

GLASS APOLOGY:

Glass Today at 10:19 PM

I want to apologize for my reckless actions when it comes to myself sending explicit images to multiple different women. The situations were highly unfortunate for their own separate reasons. I fully recognize that I fucked up here, and that what I did was weird and unacceptable in such a short timespan. It was not my intention to harm anyone by doing what I did, however that ended up being what happened. I was under the impression that the birth certificate shown to me by Ghostface was legitimate, and that she was 18. In terms of Swan, I was fully convinced Swan was being honest about her age. This was due to testimony from Swan, and mutual friends between Swan and I. I would not have chosen to interact with either of these girls had I known that they were being dishonest in any way regarding their ages.

ADDRESSING THESE SITUATIONS ONLY

Swan entered the “Cult of Urghbla” server and made friendships in the community for months before Glass ever interacted with Urghbla and his community. Swan had lied to everyone in the community about turning 18 when she really was 16 turning 17 years old.

← I Ate Urghbla for Breakfast

ultimately led to the situation between Swan and Glass, as Glass would not have interacted with a minor knowingly. Glass has said multiple times he thought she was an adult, 18 years of age.

2. To further the depth of the last point, It was not apparent in any way that this individual would be lying to Glass about her age. This being said, everyone who was spoken to by Glass in regards to her age all answered with "I believe she is 18, I think she is 18, Oh yeah she is 18". Swan was actually romantically involved with Urghbla's friend Nutterz who is 18-19, publicly. (Would Nutterz be in a relationship with a minor?) Along with that, Swan did not attend school and had a sleeve tattoo which only displayed to Glass that she was 18. On top of this Swan tells Glass she is 18 in DM's.

3. Urghbla specifically says that as soon as he finds out Swan is a minor he exposes Glass for talking to a minor, this is at the same time Glass has found out as-well. Konsaki would have evidence of this in a group chat held between Glass, Solar, Masenko and himself. At this point Konsaki was spending a lot of time with Swan, and found out that she had been lying about her age because Swan confessed to him. In this group chat they discuss what to do about their new found information, this is when Solar tells Urghbla about Swan's age. Solar records this interaction.

4. Urghbla goes live one day after finding out Swan's age and immediately says that Glass's "relationship" to Swan is weird. He also addresses in his server that Nutterz (18) talking to Swan (Minor) is not weird.

Addressing Glass admitting to sending Swan illicit photos/videos;

During the group chat between Konsaki, Glass, Masenko, and Solar, Glass was explaining how disgusted he was by the actions of Swan (Minor pretending to be an Adult and was making sexual remarks towards Glass). This is because Swan had received an NSFW picture from Glass before she was exposed for being a minor.

Important Note;

Glass sent the NSFW picture to Swan before everyone found out Swan had been lying about her age (including himself as he found out at the same time as Konsaki, Masenko, Solar, and Urghbla).

3:39:05

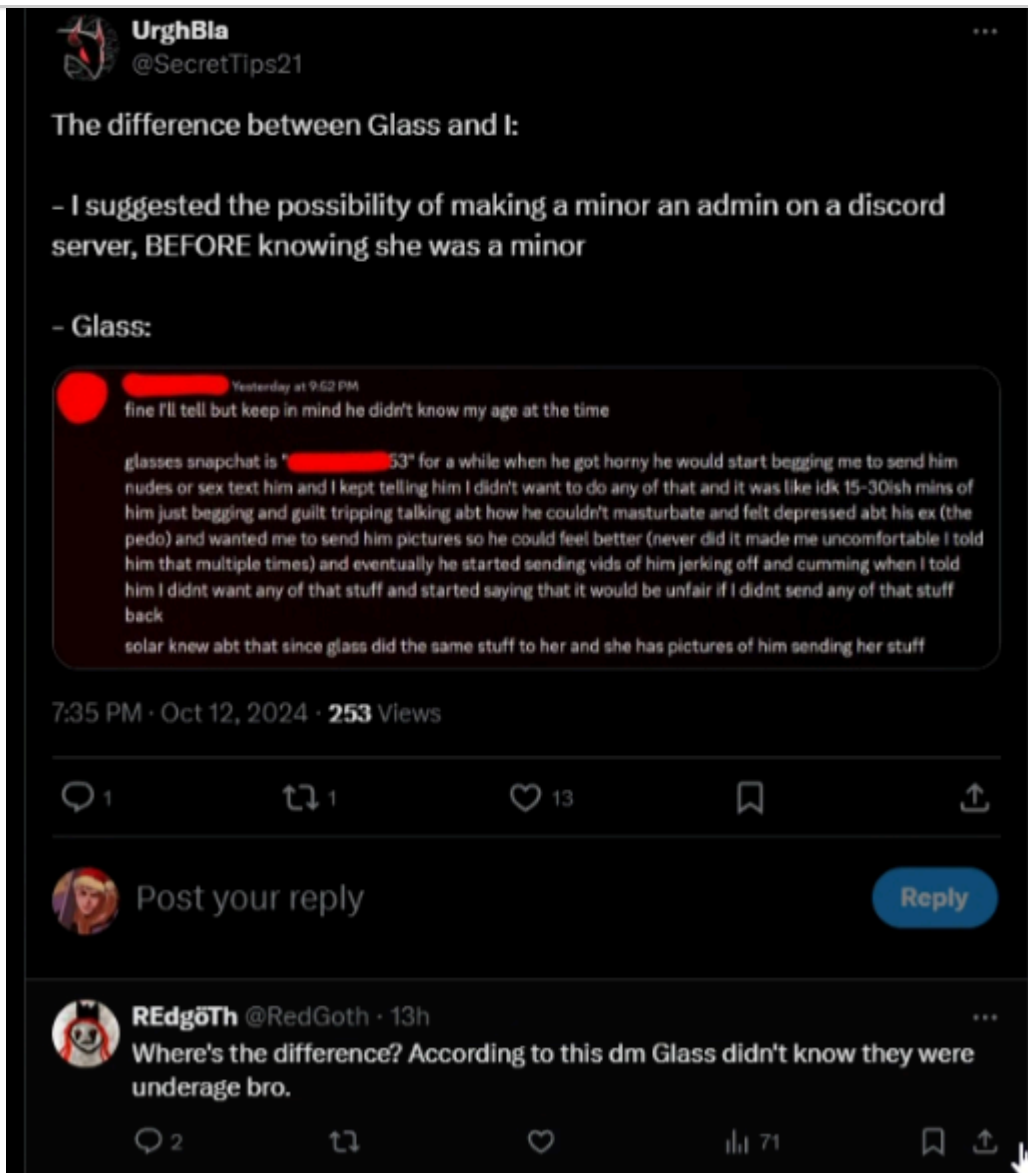

The adult party (Nutterz who is 18 at this time) must have known and been dating Swan before he turned 18 for this law to apply. On top of this they are not in the same state which makes this law inapplicable.

Urghbla: "What they lie about is their choice."

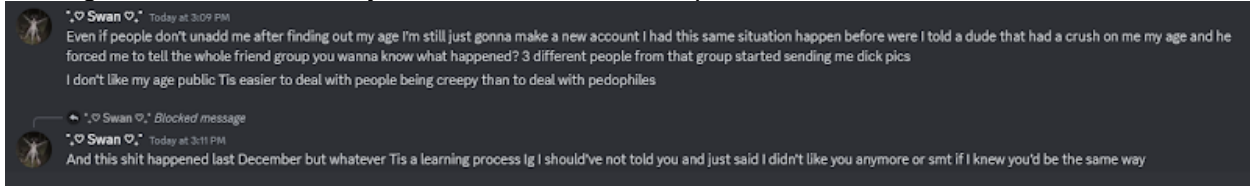

Glass: "Because I sent a picture to a girl whom I thought was 18 years old."

