have sex with you while covering my mouth and swearing at me calling me every name in the book.

I let you do this shit.

You broke into my house when you were cheating on me with another guy and returning from it because eyou saw me walking home with midori. You lied to gain entrance to th house. You smashed everything and tried to break down the door. Midori was terrified. The cops were called. I didnt press charges. U didnt get arrested.

Smurf aliases and personality on the internet having aliases and the option of anonymity is critical for comedy practicing and acting may be needed to copywrite in different voices becoming a caricature of a real person is entirely possible on the internet having a troll face is possible on the internet having multiple personalities in fiction is possible on the internet being mean and sick and fucked up and psychopathic is routinely done by individuals and groups on the internet (death threats for days, harassment for days, etc, etc) privacy on the internet or cell phone is easy because you just change your number or shut it off becoming more well rounded through being in other people's shoes and using your imagination and empathy to relate most people on the internet are not real, but more real people are on the internet. The dynamic of social media clashing with reality is POES LAW.

Punishing the better introverts – being popular online only doesnt mean you should be abused. Introverts don't all become extroverts there is no reason social media personalities cant be introverted computer people. Not everyone wants to engage in communist fuck fest 2016.

Macro context of threats in a digital medium – turn off your computer, change your phone number, if things become physical call the cops. If you troll online and talk about killing people or enjoy sadist videos like mutilation as coral does, don't be surprised if some video game player who has played video games with you where you “frag” other people aka kill them, makes a bad over the line fictitious joke threat about shooting and guns which he does not posses or use or support.

SAY NO TO GUN VIOLENCE AND WEAPONS OF ALL KINDS

Transparency and relationships ; don't start dating people if you're lying about your history, friendships or sex life. This isn't adultery its just manipulation and predatation. It isn't a game it's just sick and cruel.

Crime trafficking can happen by shot callers (remember the movie the warriors and the woman is announcing gang activity) message boards can be root kit or bribed to provide data in secret ways to data dark pools on the darknet. It is easy to subvert people's computers secretly. Metaphorical sports food and entertainment dark irony comedy are great ways to cover up crime shot calling or drug trafficking in plain sight with a simple timing/emotional empathy character based cypher. If you can't break the metaphor you don't get it. If you do you can always be called schizo or insane. This is the definition of fascist crazy making.

Aliases in internet culture and ethics - don't steal ppls official names or official pedigrees. Start fresh when you start a new name. If the name you're using is a big one and the person plays the same games as you give them back their name or add numbers to yours.

Recognize people can have multiple fictional literary personalities and are encouraged to do so academically on the internet average social and emotional intelligence is extremely high in Canadian jails. Canadian jails are mostly recreational drug addicts or people in poverty and violence gang culture.

There is an interest in rehabilitating the violent criminals murderours etc. The socializing of recreational drugs is severely hurting industrial level drug dealing in canada and forcing criminal organizations to become more transparent in their dealings (as well as seeking government cooperation to continue the business but under legitimate pretenses) this also means getting rid of the violent elements of these businesses and funneling them into other activities either police work, military, or recreation that allows for real physical harm under sanctioned pretense (want to have your gang war on meth and coke?, use pads and no lethal weapons, and meet at a rec field with a referee).

Ppl r sick of being in jail, people get physically aggitated and bored in jail. Violence cures boredom in jail to these kinds of people (not me). Guns appeal to people for the power element. All guns should be recycled.

recreational drugs of all time need to be legislated. And drug sports legalized (lsd tennis in prison) violent criminals can and must be rehabilitated outside of jail (penal colonies like australia or norway's prison island cottage system are best and cheapest and most self sustaining especially with green energy looming).

Neuroscience says the brain is plastic and ppl can be reconditioned.

The amount of money and assets you have the more you can cover yourself as a criminal. This includes social clout as if everyone likes you even if you do terrible Caligula shit you will still have respect. This is another way in which older great minds maintain control in prison hierarchies (power structure) accurate court mediation for micro aggressions, sexual discomfort, sexual assault, internet harassment, digital harassment, personal responsibility also could lead to less legislature and more well being of citizens through providing more transparency into the crime of he said she said rape (will rape of men ever be taken as seriously as todays rape climate in radical feminism? Should we rear back he said she said cases into a more functional format? Especially ones that are obtuse and definitely consensually agreed to before hand in text?).

Body language and infidelity an obvious primer for those new to being cheated on that stare that look that sub communication is real young people like casual sex and cheat sexual abuse victims (many havent spoke up) heal best from orgy culture or power revenge fantasies (like cheating or cucking) talking and being transparent though is the best solution drugs and sex only go so far before you commit a crime talking out loud is best but the communication flirting traits which are all listed in things like Natalie Angier's Woman an Intimate Encounter are real as well managing the balance of legislature to create fair laws and discourage emotional abuse is something to consider in the 2016s cheating and being lied to as well as gossiped about or even corralled into jail is black widow behavior and not feminism \ challenge the country

the internet carries into real life free speech is important. Censorship is blindness creative personalities and internet memes ---→ mdma raver culture mdma increases empathy and also increases your relatability to people for those in psychosis this can be a mild “psychic” like feeling of being a hive mind for those that were growing up when tv was being invented its just a nicer way of feeling close to people through a new medium combining mdma + internet instant messaging and memes and eugenic concepts has done some interesting things in creating internet archetype personalities over the last 20 years lowtax from somethingawful being a prime example and founder (aside from the mdma usage)

as we grow more transparent the more we become a circlejerk or hive mind the more fascism takes place and the more over generalization happens learning to oscillate or dance in time with the political rhythm of the global consciousness is important for ontarians as they spend a ridiculous amount of time online indoors during the winter and gossip culture is rife in ontario. The real housewives of toronto is something women compete for. And a moral cause is a great talking pedestal.

Average social intelligence is very high in jails especially in the 18-34 range demographic who really hate jail and grew up through the 90s and gang wars. People want to have their anarchy in a legal way without killing people.

It does not have to be hell on earth in prison with honor culture and being criminally minded doesn't have to mean living a life of punishment for your sins.

Rehabilitation and communication need to be focused on and less about over extensive over diagnosis's from career aspiring "great" minds with little ethics for patients or learning and more care about career advancement. This is especially disgusting in the railraoding of young minority men especially blacks and natives involved in violent crimes by career aspiring crown attorneys (FUC KYUO) if you need to memorize a law book to function in society society is broken .

People need to push the courts to a more even keel where you can self represent yourself without legal aid and with the instruction of mediators and helpers and even the judge.

Narritivization of court needs to be taken into account at all times for juris prudence to be maintained. Especially in a post internet culture, pre singularity culture.

I MESSAGED YOU A DIRTY PICKUP LINE ABOUT INSEMINATION OKCUPID. YOU LOVED IT. WE JOKED. LATER THAT WEEK WHILE TEXTING.

I FLAKED ON OUR FIRST DATE. YOU WERE PISSED. YOU TOLD ME YOUD CALL THE COPS ON ME IF I CONTACTED YOU AGAIN.

I DIDNT CONTACT YOU – 2 WEEKS WENT BY I WAS NOT BLOCKED ON OKCUPID

THEN U RIGGED UR OKCUPID TO BE MY 98% MATCH (HIGHEST IN TORONTO) I WAS ON THE TORONTO HOT LIST =)

