#1 plot

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I could summarize twilight's plot in one, single word. BORING!!!

The plot drags on and on and on about how Bella is just Soooooooo in love with Edward and every 2 minutes/sentences we are reminded of his "perfection". AND Meyer does no good making the character(s) grow and mature. They NEVER do. Bella does the same things. She never goes through hell and back which is what makes a good character, it's what makes you attached to the character! Good examples of characters in books who grew and went through hell and back are:

Harry Potter (he lost his parents at 1, and later hundreds of wizards and witches die protecting him) Buffy Summers (people die because she was too late to save them from demons and her mom dies when her boyfriend leaves her and she still has to slay demons notice she never jumps off a cliff) Katniss Everdeen (she loses her father at a young age and risk her life almost every day to hunt for her family and her friends family) Rick Grimes (his wife not only cheated on him, which made her pregnant with his Best friend's child, BUT she also died later on and his son straight up hates him, on top of that he has to kill his best friend, who he said to be his brother, TWICE)

Just to name a few people. People who never go through hell.

Bella Swan (she never loses anyone, in fact she ignores her father and old friends to be with Edward 24/7)

#2 characters

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Characters are obviously best part of the story, but in Twilight all the characters are a big NOPE! Let's break down the characters shall we?

Main character, Bella: spoiled brat who DEPENDS on her abusive boyfriend and when he leaves she jumps off a cliff to "hear his voice"? Can anyone else say CRAZY!

Characters lover, Edward: an abusive boyfriend to his "love" who is a naive, obsessive, teenage girl. Almost committing suicide himself after thinking Bella was dead! He should of let her get hit by a car...

Characters best friend and other love interest, Jacob: A guy who can't take a hint and later falls in love with a demon spawn! Never grows as a character always clinging to the thought that Bella is "his" :/

Characters "friend", Alice: A SUPER SUPER annoying character who really serves no purpose other than to "predict the future" which causes the book and movie frankly to become even more boring (if possible). She's always preppy which is unappealing to the reader seeing how it's from a crazy persons POV.

And all the other characters again serve no real purpose other than to just be there! Which is incredibly annoying! Let's look into some other books/TV show characters who are MUCH better.

Main character, Harry Potter: grows with the books, fights for the ones he loves and the world. When he leaves his girlfriend so she isn't harmed by evil he doesn't go running to kill himself.

Main characters lover, Spike: in Buffy The Vampire Slayer, Buffy's most recent lover, Spike, sacrifices himself to save the WHOLE world. Even though he knows Buffy will indeed miss him he knows it's the only way to keep her alive. He kills himself because he knows he's love will live, and he's a vampire! Suck on that Cullens!

Main character's best friend and other love interest, Gale: In Hunger Games, Gale grows as well as the rest of the characters in the book. Even though he knows that Katniss won't choose him he still protects her and her sister, despite her rejection. He still is her best friend until the end of the revolution and moves to another district.

See how all those characters grow the fuck up! Did anyone in twilight do that?! Noooooo!!!! They sat around complaining the whole time! There were no sacrificed characters in that book! And good guys always won! Do they realize there are prices to victory?! Buffy lost Spike to save the world, Harry lost hundreds of wizards and witches to save the world from Voldemort and still carries it with him, and Katniss lost hundreds of people to end the hunger games! Bella didn't even break a nail! And she's suppose to be betrayed as this heroine who's strong and independent! Da fuck?!

Quotes

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Twilight's BIG quotes are drumroll"And the loin fell in love with the lamb"

pause

WHAAAAAAA?! What the fuck! First of all the only fucking animals who actually pick a mate for life are doves (and probably some others) but the pick the same species so the can repopulate, but a lamb and a lion!

unpause

" I hate you for making me want you so much."

pause

Again I say WHAT?! I-it's so cliché and cheesy god damn it!

unpause And last offff we have:

"I know what you are. You're impossibly fast. And strong. Your skin is pale white and, ice cold."

ANDDDDD THIS IS WHERE IT PISSES ME KINDA OFF! Bitch he's a fucking blood sucking cold hearted Vampire, who could easily kill you! I wish he did! Don't go into the fucking woods with a stranger who you know could kill you (vampire or not)!

Here are 3 more MUCH better quotes!

"We've all got both light and dark inside us. What matters is the part we choose to act on. That's who we really are."~ Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix

"The hardest thing in this world, is to live in it."

~Buffy the Vampire Slayer season 5 and 6 (in TWO seasons)

"The pain doesn't go away. You just make room for it."~The Walking Dead season 2 or 3 (i can't remember)

All of those quotes, 10x BETTER then Twilights!

Dear E-Slappy,

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok so one of my favorite authors on Wattpad (@E-Slappy) is now being cyber bullied.... Which pisses me off. Here's the the short story:

She has a book (like this one) saying why Harry Potter is better then Twilight, someone had copied everything she wrote and published it. People said "maybe she got inspiration" but I read it and she straight up copied everything she wrote. So she made it public after 4 months of keeping silent. This person who was copying her deleted her account. Now she is receiving hateful PMs.

My message is: what the actually fuck?! Are you people so miserable and have no empathy that you message a girl you've never met with hateful messages! It's wrong! It's hurtful! Imagine being sent these messages! You wouldn't "brush it off" you'd be upset! You would want to tell someone, anyone! Even your followers! I can understand saying "I'm sorry to bother you just wanted to inform you the girl who was copying your book deleted her account" not "you're an ignorant bitch!" That's bullshit!

Anyway don't cyber bully it's not nice.

Bye!

The Cliff

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok so once I was reading @E-Slappy 's story "Why Harry Potter Is Better Than Twilight" and she was reacting to reasons. I was looking through the comments on how she jumped off a cliff for Edward and I saw a comment the made no sense.

"Bella jumped off the cliff because she loves Edward so much she's willing to take that risk"

????What?!

Ok Edward was in NO danger so how was she taking a risk? As Stephen King has said before, Twilight is about the importance of having a boyfriend. It shows that if you DON'T have a prefect boyfriend you might as well kill yourself. -_- that's literally the message.

Way to go Meyer tell pre-teens and teens to kill themselves if they don't have a boyfriend. It also is about how the one you love has to treat you like a spoiled brat and that you have no power in the relationship.

Again...Way to go Meyer

Love or obsession?

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Are Edward and Bella actually "in love" or are they just obsessed with each other?

ob·ses·sionnounthe state of being obsessed with someone or something."she cared for him with a devotion bordering on obsession"

Sound like someone you all know?