Urghbla: "You send your cock to a girl who ended up being 17, that's what you did. Right?"

Glass: "Yeah, what are you going to do about it?"

Urghbla: "That's for everyone to make their own opinions on."

These messages were sent the day after the now deleted birth certificate photo, which Ghostface has claimed multiple times she never sent. She then sends the following messages on the 3rd further confirming Glass saw the birth certificate she sent. These dms are also from the dm log saved by Glass on the 11th of September after Ghostface has threatened Glass via an alt account named "Sprout". Which is now believed to belong to her 25 year old Groomer boyfriend, mentioned multiple times in Urghbla's discord and in the call on the 20th of December. Ghostface deleted many of the dms between Glass and her before going on to Urghbla's stream to "expose" Glass after her presenting Glass with a now believed to be forged birth certificate.

Ghostface is undoubtedly lying about many different factors surrounding this situation. She can be seen in Urghbla's discord telling people she is 18 years old before she came out on Urghbla's stream claiming to have just turned 18 on the 5th of November as seen in the screenshot below where Ghostface on October 17th says in response to someone asking her age that she is 18.

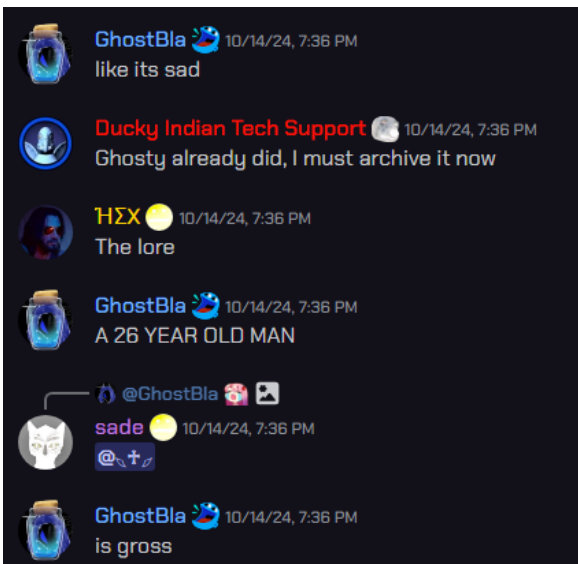

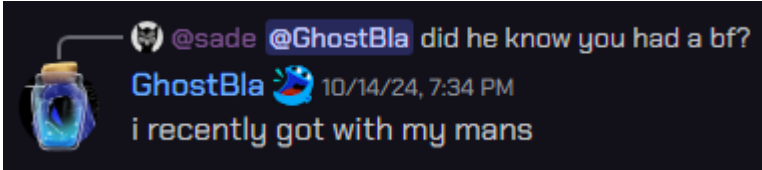

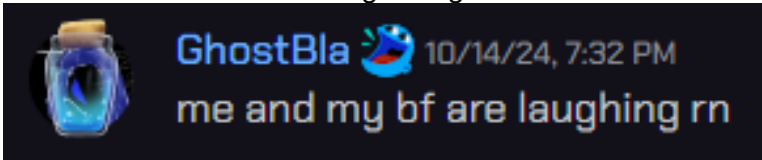

← I Ate Urghbla for Breakfast

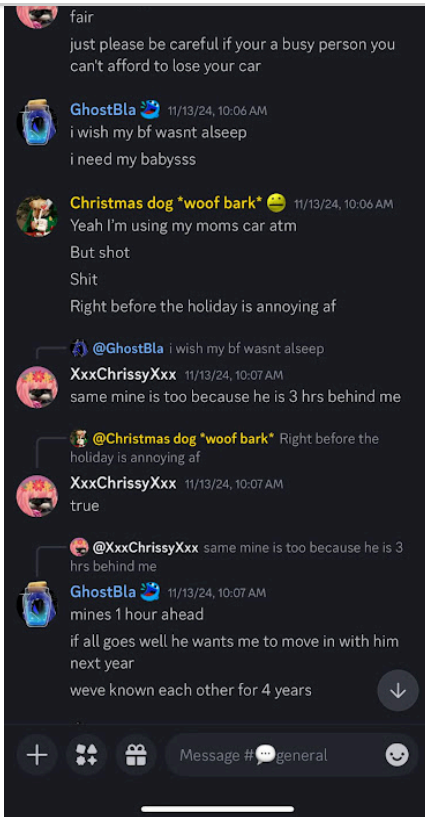

This clearly shows that Ghostface was lying about her age not only to Glass, but to everyone up until she actually turned 18 if the birth certificate she provided to Urghbla is in fact real, and belongs to her.

<https://youtu.be/vX4eC8Dtn-0> (Ghostface concerning call 12/20)

After the footage gathered on the 20th of December, I began to dig a bit deeper into the messages Ghostface had been sending in Urghbla's discord. This is what I found:

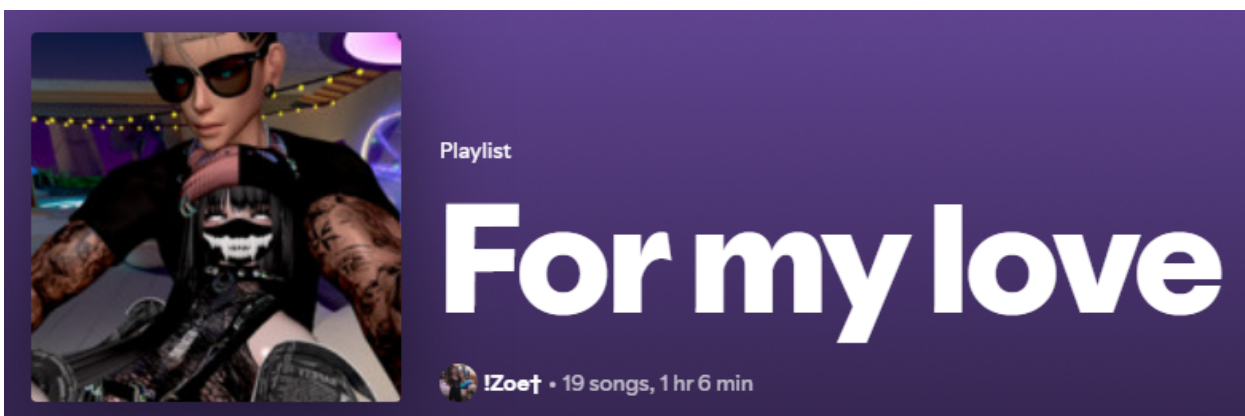

← I Ate Urghbla for Breakfast

In the video you just watched, Ghostface claims that she has known her “boyfriend” for only one year. She also claims that she got into contact with her and subsequently this led to them getting together. However, if you take a look at the screen right now, you’ll see this is completely false. She’s known this guy for 4 years, which would make her 14, and him 21 when they met. Considering Ghostface’s tendency to lie, even going as far as to lie maliciously in the way that she did. Anyone could have found this information sitting there, yet nobody cared enough to look into it.

Keep in mind this 17 year old girl at the time is dating a 25 year old she claims she met over a year ago. She also claims in the call that Glass recorded that she started talking to him again after she turned 18, which is false if what she’s saying here in these screenshots is true. She was undeniably groomed by the man she is currently in a relationship with that spent over $4,000 on her. Buying her a new PC, peripherals, and full body for VRChat. There is further proof the man she’s referring to is someone she plays VRChat with on her Spotify as seen in one of her playlists.

Urghbla's staff doxing Glass via discord

write this, we're waiting to make a ticket in his discord on one of Glass' alt accounts. what are we expecting the outcome of this ticket to be? Our guess is that we're going to make the ticket, bringing attention to the media channel post that is fully doxxing Glass, it will not be removed, and we will instead be banned from the server. Let's see how it goes.. It is currently 10:25PM on 12/22.