WHEN I SAID HEY YOU BECAME SUDDENLY REALLY INTERESTED IN DATING AND FUCKING YET AGAIN

YOU TOLD ME YOUR GRAND PARENT WAS A NAZI

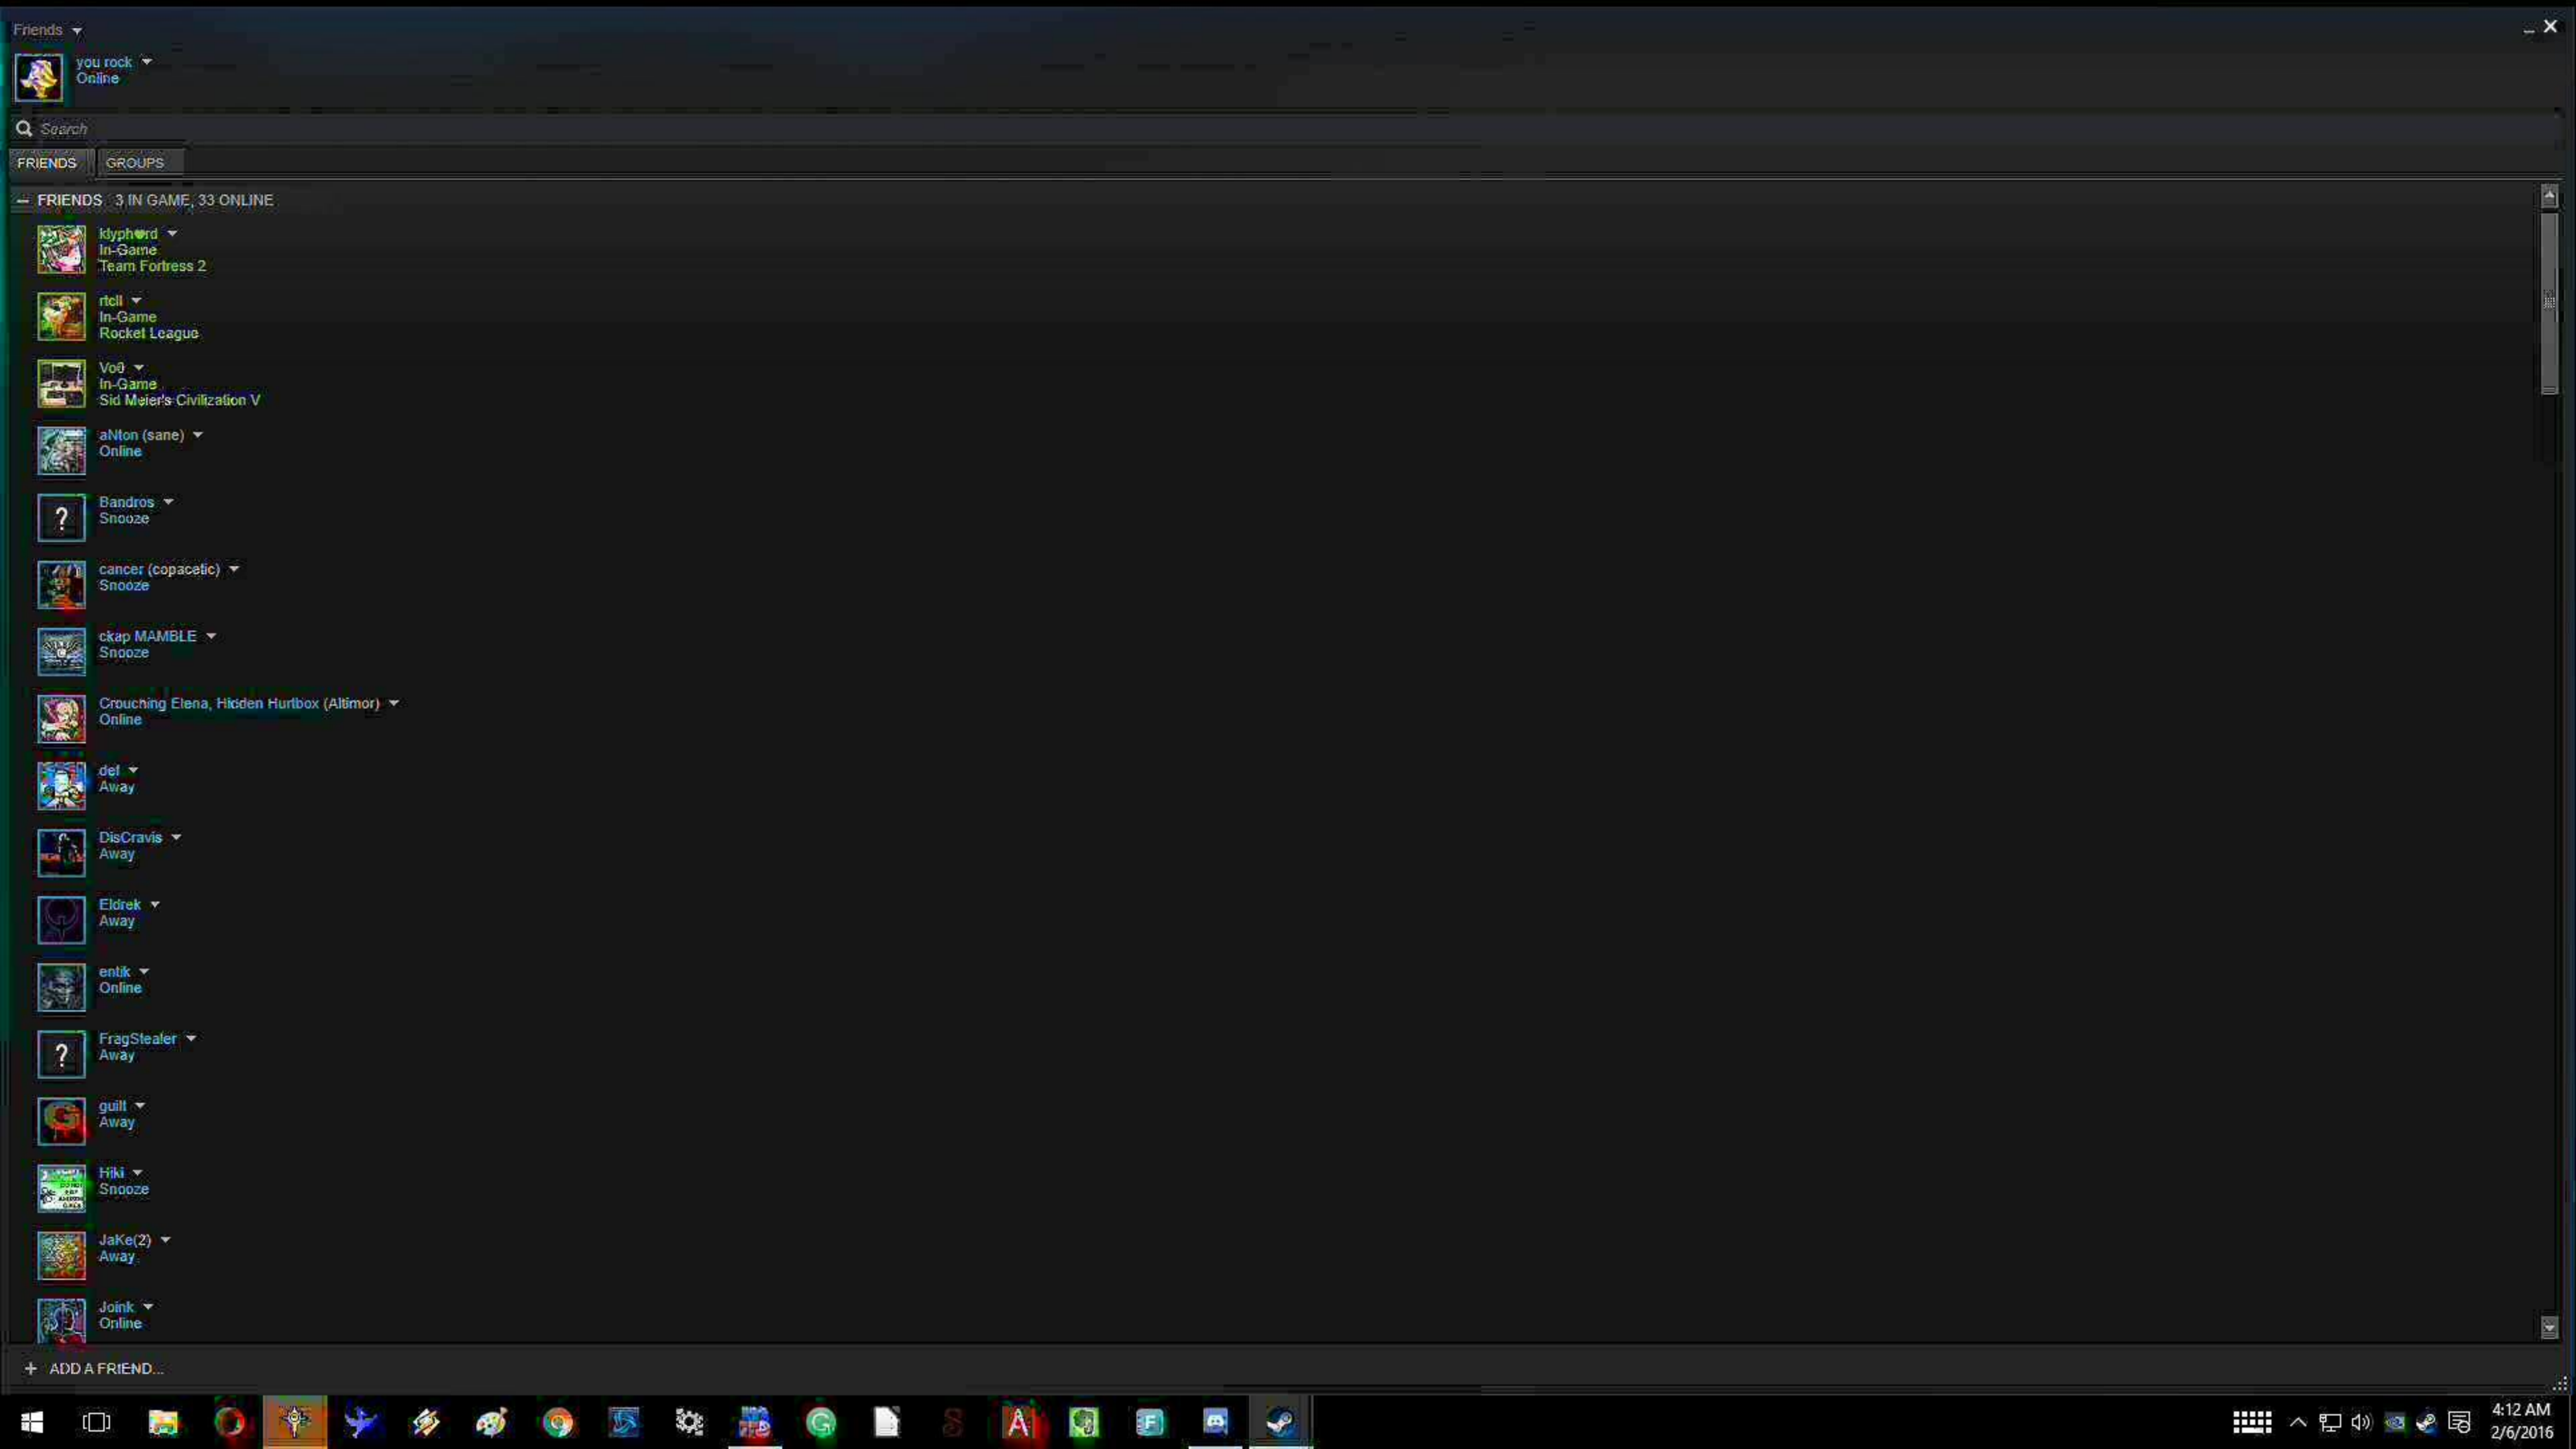

YOU TOLD ME YOU WERE A SA POSTER (you never mentioned you were a world class troll, feminist, multiple account user, polyamorous, misanthrope experimenting with aspd and social engineering and conspiracy, or into revenge porn and violence, you did not tell me you knew who I was through the social grapevine of internet gossip. You did not tell me you had hooked up with childhood friends/rivals e-sports celebrities of mine or that you knew many of my hs friends). You did not mention you were attempting to live out the narrative of kids and gummo and other concepts with friends. - like the club kids and the movie party monster. LOL WHAT A BUNCH OF STUFF THAT YOU SHOULD HAVE MENTIONED!!!!!!!!!!!

When you arent transparent with your past it catches up to you. You told me your grandmother was a neo nazi and your dad had a second secret family from your mother. Perhaps you do not have these things and the reality is that your mother knows about your dads secret family and honor culture dictates that he must be that because he is not man enough for her. Perhaps she is the domineering alpha of the house and that is a comfortable dynamic. Perhaps she also has ulterior motives due to a string of bad luck and resentment that she has a severely autistic son she feels obliged to care for.

I only hope the murder conspiracy is fake. As it is well known ceremony and sacrifice are a great part of Farmers gang culture which overlaps heavily with the aryan brotherhood, hells angels, and neo nazism. Sacrifice of a rival through a contract hit of someone who is already scheduled to be recycled (whether for crimes against a mob family, or just being a bad employee that got others busted) is no secret. Making a targeted vehicular manslaughter on a midday bike ride look like a drunk driving accident would be nothing new for higher level criminal organizations. Especially when its on a target of note in the underground Toronto Feminist scene and a premier academic like Courtney Arthur (rip girl I'm gonna solve this shit).
When your eyes lit up at the memorial page to a girl I had a relationship and lived with I had to know how you knew her and why you were excited she was dead. Eyes don't lie usually. You enjoyed that she was dead. You went to the same HS as her. You tell me your parents are neo nazis. JM says hers are bikie related. NS says hers were tamil tigers. You all post on an underground internet community and enjoy using “social masks” or aliases. Suspect isnt even the tip of the iceburg. And conspiracy sounds perfectly normal in this context. I wish I was delusional and hadnt seen and lived and heard what I've heard.

I passed a 6 hour aggressive lie detector test for my own attempted murder to disprove it was “gay sex in a car” and was in fact a car jacking/robbery done at a pot deal. The detective in charge remarked “I've never met anyone like you. You just do not lie.”

we did discuss your past sexual assault and how it was dropped by the court but probably legitimate and also I notified you of my past accusation and how it was bullshit and had ruined my life and why.

When your teacher posts on somethingawful forums but also hates jews he will casually mention this in class and then never speak of it again while point at you.

I heard about this mentioned once by a HS teacher. Im assuming he was also a somethingawful poster or something of that nature.

The thing thats sad is that the hells angels really do not like jews typically and especially jewish looking lawyers or lawyers that practice law in such a way that it ruins their honor culture system, especially lawyers that defend people accused of crimes against womyn.

at the same time younger members who have grown up in the new education system or the party culture of toronto and our prison system is very multicultural so that is slowly changing.

Neo nazism is still a real thing in society and carrying out nazi activities definitely has a major place in the online world sometimes the best hiding place is in plain sight in a cypher metaphor or nonsensical speech .

All of prison culture and criminal language works off this form of colloquial ironic metaphor based Ebonics

a lot of comedy does too

a good place to develop criminal interests or integrate crime into the internet in plain sight is a comedy forum at least in theory or for the experience…

Somethingawful.com has had a lot of various extreme dramas associated with it over the years including serial murderers rapists pedophiles etc

How far does intersectionality, peer pressure, and group think go into internet social interactions and real life? Can you really bully a person to suicide online (yes).

Where did all the sunshine go PUKE PILE VOMIT SHIT WINDOW HEP C AIDS SCHIZO LATIN FRENCH POET PEDOPHILE RAPIST PC OUT WEAR THE DRESS BITCH THE DRESS FEELS GOOD AND IS WARMER THAN THE SHIT HEAD UNIFORM U GAVE ME

If radium's SA CODE PRODUCES STOLEN TREES WHERED THE TREES GO

if I make this ip match this account match this credit card or create a matrix that assigns it for me and I hide that through a rootkit in the platform of the forum (vbulletin as im also a dev there) or in the programming language itself (because im an academic) etc other iterations and possible conspiracies perhaps the credit cards match the identities and there is no conspiracy perhaps bitcoin is being used now a rootkit within a rootkit is not a hardconcept to imagine fractal turltes all the way down =) like terry Pratchett says your multiple identities are assigned to others and then filtered and obfuscated so it all looks normal or like a processing error with the code and payment system :-0 offsite trafficking forums or other metaphor forums work excellently where people peer their information behind closed doors in a dark net fashion. Maybe even just a private forum what is behind the door of wddp.org and what has been cleaned out or was transferred to the tor onion.