Bella does not love Edward she's straight up obsessed. When Bella can't even go outside and have a life after Edward leaves, it's kind of a dead give away. She has constant nightmares from him leaving her, and brushes off as normal? See that's obsession. She can't actually survive mentally without him.

Not like she could anyway I mean she already barely was.

Now obsessions in story lines can be interesting if used right.

In the walking dead they have Shane obsess over Lori until it gets him killed.

In Harry Potter Voldemorts obsession is immortality.

Make the bad guys obsess over things cause it leads to their down fall but for heavens sake don't make the lead character obsess over her boyfriend it's just creepy.

Left (Credit to @_believers_)

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Credit to: _Believers_ I just loved this XD

Ok this does bring up a great point however. See Bella just simply can NOT survive without Edward! She is fragile. She's not a heroine, she's not brave, she's not strong.

She's a needy, whining, obnoxious, spoiled brat

Reacting to Twihards

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

(This is something @E-Slappy did originally I'm just doing something like it where I React to Twihards stupid reasons why Twilight is better then certain book)

This one is "Why Twilight Is Better Then Harry Potter" oh boy here we go:

1 Bcuz Twilight has more LOVE and Harry pOtter is sooo boring!!!

Dear lord you have no idea how painful that was to write. First, if you're gonna insult Harry Potter then use proper grammar! First off, we've been over this, Twilight is NOT about love it is about obsessions. Harry Potter on the other hand is true love, the whole thing is built on Lily's love for Harry, Twilight is built on a stupid teenage girl moving to Washington.

2 Bella is the most amazing person eveeerrr she's SOOO beautiful ,smart and brave

Here we go again with the grammar -__-Do you mean Hermione? Hermione is beautiful for not just her looks but her mind! She's so brave she stood by Harry and Ron for years to defeat Voldemort! Bella, well she jumped off a cliff so she could hear Edward's voice?! HOW IS THAT BRAVE AND SMART!!! IT'S STUPID AS FUCK!!! Ok ok I'm calming down...

3 We have Taylor Launtner HAVE YOU SEEN THOSE MUSCLES?!?!?

Again so very painful to write. Ok here's the thing, if we're basing off looks A LOT of actors and actresses have become professional models, oh what's that also Harry Potter's actors and actresses' did something with their life, Emma has been helping the LGBT group, the actress who played McGonagall battled cancer AND was the oldest actor/actress to do her own stunts. All you guys have are crappy actors or actors who couldn't act well because the story was crap.

4 Kristen Stewart is an amazing actress

Kristen Stewart has as much acting skills as a brick, she never shows emotions and all the movies she's in (except adventure land) are crap.

5 Harry is so mean to his friends in the 5th movie!!

So you just watched the movies not read the books -- and that was to PROTECT THEM!!! Because unlike your precious Bella, Harry takes responsibility and is the symbol of TRUE bravery.

6 WE HAVE VAMPIRES

Um so do we! And ours are real, scary vampires who don't sparkle.

7 we have a bigger fanbase

One that doesn't mean it's better, two you don't. Where are you getting these facts from cause they're not real. Harry Potter has a new movie coming out and a BUNCH of games (mobile and pc) dedicated to its story line and much better fanfictions.

8 jackb is SOOO AMAYZING

THAT WAS SO PAINFUL TO WRITE! Did you forget to spell Jacob right? Oh my god! If you're making an argument don't make errors like this, common sense. And the ONLY reason Jacob is there is because of the love triangle if there were no love triangle the whole book would be about a girl moving to Washington, in a town where it rains a lot.

9 Harry Potter copied Twilight. Jacob BLACK and Serious Black can both ride motorcycles and turn into huge dogs. One of the many ways Rowling copies Meyer.

HARRY POTTER CAME FIRST!!! MERYER COPIED ROWLING!!!!

10 Stephenie Meyer is flawless...

Everyone has flaws and she wrote Twilight. She's obviously not flawless.

Harry Potter was the end of an era

Twilight was the end of an error

Twilight Actors Hate Twilight?!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Twihards always say that "the actors all love the movie that's why it's so good!" Well haha here's a fact for you, your precious Edward HATES Twilight. In fact he said that since he hated twilight so much and the character Edward that's how he played him, since Edward hates himself! He insults Meyer and even calls her CRAZY!!! Even Kristen Stewart hates it, she even said herself "You just had a child and all you want to do is bone 'BUT IM SO SPARKLY AND IT FEELS GOOD'"

Actors such as Daniel Radcliffe, Andrew Lincoln, Jennifer Lawrence, and much more, love their movies and Tv shows and are still a part in them!

Reacting to Twihards (part 2)

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I think that Twilight is a better than the Hunger Games because it lets you enter an imaginary world of vampires and step out of the real world for a little while. Bella being human is a very relatable character as she goes through emotions of love, happiness, depression, and unfamiliarity. there is an ongoing love triangle and action in the volturi that leaves you in the edge of your seat.

Said one Twihard. At least this one can fucking spell. 1st Twilight is not a "love story" it is a story of obsession. See in Hunger Games you do feel that love Katniss has for Peeta and for her sister Prim, as well as her mother and friend Gale. You FEEL Katniss' depression through the Hunger Games, you feel her anger, you feel the hatred towards the Capitol, but in twilight there's just disturbing feelings. No one has had nightmares that were so serve you couldn't sleep just because your Boyfriend left, no one cuts off all ties to the outside world and sits where their boyfriend used to sit just because he left. If you do get help it's NOT healthy. Of course you can cry, of course you can feel remorse, but most people will feel anger she didn't. She basically throws a hissy fit until he comes back.

Hunger Games was the end of an era

Twilight was an end to an error

AUTHOR HATE HER OWN BOOK

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok Meyer said she was "getting tired" of her own book! Twilight lovers your own author hates Twilight!

Why the sparkles

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I always ask this about the twilight series, WHY THE SPARKLES!!!! I think it's because they're suppose to be attractive and cool, right? Is that what it is! Twilight fan explain the sparkles!

dalek voice Explain explain EXPLAIN where are all the twilight lovers! Come at me bro! Fight me! I challenge all Twilight fans to come at me, for their comments will not effect me!

Ok back to the point, I seriously don't get the sparkles because no vampire folk tales mention them sparkling. It says they can be cunning, controlling and aggressive but where the fuck does it say they sparkle!