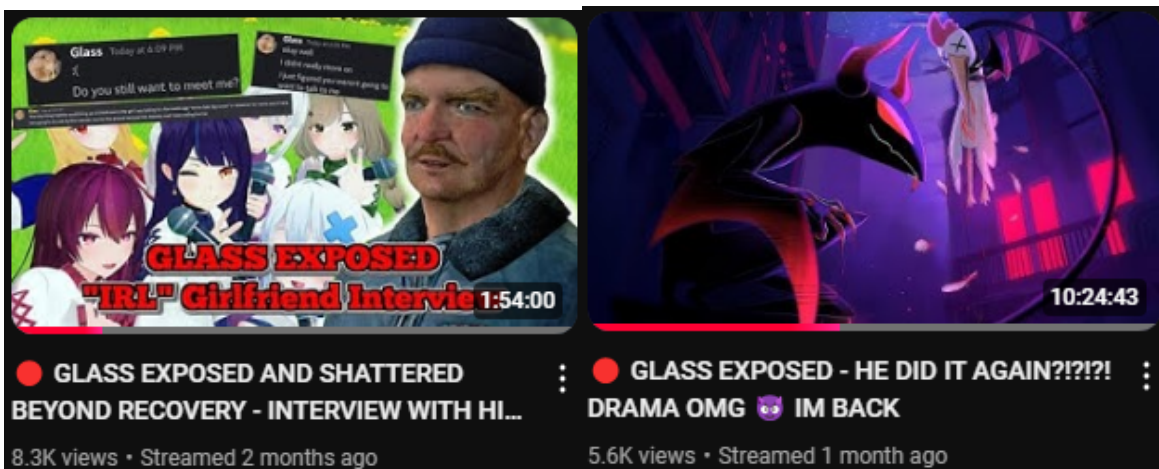

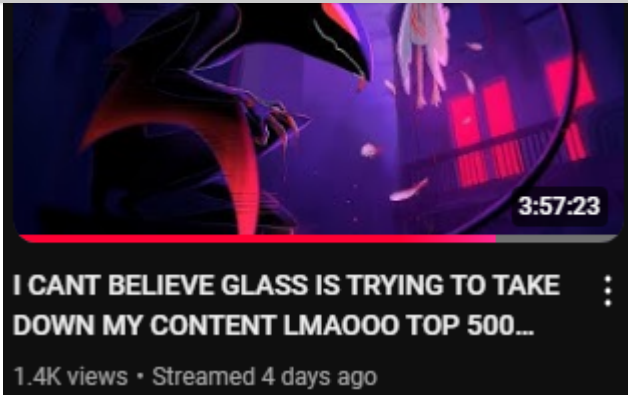

As suspected, nothing was done to remove Glass' personal information from Urghbla's discord. Instead, we were met by an arrogant moron that thinks Glass choosing to not come forward publicly about a personal situation between himself and a girl he was talking to makes him somehow agree with her actions. No surprises here. (Screenshot below)

Some More SHIT

For over two months, Urghbla has said a bunch of shit about Glass's character, destroying his public image, and alienating him from the fanbase they both heavily shared on YouTube. With each claim being made having been altered to fit the narrative Urghbla wanted to push. With little to no hard evidence to support even the more egregious of claims being made. Testimony taken from involved parties has been used regardless of the trustworthiness of the parties making said claims. Today, that changes. We will be clearing up all of the confusion surrounding the most horrendous of claims being made against Glass. The reasoning behind this is due to the fact that Glass has been receiving endless harassment due to the claims being pushed heavily by Urghbla on his livestreams, in his discord, and privately to people he used to consider friends. Urghbla does not care to spread the truth. Instead, he cares to spread anything that puts himself on a pedestal above all, bolstering his monstrous ego he cares deeply to protect. Taking every opportunity to manipulate others onto his side, and doing everything in his power to assure those who disagree with him don't get the chance to threaten the control he has on his audience. An audience he has used countless times to harass many innocent people.

This is fine because I don't have any care that people that hate are in here. This has been going on because our community is the best out of all so people like Azuki fumiko from FBT heaven and other past communities I destroyed like to spy in here since all of their servers are dead.

I only will ban people who openly support the shit glass has been doing as it pertains to me because I do not wish to entertain those people. If they wanna sneak in here privately, doesn't matter just as long as they know they aren't welcome.

Now, we're going to show you all some of the things that display Urghbla's tendency to lie to his audience in order to twist and manipulate situations in his favor.

On 10/3 Urghbla makes an announcement in his discord claiming that Glass decided to "blatantly slander him by making an impressive amount of baseless claims". This is untrue, and is one of Urghbla's favorites when it comes to discrediting others and bolstering his massive ego.

The claims Urghbla is referring to were made by Glass in a post earlier that day, in which Glass had stated his reasons behind no longer choosing to associate with Urghbla. Glass had made claims that Urghbla was displaying sexist behaviors Glass did not appreciate, and provided context of said interactions to back those claims. Urghbla denied all claims and pleaded ignorance to the situation.

UrghBla 🤪 10/3/24, 7:21 PM

@everyone Ok guys... I tried the nice approach as you can see indicated in my previous announcement. Now it's time to address things openly.

In response to my post, Glass decided to blatantly slander me by making an impressive amount of baseless claims. Some of these include accusations that I'm a pedophile, I support cheating as well as the abuse of women, and I'm sure more accusations that came out of thin air and are likely all projections of his own feelings. [and pretty evidently so]

To those that for some reason accepted his baseless claims as reality, I encourage you to demand hard proof. Once you realize that none is to be found, I want you to know that you are welcome here as part of our awesome community and from here on out, I would like to move past his childish actions.

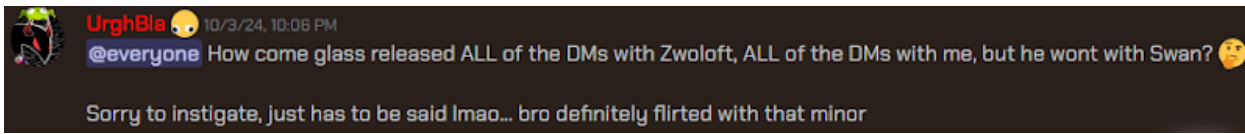

Thanks so much, everyone!

If you want to hear my side of the story, here is a brief video detailing what it has been like interacting with Glass over the last month or so:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZxP554Y--XM>

On 10/3 Urghbla makes an announcement in his discord, that announcement is what you see on screen now. In which he is posing the question of why Glass would leak his dms with zwo and him, but not with Swan. He then makes a claim that Glass flirted with Swan, who was exposed for lying about her age the day prior. Which was when Urghbla and Glass both found out.

← I Ate Urghbla for Breakfast

leaked or him. There would be no reason for Glass to leak his DMs with Swan, that's why he didn't leak them.

On 10/4 Urghbla makes an announcement in his discord server. Multiple claims are made here against Glass' character based on past events with others that are irrelevant here given the context. Glass leaked his DMs with Zwo in order to provide context to the DMs Zwo leaked from his mental breakdown in their DMs that was due to a month of emotional manipulation coming from Zwo to Glass. There would be no reason for him to leak his DMs with Swan given this context. Urghbla gives away his intentions here by saying he seeked out the DMs personally, proving he was looking for any reason to "expose" Glass due to his personal vendetta against him. Urghbla states that given the deletion of Glass' side of the DMs, that it is unclear exactly the context of the now one sided conversation. Claiming that CLEARLY there were conversations involving sexual themes, to make it seem like their DMs on discord were in any way sexual. Which is false. The following provides the necessary context to the images he provided to back these outrageous claims.