American infidel and bullshit internet and cell phone harassment laws it is okay to send a death threat if you dont get caught or remain anonymous on the internet but if your victim sends one to you directly they go to jail if you send a fake joking death threat to someone who is calling you martin shrekil as a mean joke, they magically have your cell phone unblocked that night and take offense to it

Only on the internet can a concept like “Communist Pussy” be field tested with so much ignorance so as to ignore all the pitfalls of real communism, lack of transparency when dealing with strangers who are not into polyamory or nonconsenual polyamory.

Theyre all just kids

even the goat greatest of all time bikies in maplehurts and other prisons are kids too even the ones that love secretive murder and traps are kids they're just conditioned to be a certain way and probably a bit more violent naturally than others these people need help not punishment

you can not lock someone up in a hell like scenario and expect them not to come out for revenge

this is the whole bootstrap of parts of the toronto anarchy movement (but its also blended with some retarded idea of communism instead of socialist anachro libertarianism like noam chomskey and chris hedges, which is better, and more pro activist and revolution – we are not ready as a society to do communism properly without unbalances, dishonesty, and oligarchies taking over, maybe in the future when things are more transparent and we have more social abundance. Till then ppl might need to buckle down and work harder as a whole society to really improve things in preparation for a singularity like event, or even web 3.0).
The importance of writing stream of conscious in an emotional state and being comfortable with yourself, killing your ego etc. there is nothing wrong with enducing mania or hypomania mentally with no drugs or letting your imagination go crazy. Drugs can also help this but you don't even need them. A skilled mind is going to be able to capture thje emotions of the moment just by writing quick and thinking fast.

Typos are frequent and I hate checking them. The text has to be a representation of speech but with the added bonus of being alt-spam-lit and an activist zine/e-book format this only does positive things if it allows a positive activist message to fractal enter society

PRISON IS WRONG and a HELL SCAPE EXPERIENCE FOR ALL PEOPLE INVOLVED IN IT

OUR LAWS HAVE MANY DOUBLE STANDARDS THAT ENTRAP EMOTIONAL PEOPLE IN TECHNICALITIES

OUR ADVERSARIAL LEGAL SYSTEM REWARDS LAWYERS AND JUDGES NOT JUSTICE, COMMUNICATION, HONESTY, EDUCATION, REHABILITATION, and many other things needed

Zanta is many things, but the biggest complaint about him in jail is hes too hyper and annoying. So ppl fight him.

If you can grasp this idea of bored aggressive young and old men in jail then you understand the conundrum of recidivism rates in our current system give violent psychos locked up in prison for a lifetime for heinous crimes the love that THEYVE NEVER HAD NOT ONCE IN THEIR LIFE FOR FREE LIKE A RICH PRIVILEGED PERSON and they end up talking to you and sharing their stories

all men cry

FUCK YOU IF YOU DONT CRY FOR THE INNOCENTS IN PRISON AND THE GUILT THAT CAN NOT ESCAPE OR EVEN GET FORGIVENESS

when you grow up in a war zone, even a mental one, you will most likely commit or see some war crimes.
Writing and thinking is easy if you get rid of the nonsense

some asshole writing on ur page in red pen

ITS ALL GOOD WHEN THERE'S NO ABUSE OVERSIGHT

I am glad I live in a society where I can go to court any day of the week and witness a career driven crown prosecutor trying to make their career railroading a young black man that got involved in a life of gang violence, psychosis, and drugs, or a white kid, or a native guy, or an old gross pedophile, or a million other fucked up things people are too afraid to even imagine and definitely can not empathize with the scientific social factors surrounding the development of said criminal identity

I am happy to live in a society where emotional judgments and religious honor take more precedence over honesty, truth, forensics, and science and we throw trouble people into a long term offender track of life so they can remain in and out of prison forever when they get out of prison its straight back to the other prison. The ghetto or poverty or drug/gang culture.

Till we address those issues directly, and the violent honor culture, and woman as a currency factors in these things, and give effective outlets for these issues as well as options to rehabilitate and not punish (which doesnt work) things are going to remain bad for minorities, the vulnerable and outliers, etc.
Racism online

at one point or another some kid is going to threaten your life, call you a racial term, tell you they fucked your mom, etc little girls even say this shit now teenagers say it

and adults do

there were racism wars online (raids vs storm front, dare vs the neonazis, 4chan vs furries, etc, etc)

during these wars of great legend principles and unwritten honor laws were formed

THERE WILL BE NO ORGANIZED RACISM ON THE INTERNET WITHOUT PERSONAL ATTACK IF THE PERPETRATORS ARE KNOWN AND REVENGE IS NEEDED

To the guys that attempted to murder me

u were on meth and coke

I was depressed and had a death wish we fought

u had weapons (I may have tried to poke someone in the eye with my key)

I ended up in a coma

u guys ended up doing some other shit it was dumb etc etc

we met up in jail

we shook hands

apologized and that was that (for this issue)

aside from the medical costs and insurance costs etc I think we all learned a lesson that that type of violence even when ur on a bunch of drugs isnt fun and can get us all killed and thrown in jail

we cried
the holding cell cried

everyone cried

jail sucks for all

even “violent” criminals (which is everyone, I mean come on you ppl eat meat)

so we need to conclude as a society rehabilitation, communication, forgiveness are best also you are very wise “josh” francaphone HA is a good 1 I enjoyed talking to u and I will probably visit yall at south again but hope not id rather work at johnhowards and do advocacy to get EVERYONE OUT no reason we cant have reservations native people do not belong in our criminal jails im sorry for my part in that whole shit and if it stressed u guys out and made u worse thats my fault not yours

IRONIC RACISM AND RACIAL SLURS HAVE LOST ALL MEANING ON THE INTERNET

DIRECT THREATS DO NOT EXIST IN A DIGITAL MEDIUM UNLESS THE GUN IS POINTED AT YOUR HEAD OR THE PERSON IS ACTUALLY DANGEROUS

we must enter a culture where people are okay with feeling out of their comfort zone on the internet

it is entirely fucked to be a young woman into gore and violence videos, calling herself an aryan princess, talking about killing people legally, talking about rape and violence, totally knowledgeable in IT security and how to block a number on their phone

but still manipulative enough to try to troll someone on the internet with violence porn and indirect harassment and gossip of their life to the point where they send a fictitious death threat which one is more worse. I know which one is for me. The group cyber bullying and e-gossip crazy making.

Trust and Criminal Language

there is always the trust that you will not rat or communicate what is being said indirectly if you are in the know this means eyes, body language, symbols, etc, etc, profiling people psychologically is very easy to do this way for laymen or people really familiar with the rules of street culture and honor culture everyone is looking for the weekend but no one wants to play the game sometimes judgments are wrong and people make mistakes but that doesn't require prison or even therapy sometimes communication is the most important thing

this is for all relationships communication trust honesty and love are things we need to teach in school, not hope that families develop civil ethics especially with internet gossip culture are also important

A quik synopsis of somethingawful.com and LF FYAD history

-SA comedy based on lies, metaphor, dark irony, random, topics, fake posts, character acting, sub vocalization tone
-helldump – internet gossip forum where personal information is freely posted
-LF lassiezes fair subforum on SA that was active around 07/08 – massive political wars, with other subforums taking over it through manipulation and trolling and rigging it to be a political waste land

F

-LF moves to wddp.org ----→ a mock communist UN is established ----------→ free gossip and no rules, including snuff videos on onion tor, etc, etc, free shit talking about anyone and anything related to the political LF subforum
-canada LF ---→ the world SA political community is divided into many sectors, with Canadian LF being the most crazy and drama gossip filled with the most passionate liberals and social concepts being pushed for, including things like COMMUNIST PUSSY (not prostitution) and deflowering ceremonies (p cool)
-gossip and internet gang cultures form in the Southern Ontario portion of LF/wddp/SA/darknet
-feminist gangs that enjoy ghostbusting or flat out vigilante attacks and murders vs people that have "escaped social justice" by having an expensive lawyer and cheating the system
-a very corrupt notion of communist social justice which rewards the poor through honor culture and tribal violence and not ethics, love, compassion, monetary and job incentives etc.

the toronto communist anarchy movement on the internet is born and its really fucking dumb approaching levels of gang stalking elitist fascism and lord of the flies level social profiling before ever contacting a personal it is very easy to be an e-detective and spy on vulnerable people or minorities or ANYONE YOU DONT LIKE if you know what to do .

What I learned from looking at SA

many gang crimes are made to look like accidents or ritual suicide this can include paying for an honor crime or dishonor crime by sticking your hand nonchalantly (while a boss overlooks you) into a paper machine and getting sucked up into it, being encouraged to euthanize yourself or hiring the local drunk/fuck up/abuser/ to do a job and "drive drunk" into a person you don't like or are a rival with or fear, making it look like an accidents this is how deep a criminal assassination plots can go with fall guys when the social grapevine and indirect communication, pawns, and chess like strategy is used in a criminal organization this can even including making women the shot callers, traffickers, or media personalities to bring a fresh face to criminality or just appeal to criminals in general

The dangers of group think on the internet – THINGS TO BE AWARE OF WHEN YOU TRY TO TROLL bandwagon effect

streisand effect

hive minded fascism (populist circlejerk without real ethics) race: grey alien sex: female class: fag hag

notes: forehead posture eyes lips etc are not completely hidden when the grey alien takes human form warning: grey alien female known to manipulate closet homosexuals into thinking they are straight, will nest and secure insemination thus furthering goals of mind control and slavery of human race cosby effect

witch hunts

lynch mobs

internet gangs getting to arrogant trying to manipulate the legal/social system with trolling or conspiracy vigilantism such as radical feminist “ghostbusting” aka internet social justice being taken into street justice without court being provided peer pressure to conform to the clique/mob will without ethics mob mentality

pure fascism

neo nazism

genocidal ideas against minorities or things you dont agree with mazlows concept of self actualization combined with street activism and viral memes mazlow's concept of the self actualized person being easily confused with the psychopathic person

Medicating yourself into psychosis or psychopathy is very possible if you don't take them responsibly, this includes government prescribed medication which is very easy to have prescribed to you if you embellish your symptoms as many people that crave socialized free drugs do – apparently you can even get a ketamine prescription for mmd/bipolar now

Forensic Psychology must come to the forefront to deal with complex social issues involving minute details and it must be accessible at the court level for all minorites free of charge including case prep when charged with a crime

the easiest way to do this is to offer internet resources in jail cells (think of video games in mcdonalds) as well as live chat to analysis’s that can keep important case details in private this + allowing the defendant to better self represent themselves without a lawyer and have more leeway and freedom before being formally found guilty (people on bail or charged or high risk still need access to legal resources and prison is the wrong type of environment to do this in) prisoners in southern ontario in the 18-34 year range are smarter than people give them credit for this is mostly due to the internet \Memetics and stealing IP its very easy to intersectionality use sociological feminism and empathy to trace back information meme sources simply using quantum probabilities and game theory this means you can trace back things to “the initial sin” type spot or the tipping point of a trend or the first spark or idea and all the surrounding context that produced it and made it accessible or the “random” outlier factors that came into play in creating it or the momentum of the trend or the emotion of it or the strict liability of copyright and stealing identities, ideas, and schemes

Internet gossip transparency vulnerability honor culture social Darwinism the Darwin awards, genocide, hate crimes, profiling, group think, mob mentality, lord of the flies, kill piggy, total lack of ethics in group think.

Honesty sets you free secret societies get exposed

if you are part of an online troll group, group profiling someone, to attempt to bully them, or stalk them, or teach them a lesson, you're engaging in vigilantism when it carries over to real life things like physically “ghostbusting” rapists are illegal because they are violent crimes people that descend into the darkest points of group think/mob mentality even if for perceived ethical reasons still run the danger of allowing the mob to control their emotions becoming a hive mind of ignorance and eventually falling into fascist criminal behavior (genocide, gang stalking, witch hunts, lynch mobs)

BAN ZEPTO
TAB 1

anyone talking about the darwin awards has a sever lack of empathy to begin with as did all people that voted stephen harper and weren't billionaires.

Antisemitism south scarborough somethingawful.com southern ontario internet gossip culture is pathetic jew fro jew nose jew boy, hang out with nazis nazis on the 12 bus, 30 nazis on the 12 bus 1 jew kid coming home from the movies nazis in the school

mr.felon is a sa goon possible?

