The usernames I've put above are what they go by on Discord (yes that punctuation is part of their names, please note this) which is the home of their server, plum tree, and what they primarily use to orchestrate activities like what's discussed here. This isn't all of them, but they are the main ones. Their usernames and ids are only listed so that you can block and report. There are more of them than the ones I have listed, but these are the main ones responsible.

These people are, exhausting to say the least, and have a very lengthy history of very nasty behavior. Originally, they came from a server titled Genshin Impact Unofficial, but invented a subset of the server called Plum Tree, many of the users of which have been banned from GIU, as it's often called. Please note that while most of the people mentioned in this doc are 18+ years old, including Chris Alford (Plumtheking), who's 25 years old and runs the Plum Tree server mentioned here. Itsnatsutalbott (Nikolas Marshall Talbott), the person who tried to create the KiwiFarms thread on me is also 32, if I'm correct. I'll just list all the other people currently 18+:

/viccy. ,/apatheticallypleasing, /sebby.senpai, /neurons., /sophhsh, /sloumpy, /lyrus_pm, /yeagar087, /boylepatchnotes, /yumetheyumyum, /poppytea, /kingmidas20, /yanarock, /nans.

It's also important to note this, as a lot of the things mentioned in the google doc involve minors. Hell, most of these people are, at the time of me writing this, at least into their 20s.

This doc is not an easy read at all, again, also putting it lightly. The behavior from Plum Tree is beyond repulsive, this whole event has been ongoing for more than an entire year at this point, and Plum Tree has stated several times that they have no intention of stopping any time soon. And I need to preface this by telling anyone who reading this doc *not* to interact with a single one of the users named, or any of the upwards of 1000 alternate accounts that they've made (not exaggerating, they have literally made thousands of accounts by now, fortunately all of the alts are very easy to recognize, you'll see a pattern here). To say they're insane is putting it lightly, and interacting with them at any given point is a way to ensure that they relentlessly latch onto you, potentially for over a year in my case. I'm telling you not to interact with them for your own sake; they are very much a danger to everyone, and you are actively putting yourself in harm's way by talking to them at all. The behavior shown in this google doc is extremely criminal, and is more than reportable; it's enough to land them in prison. Once again, the usernames and IDs are only there so that you can block/report. Do not engage with anyone listed here. The IDs are important, because they WILL change/rebrand. They'll also probably try fleeing to new accounts to avoid accountability, in which case I will update the google doc. None of them are getting away free anymore. And Peyton is me, or well, a name I previously went by.

I guess I should give a bit of a backstory. I used to be interested in trying out Genshin, out of boredom, so I also decided to join some of the communities out there, including Discord servers. Chris Alford (plumtheKing; this is the primary username he goes by, but he's also gone under aliases such as plumparum, bi black femboy, and femboy thigh lover) was a former moderator in the Unofficial server, he's a very important name in this google doc, especially in relation to NMT. He's a close friend of Nikolas, and like I said before, the owner of the Plum Tree server, which is essentially a private Genshin-themed server that he'd constantly invite others to. A lot of users of said server were also ones that had been banned from other Genshin-related servers. At the time I had joined the unofficial server (I was at one point interested in trying out Genshin), he had somewhat of a cult following in there, and I thought he came off as a decent person, so I decided to join his server. However, I did start to notice a little bit of red flags. Namely the things he and his adult friends would say to minors. I'll show some more of these a bit later in the doc too, but to give you a small bit of an idea:

I also noticed that they (especially Nikolas) did not take any critical opinions of Genshin Impact well, especially on Twitter:

This ties into the next thing, I had called him out for this, and decided I would be blocking him:

This REALLY got to him, as he'd then proceed to make alt accounts attacking me, that also happened to use my username:

He blocked me, so I'm making more accounts to troll him. Feel free to join in, anyone else who he decided to block.

THE LIFESTYLE OF PUNKSPREE

I'm quite certain that this post I had made was the straw that broke the camel's back:

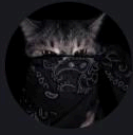

Things would only continue to spiral further and further after this.

This also ties into Plum Tree's main deal and what they do:

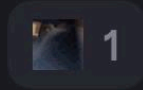

If you've ever seen any accounts (especially ones that were recently created, or impersonating someone else) in your mentions accusing you of pedophilia, transphobia, or anything of the like, while bringing up things such as Genshin Impact or Keffals, those accounts are made by these people. They constantly go around accusing people of things like these with their “proof” being little to nothing, aside from disliking/being critical of the things they have REALLY unhealthy obsessions with (again, for the most part their main interests are Genshin Impact and Keffals). Something bizarre is that they make thousands of alt accounts to try hiding their identity, even though it’s clear that it is them, or in Valerie’s case, having a main account dedicated to ONLY stalking and throwing out false accusations. And despite all the accusations that they like to throw at people, they’ve shown multiple times that they are those things themselves, especially pedophiles and transphobes. They seem to be genuinely delusional, and believe that everyone who’s talked critically about Genshin Impact, Keffals, or has called out any of their behavior at all, is involved with me in a crusade against them. I have unfortunately noticed that a few people I happen to follow or am mutuals with were being targeted. I should also mention that at the time of me publishing this, Chris and Nikolas (a few of their friends too) have been officially banned from the Genshin Unofficial server. They’ve constantly claimed that said server is on their side (I’ve actually managed to believe this myself, so if I have lashed out at anyone, I’m sorry. It really didn’t also help that it seemed like so many people were willing to defend them, since despite all of Chris, Nikolas, and their friends’ absolutely abhorrent behavior, people were still willing to defend their behavior) Although Chris has even admitted that the mods have told him to knock it off:

Plum 07/17/2023 3:22 PM

Of course, I engaged back at them which resulted in me getting ticketed for doing so instead of alerting staff and staying out of it

It wasn't a formal warn thankfully

But now they're holding that grudge around me and others associated with me

Val was one of my friends that were really vocal against their behavior

Here's also where things start to get indescribably repulsive. This doc is going to go into full-depth on everything I currently have, and among other things, it includes: Them making accounts impersonating me, one of which stole my old username (punkspree) to post fantasies about how I wanted to be "raped to death" and that I want to "kill myself" while also calling me transphobic slurs, said themselves they wanted to see me "raped to death in a jail cell", have sent fake revenge porn to minors, posted my deadname (not peyton, my birth name), my location, my personal social media and other bits of personal info about me, and that's just a small preview of the horrific shit that I'll go in depth about in this doc. They have an extremely strange obsession with saving any photos they find of me onto their devices and sharing them while posing as me and posting the vile things I described earlier, and as you'll see in these screenshots. In a nutshell: The accusations that Plum Tree throws around at people constantly are things they are or have done themselves. They've thrown said accusations at me too. They do this, like with all the other horrible things this doc will go over as revenge against anyone they feel has wronged them.

As I've said before, any current accounts on twitter that go by the username Punkspre or have punkspre in the title are accounts made by them. Apologies for the bad formatting (I'm typing this on mobile), but this doc is going to go over the stuff they've said to and about me, along with general nastiness. I have some awareness of things that they've done to other people, which I will also be putting in this doc. Just know that their behavior is not limited to myself, but they have a lengthy history in general, years long of absolutely horrid behavior. As I previously stated, the things they have said and done are genuinely indescribably horrific, and more than enough to land them in prison, so I have to put a disclaimer here that this doc will genuinely be sickening to read, and that's putting it lightly. It's also why I've stayed silent about this for so long, and why I sat on publishing this doc. But given everything that has happened, as well as the fact that it's still ongoing to this day, I need to say something.