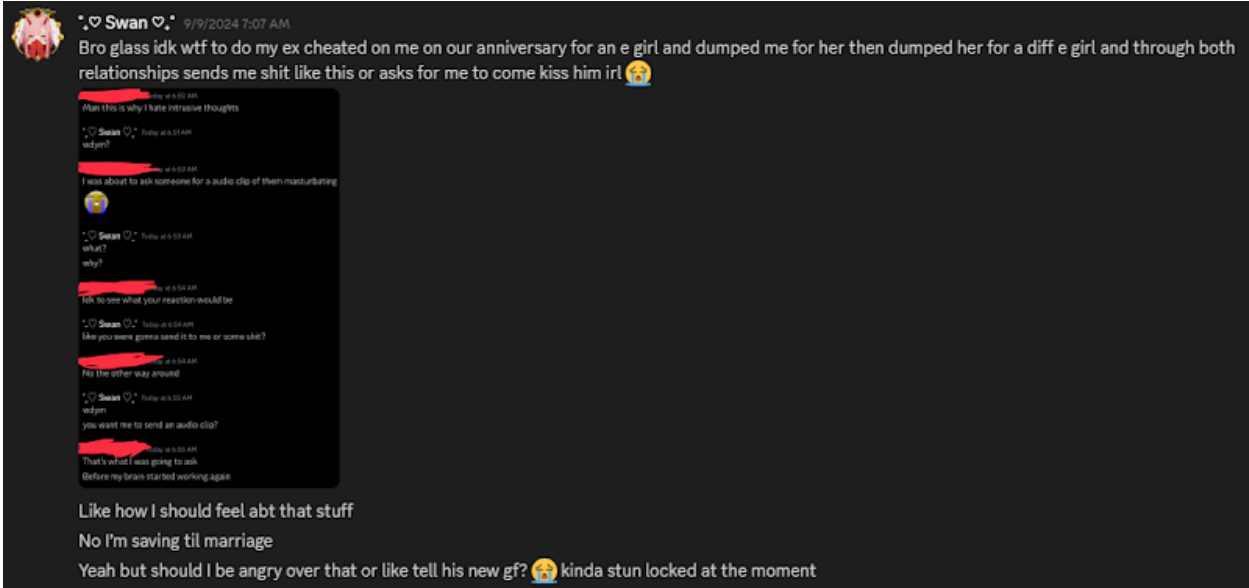

(Context1) In the image shown on screen, Swan is seen mentioning how she is "saving until marriage". This remark from Swan came from a conversation Swan and Glass had regarding her ex at the time sexually harassing her. Glass had asked if there were any sexual interactions between the two in the past that would justify his sudden demands of Swan sending him explicit content. In response she said she was saving until marriage. To further prove this context is in fact legitimate we need to first draw attention to the fact that the messages seen in the screenshot provided by Urghbla are for some reason in reverse order they were sent to Glass. The message below reading, "Like how I should feel abt that stuff" was sent by Swan, to Glass before Glass asked for clarification as to whether or not the interactions between her and her ex had been sexual in nature in the past. This is Glass' side of the DMs to prove the claim that the DMs Urghbla used are appearing in reverse order.

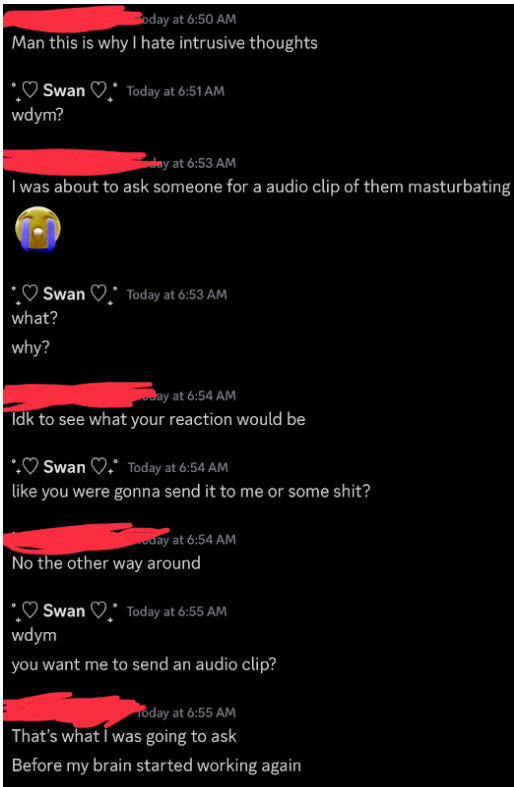

Like how I should feel abt that stuff

Bro glass idk wtf to do my ex cheated on me on our anniversary for an e girl and dumped me for her then dumped her for a diff e girl and through both relationships sends me shit like this or asks for me to come kiss him irl 🤔

The Swan Situation

Swan joined "The Cult of Urghbla" server around July of 2024, and began to make friendships within the community for months before Glass ever interacted with Urghbla and his community. Swan had lied to everyone in the community about turning 18 when she really was 16 turning 17 on August 20th countless times.

Everyone else in the community (adults and other friends of Swan) failed to verify Swan's age in an adult and minor combined server. There is no excuse for this action, as there are many discord bots that can be used to safely verify someone's age via ID sent to head admins or staff. This ultimately led to the situation between Swan and Glass, as Glass would not have chosen to interact with a minor knowingly. Glass has stated multiple times throughout the last few months that he fully believed Swan was an adult. It was not apparent in any way that this individual was lying to him, or others, about her age. That being said, everyone who Glass had asked for further confirmation on Swan's age all told him that she was in fact, 18 years old, and her birthday had just passed on the 20th of August. Swan was also, for months before her and Glass ever spoke, romantically involved with Urghbla's friend NutterZ. Who, at the time, was 18 years old. Glass knew this, and would never think that an 18 year old would be in a relationship with a minor over the internet. As no matter where you're from, this is illegal. Along with that, Swan did not attend school and had a sleeve tattoo she had mentioned multiple times to Glass and others. This further bolstered confidence that Swan was being honest when it came to her age, and was in fact 18. Swan told Glass she did not have any form of ID, and was not comfortable sharing any other form of ID. Swan mentions multiple times in Urghbla's discord general chat that she had already graduated high school. Stating specifically that she had to repeat her senior year due to being sick and absent for most of it. Along with her telling Glass directly that she was 18 in their DMs on discord.

Urghbla specifically says that as soon as he finds out Swan is a minor, he subsequently exposes Glass for talking to a minor. This is at the same time Glass found out that Swan was lying about her age. At this point, Konsaki was spending a lot of time with Swan, and was the person responsible for finding out Swan

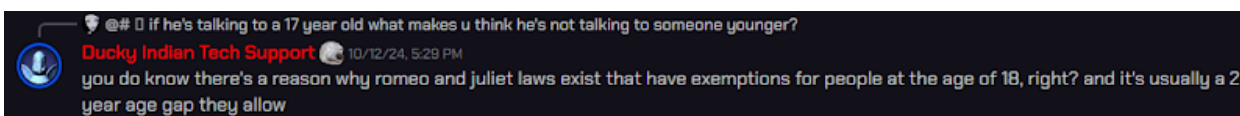

← I Ate Urghbla for Breakfast

Urghbla about what had been found out about Swan. Solar also recorded the entire group chat in order to blackmail Glass if necessary in the future, as she states during Mrow's livestream on the 20th of October.

Which leads to addressing Glass' admission to sending Swan an illicit photo. During the group chat between Glass, Solar, Masenko, and Konsaki, Glass was explaining how disgusted he was by the actions of Swan. Who had been making constant sexual remarks towards him since they started hanging out in mid September. It is now known this could have all been prevented had NutterZ come forward and ratted on Swan for lying about her age. We're not sure exactly how NutterZ found out Swan was lying about her age, however, NutterZ did hide this from others. NutterZ was also actively assisting Swan in covering up her lie. NutterZ, knowing Swan's age, continued to have an online relationship with her for months. Swan, at the time, was 16 years old, and NutterZ was 18. Urghbla likes to downplay this age gap by claiming it was only one year, which is not true.