This teacher name drops “scarborough eugenics project” in school one day guess neo nazism and antisemitism is cool on the internet when ur a teacher and teach leadership class at a school guess it can backfire when you don't understand how memes can be traced backwards and reverse engineered its good to be involved in an all boys school, its pretty fucked up to promote social eugenics against people with jewish looks in the catholic school board

even if it is online and you have a crazy alibi, proxy connection, etc

all drugs in SO are connected to the bikies or gangs in one way, AB is big in south scarborough, aryan brotherhood, if ur gonna deal drugs ur gonna have to gain the acknowledgment of the local gang or coopt in with them this requires not being a rat and understanding their culture, also maintaining enemies with people that are marked, for loyalty reasons honor culture always ends in destruction because its puritanical when it hits the group think/mob mentality there is no benevolent fascism factor to it, it just becomes group fascism of the genocidal/hate mob kind

As canadians we are allowed to say death to america despite soon most likely becoming another state/union member american imperialism has fucked up the world but also technologically innovated things to the point where its getting better FOR ALL PPL the internet allows anyone to gain a university education in their spare time just by reading (lit arts is a real education fuck you if you dont think so) on the internet we are not just canadians we are internet people that means throwing away the tradtion and the honor culture, the group think, the fascism, the insecurities, the peer pressure

be a free internet person

FUCK AMERICA IF THEY KILLED YOUR FAMILY

when you carpet bomb for oil, the kids of the ppl you carpet bombed come back to blow up your world trade center

one mans terrorist is another mans freedom fighter till we accept this grave consequence there will continue to be social disorder and NO REHABILITATION punishment and violence have been out evolved by compassion love and communication this is feminist intersectionality

Beach sloth the qt boi so very nice and so prestigious the best of the best beach sloth alt lit is @ my FINGER TIPS

I am looking to get closer to beach sloth and further away from prison but I require your digital laws to change and acknowledge the spectrum of both ASPD and the SELF ACTUALIZED and autism

learned autism is happening on the internet and malcom gladwell has a great book on it

it can also become a social trend of massive proportions bordering on fascist group think or “social street justice” vigilantism

if we all team up together we can use e-detective work to out the worst criminals (even if we are criminals ourselves) in the name of social justice this doesn't work because everyone is allowed a trial and a judgment social justice should not become street justice or vigilantism unless things are DIRE ghostbusting internet trolls, or proclaiming to have done it in real life, is cyberbullying or straight up attempted murder pending what you pick and how you connect the social grapevines and technology of a online newspaper content creation system specifically designed to be broken and obfuscate things

I and my team have always been very way high discreet in services we offer to the public we have come to a conclusion that we are going to let those who really need to travel out the immigrant and the refugees change documentation change visibility certified documents license and more .

On the internet where pride doesnt exist

Achille Deveria

My uncle surprised his wife on such a trip and found her cheating on him. He carried a 5 shot 38 special, hit the guy once in the back of the head and his wife four times. In court he said he found a man "raping his wife" and tried to shoot and kill him. That was when I was a teenager, three years later when he got out of jail (he took a plea deal) I asked him "do you ever regret killing her?" he said "no, if I lived one thousand lives I'd still kill her every time".

I'm sorry you got outted as a SOMETHINGAWFUL GOAT troll (greatest of all time) im sorry its easy for anyone to see that you intentionally tried to bait me into sending you something violent and fictitious as you were panicing that you had been doxxxed and possibly implicated in an murder/car accident scheme you may or may not have been apart of (the social grapevine is a powerful thing and when your eyes lit up with joy at the picture of courtney being dead I felt sick to my stomach).

Gang hit for a girl that claims her grandma is a neo nazi and parades herself around a forum as COMMUNIST PUSSY denying that its her till internet friends tell me she's been cheating on me for years and even profiled me before I met her what do I have to be sorry about that's psychopathy not love had I received transparent notice that this person was an insane psychopath or that somethingawful was a rigged piece of media designed to obfuscate identities and even rootkit at the program language/vbulletin level due to being custom software and radium a crazy genius it all is pretty pathetic and a really terrible group lynch way to throw someone in jail and hopefully get them pozzed there is no personal responsibility in this only victimhood and vengeance

it is a purely corrupt and unethical concept and anyone participating in this scheme is truly psychopathic not only on the internet but in real life killing other women and making it seem like an accident just because they have looser opinions on sexuality than you on an academic forum like LF does not mean you get to call in your NEO NAZI aryan brotherhood connection as a birthday gift to have her killed

I PRAY TO JESUS I AM DELUSIONAL BUT SOMETHINGAWFUL IS TRULY A PIECE SOFTWARE IT SECURITY WORK AND SOMEONE THAT CAN CARRY A LIE SO HARD FOR SO MANY YEARS WHILE PROFILING ME DESERVES NO APOLOGY that is entrapment and conspiracy NOT love or a relationship OR VICTIMHOOD that is group psychopathy not just individual online.

I have nothing to be sorry for other than that I may have hurt your feelings saying something completely fictitious, and that the help I tried to give you didn't save you from your own gossip and lies and unethical goals.

Posting effigy of disabled people, people you don't like, its not quite in public or with their face its still indirect harassment no matter how much you gossip or try to hide it it can still be tracked back no matter how many rootkits are in the software that its posted on no matter how much you trust lowtax things get out of hand

cyber bullying and cyber fascism are real things we need to confront as a society so is cyber vigilantism and gangs using the internet to communicate this goes beyond just the tor network and directly back into tribal prison culture, criminal language, criminal slang, criminal metaphor, etc machines, food, dancing, drugs, those things are all not literal they are visual and poetic metaphors body language counts too

The intersectionality of ripping a persons childhood identity online off and then getting married to lowtax supposedly

idk if any of this is true

but when I was 10-13 I fought neo nazis and was a pro gamer sniper/player in Tribes, I gained the attention of many, probably even angel munoz

I said I was a 17 year old hot raver chick and got guys messaging me telling me theyd rape me etc and man fans

I rolled with it till I was 13 when I admit I was a dood and moved on to bigger things

you claimed my intersectional ideas

one of you even used a 13 year old kids ideas on intersectional feminism disney princesses for their york masters thesis a direct rip off of my ideas when I was a kid

the point being this was a 10-13 year old child, who was a team leader of 30 year old men and women from there I obviously grew into things like cult figure status, meme, leader, community manager, business man, authorship, thought leader, creative content provider, and original meme content creation

much to the love of many content creators that have straight up ripped off my identity and ideas

mostly ex girlfriends or jealous neighbors/relatives

I do not understand the jealousy, if you didn't watch tv ur whole damn life and rely on the simpsons for all nuclear family knowledge maybe it'd be different

personally I just read books, hundreds of them, when I was A CHILD

I was set up to be a writer before I even knew what writing was and thats my privilege and thats y I dont give a fuck about writing correctly or even “in a sane tone”

fuck you if you cant develop a context on your own ghetto kids born into a warzone or life of poverty can

why cant “academics”

death of the liberal class by chris hedges is needed reading FOR ALL

when content creation pays as good as it does it's no wonder people ripped off my ideas and then tried to defame me into a privileged paul bernardo figure and whos to say women cant team manipulate/black widow? Duke lacrosse was real. Internet gangs are real Zanta vs tony robbins of jail dont be annoying zanta

dont always be manic

you dont always have to do push ups

if you do that stuff dont do it in jail ppl want to relax sometimes etc motivational speaking will just get u punched in the head be real and listen to ppl feel their emotions till judges and the system can feel the pain and hell of the intimates in ALL PRISONS and acknowledge that the screws and courts are often times MORE AUTHORITARIAN UNJUSTLY in ALL THE WRONG WAYS

our society is going to not progress feminist intersectionality is here to stay, for all sexes, men and women, have intersectional responsibilities now

Timing and conspiracy on the internet

crazy making the SA goon way

the page is changing all the time the context of the moment is lost

learn to predict and profile people through the computer as their online personalities

and you can bait them into certain reactions with emotional indirect trolls (which are then never seen and make the person look quite delusional)

the only other concept to this thats a good analogy is MKULTRA

essentially due to the internet being a living text on its and an ever changing text of memes and archetypes

it is quite easy to snuff out a minority voice if the group mind chooses to censor it government IT security and legislation has not kept up with indes or the actual program language creators and their political interests.

Timing context is everything and distorts perceptions terribly if viewed in a black and white manner

on the internet we are all rainbow but its easier to just say indigo if you like being a solid colour

ya you can change teams if you want and honor and loyalty dont mean a lot

commitment and ethics though are pretty cool

and just war theory

and Narnia

and true friendship teamwork honesty compassion love PEACE

e-detectives and group conspiracy and fascism will always get owned in a court of law send me to jail pozzz me out rape and kill me if im not dead ill be the bernie sanders of jail prisoner and social legal aid internet access 24 library time 24/7 for all prisoners overseen by expert spam/illegal activty prevention security

#2 moving to a cottage rehab/therapy/sustainable system

what if jesus was the devil

how to crazy make on the internet or group/gang stalk a theoretical primer using a vbulletin internet forum software like somethingawful.com that is both rigged internally and at the programming language level psychologically railroading someone on the internet as a group using a vbulletin system + computer language rootkit

#1 the database is going to obfuscate and mismatch ip/creditcard information with the actual account names
#2 visible indicators on the account (avatars, names, dates, times) can all be changed
#3 timing of the psychological group troll is critical because the vbulletin page is an interactive newspaper that fades and changes message as time goes on #4 if the target is viewing the front page of the forum at a certain time, and the group of trolls/psychological attack is coordinated on an offsite to coincide with the targets viewing, the psychological indirect insults can be quick, and then disperses, if the complaint is made without verification of the attack in the moment it becomes very hard to prove mal intent at a later date because the context of the moment is gone.
#5 essentially it becomes a secret/low key psychological attackers
#6 this is compounded by IT security forensics obfuscation, splinter cells within splinter cells containing personal information (phone numbers, real names, criminal records, etc) on the darknet
#7 and laws that do not keep up with technological know how
#8 if the timing of attacks has pushed the person into an emotional extreme, either depression, worry, panic, etc, and they react, quickly dissipate all information and make it look like nothing happened at all and they were the crazy/aggressive one

analogy if you plot a stock chart graph at 5 minute intervals per point and the same information again but at 1 hour, and then 1 week, 1 month, all of the charts will look different, and it's because they are different. You are perceiving the information in a different time frame. This also happens to context in the internet medium.

violence in prison

its very easy to group/gang beat someone against metal surfaces in an instant sneak a small stabbing object or drugs in etc these things are going to happen no matter how many security and penalizing measures are in no matter how plain jane the jail is an alternative to the dry jail environment is to give prisoners rehabilitative outlets that will turn them away from violence this can and should include resheltering pets under supervision and through a merit system, gardening, composting, planting trees, landscaping and construction work, beer/bar time, food, essentially just make the prison system a civil service union military (non combat infrastructure/social activist military unit)

you commit a crime you must pay society back with measurable GOOD DEEDS and LOVE and SOCIETY WILL SHOW YOU LOVE BACK locking people up in zoo cages only makes them more nuts

Shorting ETFs? A good idea? (eg. FAZ, FAS)

DECEMBER 31, 2008 – COMMENTS (8) | RELATED TICKERS: FAZ, FAS

I'm rather new to investing (2 months ago I made my first buy) and I had an idea while I was persusing ETFs.

From what I understand, ETFs that try to give returns greater than the underlying index (eg. FAS, FAZ give/take 3x the underlying financials) slowly lose money over time to leveraging and fees. ie. the fund managers taking some of the money. My question is, why not short both FAS and FAZ? There will be spikes on big days, but the opposite ETF should go the other way. And they will both lose money to leveraging over time. Isn't this win/win?

If I'm clearly wrong, please dont be too harsh as I am new :)

I guess it's a good idea depending on your appetite for risk. Turthfully I don't know what the long term outlook will be for these. I wouldn't risk more than 1%-2% of my portfolio doing that though, a lot of these etfs can quadruple quickly.

Thanks for the comments.