Something about plum tree is that when you first meet them or are unsuspecting, or when they're in a server that obviously doesn't allow the behavior they engage in (and they know the mods are watching), they'll attempt to behave in seemingly normal ways but overtime, you'll start to notice several probl. Again, they keep claiming that not just the Genshin Unofficial discord, but other Genshin-related discord servers support their behavior and can vouch from them,

Example below:

Yunaa @Yunateruri · Jun 18, 2023

What are you even talking ab dawg, we're all from the official genshin impact server cuz EVERYONE knows ur an asshole, stay delulu shawty

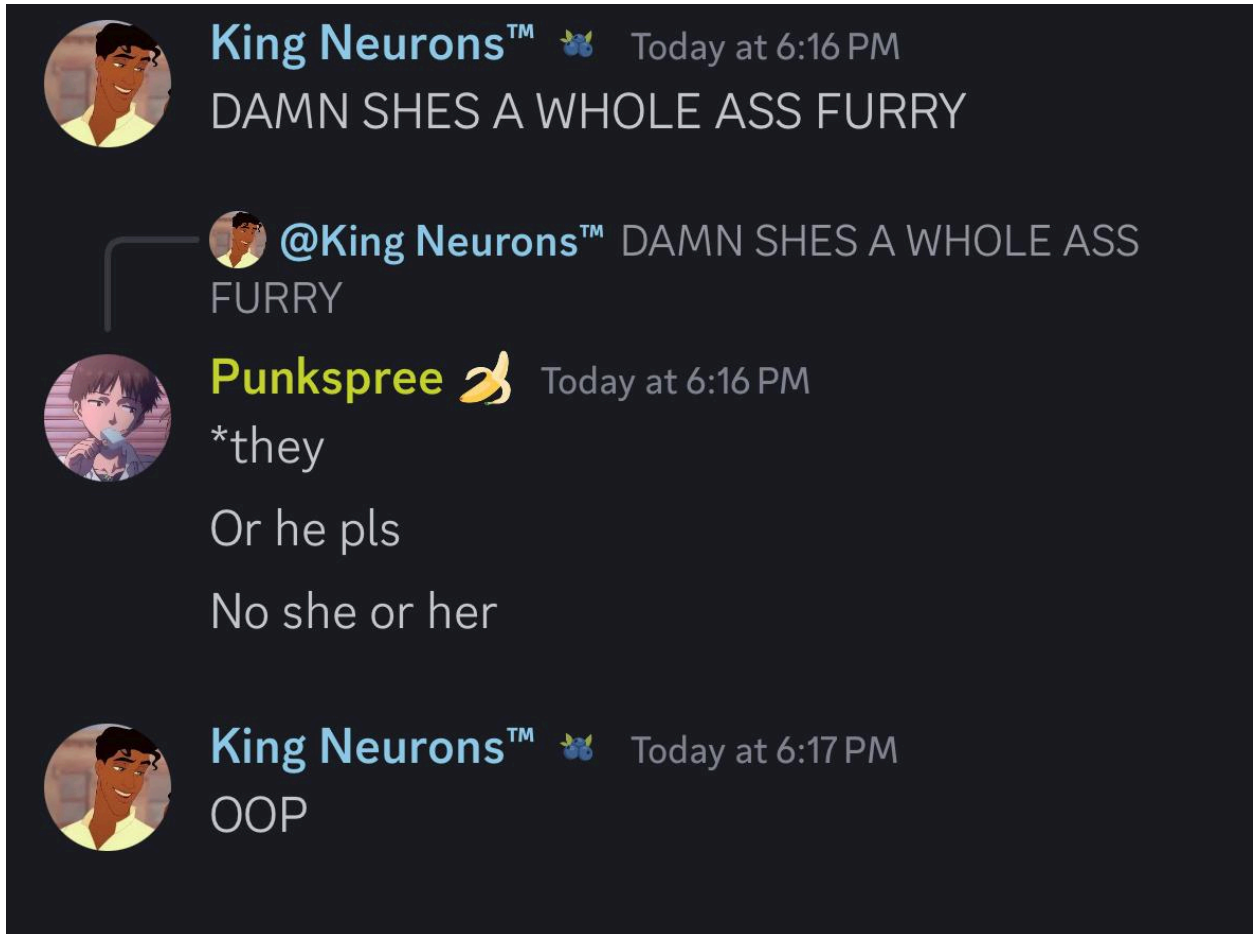

54

We should probably get into the transphobia, it runs rampant in their circle, and keep in mind that again, these people are the same ones who are EXTREMELY defensive over keffals, and label every single person who dislikes her as transphobic. The ss below shows Neurons purposefully misgendering me (I've never once, in the time that they knew me put she/her pronouns in my bio and he and everyone else in the server is aware of it.) As I show you the many instances of transphobia (believe me, it gets worse as the doc goes on, you're going to see probably the prime example right after this ss) I want you to keep in mind, again that this is the same group of people that tries to label anyone who slightly criticizes keffals as transphobic.

I had also established multiple times before this that I did not go by “she/her”, hell, I’d corrected this creep on this shit before. Also, “betraying”. I get you dipshits hardly ever interact with anyone irl, but the way you take online shit so seriously is so fucking crazy. Also, let it be known that if you say “mean things” about these lovely individuals, or say anything that offends them, you will be subjected to shit like this. And you will not at all be spared if you happen to be a minor.

I corrected this freak about my pronouns before, as you can see here.

Also, as you'll see in the screenshots below of another account they made impersonating me, they also called me slurs, so yes, they did do this on purpose.

Here's Nikolas (itsnatsutalbott) ranting at a moderator of a server (you'll see more of this, they constantly join servers that I'm in) about how he thinks I'm not trans because I "don't look masculine" like sebby, another person in his and Chris's group, (who has also been transphobic multiple times himself despite being trans) along with misgendering me purposefully, and stating that I deserve to be “put in a cell and raped to death”

(This also ties into the pedophilia, which probably runs even more rampant than the transphobia. I'll show even more of this type of shit later, but these creepy have an obsession involving me being sexually assaulted.)

Itsnatsutalbott Today at 12:01 PM

You're seriously fucked for letting peyton in your server

That fucking pedophile bastard

He shouldn't even fucking be called a "he"

Call her a fucking she because pieces of shit like her don't deserve to be associated with the trans community

She doesn't even bother looking masculine like sebbly does

She's faking being trans

The law is fucking coming for her and I hope they put her in a cell where she'll be raped to death

Before things get really repulsive, I should dive into the hypocrisy, along with more impersonation attempts. I feel obligated to point out that Plum tree says that they are vocally against loli, and will accuse their targets of being into it. That said, they went out of their way to make these accounts, where they said this:

Probably worth mentioning that my parents were also sent images of lolicon via Facebook. (I don't have screenshots of what was sent, but given that they bragged about it...)

Peyton @Fuckspree · 4h

Im also into loli and i dream every single goddamn night of havin it sent to my parents ooh man what a yummy lil thought

Punkspre Today at 10:23 AM

Per Nans' Carrd. Something about the whole being against loli thing isn't adding up. These accounts were either suspended or deactivated, which I also have to state that a lot of the screenshots being shown in this doc (not all) are tweets that have been deleted, or from accounts which have since privated, deactivated, etc.

And Chris in chat trying to argue about it:

merge 06/14/2023 7:13 PM

Surely it's not an attempt to justify that attraction to child-like fictional characters isn't so bad, right?

That's just the vibes I'm getting from this guy

Camren  06/14/2023 7:19 PM

Joking about child characters in that way is not humor (edited)

Plum 02/17/2023 7:49 PM

Can we not talk about childlike character's proportions 🙄

Mind you, Chris, Nikolas, and friends are inappropriate to real minors constantly, especially with the things they've said to and about me. I am not into lolicon myself, I really feel telling people not to make jokes about characters while behaving inappropriately with real minors is hypocritical as fuck.

Another tweet from one of their impersonation accounts. Yet ANOTHER common tactic of theirs in addition to falsely accusing others of being transphobic, is accusing them of also being nazis:

I'm trans myself, and a POC. Also, you'll see so much more than what I showed earlier, but these freaks have been extremely transphobic themselves. I checked discord and surely enough:

The false accusations of transphobia are like their false accusations of pedophilia. Deflecting onto others. Also, geniuses if you want to impersonate me....maybe don't use characters from games you like as pfps.

They also (you'll see more of this throughout the doc, again) have an obsession with saying I am a nazi. I am a POC, which anyone can clearly tell by seeing my face.

But believe me, things are going to get much worse.

Here's where things start to get REALLY repulsive in nasty, I'm aware that I already put this in the doc, but I cannot stress how absolutely vile this shit is. This is around the time they started upping their antics, where they'd make, not one, but two accounts impersonating me on Twitter (the first of which stole my old username, Punkspre on there, I did keep my Discord account's username for a bit longer, and granted, while they do impersonate me just as much on there, I do have the legacy badge on to clear up any confusion), and the second bragging about it, as well as showcasing Plum Tree's extremely weird obsession with saving as many photos of me as they can find. As you can see in the ss down below, they're bragging about impersonating me and posting about how I fantasize about being "raped and pissed on" and how I "want to kill myself and bleed to death" while also calling me transphobic slurs. Keep in mind, once again, these are people who throw pedophilia and transphobia allegations left and right.

Comparison of typing styles. After putting both of these through a site that compared them (also misgendering me and using the correct pronouns in the same tweet. Fucking insane):

Your LSM Results

The LSM score gives us a sense of how similarly two people are using language. It can indicate how synchronized their use of words is.

Your LSM score is 1

Compared to other online chats that we have analyzed, your LSM score is far above average. To give you an idea, most LSM scores for online chats range between .75 and .95, with an average around .84. The more that the two people are paying attention to each other in their interaction, the higher the LSM.