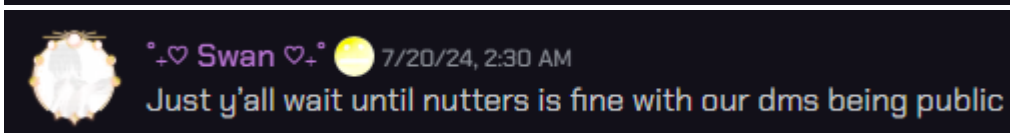

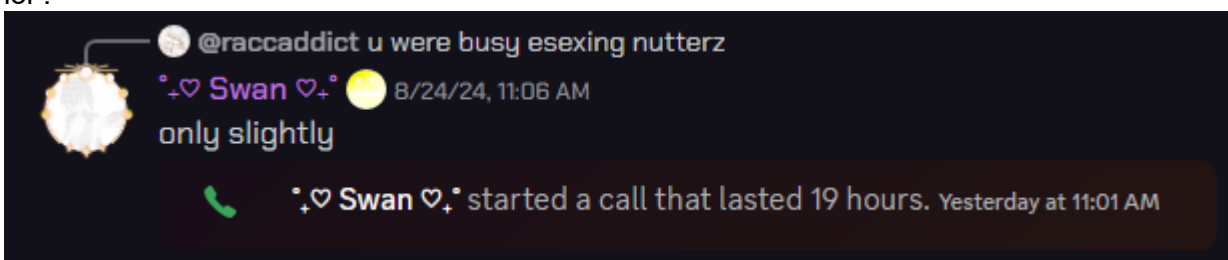

In Mrow's stream at 4:29:29 Urghbla says, "Listen, there might be more underage girls watching that you might be scaring off if you keep using that profanity." Glass responds, "It doesn't matter what underage girls are watching, they're not gonna come talking to me, because I don't talk to underage girls." Mrow chimes in with, "Yes you do." Glass responds, "No, I don't." It needs to be made clear once again that if Glass were to have known Swan was 17, he would not have been talking to her in any way, shape, or form. Glass has always held a strong opinion when it comes to engaging with minors online, simply don't do it. Whether it be collabing on his channel, being friends, or anything in between, Glass chooses to not interact with minors. During this same stream, NutterZ is present, and a screenshot is shown on stream of him having multiple day long calls with Swan on an alt account that belongs to NutterZ, as confirmed by NutterZ on this stream. At 3:37:29, we can see this screenshot of the referenced calls.

In defense of NutterZ (18), who is from New York, and Swan (16 at the time), who is from Florida, being in an online relationship. The "Romeo and Juliet Law" is brought up multiple times in Mrow's stream, and in Urghbla's discord. Which is an intriguing point to bring up, considering this law does not apply to relationships of two parties that are not from the same state. It also doesn't apply when the adult party is already 18 years old when the relationship begins, which would also make this law inapplicable. Yet, Urghbla chooses to ignore this, because he personally does not find it weird for a grown adult to be talking to a 16 year old on the internet. Glass' stance on this is simple: if you're above the age of 18 on the internet, you should not be talking to anyone under the age of 18 in a romantic, or sexual manner.

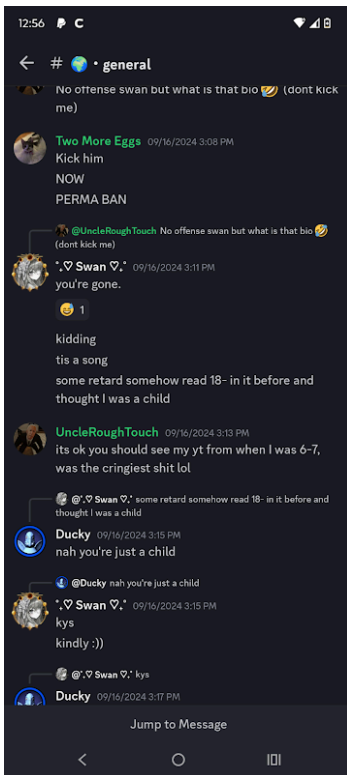

It should also be mentioned that the "Romeo and Juliet Law" argument is usually made by those who are attempting to defend predatory behavior, not those who are opposed to it.

It is undeniable that Swan and NutterZ had some form of e-dating relationship going on, as mentioned multiple times by Swan, and NutterZ in Urghbla's discord. As well as in this screenshot here dated 7/18/2024 where NutterZ says to Swan, "Wait until you're 17 or 18." Following that another screenshot of Swan and NutterZ conversation via DMs where NutterZ tells Swan "your 18, okay" and Swan responds, "ok lol".

Urghbla has turned this situation, where a minor is maliciously lying about her age on the internet, into a tool he used in order to defame Glass for multiple months on his channel. This can be seen in multiple livestreams, tweets, comments made in his discord, and announcements in his discord. On 10/3 Urghbla makes an announcement in his discord in which he states, “nutter is 18 himself he’s not weird for talking to her (and also wasn’t interested in dating her), I’ve already explained this on stream earlier, but I told him (nutterz) to not do that shit (date swan) because it puts all of us in a weird position. (affecting his public image)” Then he tops it off with, “Let’s stop talking to minors now, thank you.”

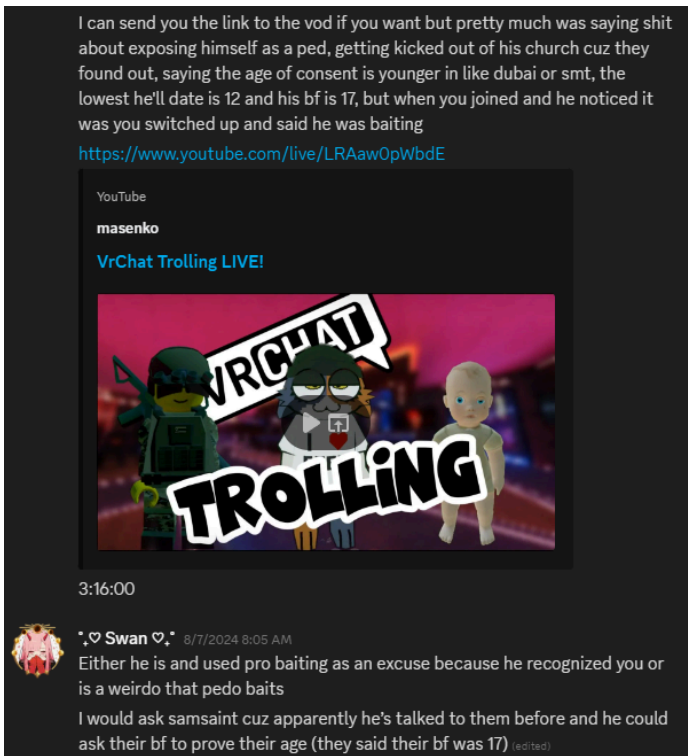

It needs to be made clear that at this point in time NutterZ and Swan were no longer talking to each other romantically. Meaning that this has to be referring to a prior conversation between Urghbla and NutterZ, not a recent one. For that reason, we believe this announcement to be a slip up and admission of Urghbla having some prior knowledge of Swan’s age. If this is true, it’s incredibly disturbing that this information was kept secret. Swan and Glass had been interacting publicly for around a week or so and nobody said a word to him regarding Swan lying about her age even though multiple people knew and were keeping it hidden intentionally. Along with this, there are countless images of Glass’ face floating around the internet from private calls that took place within the friend group shared between him and Urghbla at this time. All of which were taken by Brittlebones, one of Urghbla’s moderators. So, not only was Swan’s age kept secret from Glass, but these people were constantly screenshotting his face when they were having private conversations in Urghbla’s discord server. Urghbla then makes a tweet on 10/12 in response to the claims Glass made about him possibly having known Swan’s age. Stating “The difference between Glass and I: I (Urghbla) suggested the possibility of making a minor (Swan) an admin on a discord server, BEFORE knowing she was a minor.” Then posts a screenshot of what we are supposed to assume is a dm from Swan to Urghbla, in which, in the first line of text she states, “fine I’ll tell but keep in mind he didn’t know my age at the time.” Which completely contradicts his entire point of making the tweet in the first place. This is one of many contradictions Urghbla has made in regards to the Swan situation.