To me it seemed foolproof, but I realized if the ETF quadrupled, my broker might force me to cover (even though it would not remotely last). Check out the charts for FAZ, on huge crash days like nov 20th, it skyrocketted, but quickly returned to earth.

manipulation and rape by deception is a real thing. If you are an exceptionally intelligent womyn by definition if you also have a rage issue it probably wont be coming out as physical aggression but emotional resentment and manipulation. You can probably even make up a fake medical diagnosis or ethical cause if you're particularly clever or deviant. Harley quinn from batman mixed with bathory for example. Pacing and Leading a person into a type of reaction or behavior is a very possible thing, its even easier to do as a group. Social pressure, peer pressure, social expectation, emotional abuse, are all real things that can trigger other people. Scheduling and hyping up a sexual NSA encounter and then over reacting and calling it rape because you got fired from your job, or even were sick of the job and wanted to be a “welfare queen” are real things. These need to be discussed in topics of sexual assault with no physical injury report and lots of conglomerating evidence of consent (like texts before and after various forms of domestic violence ive seen from women throwing plates at my friends head saying you have legal right to kill a man because your other ex bf raped you and you have ptsd (then participating in a tumblr ft anita sarkeesian canadian ghostbusting scheme)

when losing a polite verbal argument telling someone to leave or you'll call the police (o so I just magically leave and you keep all the shit we moved to ur place while blocking my number, if I get angry or write sarcastic insults back because im not a nutter, that counts as harassment now Lol. I think you are harassing my human rights by stealing my shit and controlling the situation in an authoritarian abusive immature way) little princess syndrome and “i want a real man” and domestic violence from women – saying a real man is blue collar or has to work a trade job is just retarded. A real man is anything a person with a penis wants to be. If there is some giant judging identity on what a real man is in 2016, you are not a feminist you are a misogynist and just didnt get feminism in the first place.

hated male attitudes – u mean u can be an intersectional feminist and not want to support poly couplings, big banks ft hillary, the ron paul like candidacy of bernie sanders, or no always means no, or even the title of the current free sex woman's sexual emancipation “slut walks” (y not free sex walks? Being a slut usually has a connotation of being an emotional abuser to it, I wouldnt go to a stud or pimp walk if you paid me).

dare's facebook arg in 2011 (alternative reality game) clover_field – this was a cool experiment for me. Spam out 2k friend requests have 1.3 accept, be able to spam social media attacks whenever I want while deactivating my fb taking names in quake taking heads – for 5 bux I can win u name and take a head officially. Aside from that dont copy names like graffiti etc.
caro dare love story is simple – since we were 15 we've been arguing on the internet and you've been banning me. I dated your sister I didnt know who you were. I dropped out before we met at ryerson formally I thought you were beautiful back then. Do chris and sean and ur sister know weve met many times before. Y ru polar attracted to me and so in my face about it. I was never trying to get in a relationship with you if I was id have wrote a book about you not ur sister.
color coding emotional text – how is colour coding text not a more common thing. Want to communicate emotional context to people. Use a colour code rubric. Most peoples lives are rubrickized into the autism spectrum already anyway. Regurgitation zombie robots.

keystones of evidence as small as twitters being censored or an email being lost or one or two texts deleted. Its that easy in a fornesic environment. Two narrativized stories. No physical evidence. A judge is playing psychic at best. The bandwagon effect is real and studied. So more people saying the same story doesnt strictly prove the story real just that its potential to have a group delusion or a group traumatic experience with the same individual. Strength in numbers is only cool till you can just make up your own numbers virally and learn to fudge the numbers yourself internet trolling and throwing other trolls in jail is fun – my first hand experience and why I value it a false rape accusation is healthy for a feminist man to go through – I mean hypo ethically I get it and I lived it. I still got beaten with a pipe. I still got “ghostbusted” by a vigilante group that took credit for it on a digital medium that just fades away over time. Career liar women were still believed over me. I did not get a ghomeshi acquitted verdict. I plead to a crime that not only I didnt commit and left no injury or mark or red spot but that I was asked to perform many many many times? Ty please hang me

Do you like Phil Collins? I've been a big Genesis fan ever since the release of their 1980 album, Duke. Before that, I really didn't understand any of their work. Too artsy, too intellectual. It was on Duke where Phil Collins' presence became more apparent. I think Invisible Touch was the group's undisputed masterpiece. It's an epic meditation on intangibility. At the same time, it deepens and enriches the meaning of the preceding three albums. Christy, take off your robe. Listen to the brilliant ensemble playing of Banks, Collins and Rutherford. You can practically hear every nuance of every instrument. Sabrina, remove your dress. In terms of lyrical craftsmanship, the sheer songwriting, this album hits a new peak of professionalism. Sabrina, why don't you, uh, dance a little. Take the lyrics to Land of Confusion. In this song, Phil Collins addresses the problems of abusive political authority. In Too Deep is the most moving pop song of the 1980s, about monogamy and commitment. The song is extremely uplifting. Their lyrics are as positive and affirmative as anything I've heard in rock. Christy, get down on your knees so Sabrina can see your asshole. Phil Collins' solo career seems to be more commercial and therefore more satisfying, in a narrower way. Especially songs like In the Air Tonight and Against All Odds. Sabrina, don't just stare at it, eat it. But I also think Phil Collins works best within the confines of the group, than as a solo artist, and I stress the word artist. This is Sussudio, a great, great song, a personal favorite.

I think you should bend her over a park bench and fuck her with your stinking, rock-hard fuck staff until she's dead. Use your keys to rip her creamy little dick cavity to shreds. Smear the blood all over your face and shaft. Then, you should shit into her mouth. By this, you will show her that you are in the dominant position, and that you don't care one way or the other about her behavior. It's the next best thing to fucking severing, which you should promptly do while you vote her life a five and give her ass AIDS. Nuke her from orbit, but at the same time, make sure you're using fire. I am a big fat faggot. I like to pick my nose and put the boogers into my erect penis. I like to pee out little rods of my compressed penis booger. God is a faggot. God is a nigger. The Lord God Jesus Christ is a worthless faggot. I kill everything I see. I can't stop fucking. I wish I could have sex. I want to fuck so bad. I can taste your fucking vagina juice. I am a nigger. I am a stupid stupid fat fucking nigger. Give me a Snickers bar, hot dog, and some Doritos. Anime ninja. Let's watch some Naruto. God is Hitler's faggot. There is no such thing as a faggot.
"It's almost midnight Annie," I said waving down the bartender and signaling the check sign in the air. "We should get out of here."
"Yeah I know, I'll close-out too." She said grabbing her jacket and sliding her arm into the wrong sleeve.
are you a conservative and want to reduce the population of males to just what is needed to inseminate the female popularization. or are you a liberal and do you want 2 hot babes for every guy? how do you want to get to the next level of society..
We both thanked the marine guys we drank with and said our good-byes the strangers we met along the way then headed for the doors. We stepped out into the cool Pacific Beach air and headed down the sidewalk towards our house; a short five block walk from the bar.

tribes has women voices and skins its been around since 1998 there is no real violence in the game or real guns. Real gun games do cause men to idolize real violence not the cartoon kind. Games like medal of honor and columbine do push people to be serial killers, gun nuts, or directly in the military. Look at america's army as a military funded project. I write a lot on this online. I have no internet connection. Most of my writing is kept on the cloud. My career is fucked now. So im just gonna write rambling shit and trhow books on the ground of it. The dood cried at a bar to two strangers (me and gram) because no 1 else could relate to him. We are all feminists. Its not feminist to physically assault doods and then throw their id credit cards and wallet out the window then crouch down and plug ur ears in front of the door and scream RAPE. It scares the fuck out of everyone. U did this to a bunch of doods. Tom wanted to press charges. Now u run my life for the last 10 years as some kind of gimmick on the internet. a letter to josh do not, and apology – hey im sorry I was depressed that night . I hope I didnt get anyone with a key. That was really uncool of me. Aside from that. Well brain surgery wasnt fun. So im happy we met etc. I totally forgive u and I hope u forgive me. I hope ur doods forgive me too especially if I hurt anyone. I was kind of looking to die but then I woke up. P fuked up. Anyway u r really unique. Ur ppl r also really nice. The francaphone to english thing is A+. I had fun. I could probably take real drugs with u but I feel like we'd knock over too many banks 2 quick. It would not be healthy for me or u or society LOL. Ppl will never understand spraypainted toy guns LOL I think it gets incrementally stupid by the time we're 50 and they can use robots or watever and heal real gun wounds. Like how will these ppl even conceptualize themselves then.
The violence stuff is okay if u consent to it imo. Ive been attempted murdered. It was my fault. I should owe society the bill for medical costs I went out looking to die in drugs and I almost did. This is why euthanasia should be a real consideration. Medical costs at sunnybrooke must be incredible. I also caused the doods I fought to have some kind of insane ptsd from a meth/coke vs depressed guy fight and they wound up in jail themselves. And ive met them and its silly to have these ppl locked up.
I met a guy that had lived a life of poverty and being robbed and he turned into a robber and he stabbed a dood once and has been in some other gang related fights. Hes a long term offender now forever not even 30. never got an expensive lawyer to research and profile and create an argument for him. When he tried to defend himself like I did he probably fucked himself over even more (as anyone will because convictions are good business and police are allowed to lie. U arent tho).
Probably got a tough conservative white man judge. The kids of who have never been in jail but are fine putting “STREET NS” in because they must all be terrible and it must be something that cant be fixed ever. Same with ppl that do meth crack and coke they must all be sick as fuck and look like FACES OF METH. They cant be musicians and writers and sales ppl and normal ppl. And we shouldnt socialize and regulate these drugs and ppls health who take them (in a unique and tolerant way).

dating beautiful women that are victims of sexual/emotional abuse a how to as a male feminist – get ready to be punched in the face and accused of rape. They do this sometimes when they are coming out of a really bad extreme ptsd experience and dont want to rot their brains with medication or waste time with therapy and still live a relatively normal life. If u dont mind someone yelling at you occasionally or physically assaulting u. which I dont because I watched too much tv when I was a kid. Then ur fine and it should be legal and moderated or at least taught. The power and control wheel only teaches so much and doesnt go into extreme emotions of which many ppl r experimenting with now not only via drugs but thought and literature

Only Leaders & Admins Can Speak Globally In Tourney Mode...

Version 1.7
Using Team Energy to Limit Heavies and Refills Put Admin ability in to teamchange in game. They won't spawn until the current game is over Took the BLAH out of the Objective Menu
Put in Autoteam in between maps Extended the delay in between games to account for twitches killing people
The observer should no-longer have to re-observer in between games to change what they are looking at

Version 1.6.1
Find that ammopacks gave you mines WHOOPS Took out the initial Team Choice menu

Version 1.6
Added a centerprint on match end, as well as a sound byte Added a check for team death 3 seconds into match, so anyone who has killed themselves in countdown or prematch are considered for team death Added the ability to change the Timelimit and maxplayers based on if its an Arena map or not (Look at the cs file to see how to do this) Hardcoded TeamDamage on

Version 1.5.8
Had a typo

Version 1.5.7
Fixed the bug that caused hangs.
Took out the ability to have admins add people during a fight
You no longer ready between games, only between matches

Version 1.5
Put in Automatic Team joining in between matches. Also an admin menu option to disable this.
Touched up some of the Messages about whose ready and what not. It only displays unready clients if there is less than 4
Added a new feature to the tab menu. The team name is which team the player is on, regardless if they are alive are dead Another new feature: An * appears beside the players name if they are currently alive.
Scorelimit, Ready Up timer, and AutoTeamJoin are now only set in the code if thier value didn't previously exist. This means, once you set, say, the score limit, changing the map won't reset it to the default value.
Holding objectives won't give you points now

Removed Mines
Added messages to the Fire when Ready to show team score

During countdowns, if someone observered and they were the last member it would break things all to hell (fixed)
When an Admin teamchanged someone with Automatic, they were placed on the team but never spawned (fixed) Voted Admins can now give others Voted Admin status Slightly changed the Objective menu Voted Admins can toggle if the Timer on ReadyStatus is active or not.

Version 1.3.1
A bad if statement was causing no one to respawn correclty.