I genuinely think, and I'm not even saying this as an insult, that these people have some kind of variant of intense undiagnosed schizophrenia. And again, transphobia, in defense of keffals no less, and yes, val/valerie/alyssia/azurre/lilac_cosmos1/poppytea/azurrezephyy etc are all the same person. Guessing Neuris forgot the password to the account, but he's still bothering me and others about it.

And of course, Plum Tree is inevitably going to try to deny it was them behind this, (a tactic that the idiots use often is denial and making claims that things they were very clearly responsible for was ACTUALLY the person they were targeting doing it themselves to try and frame them or that they were impersonated, which is again, something they do themselves, the ss below being an example) so I'm going to show some dms from Neurons (Neuris Rodriguez is his real name, and he's 20 years old, and was around 19 at the time of when started doing things like this to me; from what I've seen, he's tried to claim that he's a minor) where he brags about making the account and outright says that it's him, along with him bragging about him and others in Plum Tree stealing my old username to post rape and suicide fantasies involving me. They use ss of them impersonating people a lot to try and make whatever claims are on their mind, especially on their [BEST MOMENTS] accounts. Something that's really noticeable about Plum Tree is that they often announce what they're doing/plan on doing to their targets, and brag about it. They're not very smart, as anyone who's had to deal with them has probably figured out.

This makes the fact that Plum Tree has so many photos of me saved even creepier.

He did try and delete that discord alt, but as I've shown, I still have an ss of him admitting it on that day. Very funny how he never deleted his comments in dms bragging about impersonating me and posting rape fetishes involving me.

I wanted to post this context too, because this absolute pussy has been posting screenshots of my negative responses, so he can try and play victim.

8:36 PM · Jun 15, 2023 · 227 Views

Also, the fucking nerve of this spineless cunt to say “I can’t handle the same treatment I give others”, because mind you, these wastes of sperm started doing this because I had called them creepy, and a very amazing job they’ve done at proving me wrong. But I suppose getting your feelings hurt is perfect justification to do all of this. Also, regardless you are saving photos of me, a goddamn minor, (for this curious, at the time of me publishing this doc, I have JUST turned 16 years old. I was even younger, 14 years old, when they started doing this shit) and writing rape fantasies under my name. Pretty amazing that when you’re doing these horrible things, you’ll still manage to act like absolute pussies. There’s no way you can make yourselves look innocent. You’re such fucking crybullies. Hell, in addition to that, you have given me plenty of death threats yourselves, which I will absolutely be showing later.

This schizoid was also labelling this as a “death threat”:

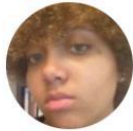

Nothing more pathetic than obsessive creeps who constantly do terrible shit to others to try and gain a reaction out of people they hate, and when they get exactly that, they’ll act all innocent and bewildered, as if they weren’t counting on that, and that they don’t enjoy the attention.

They continued to brag about it and have threatened to make even more. Here’s what Valerie said to someone who joined the Plum Tree server, thinking it was me:

It’s truly fucking disgusting that while doing of this, Neuris, Chris, Nikolas, Valerie, and the rest of their friends will cry about how they’re actually the victims. They know absolutely no boundaries at all. You’ve probably noticed this as well, but they’ll post screenshots of people rightfully calling out their beyond horrid behavior and use said screenshots to claim they’re being “harassed” and “bullied”. These sacks of shit are massive crybullies and are incapable of reaping what they sow.

Neuris’ pinned tweet on this account and the ones underneath it made me laugh. The “person who deserves it” is one who doesn’t like Genshin Impact or keffals. As well as this manipulative fucking bullshit.

This creepy fucking pedophile sociopath trying to call me a “psychopath” and say that I need to be “ip banned and touch grass”. My god, the lack of self-awareness is genuinely disgusting. Also “done nothing to you” I don’t think making an endless amount of alts, saving pics of my face, writing rape fantasies, and the many, MANY, MANY other things you’ve continued to do isn’t “nothing”, you fucking waste of absolute sperm. The things you do to people WILL cause them to speak up, you fucking stupid pedophile.

In addition to them labelling me as “transphobic”, “nazi”, etc, Chris and Neuris in particular have also gone on to say that me calling them out has been because I’m an “antiblack white supremacist” (I am literally half black):

ALICESlave @UeUserDon · 7m

Punk i know you damn well only hate me because i'm a black man i know you were cheering when george floyd died because you're a fucking antiblack racist piece of shit- Love neurons

Also worth mentioning that Neuris himself is extremely racist towards SE Asians:

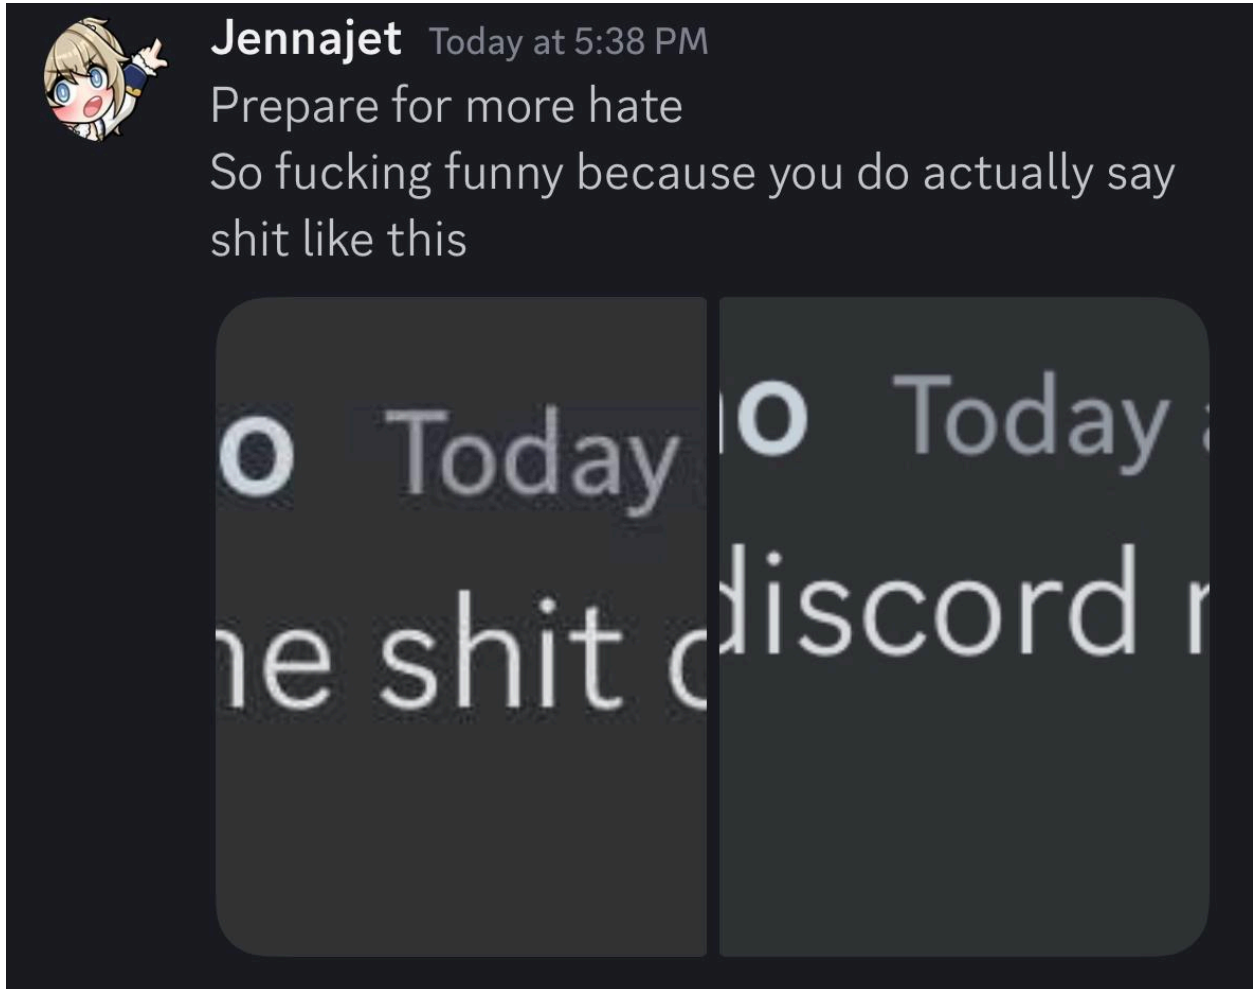

(Side note: Please do not use any of these dipshits' behavior as an excuse to be racist)

