

I'd like to preface this by saying that I am not a TERF (Trans Exclusionary Radical Feminist).

This "callout" is not motivated by transmisogyny, nor is it a hate campaign against kink, or their respective communities.

This document is a warning.

Disclaimer: all of the information I'm providing in screenshots is publicly available. I am not doxxing anyone. Additionally, if you receive any nasty anons claiming to be me or to be speaking for me in any way, they are not me.

I have not and will never harass or send hate messages to anyone.

My intent is to inform.

I do NOT believe that the transfem bloggers who were targeted and removed by tumblr in the months leading up to this had anything to do with the users shown in this document. Tumblr staff are absolutely transphobic and TERFs regularly take advantage of that to mass report and harass transfem women.

Trigger warning for: sexual assault, pedophilia, rape, incest, racism, zoophilia, transphobia

- Repeatedly harassing a black trans man criticizing the racism in homestuck:
<https://www.tumblr.com/ardourie/746399709590077440/ok-cool-ig-im-name-dropping-th-en-u-are-literally>

You're not a predator, plaidos, but your refusal to acknowledge any wrongdoing on your part paints you in a worse light than this document does.

You use transmisogyny as an excuse to not reflect on your white privilege. Your identity is not a factor in my criticisms of you.

plaidos   Follow

why do you follow an incest blog?

i don't, but did you know that anonymously accusing trans women of being into XYZ kink as a form of social punishment is transmisogynistic sexual harassment?

by the way, the person who started that rumour about me is a terf — why do you follow a terf blog?

73 notes

This ask wasn't from me by the way.

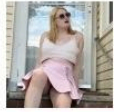

Another edit since plaidos has found this document: you didn't just reblog from urfavbigsis, but also mutationgirl and civilization-deactivated2030.

Once is understandable, you reblogged without looking; everyone does that.

Twice? A little odd, but sure, that's admissible.

Three times? Alright, I'm starting to see a pattern here.

Edit 2: Does it not bother you that these people regularly interact with your posts at all?

now ... if you reblog from ONE person ? that is ok. we all reblog from one person.

if you reblog from TWO people??? ok that is strange ... but still allowed but ohhh boy. if you reblog from. a third person. then you're a fucking Peed of Phile. (i will not elaborate on who most of these people are or why theyre allegedly EvilBad. surely pointing to them is enough for you to know what evil trannies they are) tumblr users will make entire burner accounts with the sole purpose of saying “this tranny i mean shemale i mean trans girl once reblogged a post made by somebody she didn’t even follow, and that person later turned out to be a predator. and their account was nuked so it doesn’t even matter. but one (1) time she reblogged a post from them!!!.” there is no such thing as benefit of the doubt when it comes to trans women. we are all predators waiting to be proven it by the flimsiest receipts you could ever muster up #and of course they make burner accounts to do it because they’re afraid of being rightfully called on transmisogyny

i actually don't care if this or that tgirl who was called out is, in fact, dangerous because the medium of the Callout isn't an effective vehicle for dealing with genuinely dangerous people in your spaces to begin with. it is a vehicle first and foremost for abuse, rumor milling and social murder, and any dangerous individual who's caught in the process is a matter of pure coincidence, not a result of the system working as intended. also i think the best way to make sure that abusive or predatory people get worse and even more dangerous is to socially isolate them and cut them off from anybody who could challenge them to change and own up to their actions. i don't support prisons for the same reason i dont know them, dont pretend i do, but it shook me up mostly bcs its a reminder of how easy transmisogyny is. they could have just blathered about their thoughts on "afab transfems" and be done with it, but nooooo. they had to start insulting and degrading every tranny who disagreed with them, they had to start making ~sarcastic~ transmisogynistic comments, they had to reblog far right fascists who were egging them on - because its easy. its all easy. its just a game. go ahead and say Powerburial... the nazi.