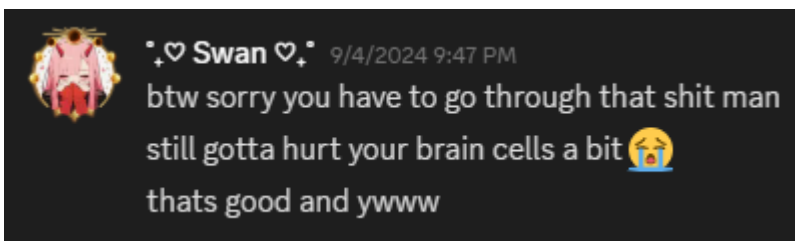

Swan - Timeline of events:

Since there is a ton of misinformation out there regarding Swan and Glass' interactions, here is the entire timeline of events.

8/7 - Swan sends a direct message to Glass about a potential predator in his community who appeared on one of Masenko's YouTube livestreams.

9/4 - Swan reaches out to Glass to express sympathy regarding the situation involving Zwoloft.

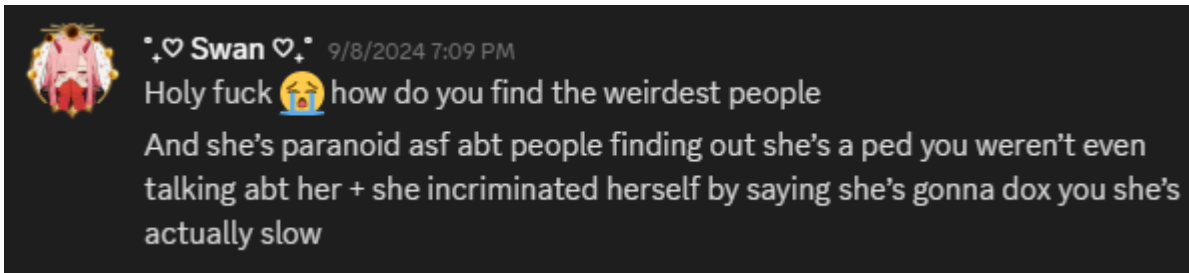

9/7 - Swan messages Glass concerning an issue in his Discord server.

your server alone is breaking discord lol

9/8 - Swan contacts Glass regarding accidental leaked text messages on his Twitter, where his ex, Astrid, was making threats against him.

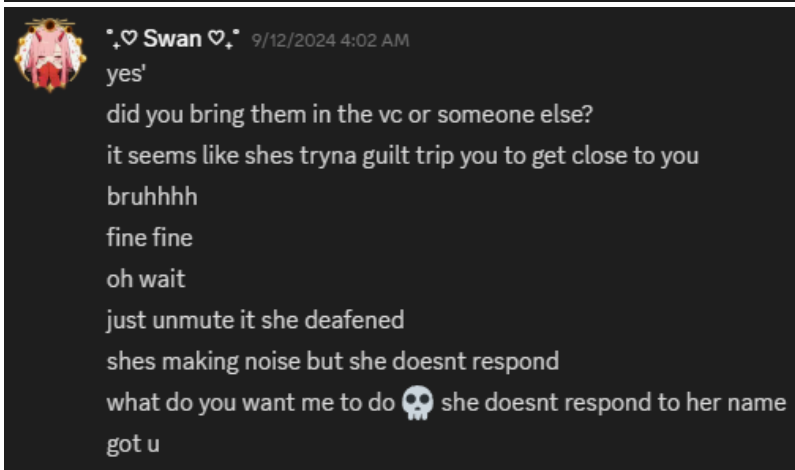

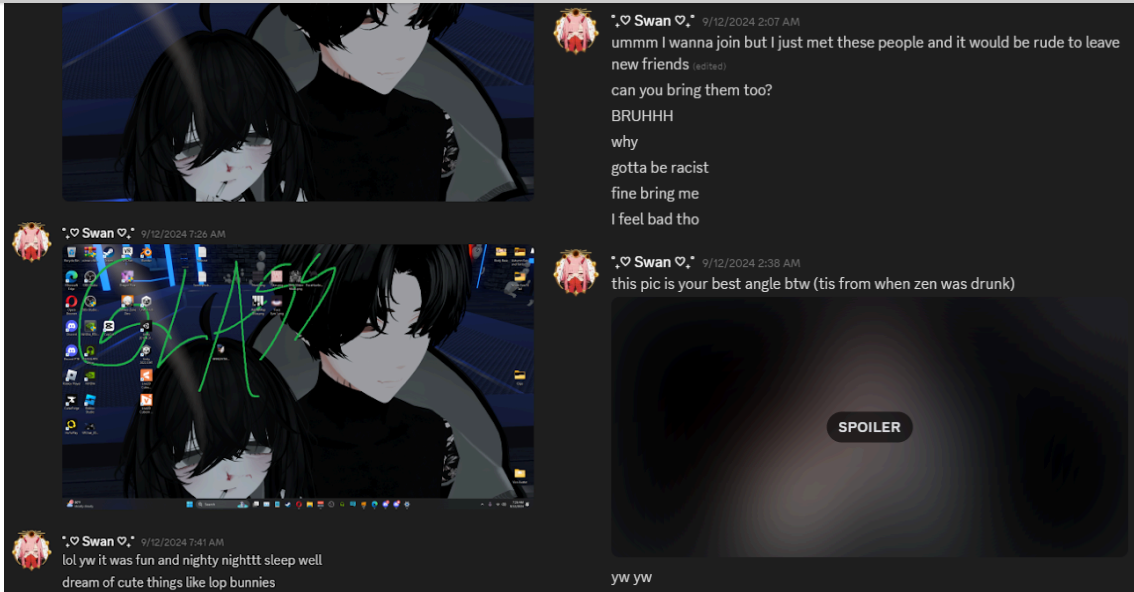

9/9 - Swan seeks advice from Glass after her ex cheated on her with another girl on their anniversary. Glass asks for details to clarify her situation and offer her advice. Which she acknowledges with a brief "alright ty" before the conversation ends.

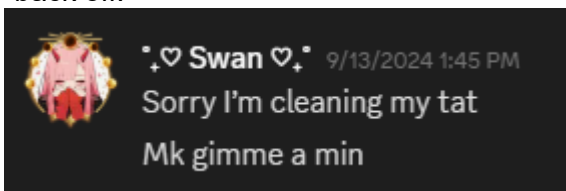

9/12 - Swan wants to join Glass while he streams in his Discord server. She shares a screenshot of his face she took during an argument with an intoxicated DVD Zen, stating it's Glass' "best angle." She then joins a call with Glass, Yuki, and others working to help Yuki through a schizophrenic episode. Later, during a group livestream, Swan captures a screenshot of Glass in VRChat while he is away from his keyboard. She also requests that Glass sign a screenshot of them that was also taken while Glass was AFK, which he humors, leading her to make it her desktop background. This marks a turning point in their friendship, as Swan expresses that they can now be considered friends. Throughout the day, she makes several quirky comments, leading Glass to perceive her as an overly enthusiastic fan. Swan also humorously references threats made by Zwoloft and expresses her feelings of missing Glass when he's not responding.