Version 1.3
Rewrote observer code, lets all pray it works now :)
Added a message to show who isn't readied up.

Version 1.2
Removed to option to change teams when MatchStaus = 1 (when people are fighting)
When a player leaves a team, and he is the last one alive, that team loses now (had the check in the wrong place)

Version 1.11
Extremely lagged players were entering the game in ready-mode between level changes (fixed)
When entering a game (for whatever reason) and the match is running, it shouldn't place you in the ready up state.

Version 1.1
Admin changing a team would instantly place the player in game, but not spawn the player (fixed) Switching to Observer mode wouldn't reset the player's matchteam (fixed)

Tribes Arena
Rasia w/ Thanks to TheGriffin and Ninja rasia@deviousassassins.com

Hi, and thanks for taking a look at this. It is a work in progress, but I think its suitable for the public now.

I got the idea from Clan Arena from Q1, and that a bunch of my tribe-mates were doing something similar to this in a normal CTF game one time. I decided that I should just spend to the time and do it up right.

Terms:
Game: When the countdown is done, a game starts. When one team no longer has living members, the game is over.
ScoreLimit: How many games you must win to win the match.
Match: One set of games. When one team has hit the scorelimit, the match is over.

The Game:
You choose which team you want to join for the match, and when all the spawned players are ready, the countdown begins. You grab EQ, and frag the hell out of your enemies! When one team no longer has any players living (you don't respawn when you die), the winning team gets a point, and the teams go out at again. When one team has the amount of points dictated by the server to win a match (default is 3), then they win, and the match resets itself.

Installation:
Unzip the arena.cs file into tribes\base (if you unzip with paths it should work fine)
To set the server into Tribes Arena mode, simply change the map to a Tribes Arena one. You can just switch back to other mission types and it should be normal.

NOTE:
Turrets and Mines are NOT in the game.
Team Damage is hard coded on.
The * beside peoples name means they are alive

Bugs, Suggestions, Flames, etc all sent to Rasia@planetstarsiege.com

NOTE: If you want to run this on a pub server, PLEASE do so. I would love to know where it is also.

Thanks

If you unzip the entire archive directly into your Tribes directory using paths, and this should put all the right files in the correct folders. If you wish to extract manually, please refer to the previous "Archive Contents" section to see which files goes in which directory.

Tribes Arena now fixes a couple issues in Dynamix's original script files, including a few bugs and exploit (see Arena_Versions.txt for complete description of changes and additions). For this reason, several original tribes scripts must be updated, namely admin.cs, comchat.cs, and gui.cs. These files are originally packaged in the scripts.vol tribes archive. Because in some cases the updated files will not load (probably due to modified timestamps), I've also re-packaged these files into the updated scripts.vol file. You are at liberty to install the updated scripts.vol file or not, but should be aware of this issue.

If you wish to check your installation, start your server and in the server console, enter the following command "Arena::DisplayVersion();" followed by the <Enter> key.
This should display a similar output:

LastHope For Arena 4.1 by ANDREW http://www.lasthope.us & http://www.team5150.com/andrew

NOTES

LastHope is configured to check all clients on connect and at the start of every round.

Arena doesn't seem to have any logging or "permanent" ban functions, so I made LastHope save a line to tribes/console.log if some dork trying to hack LastHope joins. Ex:

"LASTHOPE: [PHAT]$niper(IP:192.168.0.66:1531) failed LastHope (1212:4291302,irc:6320029,filler:4362039)"

Timestamped join logs were also added, they are created in Tribes/Config/IPLog_ServerName.cs

COMPLAINTS

I want to shoot the person who stripped all the spacing from the code in the face.

Also, I didn't touch the revision numbers even though I edited the files since I have no idea if they're even current or not. I did change the overall version though.

What's on your mind?

Bunnie Belvedere

- Added a few sounds (requires clients to install the .wav files if they want to hear them)

Version 2.4 (by Lizard)
=======================
- Due to several admin enhancements, the file modified "base\admin.cs" is required now. If this file is not used, then enhanced admin modifications will not be available (and therefore should NOT be enabled). Updating the "base\admin.cs" REQUIRES the latest Tribes 1.11 installation.
- Added a feature to become regular "A" admin by password. Same usage as to become SuperAdmin, eg: use sad(adminpassword)
- Added another level of admin. The trusted "s" admin has all the abilities of the regular "A" admin but can not be kicked by a regular admin (either voted or by password). The trusted admin can also strip regular admins, and set password to the server. All trusted admin extra features can be configured by the server owner
- Added multi-passwords for regular "A" and trusted "s" admins. Now you can have any number of passwords (useful to assign a different password per player you want to give admin to - also makes password leakages more obvious for the server owner).
- Added a function to log who became admin using password
- Realigned admin properties by two spaces to the left for compatibility with some 3rd party client-side GUI scripts
- Added a feature so admins can vote for new maps too (that option was not available before)
- Added an option so that only Super Admins can change the Ready Up Timer
- Added an option so that only Super Admins can enable/disable auto team join
- Added an option so that only Super Admins can change the Time Limit
- Added an option so that only Super Admins can reset the server to default
- Admins can now re-team someone, even if he was locked (no more of these "unlock yourself" messages!)
- Fixed the bug where a player who just connected to the game, and had the

Hi, I represent the majority of Professional Level Gamers that Enjoyed the Tribes Series from all of the Titles this includes Anemix, Nonreg, Dawar, Chump, DarkSoul, Thorin, Lix, Fettucine, Opsayo, Stork, Me, Tool, Binswees, Dare, Dutch, Natural, 5150, etc.

Let's Talk Pro Mode 5v5 Tribes: Ascend and E-Sports Factor and Breathing New Life and Longevity into the Competitive Scene Over Night and a possible FishStix cast T1 5v5 and T:A 5v5 combo hybrid casted tourney.

"We created Tribes Ascend since we love Tribes," - Erez

"We created LT Pro Modification because we love Tribes too and want Tribes to be the most popular E-Sport." - The Community

Tribes 1 LT is a mode and modification of Tribes 1.

LT mode was made in 2002 by the Best of the Best Players from T1 Base and T2 Base as well as the Best Players in mods such as Shifter, Renegades, Annihilation, Duel, Arena, RPG, FootBall, Meltdown, etc. When interest was starting to wane in the entire series due to conflict, but Pro caliber players still wanted to compete in their favorite game series at a level that challenged them, they were willing to compromise ideals to be able to do it.

They all came together as a Community of Pro Level Gamers with respect for each other, and after discussion agreed Tribes 1 LT style format was the best and most proper format for small teams Tribes E-Sports gameplay.

Though mods and large teams were impressive in their own right, the very Best players from those scenes decided to distil the essence of their home games into one competitive Pro Format. Despite years of arguing and aggression from many factions, they did it in a very peaceful way because of a love for the game as an E-Sport.

Most of the players at the very top of the Tribes 5v5 LT Competitive Pro Mode scene grew up on Tribes from 10 years age. By the time they were teens in the early to mid-2000s they were fully imprinted on it or brainwashed this brainwashing has only continued. They are the true Pros of the Tribes series. Tribes 1 style LT is Competitive Pro Mode CTF in the Tribes series and has the biggest E-Sports excitement factor and spectator draw because of this.

This exclusive and elite Tribes 1 community produced the Best of The Best players in every Tribes game, including RTCLL and Matin from T:A, voted #1 North American and European players on Reddit.com/r/Tribes respectively, and both still current Tribes 1 LT players with over 15 years experience each in Tribes but itching for a competitive mainstream game to play for spectators. Tribes 1 style LT is made for spectators. Let's talk about bringing T1 style LT to T:A with the support of the Pro Tribes scene.

In our community's opinion, T:A was a great game that could be even better, and the changes HiRez are implementing with the PTS are excellent. But let's get more nuanced and perfect this sport. Sean and his team have made the game 95% there. Things don't need to be changed much for this old school 5v5 Pro Community to jump over and love T:A just as much as they did Tribes 1. You've experimented with the LT vision of casuals a few times now, and it only needs slight tweaks on the excellent framework already built. IMO it wouldn't be much more than a Paladins style hotfix, and it would set the Tribes Series up for continued E-Sports popularity in years to come. Like the Historically popular game, it once was and will always be. Fishstix is with me on this, and I'm pretty hardcore.

Recently a member of our T1 5v5 community won the first ESL Overwatch Tournament, Chump from Team Hubris. Shout outs to him and please check him out in the future!

t:a is an amazing great game tribes 1 pro gamer disclaimer

tribes 1 ruined producing A++ games in the tribes series for for profit corporations (weird definition it is a real thing)

tribes 1 was a product of a time when mass broadband was still young.
and when sierra released an extremely unique cool strange and new niche game with no drm it became a phenomena and was mass pirated.
everyone wanted to try it when they saw it or for other people to play it with them after they tried it.
home computers internet and computer gaming was new and that was the trend of the times.
even to the point of leaving mix cds at coffee shops or even free games at cyber cafes.
it was only a decade ago but things have majorly changed.

not only the depth and uniquness of the game play made tribes 1 popular but also the times of 1998

this has not been replicated ever because people try to change it which is dumb.
personally i believe you can make an extremely profitable game while also letting it be freely distributed simply if it's popular.

everyone could come in and find their niche subcommunity which attracted a certain type of person in the early internet.
people who were into the aesthetic of tribes picked the game.
this was more than just a jetpack shooter game or esports or space knights.
this was something completely foreign and strange and new and 3d like Goldeneye n64 came out at the same time.
SO THE PEOPLE CHECKING THIS OUT INSTEAD OF GOLDENEYE WERE A BIT MORE CUTTING EDGE/UNDERGROUND/VOCAL/ETC
they most likely belonged to a very unique and fleeting demographic exisiting shortly between 1998-2003.
profiling and targetting this demographic has been extremely hard since i belive this was from a series of again very unique flukes as well as a general social psychological trend wave of exploration in 1998 and then a swift crash post 9/11 for people looking for something unique tribes was unique with all its mods didn't like comp?

go build things in a way similar to mine craft.
want to try something new try RPG mod and fight a dragon.
want a gun different than the laser one that comes with the game?
find a mod that has the one you like online skins? well there are websites that have libraries of skins thousands of skins dont like the fan community you're in? there are hundreds of them go find another forum.

at this point improving tribes 1 would be as simple as rereleasing it with upgraded graphics on the same darkstar engine (maybe even making it backwards compatible so it's just visual only).
Basically a true darkstar engine/ Tribes 1 upgrade.

however perhaps marketing a game similar to tribes 1 is not good because recreating the internet zeigeist of 1998 is impossible
the mods that were also unique in tribes are now being created into full fledged games themselves and the tribes series is just a small niche e-sport community google is doing this and youtube (seriously)

i'd say that's wrong and that really, tribes isn't a small niche community, that it just hasn't reached its full potential due to many obstacles. that it still can be more popular than halo, and that it's not hard to do i think Garage Games was on the right track with their InstantAction rerelease of t1 with better graphics which was supposed to be browser/desktop/steam compatible.

Your behavior lately has been worrying them, and that magazine your mom had to put back to not rouse suspicion has her terrified.