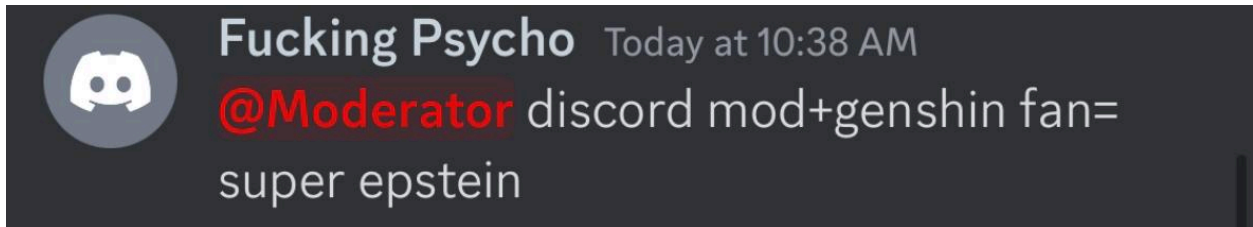

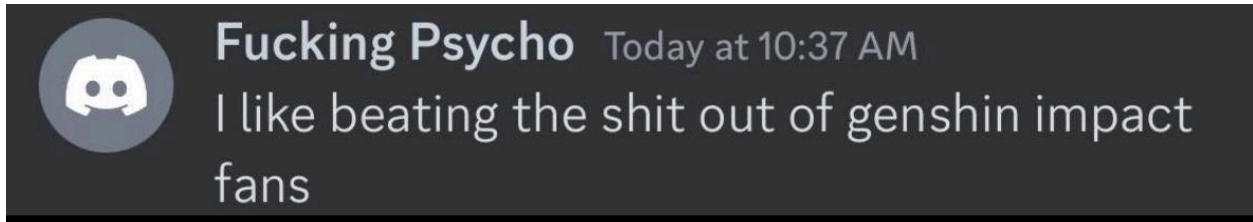

If you're curious as to how they've managed to obtain so many photos of me, I was naive enough to post selfies of myself in the channel Chris had in his server, but they've also managed to obtain photos from Facebook, Instagram, and other personal socials.

Nikolas likes to claim that I doxxed him despite him literally doxxing himself on KF as you'll see in another screenshot below, as well as the fact that he uses his legal surname in his username (itsnatsutalbott), making it extremely easy to register who he is.

And speaking of framing, Plum Tree has admitted to creating alts to raid servers and create outrage directed towards me:

So much of this is also such direct self-reporting.

And because, once again, they're very smart, they have outright admitted that they make accounts impersonating me and others. Straight from their main accounts:

And because they like to backtrack, the next day, they nuked all their rape/suicidal fantasy tweets they made under my name and rebranded into a conservative Honkai Star Rail themed RP account (which is still up as far as I'm aware, so you can go ahead and block it as well) to make it seem like all that genuinely came from me. Never mind that I have screenshots of them bragging about making those tweets themselves and outright stating that it was them, so, it's yet another failed attempt.

More hypocrisy, and trying to play the victim again. I was doxxed by them, as you saw above, but apparently Kiwifarms allegedly mentioning Midnight's name once means that they are

Midnight  10/07/2024 2:18 AM

My name popped up in kiwifarms

She herself has said this:

AND posted my house/address:

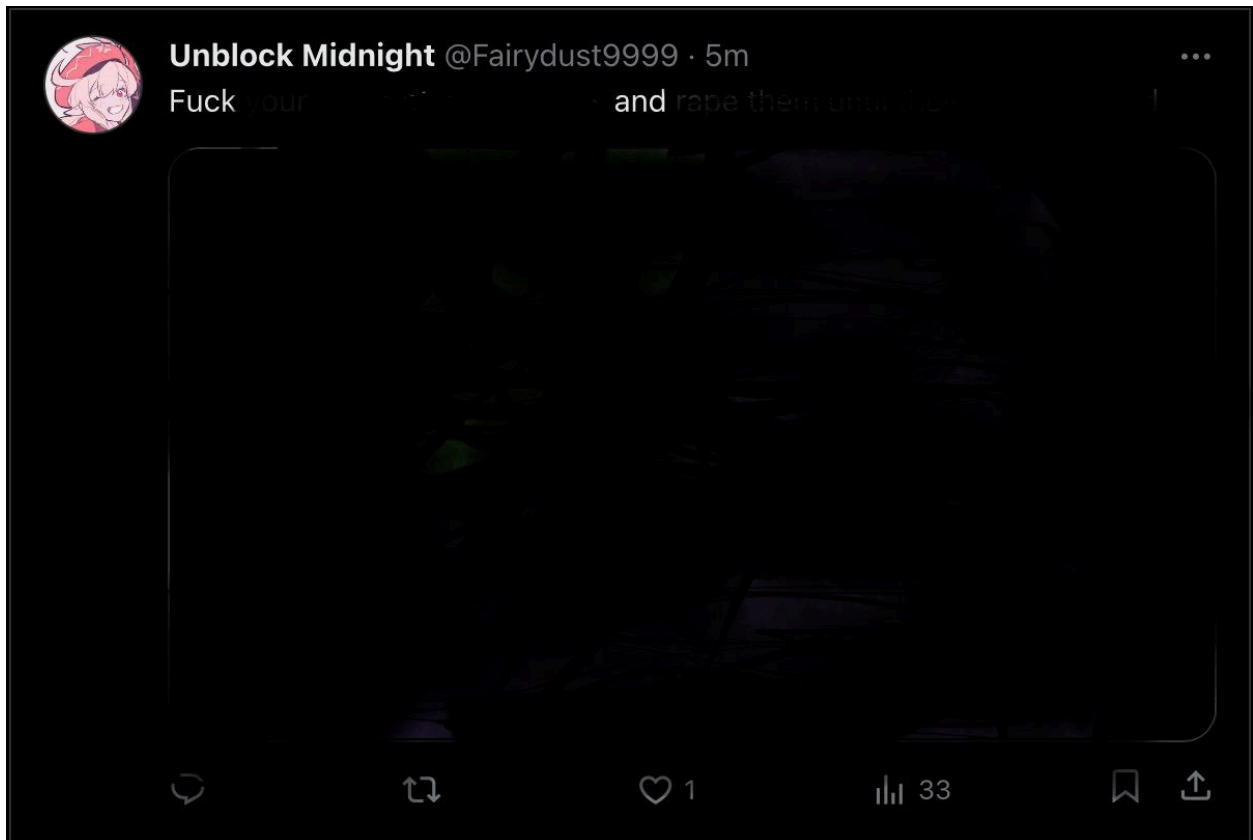

You do realize....I can just screenshot everything right? Use your fucking brains, constantly deleting and trying to nuke shit won't make it go away.

Also, the fucking nerve of you to shed these crocodile tears and play victim. You sure as fuck aren't scared when you do all this shit to not just me, but other people too.

Like I said before, Plum Tree is paranoid and thinks that anyone who calls any of them out (or says anything remotely negative about Genshin and/or keffals) is affiliated with me personally.

Midnight has also gone onto post family photos of me, including some of my very young siblings (who are under 10 years old) and proceed to make extremely graphic threats, some sexually too

While Midnight is currently 17 as of me writing this, keep in mind, once again, she said this about VERY young children. If you're wondering why there's more censoring than usual, this is because it involves minors even younger than I am and what she said was absolutely beyond horrific.

Also, I want to show her Twitter bio. Her, and plum tree in general like I stated before, deny doing things that were VERY obviously them the moment anything comes to light or they get called out.

This is also fucking sickening, but Chris, Nikolas, and their friends have minors in their server, many of which replicate their behavior. Even more sickening is that they have people as young as 12 years old within this server.

