

My Statement

I first talked to LK around April this year, from the start he seemed very nice and caring, but that was only the first step of the manipulation. He targeted me and started being more intimate for one specific reason, I'm a child and vulnerable. Then, the flattery started. Near constant praise and him convincing me that he was doing absolutely nothing wrong, and it was truly platonic. At the time, I didn't see anything wrong with it, but that was just the manipulation talking. He was being way too intimate and being too dirty. He manipulated me by being super affectionate, then threatening to leave, only making me want more. LK is not a good person, he is not sweet, he is not trusting. He is a terrible, terrible person and a blatant pedophile. Attached is evidence of him being explicit and rude, proof he knew he was talking to a minor, and also some of the things he said to manipulate me. I hope some action is taken from this.