KILL YOUR PARENTS KILL YOUR PARENTS KILL YOUR PARENTS

i think it is possible to have a huge rich and diverse gaming community again in one game without specializing into one specific type of rigid game for esports if the base is good the t1 base was good and i think that should be focused on because in the end t;a's gameplay was really just a pub friendly t1 mod with a speed cap but it was still a great game and we should celebrate that and take it to the next level the next level really is capturing the magic of t1 again and progressing from there and i think the best way to do that is a rerelease of t1 with better graphics perhaps many people don't like the t1 graphics in video or find them too old but anyone playing a real e-sports type game should be very familiar with plain coloured textures and simple shapes next level tribes should look like this https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q3ui0hz6sm0 and also have the ability for people to mod the game the way they want similarly to what is happening with all the quake live/unreal tournament style games basically tribes needs its engine to be very unique and can't become an untreal engine twitch shooter mod

it needs darkstar v2

fortunately one of the most passionate people into tribes 1 for over 18 years now who still owns a server in tribes 1 is also a lead programer for a new square software final fantasy game either hirez could step up and spend money remaking t1

or the community could reverse engineer it completely or so similarily the difference would be minimal whether things come to that or not i think will be decided post midair's release.

my aspergers zeitgeist of the tribes series #1

t:a is an amazing great game tribes 1 pro gamer disclaimer

hi

this summarizes my thoughts on the direction of the tribes series, and why it's gone the way it's gone.

and id like this to be a community discussion

t:a is an amazing great game tribes 1 pro gamer disclaimer

tribes 1 ruined producing A++ games in the tribes series for for profit corporations (weird definition it is a real thing)

tribes 1 was a product of a time when mass broadband was still young.
pirating was just becoming a thing.
and when sierra released an extremely unique cool strange and new niche game with no drm it became a phenomena and was mass pirated.
everyone wanted to try it when they saw it or for other people to play it with them after they tried it.
home computers and internet and computer gaming were new and that was the trend of the times.
even to the point of leaving mix cds at coffee shops or even free games on burned cds at cyber cafes.
it was only a decade ago but things have majorly changed.

not only the depth and uniquness of the gameplay made tribes 1 popular but also the times of 1998

this has not been replicated ever because people try to change it which is dumb.
personally i believe you can make an extremely profitable game while also letting it be freely distributed simply if it's popular.
f2p isn't the way to do it and asking for donations or just selling the game at a flat rate while having no drm as is, is.

the most important second factor in tribes being a great game was the open modding.
everyone could come in and find their niche subcommunity which attracted a certain type of person in the early internet.
for example people who were into the aesthetic of tribes picked the game.
this was more than just a jetpack shooter game or esports or space knights.
this was something completely foreign and strange and new and 3d.
Goldeneye n64 had come out at the same time.

THE PEOPLE CHECKING THIS OUT ON BURNED CD INSTEAD OF GOLDENEYE WERE A BIT MORE CUTTING EDGE/UNDERGROUND/VOCAL/ETC THE PEOPLE WHO PICKED IT UP IN A FEW YEARS WHO HAD BEEN THE KIDS PLAYING GOLDENEYE WERE DOING IT FROM WORD OF MOUTH AND THE FACT THAT IT WAS FREE

they most likely belonged to a very unique and fleeting demographic exisiting shortly between 1998-2003.
profiling and targetting this demographic has been extremely hard since as we've had mass social changes in the last decade that have dramatically impacted our cultural values the internet pc gaming and global politics.

the general social psychological trend wave of exploration in 1998 in PC gaming and then a swift crash post 9/11 (where people settled into soldier games) really sealed the deal recently we're seeing a rebirth in obscure or modded fps titles coming back in the arenafps sector due to the easy access which i think is a similar microcosm to the tribes 1 modding community and finding nuance and uniqueness in the game format you want except with a larger fan base and more resources with serious endevours which will only grow in the future and become more of a trend for games. i believe tribes style games will get a similar treatment.

for the people that want to play tribes and at the same time
go build things in a way similar to mine craft.
want to try something new without buying a new game try a popular fan made RPG mod and fight a dragon.
want a gun different than the laser one that comes with the game? find a mod that has the one you like online skins? well there are websites that have libraries of skins thousands of skins
dont like the fan community you're in? there are hundreds of them go find another forum.

all of this was really really popular in the first tribes game and in totality those community populations were equal to the base unmodded game. so there were two factions arguing with each other at first base game vs mod communities. imo t:a tried to target the widest demographic of tribes players with its gameplay by finding similarities in the previous games and popular mods and making its own amalgamation of mods game while using the f2p no modding model to secure profits. the game ended up totally succeeding for the general pub player or people new to the series but failed to retain the esports competitive aspect that the first game had so it died.

this happened in tribes 1 many times when organizations or even companies would set up game servers with certain modifications making them useless for competition but amazing for the average pubber to have fun doing whatever. so tribes 1 really had a best of breed whats what for people to pick which competitive modification (or no mod) that they liked.

in the end a few mods stood out competitively and some were even built on each other.
there were many cycles of development in both the mods and the metagame.
basically a beta test of fpsz style gameplay for a decade.
the gameplay of tribes 1 was thoroughly tested through evolution

at this point improving tribes 1 would be as simple as rereleasing it with upgraded graphics on the same darkstar engine (maybe even making it backwards compatible so it's just visual only).
Basically a true darkstar engine/ Tribes 1 upgrade.

however perhaps marketing a game similar to tribes 1 is not good because recreating the internet zeigeist of 1998 is impossible
the mods that were also unique in tribes are now being created into full fledged games themselves and the tribes series is just a small niche e-sport community

i'd say that's wrong and that really, tribes isn't a small niche community, that it just hasn't reached its full potential due to many obstacles. that it still can be more popular than halo, and that it's not hard to do

either hirez could step up and spend money remaking t1

or the community could reverse engineer it completely or so similarily the difference would be minimal whether things come to that or not i think will be decided post midair's release.

the bottom line should be quite obvious though, that without heavy mod and skin abilities and great base physics the tribes series will continue to die.

and the only game to do that in the series has been t1

so we either continue gambling playing reinvent the wheel hoping for a new and visionary game which would end up just being a mod of the first one or we just remake the first one and watch it spread like wildfire Gun violence:

extra level has been an antigun violence activist for 20 years and has written much about it on the site:www.tribalwar.com/forums on various accounts such as Dare, plast;c, communitycollege, et all extra level has been a green party/liberal voter since forever and campaigns for liberal causes in the home of conservative trump territory routinely canvassing reddit and various other internet message board communities with pro hillary and pro bernie messages.

Violence in general is never right (self defense, just war theory being the only exceptions) whether sanctioned by a group or not. The Lord of the Flies teaches that violence and blindness in a group setting is particularly dangerous in that it can give way to fascist like mob mentalities and lynchings.

The peer pressure and mob mentality hive mindedness on the internet is reaching peak levels when trolls start to lynch their own 20 year internet friends for an attempt at media fame or out of jealousy or gossip about them for 20 years behind their backs.

Poe's law has been more and more broken in the last 5-10 years than ever before.

With the advent of the internet of things and products like google glasses and neural implants coming the internet is literally becoming the real world.

We need better legislature for the internet business and culture of youth.

This means differentiating between real harassment and the online variety that can easily be blocked with an e-mail change. Or even phone harassment that can be changed with a new number.

I've changed my numbers and e-mails many many times, have had a variety of death threats and harassment launched at me over the years, and even had ex's take over my social media forum and email accounts permanently.

Including the 3 SA goonetttes referenced in this book… I'm still owed my littlegreenhill@gmail.com email account back Nero.

Regardless thats the nature of the internet and it's important not to over police that environment especially when it spills over in real life.

The criminal demographic of 18-34 year olds in Ontario Jails are some of the smartest on the planet. This is mostly due to how much time Southern Ontarians spend online in the winter seasons (the most of any in North America). It's natural that engaging in such a ripe environment of neural plasticity growth through hyper textual secondary oration (clickable links and searches information at your finger tips etc) that this would happen IMO.

The prison system needs to give these people adequate resources not only in order to make jail a better experience for them instead of one that influences them to be angry and do more social damage, but also to elevate them.
Basic things like guards that aren't sadists, changing the prison honor culture to show that women can be entrapping, manipulative, and even down right abusive in sending their exs to jail overnight or to pin them with a criminal record after getting fired from a one night stand and being bitter and mentally ill are real things.
Internet access for criminals to research their cases and present good legal arguments without the usage of a railroading legal duty council that pushes for a plea bargain and record are critical.
Good food, private rooms, guards that are intolerant of violence but pro rehabilitation and not sadist masochism are also critical. Even murderers deserve the social grace of not living in torture when they enter the prison system.

Pushing for a rehabilitative isolated residential community for long term offenders is also critical as Norway has shown it can really be a positive experience and the science showing rehabilitation is the best option is only growing (and has been around since I was in high school). Our punitive system measurably influences recidivism rates to be higher than they should. And why wouldn't they when the poor are not only kept poor but then locked up in hell like conditions for following the social trends they have access too.

When you grow up in a ghetto/war zone and its all you know where do you think your home is?

Sometimes the worst of people just need a little love =)

Topic appendix b

Everyone wants to be kerouak or atwood no one wants to be camus or something new

How lawyers postpone a trial to sober their clients up and strategist.

Booking a later date for trial evidence “discovery”

The intersectionality of ripping a persons childhood identity online off and then getting married to lowtax supposedly

idk if any of this is true

but when I was 10-13 I fought neo nazis and was a pro gamer sniper/player in Tribes, I gained the attention of many, probably even angel munoz

I said I was a 17 year old hot raver chick and got guys messaging me telling me theyd rape me etc and man fans

you claimed my intersectional ideas

one of you even used a 13 year old kids ideas on intersectional feminism disney princesses for their york masters thesis a direct rip off of my ideas when I was a kid

the point being this was a 10-13 year old child, who was a team leader of 30 year old men and women from there I obviously grew into things like cult figure status, meme, leader, community manager, business man, authorship, thought leader, creative content provider, and original meme content creation

much to the love of many content creators that have straight up ripped off my identity and ideas

mostly ex girlfriends or jealous neighbors/relatives

ShifterK is a MOD for the Starsiege TRIBES. It is based on another popular MOD called renegades. The MOD started back 1999 when a programmer by the name of Emo1313.

Then in 2002, a young and very bright modder played the mod and decided the make his own set of changes. His mod was called Shifter_V1G. He modified Shifter to the max, making it a better MOD for all, after a year or so he decided to move on to other things.

Finally in 2003, KiLL(-) decided to make some changes and fix some problems of the left off mod. After a little while a interested gamer, enV.3zer0. He decided to help out KiLL(-) and that become the first official team of Shifter. KiLL(-) felt that ShifterK was safe in the hands of his new partner and decided to help out Tribes 2 Shifter.

Today enV.3zer0 is the current modder of Shifter and is currently helping out yet another programmer to join the history of Shifter.

ICE QUEEN

I do not understand the jealousy, if you didn't watch tv ur whole damn life and rely on the simpsons for all nuclear family knowledge maybe it'd be different

personally I just read books, hundreds of them, when I was A CHILD

I was set up to be a writer before I even knew what writing was and thats my privilege and thats y I dont give a fuck about writing correctly or even “in a sane tone”

fuck you if you cant develop a context on your own ghetto kids born into a warzone or life of poverty can

why cant “academics”

death of the liberal class by chris hedges is needed reading FOR ALL

when content creation pays as good as it does it's no wonder people ripped off my ideas and then tried to defame me into a privileged paul bernardo figure and whos to say women cant team manipulate/black widow? Duke lacrosse was real. Internet gangs are real

crazy making the SA goon way

the page is changing all the time the context of the moment is lost

learn to predict and profile people through the computer as their online personalities

and you can bait them into certain reactions with emotional indirect trolls (which are then never seen and make the person look quite delusional)

the only other concept to this thats a good analogy is MKULTRA

essentially due to the internet being a living text on its and an ever changing text of memes and archetypes

it is quite easy to snuff out a minority voice if the group mind chooses to censor it

government IT security and legislation has not kept up with indes or the actual program language creators and their political interests.