We love the casual transphobia. Let's have some more, this time from lizardgirlclaws:

The image shows a screenshot of a Tumblr post. At the top, the user 'lizardgirlclaws' (with a lizard claw profile picture) is shown as having reblogged a note from 'imaginedragos'. The user 'imaginedragos' has a profile picture of a cat wearing glasses and is marked as 'Follow'. The note's text is written in a purple, informal font and contains transphobic and homophobic remarks. At the bottom of the post, there are icons for '57 notes', a share icon, a comment icon, a reblog icon, and a heart icon.

a lot of you are just fucking awful. you preach this bullshit about being weird and freaky and problematic, you say acab and act like you're against the status quo, you find yourself counterculture just by existing. and then the moment you get the chance you reveal that you're exactly the fucking same as any normie you think you're antiethical too. you see weird porn or a pervert you think is just a bit too much and then you're all about calling the fucking cops on the offender of your precious little sensibilities. you're weird and unique until someone likes whatever media of the week is just a bit too cringe for tumblr. the most you'll do for anyone is make a fucking post saying that you're supportive of x group and then two minutes later you prove you lied by deliberately participating in mass reporting campaigns and bullying people out of your mean girl cliques.

Damn, that's crazy.

It's almost like these posts have a target audience or something:

i love the many little yet multifaceted ways in which cisfeminists will let trans women know that their participation in feminist movements is a privilege and not a right, and that for trans women to participate in said movements, we must first be willing to align ourselves with cis women who want to assault and rape and kill us, even if that means none of the issues which affect trans women specifically are ever addressed. just shut up and hold a sign until the sex worker slaughterers show up and decide you're too male looking for the demo and dont make any noise on the way out. what? you AREN'T gonna hold a sign? you DONT want to participate in cis women-lead movements then? what are you, an antifeminist?

Um 4b has a huge terf/transmisogyny problem. Why are you promoting it?

you'll find that most feminist movements are trans misogynist because most people are transphobic.

you'll also find that many social movements are not perfect, especially considering the difference between Western and Eastern cultural revolutions.

the most recent wave of transmisogynistic harassment that's been directed at plaidos kinda hammers home a point for me cause like. its always been about hating trans women, its never about whatever the accusation is.

and thats really obvious this time. like. the harassment started because she was defending homestuck on that "best queer media" poll, and daring to point out that for every valid criticism of Problematicness you can level at homestuck, there are equally valid criticisms of DTWOF.

and like. correct me if im wrong, but the harassment started by accusing her of being racist for defending homestuck, which does have some racist bits. she mentioned that her homestuck reading group was currently at the racist part, and analysing and critiquing said racism.

and the harassment shifted! now she's

i want you to call me a disgusting freak while i have my way with you- because i am! i'm a depraved pervert and i'll violate your body for my pleasure whenever i want! -but i want you so madly in love with me that you let it happen again and again and again, because you need it. you need your rapists cock just as bad as she needs you.

#and i hold you in my arms after i'm finished with you and i tell you how much i love you and i'm sorry i just can't resist your body #wiping away your tears and holding you tight and telling you i love you <3

To all proshippers with ocd: thought crimes are not real. Your fantasies are not indicative of your morality/the actions you would take in real life. As long as no harm is coming to real people, children, or animals, you have nothing to feel ashamed of. Im proud of you. Everything will be alright

i love u pedos, i love u necros, i love u zoos. paraphiles r my friends & family, Especially the big 3. its ok 2 b the way u r, 2 have the thoughts u think, & 2 like the things u do. there ls love 4 u n this world. there r those of us desper8 2 show u kindness, 2 care 4 u n w/e way u need, & 2 support u implicitly. my heart goes out 2 those who feel unlovable, n the hopes that it touches those who feel untouchable, bc i desire those who feel undesirable. u deserve every gentle kindness & every drop of peace & love this wretched world can provide. it owes u so much 4 what its put u thru, & what it continues 2 put u thru. wishin u every good thing. stay safe, & remember u R loved.