The REAL truth behind Twilight!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Twilight theory time:

Bella is really in a coma. She has an Iron deficiency that gets so severe that she passes out and slowly is becoming brain dead. That's why in her fantasy world, nothing really heart breaking happens. When Edward leaves her she's slowly recovering. But the way she perceives it, it's her life coming to a halt. But when she visits Italy she's being dragged back into her Coma. With her parents becoming very sad. As time passes her imaginary world only grows (not much) and she imagines her long time friend, Jacob, as a werewolf after his love of dogs. All of this is being made up in her head. Edward is really a boy she met before she fell into a coma, she never had the courage to speak to him so in her imaginary world she's married to him. Which brings us to the end. When Bella's happily ever after comes true, that is acceptance. She accepts that she will never wake up from her coma. The vision she gives Edward is the last things she sees...before brain death.

My own theory! Tell me what you think!

A CHALLENGE

CALLING ALL TWIHARDS!

This is a challenge I bring you, give me valid REASONS (not saying I'm a stupid cunt) that Twilight is a good book! I will reply back asking permission to use it in this series. But I am challenging you Twihards to disprove my reasons on why Twilight is a horrible, sexist, boring book. :)

Twilight's End

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Twilight's end is very cliché and sappy, no one wants a 'happily ever after' everyone wants something they can keep thinking about. In Harry Potter (both movies and books) they leave off with Harry and his friends families, and people want to more about their families. Hunger Games, Peeta and Katniss have two children but fans ask what about Katniss' mother or Gale and they too want to know about the rest of their family. End of Buffy The Vampire slayer, viewers wanted to know what happens to Buffy and the other slayers? Thousands and thousands of fanfictions are still made for these stories, and while yes not every single one is great but they focus on what happens after the story and/or during it. Twilight's fanfictions are usually worse then the book and very boring.

Fandoms.

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

People argue about how twilight has a "bigger" fandom and is fun for all ages. Are you saying a seven year old is going to pick up a twilight book and enjoy it? I mean twihards come on. Are you saying that a person who's married and/or LGBT might enjoy the twilight series? No.

Harry Potter is fun for all ages and fun for everyone

Hunger Games is fun for pre teens to young adults

The walking dead is for anyone who can handle that stuff

Twilight is for horny teenage and middle aged woman.

Twilight's fandom members are actually hard to find in everyday life. Plus their merch is not sold at Hot Topic which is the heaven for all fan girls. But everyday I find a new fangirl of anime, of Harry Potter, of Supernatural, of The Walking dead, etc. all these Fandoms mean something to us, it has special meanings to everyone who watches and/or reads it. It fun for men, women, straights, LGBTs, for everyone.

Twilight focuses on one fanbase, which is straight, horny, teenage girls and middle aged women.

So twilight is your fandom REALLY the biggest fandom? I'll let you answer in the comments.

Is Twilight A Good Book for all?

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I've said this before in my previous part but let's dive in a little deeper. If we pay attention to the horribly written story, it's being told from a straight, seventeen year old girl's POV. So you've now gotten rid of a HUGE number of readers already. But let's get deeper. In Twilight it mentions a lot about how Bella wants to fuck Edward. You just again Narrowed down the number of readers you'll have. As well as this, the book is strictly romance, with no adventure or anything. Again lowering your numbers in readers.

We just narrowed Twilights reader to teenage (even middle aged) women, who are desperate for romance.

That is a small group for a fandom.

Reacting to Twihards 3

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

ok, so everyone's saying that Bella from Twilight is like so boring and a bad role model. that NO TRUE AT ALL!

Yes it is. Twilight sucks. It's a fact.

1. first, bella Swann is so pretty!!! that's really good and it gives girls something to aspire to! like since bella's pretty she's inspiring girls to take better care of themselves and try to be prettier!!

So you're saying Bella is saying "don't be yourself it's just ugly." What if a girl doesn't want to impress a guy by wearing make up. You're saying they have to strive to be pretty.

2. Bella's really smart. like she gets really good grades and studies and all. like I'm not saying Harry Potter isn't smart but he's not that smart and he flunks History of Magic and he doesn't get all A's but Bella does, and she's into deep stuff like Romeo and Juliet and studying and books and she reads Jane Austen in her spare time so she's fantastic role model since she's so smart!

Ok umm Bella talks about Romeo and Juliet once. And it's not deep. And everyone studies Romeo and Juliet at one point in High School. How do you know Bella did get all As and not just Cs. She's not smart at all. And Harry has to save his friends and shit so don't you dare judge him. You're also saying he's not as smart as Bella!!! I swear...wait for the fucking Potterheads.

3. she teaches you about love. like she shows how it's important to be in love and all the things people do for love! it's so adorable how much she loves Edward and they are so cute together!

No. No. No. She's OBSESSED WITH EDWARD. She almost kills herself just cause he left her. I'm actually in love and when I see this it makes me want to vomit. You don't fucking kill yourself because your boyfriend left you. She teaches it's important to have a boyfriend.

4. She's really strong. like she's protestant about the stuff she believes in, like when she wants to keep Renesmee the baby even though Edward doesn't want her to! like she's strong and stands up for what she believes in even if it's dangerous to her!

She fucking is not strong! She hides behind Edward 24/7 and yes even though I believe abortion is wrong, SHE'S GIVING BIRTH TO THE ANTICHRIST. BELLA IS THE ANTICHRIST! BELLA IS LOVED FOR NO REASON.

5. She's so creative! like she came up with a super unique name for her baby, Renesmee! so adorable!

Her child's name is not unique, and Bella is FAR from creative. "And the lion fell in love with the lamb"! That's not even original damn it!

6. she's modest and humble. Like Edward wants to buy her stuff since he's rich but she's not using him for his money and she doesn't let him just buy stuff for her!!

She is anything but modest and humble. She talks about how flawless she is when she's a vampire! Just because she doesn't want him to buy her shit doesn't mean she's modest. I mean even I don't want my Bf to buy me stuff but that's cause I want him to save up for college. Edwards been to college 50+ times damn it!

7. She's played by Kristen Stewart. that's like a bonus in itself cos Kristen is so amazing and beautiful and pretty and talented and gorgeously stunning!

Kristen Stewart has as much talent as a brick fucking wall.

8. Shes populer! like evryone likes her at her new school so shes totally doing it right! and popularity is good thing so that gives girls and fans new thing to aspire to!! shes clearly awesome if a lot of people like her right?