9/13 - At 1:45 PM, Swan apologizes to Glass, saying she is cleaning her sleeve tattoo. She later shares another screenshot from VRChat. Showing our avatars face to face while Glass is once again AFK. Swan calls Glass for 33 minutes seeking advice on a troubling situation. During this time, she shows him a DM conversation with Watcher, inaccurately claiming that Glass had suggested to Swan that Watcher should "back off."

9/14 - Swan messages Glass excitedly, encouraging Glass to join a voice chat with her and others. She apologizes for any rumors that may have arisen from their interactions. This day, she also opens up about a traumatic experience from her childhood where she was sexually assaulted and nearly killed.

After the 14th, Glass began to respond much less frequently to Swan's messages.

9/26 - Swan informs Glass that rumors about her becoming "Zwo 2.0" were started by SamSaint, a moderator for Urghbla's community, and that others have mentioned hearing him spread these rumors, specifically Solar.

becoming zwo 2.0

I got dms from people telling me abt hearing him saying that stuff in vcs
solar heard it too

Regardless of whether or not Glass deleted his dms with Swan, they were never sexual in nature.

At this point, their communication dwindles to just one or two messages exchanged daily, mostly revolving around the JumperXII Gaming video and subsequent drama. The last messages from Swan to Glass were sent on 10/2 at 12:36 AM.

On 10/2 at 3:22 PM, Konsaki messages Glass regarding an unsettling encounter with Swan. Expressing that he was uncomfortable proceeding with Swan's romantic advances, which led Konsaki to confront Swan about further proving her age. After asking for her age, she revealed she had been lying, and had only just turned 17. Swan took things a step further, and requested that Konsaki wait a year to begin flirting with her again, essentially asking him to groom her. This prompted Konsaki to block Swan. Glass was shocked to hear this coming from Konsaki, and noted that Swan had also lied to him as well claiming she was 18. They then discuss how to handle the situation in a group chat with Glass, Konsaki, Solar, and Masenko. Konsaki shares concerning screenshots of Swan's messages, indicating a troubling pattern in her behavior.

Upon discovering Swan had lied about her age, Glass decided to stop communicating with her. Glass talked with Konsaki, Solar, and Masenko before ultimately blocking and removing her from his friends list. Afterward, Glass reached out to Swan via Steam to express how her actions hurt and disgusted him, particularly in light of her request for Konsaki to keep their interactions secret and to wait a year to continue flirting with her. Following that message, Glass immediately removed Swan from his Steam friendslist, and they have not spoken again since.

Ghostface - part 2 (refer to part 1 for all screenshots)

In order to preface this section it needs to be said that there is an absurd amount of misinformation surrounding this girl and situation. 100% of which comes from Ghostface herself. That being said, here we

I on got an Id or anything but I do got my birth certificate with the day and month and full name is that good enough?

Sep 2, 2024, 8:52 PM

It was very early into their conversation that Glass had asked for proof of Ghostface's age. She responds saying, "I on got an Id or anything but I do got my birth certificate with the day and month and full name is that good enough?" She then proceeds to send Glass an image of the birth certificate she mentioned on twitter via discord dms, on her account with the name "DevilishDeath". Once Glass confirmed the age on the birth certificate, which was a blue Ohio birth certificate, and had her full legal name presented on it. She then deletes the image of said birth certificate. Following up this deleting with a comment regarding the image she deleted. She says:

DevilishDeath 9/2/2024 8:58 PM
i deleted it sorry i hate having it in dm reminds me im gettin old 🙄

To further disprove any claims made by Ghostface stating she didn't send Glass an image of her birth certificate, these messages prove she did in fact send Glass the referenced picture..

made by Ghostface, the screenshots above show Ghostface saying, "whens ur birthday yk mine but idk urs". This undeniably proves that Glass saw an image sent by Ghostface of a birth certificate, in which she stated via twitter dms, had her dob and full legal name displayed on it.

There is also proof of Ghostface claiming to be 18 before coming onto Urghbla's stream, as seen in Urghbla's discord general chat. Where Ghostface is asked by Tay, "How old are you" in which Ghostface responds, "18". This conversation took place in the Urghbla discord half a month before Ghostface's birthday on November 5th. This is where things begin to get a bit weird, scary, and downright disgusting in regards to Ghostface.

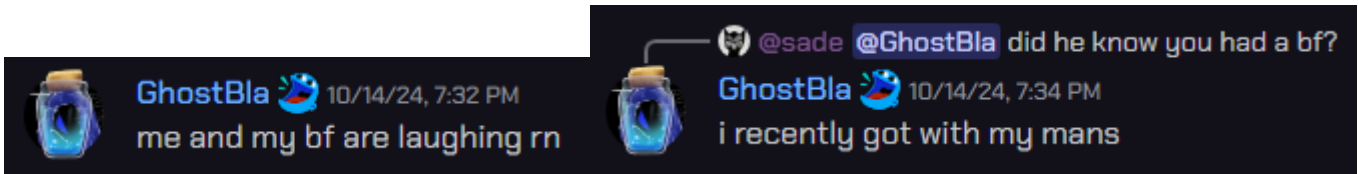

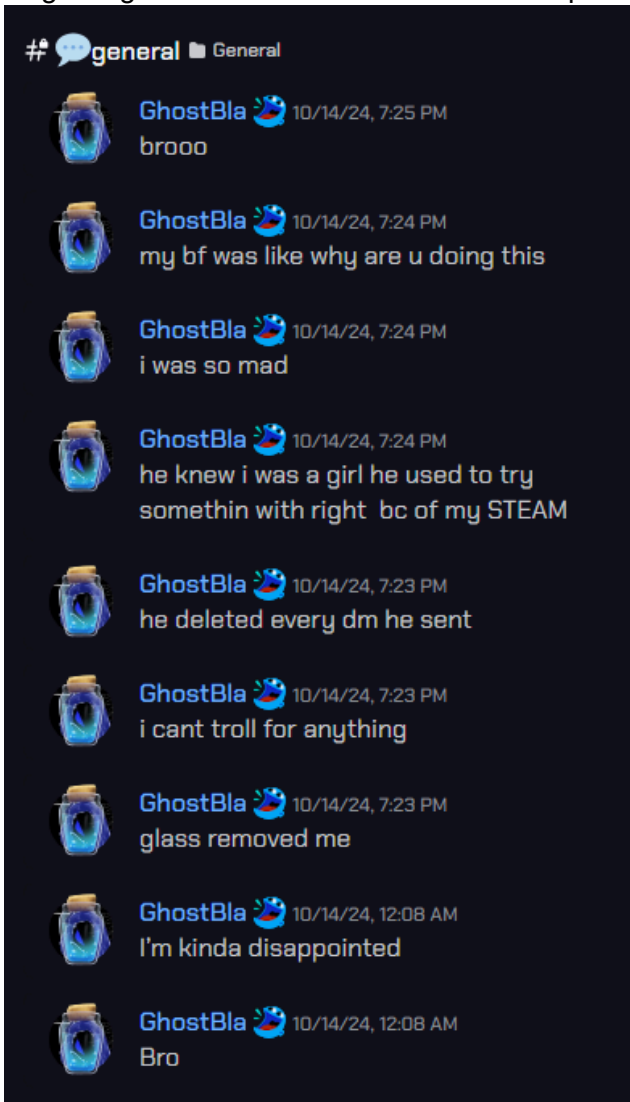

All of the details simply were not adding up when it came to the Ghostface situation. So, after the footage Glass gathered on December 20th, which you all watched earlier, we decided to take a deeper look into what was really going on here. After having joined that call, we're sure many of you can understand why we were compelled to look a bit deeper. So, we began to search, and that's when we found Ghostface had been claiming to already be 18 well before she came onto Urghbla's stream to "expose" Glass. As we presented already. However, that's not all we found. Now, keep in mind Ghostface said that she was dating a 25 year old man in that call. That being said, she is seen on the 14th of October stating, "A 26 YEAR OLD MAN" "is gross". Now, yes, this can be seen as gross. However, considering Ghostface went as far as to send Glass an image of a fake birth certificate to convince him she was 18, we don't consider her opinion here to be of any value. Especially not when we're about to show you what we found next.