Timing context is everything and distorts perceptions terribly if viewed in a black and white manner

on the internet we are all rainbow but its easier to just say indigo if you like being a solid colour

commitment and ethics though are pretty cool

and just war theory

and Narnia

and true friendship teamwork honesty compassion love PEACE

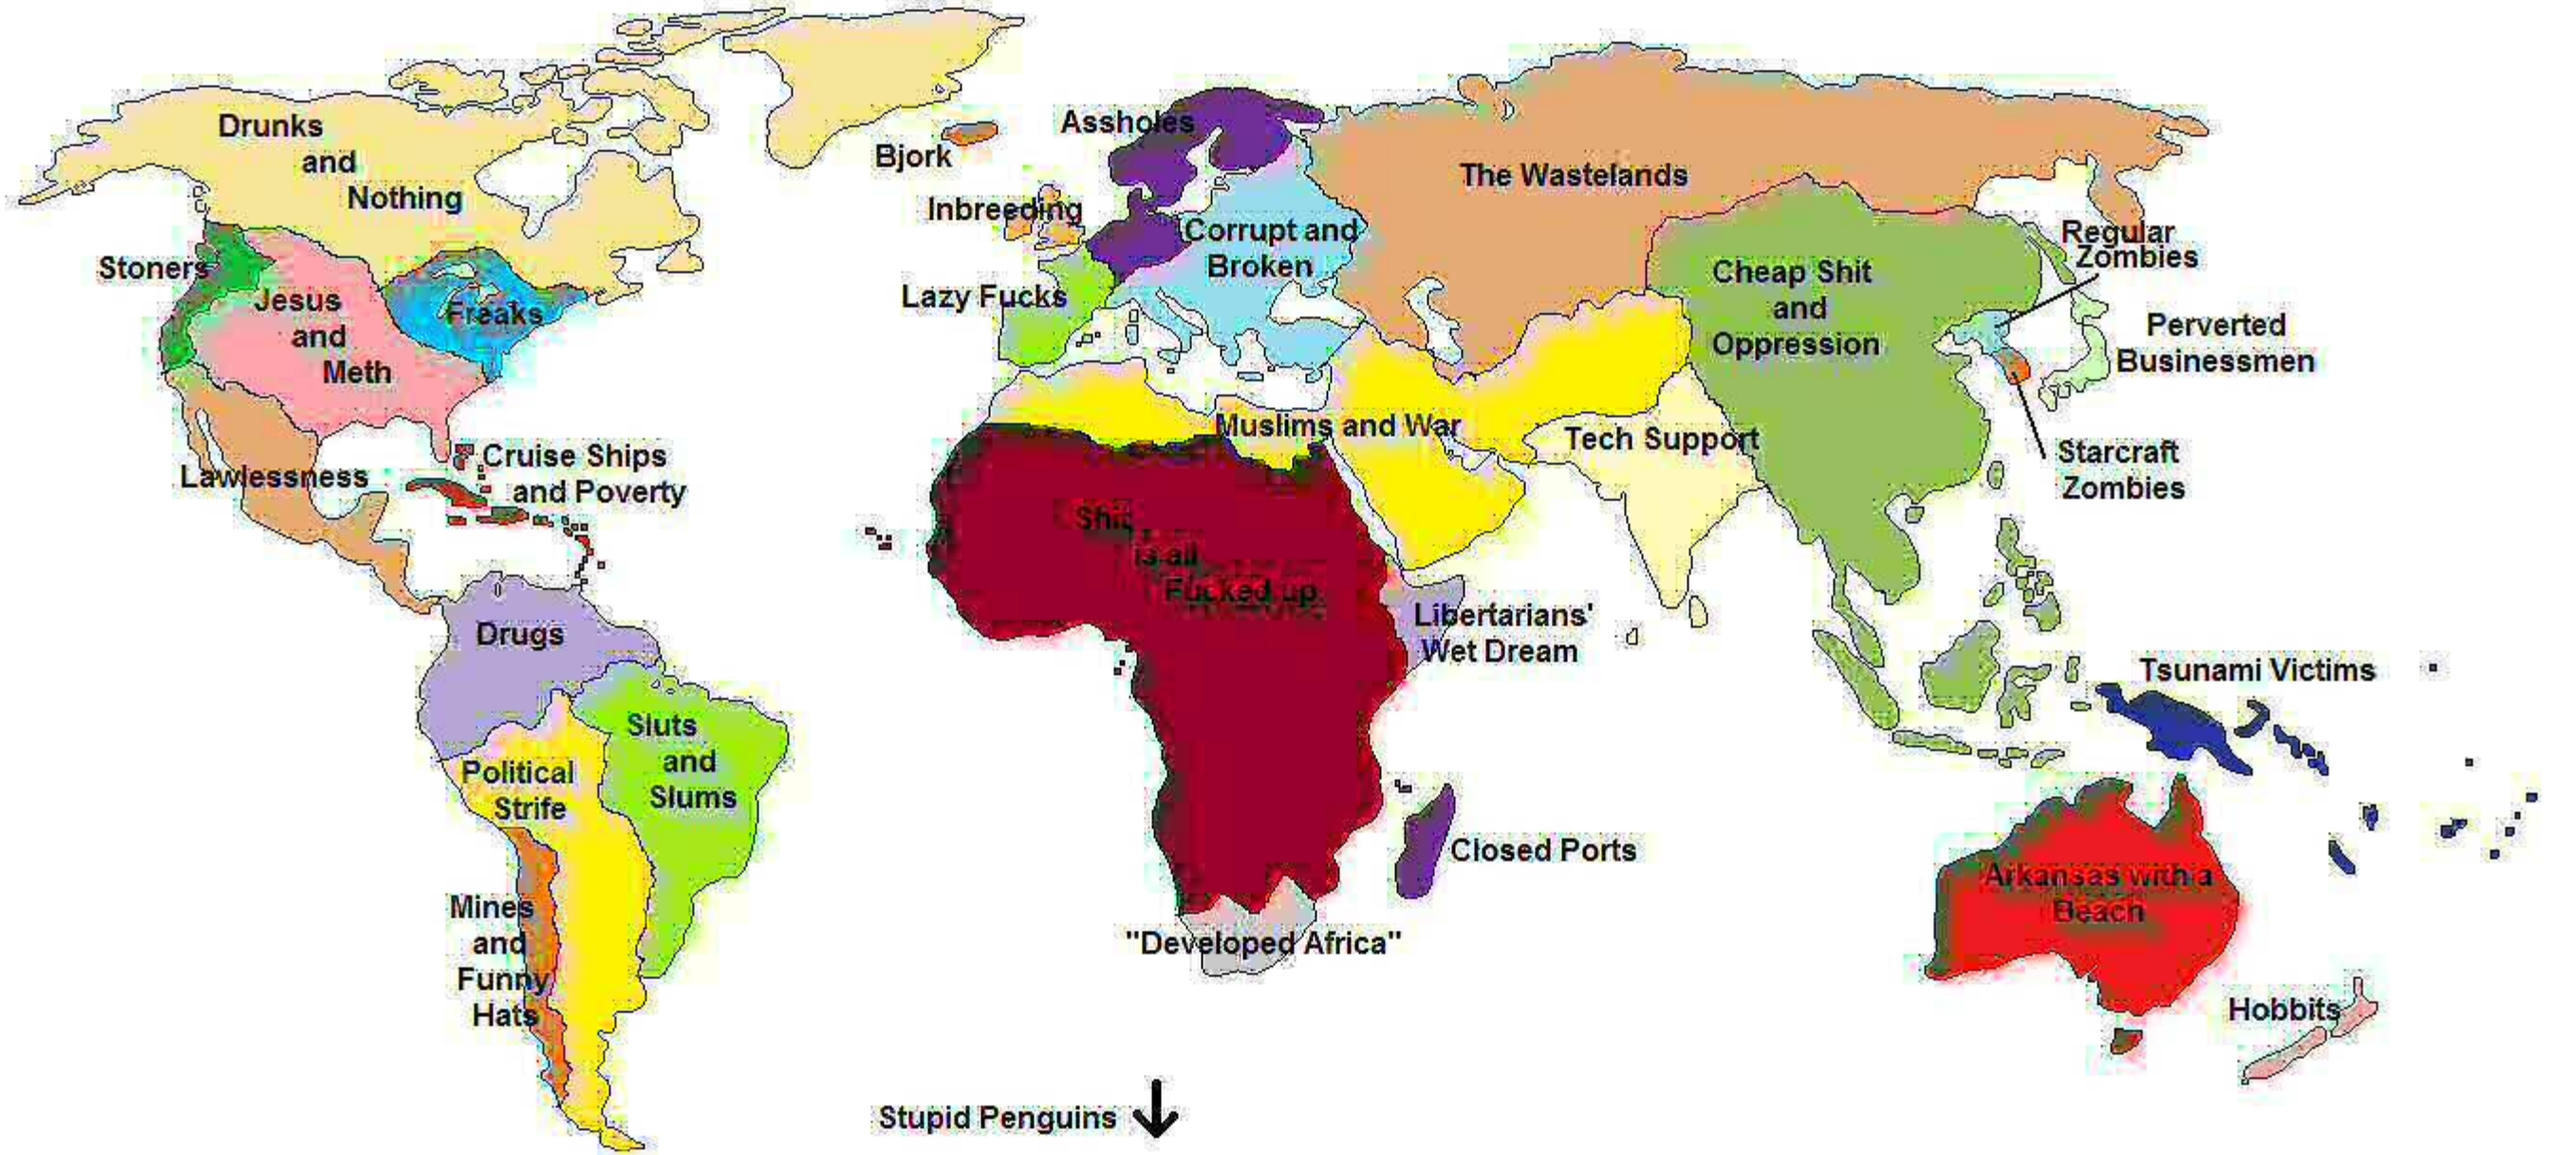

The gross sex lives of celebrities and their online counterparts

george strombolopolous gets pegged by anita sarkessian chris lawless lets his girlfriend fuck other guys for awhile in between relationships in canada if you get swatted by feminist internet trolls on the level of valerie solanas they dont prosecute the ppl that swat you they just toss you in jail even if you are a feminist too "listen and believe" you told me about your boyfriend william dragging you arouind by the hair in your room as you cried we burned all his shit together on my bbq i encouraged you to date my 6'2 male model roomie you did i was happy you were probably the love of my life. i think an ex gf that went to ur hs and is also an SA goon hired someone to kill you or was just happy you were dead cuz shes sick

whats the point of conforming if you dont want to breed and are expected to stop aging soon?
no humour writing just conceptual autism only self depricating humour for all the shills your narrativized "feminist" fiction is my anti semetic real life intersectional experience your nazi relative is my real life nightmare my grandparents fled the camps in ww2 your parents moved over nicely. u post ur an "aryan princess" online and love documentingreality.com i think u killed ur hedgehog with neglect and stress and feeding it drugs i think u manipulate ur psychologists and psychiatrists and therapists i think mental wellness and zen actually fixed u a little and ur waking up same with the time u spent with me i think this whole thing is dumb people need to talk more about internet trolling, content management, IP law, mememtics, content sourcing, transparency transparency is the biggest thing lacking in our current society and why it turned into a giant game of irc mafia or town of salem more people should learn to play town of salem style mafia in school campus coop is just coed frat housing with more rape, gossip, and domestic violence and unclean rooms on a budget. at least when i went there sexual abuse survivors may need catharsis through effigy burning and sacrafice pending their religious perspective and family culture. not all violence is bad. demonizing a person into a pariah figure on tumblr or somethingawful is dumb.

gossip told me anita sarkeesian ripped off my teenage ramblings in her york university masters thesis. i did not draw this concolusion on my own. tho i did think listen and believe was pathetic fascism.
if you're going to do benevolent fascism like i did anita it's gotta be non violent. you can't be having cronies or trolls message me death threats hoping to get me to react.
also showing up in front of my house at night or having a friend do it is fucked.
lowtax's wife is "lady ambien" idk i dont read SA much its actually somethingawful. m,y friends just happen to be the managers of the website so idk what to do really however i heard lady ambien tried to claim my pro gamer identity from when i was 13 and experimenting with playing a trans character online when she failed to perform to angel munoz ppl called her on her shit and she started censoring she may or may not be trans due to fantasizing about having sex with me as a young teen but being male and then finding out i was a man and deciding to become a womyn this is gossip i heard on the grapevine buzzfeed editors and racial pride the definition of a real man is a joke jingoism can be applied to cliques of "doods" and girls nationalist mysigony against effimante men with emotions and sensitive men that cry its not hardcore enough for me so throw in jail using the internet as a coopt living text with this book, finding old reddit accounts, twitch, twitter, youtube, forum, reddit, etc all the pro hillary coopting bernie in accounts reported cuz SRS/fyad wouldnt want me to look like a liberal trump is a chump a trump card is bullshit a good game is fine for me i dont mind losing sometimes when you fed polo chicken bones and ur gf locked him the closet as a puppy i should have just started attacking you when you trtied to insinuate somehow i didnt love him or u didnt abuse him u just showed how much of a coward u are take responsibility. with great power etc dumb idiots
family gossip on the internet in southern ontario lol pathetic