So she's showing girls must be popular to be important! Popularity is one of the worse things to give a child because it drags the child into so much drama they don't need. It causes stress. My friend hated being "popular" because of all the unnecessary drama.

Twilight was an error

Twilight Is SEXIST!!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

How does nobody see that Twilight is a completely sexist book!

Sexist:

The belief that one gender is superior to the other, especially that men are superior to women.

In Twilight it's believed that men are superior to women and that they need a man to take care of them. Let's break down the book's sexism.

Every girl is with a man.

Bella depends on Edward.

Rosita depends on Emmet.

Alice depends on Jasper.

Esme depends on Carlisle.

Do you see a pattern? Each woman depends on a man. Even Bella's mother depends on her step father. Let's get into more detail:

Bella is consistently cooking for Charlie.

Esme and Rosita (or whatever her name is) are cooking experts but none of the men are.

The only "talent" Bella has is cooking.

See this? It shows that a woman must be good at cooking and taking care of the men.

Bella is always cleaning.

It also shows a woman must be a maid of sorts.

Bella immediately forgives Edward (even when he throws her into a table)

It shows the man is never in the wrong.

Bella needs Edward to survive.

Shows that women can't survive without a man to protect them.

In short, Twilight is sexist.

Edwards Abuse part 1

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Edward is abusive. Let's break down the abuse.

Bella's inner thoughts: -feel afraid of your partner much of the time?

She's afraid of him killing her or when he's angry.

avoid certain topics out of fear of angering your partner?

Yes she avoids the topic of sex because Edward will lash out at her and say no.

believe that you deserve to be hurt or mistreated?

Yes she feels this way a lot in New Moon.

wonder if you're the one who is crazy?

Yes she always believes she's going crazy, mainly in New Moon.

feel emotionally numb or helpless?

YES WHEN HE LEAVES HER.

New book?!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

The new twilight book was a gender swap...

A fan fiction....

Why?

Why dear lord Christ would you let this happen, that an author is so desperate for money she publishes basically a fanfiction.

Life update

It's lunch and my friend had to fucking go practice for the play so I'm all by myself watching my two other "friends" play frisbee. Bitch I ain't gonna do frisbee I'm too lazy for that shit.

Stupid twihards...

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Twihards why can't you spell? Why do you give us untrue reasons twilight "rocks"? Why do you lie to yourself? Join us fellow human! And together we will destroy the Twilight books! If it takes every last one of us!

Jokes aside guys thank you so much for reading and commenting you guys are just the best! Peace out guys!

Another life update

Sorry I can't write very much I'm in San Fran. Getting ready to fly to Florida so that's gonna be fun

Edwards Abuse part 2!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Does your partner:

-humiliate or yell at you?

Yes Edward is ALWAYS doing this! Whenever Bella is asking about Sex, he yells. He also humiliates her many times,

-criticize you and put you down?

YES!!! EDWARD THE CHARMING LOVER, PUTS DOWN HIS "LOVE" ALL THE TIME!!!! See Edward puts Bella down when he buys her stuff, it makes her feel uncomfortable and put down. He also criticized her when asking for sex, apparently it means you can't go to Heaven.

treat you so badly that you're embarrassed for your friends or family to see?

How many times does Bella actually spend time with her while she's with Edward? Pretty rarely. and when they do, they're freaked out or acting strange.

ignore or put down your opinions or accomplishments?

When Bella says that she doesn't want to get married at 18 (which is understandable) he says then he won't turn her into a vampire and won't make love to her.

blame you for their own abusive behavior?

When he wants to EAT her he says it's because SHE smells too sweet...

see you as property or a sex object, rather than as a person?

He claims Bella as his own in the book and in the movies it's not so severe but the books, Edwards says that she's his. His only.

I'm A Morbid Little Beast

So I was talking to my boyfriend a while ago and I started talking about making a fanfiction on Twilight (CALM YOUR TITS ITS A MORBID AF ONE WHERE BELLA DIES AND CHARLIE HAS TO AVENGE HER BY KILLING THE CULLENS WHO ARENT SWEET HEARTS WHO DONT KILL ANYONE)

ANYWAY, when I told him my idea he said I was a morbid person. Not in a bad way, I think he love my morbidness not sure though (kidding I know he loves me) but I was wondering if you people would want to see that happen, wouldn't it make the book 100x better!!!! Idk. Maybe it can't be saved. Oh Bella got killed by Edward in the woods, because she was so naive haha.

Edwards Abuse part 3

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Does your partner:

have a bad and unpredictable temper?

Oh my god! All the fucking Time Edward has this uncontrollable temper that is totally unpredictable!

hurt you, or threaten to hurt or kill you?

He throws her against a glass table, he says he wants to kill her because her blood smells "sweet", come on.

threaten to take your children away or harm them?

He wanted Bella to kill their baby!

threaten to commit suicide if you leave?

Bella also does this, they both try to kill themselves when Edward leaves!

force you to have sex?

I can't really say anything on this because he does the opposite.

destroy your belongings?

He destroyed all her belongings that remained her of him when he left.

Disappointed in Twihards

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I come in, I trash on your fandom, yet non of you Twihards defend your fandom! When anyone trashes on Dan or Phil, Harry Potter, Death Note, Toyko Ghoul, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, (you get my point) I will stand up for it, point out what is good about it despite its minor flaws. Everything has flaws (except Harry Potter XD) but that's what makes them great. Twihards it's so disappointing that you can't stand up to a girl who is trashing on your fandom, it's sad. Maybe you aren't real fandom members of Twilight if you won't stand up. Maybe you don't love it so much.

Come at me I dare you Twihards to try telling me what's good about Twilight, without saying things that make you sound stupid like "you're just a blind cunt" ok? Good.

50 Shades Of Horrible

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Take a moment to realize this...50 shades of grey was a fanfiction of twilight...let that sink in. And 50 shades of grey is completely sexist.

And it's about a cult.

Watch the vid you'll understand.

Us VS Twihards

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Potterheads: I know more about the importance of bravery and courage, and that being pretty isn't important.

Hunger Games fans: I learned the importance of staying strong even if there seems to be no hope and to protect the ones I love.

TWD fans: I learned that when things get crazy I have to stay sane and protect my family.

Buffy Fans: I learned that being brave and having courage is the best for every dooming problem.

Twihards: EDWARD IS SO HAWT AND JACKOB'S MUSLECS R BAE!!!

Everyone: what the hell is wrong with these people?