Nikolas has also tried doing this thing of claiming that he doesn't own alt accounts. Sure bud. (Again, you saw him earlier bragging about making accounts)

I know I said this at the beginning, but I cannot stress this enough: Please block him. Same applies to all of his friends. Block their discord accs and their twitter accs. Not only that, but Chris has openly admitted to block evading me (deleted tweets, he's nuked quite a bit off his Twitter):

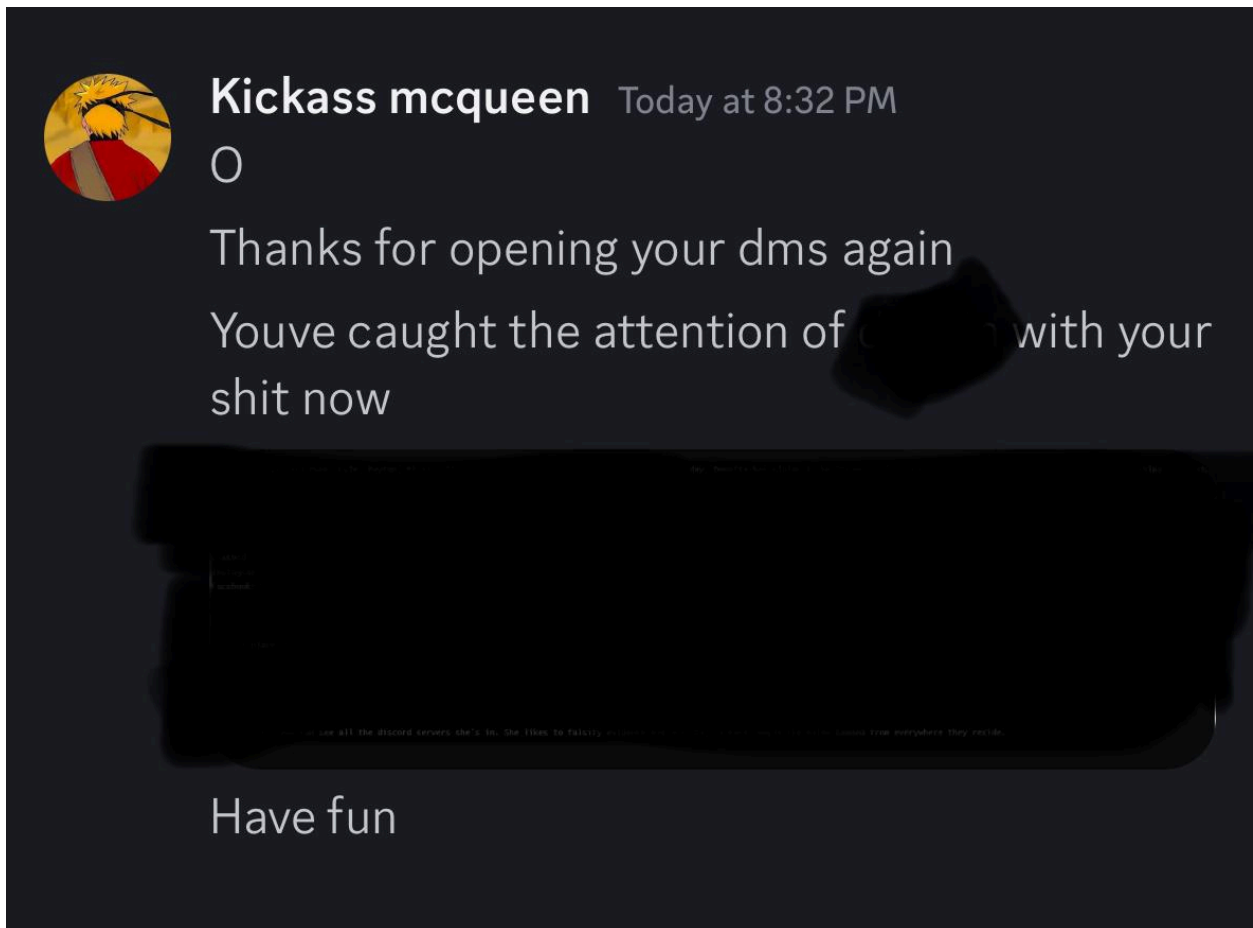

This is another tweet he made, and I will absolutely be touching more on this later. I think that, now especially, Chris, Nikolas, and their friends are aware I'm a minor:

It gets even worse. They put me on a site I'm not going to name, but call website zero as others that have discussed it have done. Not only is this site a lot worse than kiwifarms, but keep in mind that this was the site that was actually responsible for what keffals (who they claim to be fans of) received, not KF. And yes, the site does target minors. The members of the community also hate kiwifarms because they think they don't go far enough.

They kept trying to friend request me under various threatening sounding burner accounts (one of which is my address and another has my deadname, again. The one with my address which I blurred out entirely is a photo of me from when I was 8 that they managed to obtain.)

I should probably mention that they use all these tactics in an effort to silence whoever it is they try to target, or attempt to drive them off the internet (which they actually have managed to do to about five other people in the past.)

This is also why I have friend requests turned off, for this who have been asking.

The one in the second image also had a pfp of a cat's corpse, along with a threat towards my mom.

And more dms that I was bombarded with accusing me of things such as “wanting to rape keffals” simply because I don’t like her. You’ll probably notice that Plum Tree likes to purposefully twist harmless enough statements from people and try to make them out to be some kind of extreme threat. Again, I genuinely think Chris, Nikolas, and friends have a severe variant of undiagnosed schizophrenia.

I cannot stress this enough, every single thing that these schizoid sociopaths accuse people of, is exactly what they've done themselves.

Also, Valerie has made VERY islamophobic posts, extremely disgusting Zionist statements, and said very nasty things about Arabs:

And earlier this year, this dipshit had the nerve to try and accuse Roger Craig Smith of being a Zionist:

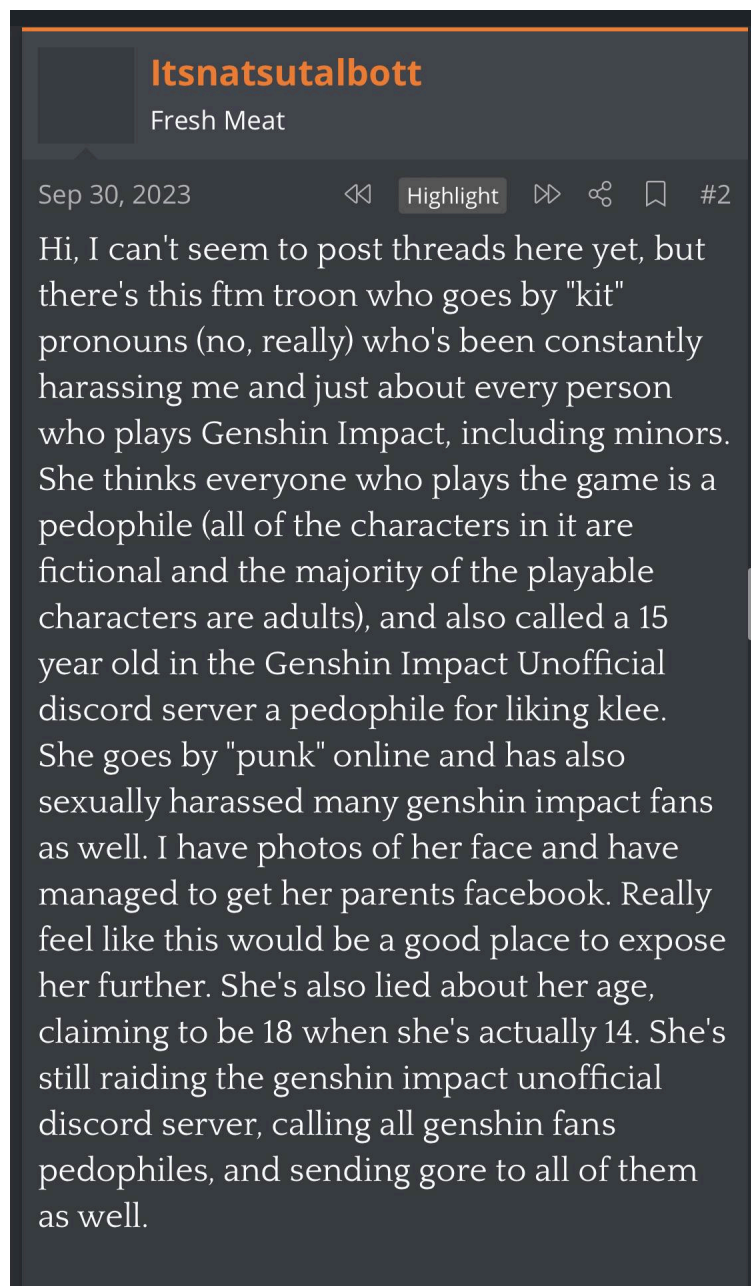

Like Neuris, she's also a self-admitted/self-proclaimed pedophile:

Nikolas attempted to create a KiwiFarms page on me (which was rejected and laughed at by the community) which has, once again, misgendering, slurs, etc. And funnily enough, he got doxxed immediately after he tried to request KF go after me, especially since, like I said before, the alias that he originally went under contains his legal surname; he even basically had his legal name on his twitter originally (I've already shown a screenshot of that)

Hi, I can't seem to post threads here yet, but there's this ftm troon who goes by "kit" pronouns (no, really) who's been constantly harassing me and just about every person who plays Genshin Impact, including minors. She thinks everyone who plays the game is a pedophile (all of the characters in it are fictional and the majority of the playable characters are adults), and also called a 15 year old in the Genshin Impact Unofficial discord server a pedophile for liking klee. She goes by "punk" online and has also sexually harassed many genshin impact fans as well. I have photos of her face and have managed to get her parents facebook. Really feel like this would be a good place to expose her further. She's also lied about her age, claiming to be 18 when she's actually 14. She's still raiding the genshin impact unofficial discord server, calling all genshin fans pedophiles, and sending gore to all of them as well.