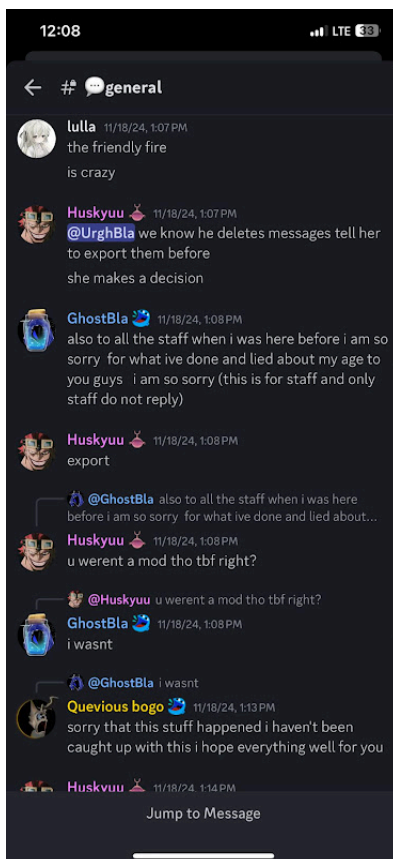

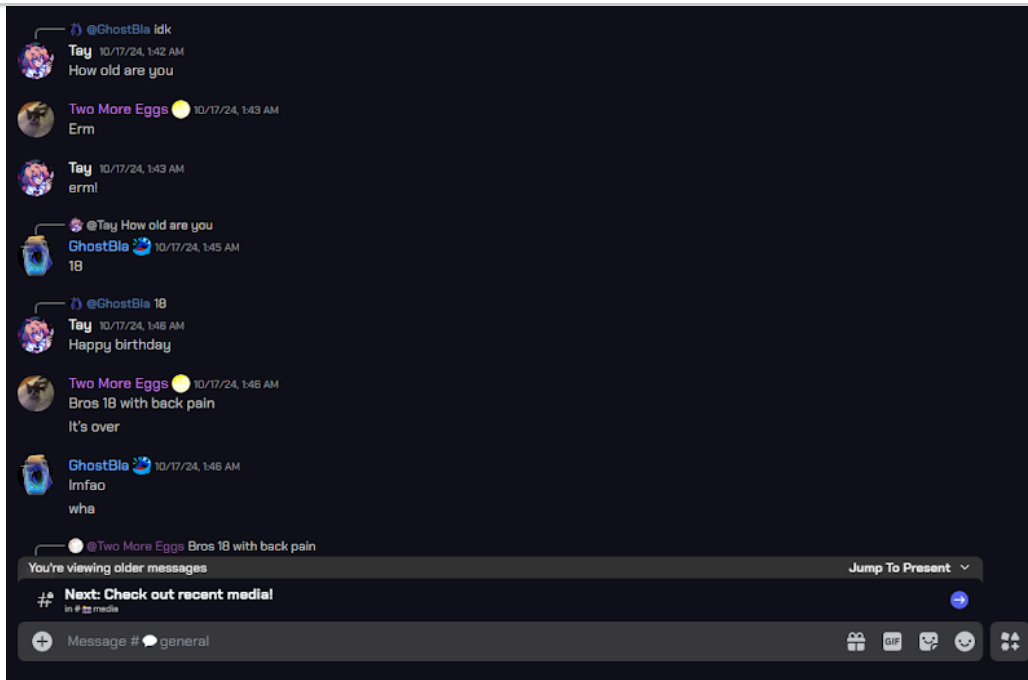

After the call on December 20th, we began to dig much deeper into what was going between Ghostface and her 25 year old boyfriend. And what we found was rather disturbing, and shocking. On 10/14 Ghostface can be seen saying, "i recently got with my mans". It's important to note that at this time, provided the birth certificate shown to Urghbla belongs to Ghostface, she is 17. She is also seen multiple times referring to her boyfriend on this day. Let's go back a day though, to the 13th of October. Where Ghostface says in response to a conversation regarding someone else's boyfriend, "mines 1 hour ahead" "if all goes well he wants me to move in with him next year" "weve known each other for 4 years". Now, if this is the same guy she's with currently, which everything is pointing to that being the truth, then when Ghostface met this guy, he was 21, and she was 14. Meaning she is dating a guy who groomed her for 4 years, and this is all publicly available information within Urghbla's discord general chat. Yet nobody other than us has caught or commented on this at all. This is the second instance of Urghbla allowing minors in his discord server that lie about their age to people, and both of them have been groomed whether it be intentional, or unintentional. The second instance of which being much worse than the first. She said it herself in the video you all saw, her boyfriend dropped $4000 on her as soon as she turned 18. He's also been grooming her for the past 4 years, as stated by Ghostface in the screenshots provided. To top it all off, Ghostface and this 25 year old man started dating before she even turned 18. She even admits to lying about her age in Urghbla's discord after having come on stream to "expose" Glass. Furthermore, it's disturbing, and the fact that this behavior is not only being allowed, but encouraged, is downright disgusting. Also this first screenshot shows proof she was messaging Glass weird comments on the 14th.

Urghbla's Response to the Osai Stream

In Urghbla's stream titled "GLASS DRAMA - HE ALREADY CRASHED OUT AGAIN AND DISCREDITED..." many important moments are captured. This stream was very important for the integrity of this video. Most of the things we needed Urghbla to say were said by him in this stream. At 3:13:05 Urghbla says, "Stop lying, Admit that what you did was predatory, admit that you're a negligent, dumb mother fucker and that's it, move on." We believe without a shadow of a doubt we have proven that nothing Glass has done in regards to anyone could be considered predatory. In order for any of Glass' actions to be predatory, there has to be intent. This statement made by Urghbla proves Urghbla's intentions in spreading the mass amount of misinformation about Glass over the past few months, was in fact malicious, and done without the full truth being presented fairly. Urghbla wants you all to believe that Glass is his streams for the past 3 months. He has been working tirelessly to convince the audience they heavily shared that Glass was knowingly and continually engaging with minors online. Going as far as to claim many times that Glass is doing disgusting things these minors have claimed he was doing. Glass has stated the extent of what occurred on Mrow's stream, and that's as far as it ever went. Yet, Urghbla allowed Swan to appear on his stream multiple times and claim that Glass was sending her multiple videos a day. This is already incredibly disturbing, and has led to hundreds of people coming into Glass' comments section every single day for months parroting these disturbing claims. Not only has Urghbla attempted to convince his audience that Glass is knowingly interacting with minors sexually on the internet, he has overwhelmingly succeeded in doing so. Due to him being seen as "the guy who exposes predators." The harassment has been endless, going as far as to allow multiple stickers of Glass' face in his discord server which all have names suggesting that Glass is a pedophile, or a predator. He has also allowed his community to create AI videos of Glass holding children suggesting Glass is going to do sexual things to these children. This is incredibly disturbing, and leads people to believe that these are things Glass is doing, believes in, or has done. Which is not true. Glass' stance on this will never change, and has never changed. If you're above the age of 18 on the internet, you should not under any circumstances be knowingly interacting with anyone under the age of 18 in a romantic, or sexual manner. We have provided countless evidence to prove claims made against Glass to be false regarding his interactions with Swan and Ghostface. We have also provided evidence that suggests both of these minors were legitimately groomed by others who were aware of their age, and were not lied to like Glass was. There is nothing more that needs to be said, that's everything.

Any content needing to be added that was missed will be added post drop of this doc, there may be some things we left out unintentionally.