Bella's "Depression"

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

This is where the book pisses me off. I've had depression, and I'm sure some of you can relate, it's no joking matter. They label Bella as "depressed" after Edward leaves. Now I'm not saying that you shouldn't be depressed, but they use it as a mockery.

They kind of make fun of people who really go through this. All that happened to her was Edward leaving. Now in my case, I was bullied, my grandpa had died, my parents had another child so I felt less important, and I was recently heart broken. Now I had A LOT of shit happening. And on top of that I was failing in school. But Bella, Edward leaves and he's not really mean about breaking up with her.

He doesn't say "fuck you get lost" or "go die" he genuinely tries letting her down easy. I and many others would find some comfort in the fact that they tried not to hurt us. AND he does explain why he must leave.

Any rational human would understand that it's for the best, yes it might hurt but we can survive. Not Bella! She throws a hissy fit and says she's "depressed" and "wants to die" "feels empty" and yes the "feeling empty" thing is a normal response to just getting out of a relationship but she feels this for almost half a year! And she locks herself up with no communication with the outside world.

I don't know about you guys, but this to me is making fun of those who suffer depression. I still went out side to see friends so hopefully I could get better, I did get better over time. I'm sure you can too if you suffer depression. Which brings me to an important thing, if you suffer from depression, hurt yourself, feel suicidal, can you talk to me? I know you might think I don't know how it feels, but I really do. It's worth a shot, right?

Anyways I believe Twilight knows nothing about real suffering of depression, but hey that's my opinion.

Twilight's "hot" guys?

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

So I saw someone say that Harry Potter sucked because it didn't have enough hot guys -- gets on knees dear lord, my savior, kill me now before I murder others!

Jokes aside (well I can't just leave them to the side they'll get cold and hungry) that's what makes Harry Potter amazing. I mean how many people are honestly physically attractive and their personality is based on it. People aren't beautiful for flawless skin and perfect hair, they are beautiful because they aren't. They are beautiful for their minds and soul and character. Twilights guys are only known for their looks and not minds or soul.

Hell they probably don't even have souls. Twilight was a fucking Error that fucking morons fell in love with because they're so fucking desperate they have to read a FUCKING STUPID girls POV who is clumsy af. Are you gonna be so fucking desperate for some fucking action that you read from a horny teenage girls POV?! Get the fuck out!

Sorry I got so fired up btw my family is driving me FUCKING INSANE!

Edward's Abuse 4

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Does your partner: act excessively jealous and possessive?

Edward is very possessive of Bella, just to make her into a vampire and to take her virginity he request marriage. Marking her as his forever. With no escape.

control where you go or what you do?

Edward does this constantly. He says she can't go visit Jacob, her friend.

keep you from seeing your friends or family?

Like I said before, he keeps Bella from seeing Jacob. Jacob was one of her closest friends, not only Jacob but all werewolves.

limit your access to money, the phone, or the car?

He insists on buying her everything and never lets her drive. Even her own car.

constantly check up on you?

Every night he watches her sleep...he always is around her. I think he does.

Wtf people?!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok just being the fangirl I am I looked up "Harry Potter Fanfiction crossovers" and what do I see...a Twilight crossover with Harry Potter...where Bella was Hermione's sister...

Please kill me.

If Hermione and Bella were sisters I'm sure Hermione would have the right mind to end Bella and Edward and Jacobs existence all together.

They even make Hermione (get this) less smart than Bella!

Aliens hear me, I DON'T WANT TO LIVE ON THIS EARTH ANYMORE!!!!

They made Bella right about everything...

If I had made one (which I would never) it would be Hermione killing Edward and Bella trying to come to the realization that Edward was going to kill her.

But hey what does my logic even mean?

Vampires must be sparkling sweet hearts who wouldn't hurt a fly, who are always hot af!

Why did you let this happen, God?!

Imortality

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Edward could spend his long lasting life looking for a cure to cancer, maybe umm curing all diseases. What does he do? Go to High School 50 times, seduces 17 year old girl,

And...

Knocks her up with a demon spawn.

Great way to spend it. Just way too go. GREAT LIFE CHOICES HOLY SHIT!

Paper cut bitches

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

How did a paper cut like drive everyone insane when they seemed to handle her bleeding everywhere out of her body yet they somehow saved her?!

Wtf Meyer, YOU MAKE NO FUCKING SENSE?!

Edward has done ONE remotely smart thing, which was leaving Bella because he didn't want to hurt her!

That actually was something that gave me a SMALL amount of hope that he actually cared and loved her.

Once she throws a hissy fit he comes back because "he can't do it." Bullshit you horny, fucking abusive, fucking sparkling, fairy!!!!

Got a little carried away haha oops

Team I DON'T CARE!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok ever since they did "team Edward" or "team Jacob" my friend kept asking me which one.

TEAM I DON'T CARE!

The whole thing makes me cringe every time I even think about it.

First off, just by picking "teams" doesn't mean it's going to change anything!

Have none of them read the books?! Edward Marries Bella and knocks her up.

That's the WHOLE story right there.

It's so fucking annoying holy shit.

Powers?!

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Why do they have "powers" bitch this isn't Marvel or DC comics?!

This isn't fucking Avengers where your protecting one chick who probably isn't worth it. I mean it's so fucking annoying. Vampires have the same powers, and if you have them each their own little super powers at least make them good!

Not a "shield" or being able to read minds. And then give them easier weakness, instead of being taken apart which takes vampire strength. Make it so that humans can kill them!

Like in Buffy, yeah sure it's a Slayers job to kill Vampires and demons but really anyone can do it if they know how.

In the walking dead, anyone can kill a zombie but a true savior isn't caught by one.

Perfect examples of good things that would make Twilight at least remotely good

What Meyer Should Have Wrote

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I think that Twilight could have been much better if Meyer wrote something more creative.

If she wanted a romance book my suggestions are: -don't make them fall in love in the first chapter-make Bella fight for Edward or something -if they have a falling apart (or break up) don't make it fixed by a hissy fit thrown by Bella. -end the series on something dramatic that makes the audience question "what happens next"

If she wanted an adventure: -maybe should have made Bella a vampire all along-have Edward as someone who saves others by using his powers as an advantage -have Bella get hit by the car and have Edward trying to get revenge -have Edward kill Bella in the woods and have Bella's father seek revenge

To make it a mystery: -Have Bella's parents dead and they were killed by vampires -Have Edward make Bella think he's a vampire so she idolizes him so he can start a cult

These were just kinda my tips I guess on if you're writing something related to Twilight

Assholes at School

So here's what happened: There's this big asshole at school and he always tells me shit about how I cut too much, how I don't have a reason, now I've been clean for quite some time but he also tells me how if I died no one would care.