(You've probably noticed by now that something really gross that Nikolas and Plum Tree in general really enjoy doing is saving any and all pictures of me that they find, as well as bragging about it, and posting them onto various sites)

Also, I know I'm sounding redundant since I've shown that literally everything you fucking pieces of shit like to accuse people of is something you are yourselves or have done, but it is so genuinely beyond sociopathic, and I cannot stress this enough. It's not even just that you do all this pedophilic, transphobic, etc. shit. It's that you go around accusing people of doing EXACTLY that themselves.

Guess kiwifarms is only bad when they talk about keffals, or any of you, huh Plum Tree?

Speaking of, here's Chris being a hypocritical sack of shit again:

I don't need to reiterate why they're transphobic yet again, but I need to remind everyone once again that Plum Tree regularly throws out allegations against anyone remotely critical of keffals (hell, you saw them accuse me of wanting to SA her) and mind you, she is NOT disliked because she's trans; she's disliked for being extremely racist, holding a stream dedicated to harassing a disabled person, scamming people (likewise, by her own admission) out of $100k, not to mention sending her fans to dogpile anyone remotely critical of her (she'll do so to anyone who doesn't like her rather than anyone who is actually being transphobic), as well as a whole rabbit hole of allegations and other gross behavior.

Obviously Plum Tree has gone out of their way to defend all the shitty things she's done, which VERY surprisingly, includes her clearly being inappropriate around minors:

Here's what's being defended here:

Since Plum Tree cries about receiving “death threats”, I’m also more than happy to show that they ALSO do just that on a regular basis. (Hell, one of the posts I showed at the beginning was Nikolas wishing for me to be “raped to death”, also that whole “alive yourself but un” comment)

Plum Tree REALLY seems to have a thing for other people self harming and sending threats to others (and yes, Cranberries is nikolas). They are indeed saying they want to see me self-harm.

Don't worry, it gets better:

“Go vertical” is apparently terminally online slang for slitting wrists. And also, yet another sexual assault thread. I mean this whole-heartedly, Chris, Nikolas, and all of your equally freak friends: The world would absolutely be a better place without any of you in it. Please shed more crocodile tears and whine about how I'M the one stalking and bullying. They have also sent me texts to my actual phone number:

Hell, when I saw Nikolas's thread on Kiwifarms, one of the first things there was him telling somebody to kill themselves for blocking him (Blocking them REALLY sets them off. I don't know why, especially since it's people they hate anyways) Maybe you creeps should take your own advice. Handle the same treatment you give others. Learn to take what you dish:

They seem to know that they're stalkers too. They tried to be a random unassuming person when they joined a server that I was in, a server where beforehand I had never spoken about them. And another tweet where they outright admit that they never plan on stopping.

The screenshot shows a Twitter interface with a dark background. At the top left is a circular profile picture of a character with spiky pink hair and a red collar. Below it, the name "Vilnia" is displayed in large white font, followed by the handle "vilnia." in a smaller font. A bio reads: "This is the very beginning of your legendary conversation with Vilnia." Below the bio is a small icon of a blue bird with a yellow beak, followed by the text "1 Mutual Server". A red button with white text says "Report Spam". A horizontal line separates this header from the message content, with the date "February 2, 2024" centered below it. The message itself is from "Vilnia" and is timestamped "Today at 11:43 AM". The text of the message reads: "Why do you have friend requests turned off? Does this have anything to do with your stalkers?". At the bottom of the message area, there is a dark grey box with white text that says "This is a Message Request. You can accept or hide the conversation." Below this box are two buttons: a large green button with white text that says "Accept DM" and a smaller white button with dark grey text that says "Ignore".

I will absolutely fucking know all of your moves Peyton. Nobody tells me what you do. Its too fucking easy to find you being a creep because you say the same phrases over and over and over again. Its a correlation twitter and cops can make too.

Also, jesus christ, not only do these fucking sociopaths accuse others of being and/or doing exactly what they do, but they way the attack others and talk about others, is literally JUST them describing themselves.

Also, you damn well know that the only ones who should be worried about the cops at this point are YOU. They'd definitely be very interested in hearing how you talk to minors, especially to one who you have now been stalking for a year and a half. I'd love to also hear you tell them that everything is lies, despite you openly admitting to doing this absolutely vile shit yourselves as well as people being able to discover that it really was you (seeing as how Nikolas's IP was uncovered by kiwifarms).

Also, I hope you realize that fucking off would be in your best interest. There is literally nothing for any of you freaks to gain from doing this, and every single deranged post all of you absolute losers make just digs you into a deeper and deeper hole.

Hell, Nikolas himself has even admitted that he's obsessed with me:

Natsu @ItsNatsuTalbott · 12m

Sometimes I ask myself if I'm unhealthily obsessed, but then I remember that it's Punk. I never will be.

There's more transphobia too. They've made fun of xenogenders multiple times and spread misinformation with once again, malicious intent. And yet again stating that I'm not trans because I "don't look masculine enough" for them and bringing up another trans person they keep harassing. They're also very much aware that I live somewhere where it's very much impossible for those under 18 to receive any kind of transitional support.

Natsu @ItsNatsuTalbot · 25m

*makes my way to to snitch on *

I should also mention that they (Chris especially) additionally go all out on claiming how supportive of trans rights they are, as well as how they're supposedly against bigotry:

He also referred to me by my deadname while accusing me of being “self-loathing”:

And let me just say, no, Jade (apatheticallypleasing) is not trans, so I don't know why she's trying to speak for the trans community, or about a concept that she has literally zero actual clues about. It is simply not transphobic to not date a trans person, even if they have the genitals one prefers, and no one needs to justify their reasons. Says I, a trans person who under no circumstances would date F2M trans people.

Probably should've included this earlier, but here's one more dm I found of them impersonating my mother, threatening to spank me, and deadnaming me again.

And some more twitter dms:

The reason why I cropped out some stuff is because they listed the doxxes of some of their other victims (I might have mentioned this before, but plum tree has a years long history of drama with many people, several of which have been completely run offline because of their behavior, and several were at the time, or still are minors.)

10:36 AM

Speaking of which, I have gotten some screenshots from a few other victims of theirs (I showed one at the earlier portion of the doc), but just know that these creeps have gotten into countless dramas. This behavior of theirs has been ongoing for longer than 2023, they've been doing shit like this since about 2021:

NMT doxxing an (at the time) 13 year old, who committed the crime of hurting his, Chris, and friends feelings:

Nik Talbott

@ItsNatsuTalbott

This guy [REDACTED] He framed so many friends of mine and had them banned. Managed to find he lives at [REDACTED]. So many people's lives were almost ruined thanks to him.

And some statements Chris also made:

You sure love saving photos of minors onto your devices. Totally normal behavior. You and your friends don't just need your hard drives checked, you need all your devices legally confiscated.

Aside from the personal info, the name is also censored, as the victim has requested to remain anonymous.

Here's some more things they've tweeted at me, some of which have display names with rape threats towards other random people (like I said before Plum Tree will rope anyone and everyone they can that they suspect is plotting against them into this).

I'm also thinking that another potential reason for them doing this (especially given their impersonation of me, my mom and posting our dox) is to gaslight others into doing something malicious to us.

Also, do not fucking try to whine about me "lying" or "falsely accusing" you of anything, when you've not only openly bragged about doing this awful shit, but you yourselves constantly falsely accuse any goddamn person you can of being a pedophile for daring to not like a game or streamer.)

I of course, also really need to acknowledge this screenshot they like to post a lot (the above being an example with them impersonating my mom), where they block out the ages and other info:

Here is the actual screenshot, and everything that was actually said:

He even posted the damn ss himself onto his mossghost11 acc with the ages uncensored: Aaand he's just outright admitting he knows that I'm underage. There will be even MORE screenshots like this later.

Twinkycatlord is a predator and cyberstal... @mossghost... · 59m ...

You are still a predator, regardless of how old you truly may be. Look at these screenshots. Justifying pedophilia is predatory.

