

Hey, this is Geno and Shackles, you may know us as “NiggaVorhees” on Twitter.

I do want you guys to realize we both are grown ass adults (21 and 22), so don't feel any sympathy for us at all, we can handle the hate.

Also excuse our grammar, we aren't English

Lately we have been accused of “harassing” several people by solarroom, with them proceeding to use their connections to get me blacklisted from collaborating with games for K1ngverse, I've tried to make a compromise with solar, but due to my own idiocy and deflection of blame I can no longer get their forgiveness anymore.

However they are completely in the right to do that, so don't go harassing them or ANYONE mentioned within this doc, I will be apologizing to the following people whom solar said weren't too happy with me and addressing a few things:

FISH, PRINTZO, M4L

//Geno

First off, Fish and M4L, I do want to apologize to both of you for shitting on you guys skins purely because they were more popular when they released in the same update as 19k, I wasn't in a very good mood at all and was just fueled by jealousy and envy, instead of me seeing the love and support 19k ACTUALLY DID HAVE, I just mostly looked at the hate and racism towards the skin, when really I should've ignored those kinds of comments and just be happy my skin was even considered.

Now for Printzo, solar stated I had blocked you over your comment “cold car” under the now deleted linguini post, I apologize for that, and you may keep me blocked, I also mostly had you blocked cuz I kinda didn’t wanna see ur 11808 shenanigans on my TL anymore I js kinda stopped finding it funny, sorry for that.

BACONSTRIPZ, LINGUINI, GROOVY, NINTENDRAW

First Baconstripz, me putting your own incredible works down just to gas up my own shitty works was not okay whatsoever , and again was just fueled by jealousy and envy because my stuff wasn’t getting anywhere and I just needed something popular to blame, and bluuworld happened to be a buzzword that Twitter makes hit tweets of, so if anything I was also clout chasing for attention.

Now for Groovy, solar said I had blocked you for commenting something along the lines of “hot car” under the now deleted linguini post, I apologize for blocking you over that and again being a huge jackass, I mean you literally made 19ks design for forsaken you are the LAST person I should ever block.

Nintendraw, you were COMPLETELY in the right for criticizing me for shitting on other people’s works to gas up mine, And I shouldn’t have blocked you over something completely valid.

LINGUINI, this incident was very recent, and I was acting very childish for my age, I had approached her for a Robloxia’s Inferno K1ngverse collab, they politely and respectfully told me no, as they didn’t want anymore AU things within the game and a bluuworld mini collab was already planned, instead of me understanding that, I decided to be a huge dick once again and went on Twitter to complain and make RF and its team look bad, as I just have a hate drive for bluuworld for no reason whatsoever other than jealousy, blocking both the Inferno Account and Linguini, only after I deleted the tweets and got sent gore in my DMs over it, I got back to my senses and just had to deal with it, Linguini even deleted the stuff about me blocking them too, and I unblocked both Lin and the RF account.

JOLLIE 17:15

oh ok yea it was another c00lkidd au like i thought it was i see..
hmmmmmm

im not sure tbh 🙄 im not really big into these type of AUs (especially cuz we're already doing a mini collab with bluuworld)
out of curiosity is there anyone youre hoping for

FIZZY & SOLARROOM

//Shackles

During the shattered hopes Maono situation, when Maono stated harrasment was sent to them after the doc by smag came out, I made a post criticizing Smag over it, Fizzy made a QRT which is now deleted, I don't have the SS for it but it was something along the lines of me

criticizing smag despite being older than smag

Thanks a lot smag you got a 15 year old basically doxxed

This sparked to me then replying to said QRT and mentioning a deleted thread fizzy made dogging in Maono (whom is 15, fizzy is 18) and calling it hypocritical, but said thread didn't actually exist, I was going off what other people were saying instead of doing research, which resulted in Fizzy having to private as harassment was then sent to them over the QRT of my post, I had zero intention of sending harassment toward them, I just commented without doing research, and I really apologize for that.

@fizzyfluxx Let's not mention (although the QRTs already did) that thread YOU deleted dogging on Maono and you're 18, ts straight hypocrisy.

The CLOSEST to that was the thread he deleted about Faceluz's team and his interaction with them.

SOLARROOM

The nicest person in this fandom ever, I've been a real asshole to em for zero apparent reason, first off stating during the time when Geno stated 19k wasn't being pulled from forsaken, solar replied (which is now deleted) something about "But I thought you said you were gonna pull him" to which I replied with a QRT stating "why're you always so damn worried about what Geno does" as Geno's interactions with solar in servers haven't been too swell, followed up by a very rude "sometimes you just gotta shut the fuck up kiddo", mind you, solar is 17, I'm 22, There was ZERO reason for me to say that to a child and brush it off as "harsh criticism". And I apologize for that genuinely.

SOLARROOM 2 (Geno edition)

//Geno

I've been a real dickhead to the kid aswell, having this really stupid one sided beef, I think it started when they made a slightly passive-aggressive comment about my works like months ago in a server for a game we both worked for, I was a concept guy and they did renders, And I just didn't let it go, this happened when the account was under 2K followers, and I really didn't like when people with a bigger following wanted to be all high and mighty. Solar wasn't even trying to be high and mighty, they just spoke their mind and I should've seen it as that, but instead I've constantly and constantly just been really fuckin mean towards a child despite being a grown ass man, and I've seeked for Solars forgiveness for my actions , when they first approached me about my doings I deflected and put the blame on others, and now I can't and probably never will have their forgiveness, I am now blacklisted from collabing with games since they are friends with probably many game devs considering they're popularity. Which is entirely my fault.

BIXZ

I apologize if I had demotivated you from making art due to my rudeness in DMs, and another apology to Printzo, accusing bixz of favoritism when you commissioned them before I got the chance to.

or do they just so happen to be open for printzo 🥹✌️ 19:16

hello, I did opened the comms slot about two weeks ago and every spots was already taken under a day so I'd assume you didn't saw the post. sorry for the inconvenience 23:38

printzo 📍 PC2 3:43 PM

You are not only disrespecting bixz, but disrespecting me as well and using my status as a way to insult bixz. Just because I have a large following does not mean I should be treated as higher than anyone else, and with your comment you are implying that bixz is treating me as higher priority than others. Respectfully, you need to get your head out of your own ass and realize that people don't need to meet your expectations and needs. If their commissions are closed, then they're closed. Don't use my name to disrespect anyone ever again, and please for the love of God learn to say you're sorry and not deflect literally everything.

Ending off, I do hope everyone mentioned can forgive both of us for our douchebagery, and we wish everyone well in their endeavors.

Any other dramas or controversy we've been in will be in a separate doc in due time.