He even told this girl (who at the time was in a little drama with me) that I was afraid of her just because I was cautious of her actually harming me.

So I tell my boyfriend everything, how this guy calls me a whore, how he calls me ugly, how he says I don't matter, and I already have bad enough depression.

So my boyfriend messages him telling him to back off, so this fucking idiot decided to piss off my boyfriend even further by calling him a pedophile and shit (my boyfriend is older than me)

So I'm fucking done with it, cause the fucker acts like all of this is funny when it's NOT!

Plus he tells everyone that my writing is shit, that I probably have no life, that I'm making up my boyfriend, it's all fucking bullshit!

Don't know what to do now :/

So I've come to a hard writing block on this series, I've pretty much mentioned what's wrong with Twilight so idk what else to write. If you want to leave suggestions then pleas add them. If you want to read actual stories by me, I would recommend Back to Back but it's not very long. I'm currently working on something that I've got all planned out called The Victim Is Ours, a creepypasta fanfiction. So keep an eye out for that. You don't need to know bout Creepypastas to read it btw. Anyways that's it.

Bella's lack of self confidence

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Meyer you have taught girls that they don't need any self confidence. Is that what we need after the struggle women have had already to get to this point? Do we need more women thinking they are only needed for men and pleasuring men.

We don't need to be told that we need men to rule our lives, make the rules, pay for us, use us, we don't need to be told that we need to cook and clean for them.

Meyer is teaching young girls that they are needed only for men's pleasure. Who said we can not be in love with another woman or not have any lover? In Buffy, Willow was a strong independent lesbian, in Harry Potter the head of the school (Dumbledore) was gay, in the walking dead a badass character (Tara) is also lesbian.

Meyer has no LGBT+ members in her book. She doesn't have too but her book just disregards any young girls feelings towards another woman as a friendship.

Reasons Why Bella Is A HORRIBLE Role Model

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

1) Bella has/had no confidence in ANY of the books, you may say "oh but she wanted the baby and Edward didn't" and yes while I do believe that we should not terminate a human life without REASON, she did have a reasons she would die and the baby was said to be an antichrist.

2) Bella is not relatable in ANY way. How is this girl who is suppose to be flawless yet has no interest in anything be "relatable"? You may say "well she has a divorced family so she relates to them" that doesn't make her relatable in the slightest, it's her character that makes her relatable not her situation.

3) Bella believes Edward should be in control. Bella is showing girls that a man must rule their life, be in charge of them. You may say it's cute and romantic but think about it, so we need young girls to be told that they must be ruled over by a man.

4) Bella can't do anything. In the book (and movie) name ONE thing Bella does useful that doesn't end in something bad. Name ONE. They're are none! You may say it is her saving Edward from the Voultri (or however they spell it) but that only shortens her life span! She has less time to be a human and is told that she must either become a vampire or else others will die as well as her.

So tell me Bella is a good role model now, she is also abusive to Edward, she is abusive to her family and friends, Bella is a little brat who gets what she wants when she wants. We don't need to be teaching young girls these lessons.

Twilight's "Relatability"

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

One argument Twihards try to bring up is that Twilight is "relatable". With Bella having divorced parents and such. First of all, you can not say that she is relatable because of her parents being divorced because not everyone who has divorced parents are whiny brats.

Also what about kids who are adopted? What about kids who's parents are still together? A relatable character would show what they feel, because people in their situations would feel that same. Bella never mentions her feelings about her parents result. The best way to describe them is "meh".

If somebody's parents were divorced they would be hurt, if they had been adopted they would be joys but confused, if their parents were together I think they'd feel loved. But we only feel those imagining it is us in those situations. It is unrealistic for what Bella feels in Twilight.

If my parents were divorced and I had to go live with my dad in a cold place I would be upset or hurt or angry, maybe all three. Bella shows no sign of emotion.

Maybe she's a sociopath. I don't know.

But I do know that she is not acting normally. She is not "relatable" she is simply a girl from a pair of divorced parents. That does not make her relatable.

From A Males POV

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

I have talked to many of my males friends (even my boyfriend) about what is wrong with Twilight. As one of my friends had told me "the only good thing about Twilight from a males point of view is the way it gives males a superior place."

Another friend said "it shows a story where a male with many problems never gets commented on it."

Not only will this book teach young girls they can be treated like such dirt but teaches males they have that right. Not all males will think this but Twilight enforces it. Many of my males friends who have watched twilight or read it (because ya know girlfriends) have all told me that they think of Twilight as a story where a male gets their way.

Edward is really a...

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Edward is a Snowman...Bella: I nOw WAt U R!YOur PaLe IcE CoLD

Edward: Say it

Bella: A Snowman!

Yes I know there is grammatical errors and spelling errors when they talk in my version. That's the point though. Grammar nazis calm down!

An Idea

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ok I had an idea. For a Fanfiction. On Twilight. HEAR ME OUT!!!!
DON'T CHASE ME DOWN WITH PITCH FORKS IT'S NOT WHAT YOU THINK!!!

In this story, I plan on making it so Bella is dead.

Edward used his charming skills and mind reading abilities to lure Bella into a trap. He said he could not read her mind so she would feel special and safe. But little did she know Edward was doing this because he knew she was naive. He wanted her to feel special. He knew exactly what this naive teenage girl wanted. She had nothing to live for. So he killed her. But after killing her, Bella's father seeks revenge. His life is now dedicated to finding this monster who killed his daughter. Edward, along the way, kills more and more people Charlie (Bella's father) cares about.

Any ideas?

Is Meyer Hypocritical?

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

First to see if she is we need to know the definition of hypocritical.

hypocritical:

of the nature of hypocrisy, or pretense of having virtues, beliefs, principles, etc., that one does not actually possess:

Or it basically means you say one thing is wrong (or right) and you do that wrong thing (or don't do that right thing).

So now that we know what it means let's dive in. Meyer tells people that Bella was suppose to be a unpopular girl. She said she was suppose to be a normal teenage girl. However in the book Bella is shown to be popular and to be perceived as flawless and boring.

In my mind this is slightly hypocritical. However I'm sure many of you may disagree so if you think this is something else than comment below, it's just in my mind I find it hypocritical.

