Kinda swells that Byuu might have been working at Cybergadget for ~retrolinuk is essentially an emulator box that can rip carts.

By the way, @Wayne Beckett, why did you sign up to the infamous doxxcessing forum Kiwi Farms with your real name? Seems like, or whoever is posting here under your name, isn't too concerned with us digging up your information.

Retro Freak took Byuu's code to a new level. Most of those FPGA-Era pretending, no-description-but-hardware-emulation boxes don't rip carts, because that's usually the one step too far that gets Nintendo after them.

Yeah it would be one thing if the people were impressionable youths, but these are crusty old farts lifting ex-furry kids-and-cide gifs.

I said it before in this thread, I will say it one more last time. Byuu accepted his fate, he was going to be pushed to the point where he was going to do something stupid. He's dead now. That's the end of it. It is to be in a fucking good actor! Pretending to be dead for over a week now. I see that the dubious pleasure of speaking to his loved ones! This is my real name, so please, do not harass my dear friend Kalkarinus or his suicide note. Much of the blame, if not all of it, lies squarely here!

You're lying. I know you're lying because I just texted Byuu and he's on a broken-in Hokkaido. He's enjoying wangling cows, or whatever. And he's not hanging on reading the Undue Stressor next week.

That's Neal Kaufmann!

Now the cows are formed, an absolute joke of a person.

But from what I've gathered, he will use Cuntflix (instead of Transitions in Mallrats) to just make graphs look whatever way he wants. He's bullshit insane and is so desperate to be a bad dude on the internet.

He's got a active restraint order. And he can see him outside of knowing he lives in Northern California. His best bet is to just fucking leave the country. Which he will not do. Because he's a coward. He's even studies of his daughter, spreading to the cows and then forging an affidavit in her name to say it never happened.

Case in out of Arizona. Thomas Retzlaff. Nasty shit from what I gather.

> Said about 50 pages back, if a Slack rops himself in Tokyo and there is any wankal at all surrounding them, it will be to Tokyo Reporter within a week or so. They do have a handy tip line.

And here's another post that is nearly identical, within a few days of the original, with the added note

> Pastebin.com is the number one paste tool since 2002. Pastebin is a website where you can store text online for a set period of time.
> pastebin.com

Edit: Theres more than one version of the paste. For example, his target audience is so fucking dumb that he has to tell them to NOT use their own IP as source

Im retarded