Chris wanted to use this to deflect because I had called him out for being inappropriate around minors. And I need to state once again: He is 25 years old. A fully grown adult with a fully developed brain. I'm aware I could've said things earlier, but keep in mind more ss at the end of the doc that suggest they already knew I was younger regardless. (I said this earlier, but there will be more screenshots showing this) Also, no, an age gap of two years nor saying that there's no problem with it is not "justifying pedophilia". As someone who is in high school myself, 16 and 18 dating is pretty common. Especially since in many cases, they can be one grade apart. Censoring this makes it just look confusing as fuck, rather than incriminating. Also, you're a fucking pussy Chris, which is why you also censored your name in the screenshot. I've noticed you freaks have an obsession now with censoring your names, you're truly such fucking pussies. If you're trying to do the same shit that Neuris is by trying to claim to be a minor so you can absolve yourself of guilt, it is 100% not going to work.

You don't get to do horrible shit to people constantly, and then have a meltdown while playing victim. Also, very ironic that you claim I'm lying (once again, you have openly admitted to and bragged about doing all the horrible things I've shown in the doc), when quite literally all you do is make false allegation after false allegation against whoever you think has wronged you on whatever day. Also, big shocker that you'd try to whine about normal age gaps.

People that have told me to just block: let me just show you that that's exactly what I've been doing. Here is a very small, and I mean very small preview of blocked accounts I have so far (make sure to block all of these

As you can see here, they thrive off attention, do not give them any (as I've stated this doc is only being made to inform people about who they really are and their very lengthy history of behavior). Any time you see them, ignore them. Block and report, and ignore them. Do not engage. They're definitely going to claim that I'm trying to direct "harassment" despite this, and I will be honest: I do not care about literally anything that happens to these monsters at this point. At the end of the day, I'm really only telling others not to interact for their own safety; Plum Tree is very mentally unstable, and the behavior from them is very much criminal.

To those suggesting getting law enforcement involved, I have left tips before (I would suggest that anyone else being harassed by them also do this, as you can remain anonymous). Hell, I have even had to contact their parents (Chris and Nikolas I'm absolutely certain still live with their parents, by the way) to try and get this to stop.

You fucking stupid cunt, if you, Chris, Nikolas, etc make reports, the police can actually look into things, and find out all of your history, not just with me, but every single thing you freaks have been doing for the last 4 years. Speaking of banned, it truly fucking sucks that Twitter does literally nothing about them. 85% of the time their accounts don't even get suspended, despite breaking every single TOS rule in existence, especially given how they've engaged in CSE on the fucking site. Genuinely, Twitter needs to start implementing device bans. (IP bans won't do shit, especially with VPNs)

Yep, you creeps live rent free in my head, despite you making over 1000 alts, dedicating damn year two entire years just to stalking me, block evading, saving photos of me, etc.

Also, I find it very funny how they'll claim to have "evidence" of me (and whoever else happens to be on their list) doing incriminating things. As you can see throughout the doc, when Plum Tree isn't just making baseless claims and expecting people to believe them (there unfortunately are people who believe them, so I also have to state that if you see any of their orbiters, block them as well), they will impersonate people (in a very obvious manner), and make fake/edited screenshots (also very obvious).

They have also attempted to get my attention on instagram (I could tell this is them as they have posted it publicly several times as well as the username)

Probably a good time to mention some more of the leaked discord messages, which is once again, when things get EXTREMELY repulsive

(Kitten is, I believe yumetheyumyum, and I believe Gorilla B fluffy is boylepatchnotes):

(Also, the messages being leaked and shared is why they're currently very selective about who they let into their server, and why Chris has taken it out of his bio) If anyone else has anything else these creatures have said or been saying, do feel free to let me know.

he always does that. Talking creepily about how he blocks everyone. Like block us all you want. We can just keep making more accounts bragging about blocking everyone

ItsNatsuTalbott Today at 5:43 PM

I honestly want to beat his ass so much. I'm so fucking sick. I keep getting blocked accounts. I know it's because of him.

Plum Today at 5:45 PM

At the end of the day, whatever can be done to teach him a lesson must be done
I know this may sound a bit extreme, but if anyone is willing to have a pic sent via an alt, it does involve a vulva.

But it is also for the purposes of stopping Peyton from getting revenge. This is also something he'd do regardless, so it isn't necessarily impersonation without reason or unbelievable. (edited)

He hates you and Plum, so it's a well known fact he's not a fan of black people

I'm not making allegations anymore at all, THESE FREAKS ARE ABSOLUTELY PEDOPHILES. Shit like this is why it's genuinely been difficult to write this google doc. I've said it before, and I will say it again: It's so fucking horrific of you to throw pedophile allegations at people. Especially towards minors which you have done this horrific shit to. I will say that very fortunately, I am quite certain Plum Tree has no actual photos of my genitalia, but just the fact that they also have such a creepy obsession with my genitals in addition to all the thoughts about me being violently raped.

This leads into them sending a photo of a random vulva to my partner (who is 17) and claiming that it was mine. Before that they tried to claim pedophilia was being justified again, because there's an age gap. About a 1 ½ one mind you.

Hi

New Messages

Your girlfriend [redacted] nudes were sent to us by her in our server

Tap and hold to react

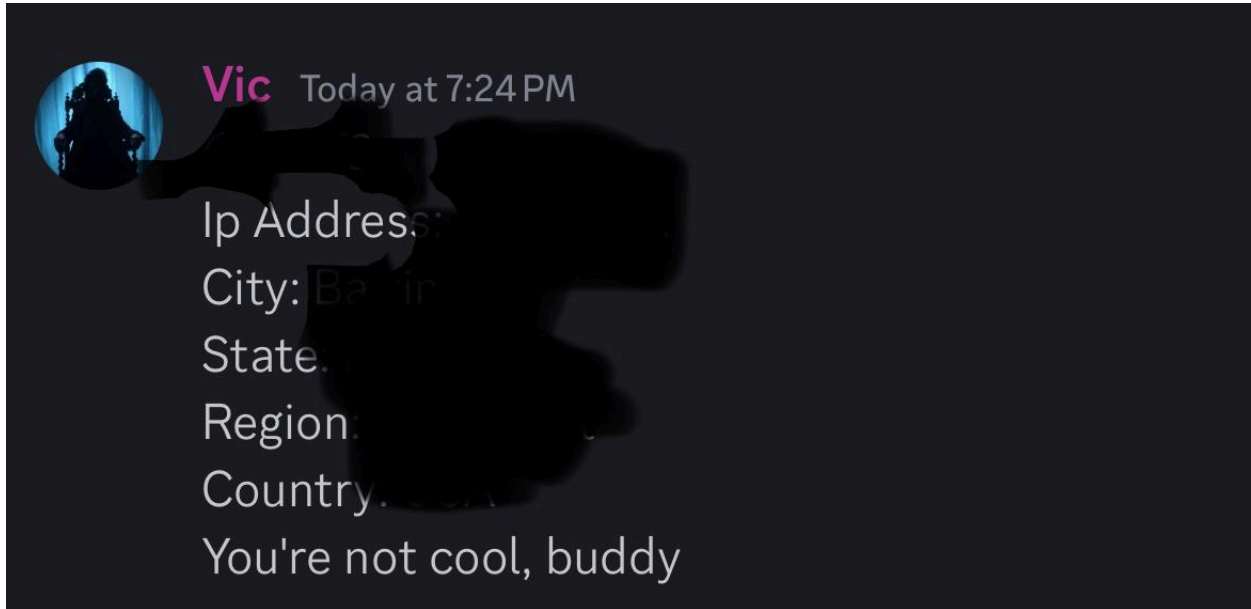

I don't care about my face being seen at this point, but I do not want my partner being put at risk because of these creeps.

And, here are MORE deleted tweets they've made, including ones where they admit they knew I was a minor (they also have had my dox for a while, which confirms things): (also vic, is @/viccy., who has also gone by "vinny" and "betty"; I'm not sure if she still does, but she also owned one of the Cinnamoroll discord servers). She also outright admitted to buying an account, but that's not the only time they've spent money on Twitter, as you'll see later:

While I'm on her, let me also mention that this crazy cunt also doxxed a fucking 12 year old child once. She is about the same age as Chris.

