DIVISION 2

STATE OF MISSOURI, ) Plaintiff, )
Case No. 23ND-CR00268 )
vs. )
CADEN MICHAEL PECK )
Defendant. ) PA File No. 147007760

STATE’S ANSWER TO DEFENDANT’S REQUEST FOR DISCOVERY UPON FILING OF FELONY COMPLAINT

Following a reasonably diligent search, the prosecutor has disclosed all discoverable arrest reports, incident reports, investigative reports, written or recorded statements, documents, photographs, videos, and electronic communications and data in the prosecutor’s file for this case, with the exception of a criminal history report of the defendant as noted below.

The prosecutor has withheld the criminal history report of the defendant on the ground that it may contain federally protected private information of other people. Counsel for the defendant may view this document at the prosecutor’s office during regular business hours upon prior written request and after an opportunity for appropriate review and redaction, if necessary.

Following a reasonably diligent search, the prosecutor is not aware of any evidence that may be construed as exculpatory or mitigating beyond what has been disclosed. Impeachment evidence, if any, will be provided if required. See United States v. Ruiz, 536 U.S. 622, 633 (2002) (“[T]he Constitution does not require the Government to disclose material impeachment evidence prior to entering a plea agreement with a criminal defendant.”).

Respectfully submitted,

TINA M. DEITER