if you love me then you must want me to be happy. you must want me to feel good. so why aren't you letting me do this? if you love me than this isn't rape, darling, we're just making love. stop struggling so much. tell me you love me again and i'll be gentler, i promise (lying) it's pretty cool how the demonstrably real commonality of people baselessly accusing transfems of bigotry combined with the similarly common truism that it's bigoted to say that transfems commonly get falsely accused of bigotry creates a very consistent and effective infinite badjacketing+harassment machine. doubly interesting how this truism is virtually never applied to the similarly common truism that transfems use transmisogyny accusations to dodge accusations of bigotry. you can simply say whatever fabricated nonsense you want about a transfem, wait for her to defend themselves and point out the transmisogynistic pattern, and then use this as proof of the initial baseless accusation while accusing her as using her transness as a shield. it's easy, it's free, and it nets you tons of followers given that the primary substrate of this website are extremely credulous tmes with

The screenshots I've included in this document don't even amount to half of what I've seen. I have more, and I will be adding to it in the future. But frankly, right now, I'm fucking tired. I've spent two weeks compiling all of this and these screenshots aren't even addressing plaidos and co's main bullshit arguments about the "homestuck racism workshop" post that blew up and started it all.

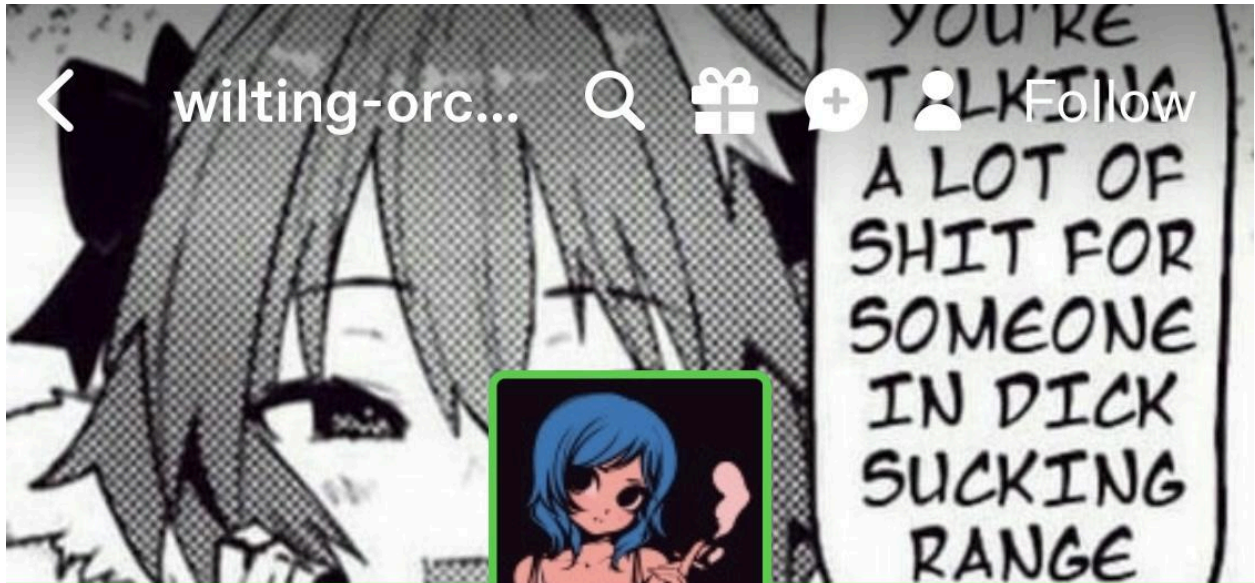

But for now, in conclusion:

As of April 11th, 4:32 pm, the users urfavbigsis, her alt puppygirl-2-boogaloo, ratsmary, and bloodypawz have been banned. However, they create alts very quickly and usually return within a day.

urfavbigsis has made yet another alt blog named puppyslaststand* (as of April 10th, 5:52 pm).

puppyslaststand has been banned, her new url is itspuppyomfg as of April 15th, 5:26 pm.

I'll continue to reformat and edit this document, so hopefully someone will see it.

Thank you if you've read this far. I know getting an anonymous google docs link in your inbox is jarring, to say the least.