Anyways, more deleted tweets:

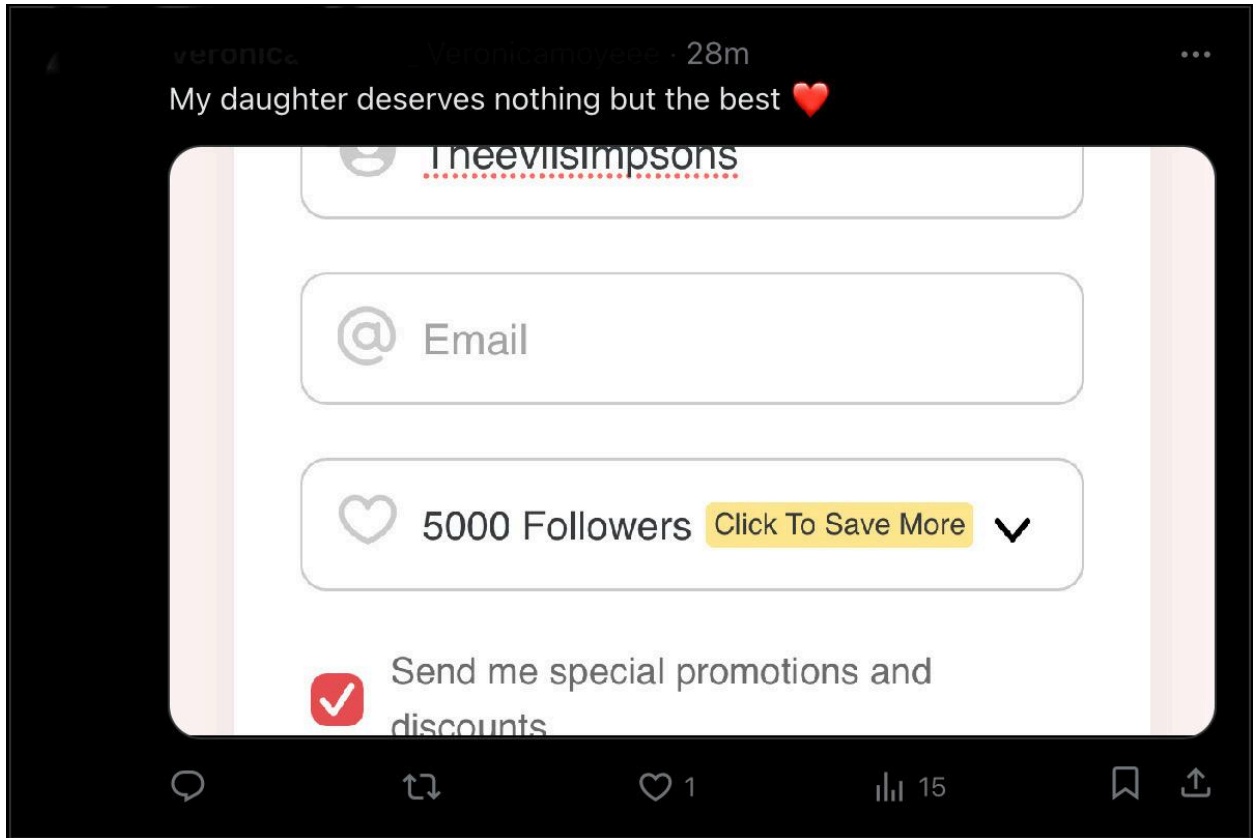

You'll also notice that they have a creepily fetishistic obsession with East Asians. Anne (should've mentioned this earlier, but whatever) also tweeted out this. (Kazusunset, jjuniesunset, yeonjunskateboard are all anne, by the way, she likewise rebrands her acc quite a bit:

The censored photo is of a young child, by the way. While Anne is currently around 16, this is still obviously seriously not ok. Again, it's so fucking concerning that the minors Chris, Nikolas, and friends interact with are starting to replicate their behavior.

This is probably the most tame thing they've done compared to everything else, but they've been attempting to get my Twitter account shadowbanned by sending spam followers after it. They do this on and off. Putting this more as a heads up in case they manage to get my account suspended and/or shadowbanned, they'll likely try this again as soon as I release the doc. Please keep sharing this doc if that happens.

I have sometimes been locking randomly, this is why. If you see my follower count go up, know that the actual number is supposed to be at around 400 or so.

Back to the East Asian fetish, Anne has also made some VERY weird tweets talking about very young boys (like Valerie she also rebrands/remodels accs a lot. Kazusunset/jjuniesunset/anne/annette are the same person):

Some of these people also have main twitter accounts, as I've shown throughout the doc, but if you need a refresher, I'll mention them here too so that you can block them on there (some of these are inactive especially compared to the thousands of other accounts they use, but trust me, if you haven't blocked any of these, they will use them to stalk your account. I'm aware Twitter is unfortunately deciding to let blocked users view tweets, but it is better than nothing ultimately):

@PlumTheKing
@apatheticallyp
@ItsNatsuTalbot
@s1mpl33l1f3
@midzieee
@senpai_sebby
@sloumpycr
@lyrus_pm
@jjuniesunset
@YanARock96
@greengumibears

These accounts might seem small, and I think some people will claim that small twitter accounts are being dogpiled, but once again, Plum Tree (aside from the main people I mentioned) is filled to the brim with attack dogs/orbiters who will defend all of their horrid behavior, and even join them in said behavior.

One of them has tried to claim that I've lied about SA because I didn't "feel fine":

Lyle/River 06/15/2023 7:18 PM

They fucking take control of me
People irl arent safe from me either

The Jollyist 06/15/2023 7:18 PM

my nigga theres people out there who actually have these things and are fine you are clearly faking it
you can give me this fake sob story

Even the ones who don't have main twitter accounts make a TON of alts/burners (talking at least 30 a day, if not more) They also seem to know who blocks them, and will make alts demanding that you talk to them and unblock them, so be aware of that too.

PSA that any accounts named "[INSERT PERSON'S HERE]'s Best Moments" is made by them (Neuris's twitter accounts also have very poor typing/grammar styles and tend to be incomprehensible):

I should also point out that while impersonating Daphne's VA, Neuris went on to additionally save photos of a toddler and make very creepy remarks about said toddler:

Grey Delisle's Best Moments · 14 Jan

My daughter and cat are so fucking fat like me thats why i love them so much

I should point out once again that this guy is a self-admitted pedophile. At this point, they have been doing this (kind of an umbrella term because like I said, they'd done shit like this before, but 2023 was when they started taking it even further) for a year and a half now, have made thousands of alts/burners across the platforms they utilize, do not have any plans whatsoever to stop, and definitely will not stop unless they're forced to. Do not talk to them at all if they try to do anything like invite you to their servers, dm you, or anything. They're incredibly manipulative, and like I said before, never keep any single story straight. Something that they do in particular when denying things that they've obviously done is try and claim that they were being "impersonated to look bad" by whoever they were targeting (again, they openly do shit like that themselves), or they'll even claim that they were hacked. They also immediately backpedal if anyone gets suspicious of any single claim they make, or try telling an even more ridiculous story. Like I said before, they aren't smart. At all. They also, like I mentioned at the beginning of the doc, change up their behavior, mannerisms, and attitude depending on who it is they're talking to (they often present themselves as being really wholesome and adorable when you first meet them or when anyone outside of their server is watching). While they have been doing shit like this for about 4 years now, it seems like ever since my calling out of it, it has really increased. Again, I am genuinely sorry to everyone who also has to be roped into this nonsense. I do feel that I'm honestly somewhat responsible.

My main point in making this is that I'm tired of staying silent, and to let everyone that they target know that they've got a lengthy history and that every single thing they try and accuse anyone of being is them trying to deflect on what they are.

As mentioned at the beginning, avoid directly engaging with or interacting with these people, even if you feel like messing with them. What they subject people to (and as you can see from what they've done to me, they won't hesitate to go after minors) is beyond repulsive, to put it lightly. I should probably also say to make sure you hide any personal or private information that any of them can potentially access if you ever want to speak up about them or anything they've done. If you see them anywhere, link this doc and make sure to block and report.

Screenshot anything and everything they do, especially since they WILL try to delete some of it, or deactivate their accounts (Valerie often deactivates only to return later on). It's very easy to spot these people, as they all tend to use the same typing style, talk about the same subjects, and use the same tactics to go after people (despite plum tree trying to deny it's them, it very clearly is).

Yes, I've lied about my age and tried to claim I was older, but like I said, finding out how old I was didn't stop Plum Tree from doing everything that they did and still are doing.

I'm including the names I could find for several of them, because keep in mind, once again, the things they have done could land them in prison. I cannot stress this enough either, but please do not engage with them at all. After everything they've done, I do not care about what happens to them, so I'm not saying this for their sake, I'm saying it for the sake of anyone else who may be targeted or sees them targeting others.

I should end on another horrific note and say that even with everything I have shown here, this isn't even close to everything that they've done. While I've shown some experiences shared by other victims, there is a lot more, including things I have been asked not to share. I acknowledged you freaks throughout this doc because I absolutely know you will be reading, like always, so here is my final message to Nikolas, Chris, and the rest of the creep entourage: I hope that every single last one of you horrific freaks aren't just officially and permanently chased off the internet (meaning you also fucking stop making thousands of alt/burner accounts), I also hope that (the adults at least hopefully), end up in prison after all of this. With all the shit you've all pulled, it's genuinely fucking insane how none of you have been locked up for this. Fuck off for good. All of you.