Twihards response to MY opinon (and others)

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Now occasionally you will find a Twihards who is pretty mature and says some reasonable reasons on why they think my points are flawed and bias and more power to em but most of them will come running after those who don't agree with their opinion. But most fandoms and fanbases have these types of people so ya know the reasonable Twihards may bring this up however, most Twihards that I've ever met fit into the category. Now tell me how many Twihards have actually been reasonable, see your points of view, and have a calm and mature decision with you without cursing at you or threatening you? I can name like 1. Oh and also how many of them spell words right and use grammar right?

I honestly believe that twilight is the reason for these Twihards being so butthurt when somebody disagrees. I remember when I read the books that nobody ever really disagreed with Bella (except for the baby thing) but when they did they were considered "not understanding" or "have no idea what I'm going through". Honestly I think that all these butthurt Twihards are like this because they wanna be like Bella, the clumsy brat who gets anything she wants including popularity.

But hey that's just my opinion. It could just be that their like any other fandom that have their ups and down but the way I see it, the Twilight erm "fandom" has more downs than ups.

Sexual tension?

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

In Twilight many things are mentioned about Edward and Bella's sexual tension and how Bella just wants to get over with and fuck. And yet time after time after time I am told by Twihards "it's appropriate for all ages. " sexual tension within a relationship is not something a young teenager (nor child) should be learning about just yet. A 10-15 year old should not be learning that some relationships have huge sexual tension from a fictional book. They should be learning this from a Sex Ed. teacher.

But Twilight is just some godly gift given to us to teach us right from wrong isn't it? -_-

It teaches that girls need to be told what to do, that you need a prefect boyfriend, that if couples fight they might as well leave their partner or if their partner leaves them to go into hard core depression and try to jump off a cliff.

Twilight's monsters

So far as we know twilight has two types of monsters (I don't care if you say they were once human they are still monsters) vampires and "werewolves" which are just really shapeshifters?

Let's start with the vampires. They sparkle? Now tell me would you be scared of a person who sparkles? Now someone (I am not naming who) had said it makes them more scary because it makes them seem even more invincible. I don't see it this way, the way they sparkle is like a little fairy and its described as "beautiful" in both the book and movie. Plus the take on the vampires is hardly original and hardly scary or exciting. They got the whole they run fast and are strong and sometimes have special gifts but not in any scary way. Also the way to destroy vampires in the Twilight universe is completely absurd. The only way to kill them is dismember them and you have to be a vampire to do that?! Honestly I think it's completely absurd.

Next the so called werewolves. Now these ones were added just simply because "hey it say werewolves and vampires are enemies let's add it!" Literally no other reason. The werewolves aren't even scary their described as big hairy dogs not even wolves. The fact they're shapeshifters and not like cursed or anything completely like angers me. The fact that they understand that their werewolves and they can control their werewolf self and it's all confusing as fuck.

My book is done!!!

Ok so for the past like Year I've been making a 20 chapter Fanfiction on Hunger Games called Surviving the Games. Believe me I have poured my heart and soul into this series. So far I have posted 6 chapters and am going to post more chapters when people ask for more to know they like the series. So if you guys could go check my story out it would mean the world to me 💖 so please go check it out!!

Just...help

So when you hear about our generation we're thinking "we're accepting of others culture and opinions" right? Wrong! Every single time I comment something about my OWN opinion I am swarmed with hate! Like there was a video of a little girl petting a deer. I commented "tbh I think this is horrible of the parent because deer are known to have deadly diseases and if there was a mama deer around it would've attacked that little girl. Tbh it kinda makes me sick" and I got SOOOOO much hate. Like people started threatening me, called me stupid, some even tried reporting my account for "harassment" even though I replied to them with way less horrible things and was mature when responding. That's what's wrong with our generation. If you don't have the same mind set your automatically a "racist", "homophobe", "transphobic", "sexist", "hater", "too young to understand", and it's pathetic. So no our generation is not at all accepting of others.

Twilight against any other fandom

Let me give examples of fandoms that empower people.

Hunger Games: In this story we see a strong female character sacrifice herself for her family. Yes while in the series she is conflicted about who she loves, it is not the prime focus on the story. The story focuses on social injustice against lower class citizens.

Harry Potter: In this series we find three friends who are all very strong in their own ways. They all are described as beautiful in the mind, not physically. In this series we learn the importance of true beauty that comes from within, what true love really is about, and that sometimes for the greater good there are things we need to give up.

Supernatural: in this TV show series we see the importance of family time and time again. Although they fight, the main characters show a brotherhood love so deep that they would die for each other. In this series we see the importance of family.

More good examples are Buffy The Vampire Slayer, Doctor Who, The Walking Dead, and much, much more.

In Twilight however we showed only the importance of having a boyfriend and getting married, how being with someone perfect is the best thing, and how you have to do what your boyfriend/husband tells you to do.

So is Twilight really about a brave girl? Or is it destroying young children who read the book or watch the movies.

Percy Jackson Vs Twilight

For some reason in my recommend stories was a story by someone called "why twilight is better then Percy Jackson" and I have not ever read the books but I've seen two of the movies. So I'll be focusing on Twilight's first movie and the movie Percy Jackson and The Lightning Theif.

In Twilight, the main thing is a girl falling in love with a vampire, later gets hunted down, but ish ok no body gets hurt everything is ok --

In the Percy Jackson movie, however, the girl (Annabeth or Annabel somebody correct me) is a pretty strong and heroic female character. She seems as though she generally cares about Percy and (I forgot the goat guys name, help.) and the plot of the movie was something I could actually get into and get excited.

So no the twilight movie is not better then the Percy Jackson movie.

Youtube Channel

So my friend has this channel and I wanna help her grow it. She's a Creepypasta narrator and the channel is pretty well done. I'll a vid of her's in here and a link to her channel. Just thought I'd give her a shout out since she finally got 100 subs.

Today is my Birthday!

So today is my birthday! Lol

Reacting to Twihards (Death Note vs Twilight?!)

So there is stupid ass chick at my school who is like Obsessed with twilight, like more obsessed with it then Bella is with Edward. So some girl who's pretty chill starts taking bout death note. So this dumbass chick (we'll call her Bitch) tell her to "shut up". The girls asks "well why do I need to shut up" and Bitch replies with "Because twilight is better then Death Note." I'll list her reasons and say why they are dumb ass reasons.

1) Death Note has violence.

Ok and so twilight you're point is? On top of that Twilight's violence gives nothing to the story.

2) Death Note characters aren't as hot as Twilight's.

First of all that means you are saying Light is not hot and I have to strongly disagree, secondly what you find attractive is different then what others find attractive. Someone can find someone attractive and another person would not, simple physiology and biology. What is "attractive" is totally up to that person's preferences.

3) Death Note's Plot makes NO sense!

This is why I think most Twihards have no brain. The reason it doesn't make sense to you is because you either haven't watched it or haven't seen the whole show or haven't paid any attention to the show. It's suppose to be a cunning, turning and twisting show. It's not suppose to as simplistic as Twilight.

4) Twilight has Romance!

Twilight first of all, while it may be labeled in the "Romance" genre, is not a romance novel. It's a story of a teenage girl's OBSESSION (not love) for a vampire who wants to eat her. Secondly a good plot and series doesn't need romance, Death Note has proven that.

5) you just don't like Twilight because you never read it or watched the movies!

Sadly I have read all books and watched all movies. Hate to say it but when I was in 5th and 6th grade I actually enjoyed the series. But I grew up. And I realized how horrid the series is. It appeals to younger readers simply for the way it's written and appeals to older people due to its "romance" tale. But here's the thing, I've read them all and watched them all. I even did when I started this series about why I hate Twilight, just to gather info and reading and watching almost made me vomit.

Twilight was the end of an era. Death Note was the end of an Era

Relationship Issues

Now I've been going through my own issues in relationships, that's a reason I haven't really uploaded and I'm truly sorry. But I needed to write some more so here ya guys go.

When Bella and Edward were having problems on their relationship, Edward just left. He didn't try to work things out at all. The thing about relationships you DO NOT run away from your problems! If you truly are strong, truly care about each other you face them head on and work through them. You don't run. You don't try and brush it off. You realize you have a problem and work through it. Now of course some times working through that problem you may find you're not truly meant to be, that's ok. At Least you tried. But you need to work through that problem if you ever want process in the relationship you're in. Bella and Edward never did such things. Now it's possible Bella would want to work things out and if she did congrats but the fact is when Edward comes back she doesn't even mention the problems or what happened. Therefore ignoring the issues in their relationship.

Just a little helpful tip from dear ol' Faithy :P

Political Rants

"You're vote is a hate crime!" Some may scream at those who vote for trump. Yes some Trump supporters did bad things, but guess what? Some Hilary supporters have too. Hilary supporters beat up an elderly man who voted for trump and also beat a young teenage girl who "hoped Trump would win". Should we say all those supporters who voted for Hilary were committing a hate crime simply because few did violence? No. My uncle and aunt voted for Hilary yet I don't scream "I disown you as my family" because they voted for someone whom I was opposed too. Do not act as if you are higher then others simply because you voted for someone whom you saw eye to eye to in politics. It does not make you better. Stop saying everyone who supported Trump is committing a "hate crime" just because a small number of his supporters have caused violence cause I could easily say that all Hilary supporters are committing a hate crime because a small number have done violence. Well it is no longer a small number, riots are breaking out because some won't except the election results. Exactly what people booed trump for doing. Now tell me you're better then him?

Twihard LOGIC

Comment on one of my story parts, and my response. The spelling...the grammar...it kills me. Now don't send any hate if you find the comment I'm just using this as an example.

Let's get serious for a sec

So this argument was used by a girl at my school. "Bella had it so hard that's why she tried to killed herself." Let me tell you about myself. I'm a sexual assault victim. I have seen two of my dead cousin's body (one stabbed multiple times in the chest and stomach and the other with her brains splattered everywhere) I've lost multiple friends. I have gotten my heart broken many MANY times. My baby sister died. I am still alive. While I have attempted suicide before I have realized that my life can no longer get worse and only better (which so far it has) I even had a problem with self harming. The reason I am saying this, is because if you think about killing yourself because your boyfriend left you TO PROTECT YOU and say your life is completely miserable because of that, stop. Take a moment to see what you have. That boyfriend loved you so much that he was protecting you even at the cost of his own happiness. So when people say Bella has it so fucking hard it pisses me off. While I may not have as bad as other people have had it, Bella certainly has not had it as bad as truly depressed people who suffer real depression. She was willing to kill herself over her boyfriend, that is obsession. It is sicking to me when people say Bella has it so bad.

Bella shouldn't have tried to kill herself. No one should.

Twihards are getting on thy nerve

Sooo everyone lets talk about our favorite irrational people for a bit shall we? So is it rude of me to simply state my reasoning as to why I don't like Twilight? Is it? Because last time I checked I am free to state my own opinions and you're free to argue but do it politely so you don't look like a complete idiot. Oh oh and also Twihards, yes you know who you are, you think Sociopath is a misspelling on psychopath? The two are complete different things!

Sociopath:a person with a personality disorder manifesting itself in extreme antisocial attitudes and behavior and a lack of conscience.

Phsyopath:a person suffering from chronic mental disorder with abnormal or violent social behavior.

Do ya see the difference? When I referred to Bella as "sociopathic" I was referring to the fact as it seems she really doesn't care about anyone. But it was a little small joke. Wonder if the person will read this and get triggered. Ah oh well.

Reacting To Twihards (Death Note VS Twilight pt. 2)

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

So apparently that girl I talked about in my last part read it and wanted to challenge me as to why Death Note is better than Twilight. She gave her reasons. I'll give mine.

1) Twilight's plot is very simple, girl falls in love with vampire, they get married, blah blah. It's very dull and boring, unoriginal. Death note however has quite a complex and always twisting story line. Yes the ending was not nearly as well as they could have done, it was still much better than Twilight's ending.

2) In Death Note our main characters L and Light both are very cunning and very intelligent. Whereas in Twilight Bella and Edward aren't anywhere near the intelligence level of L and Light. Because of this it makes the audience think. Instead of just watching a simple tv show they are thinking about how it works. Expanding the brain and such. Twilight you just sit and read. There's no thinking involved.

3) Death Note's characters don't need to be "hot" for us to love them. They are brilliant in ways that we can't even describe while the most lovable thing about Twilight's characters is that they are simply attractive. They have no personality. No brains. No heart. It's all just..plain and boring. It has no ways of making you think or believe in a greater purpose, it's all just...boring af.

Anyways those were just a FEW of the MANY reasons of why Death Note is better than Twilight

TRIGGEREDDDDD

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

See Twihards your comments mean nothing if you act like immature little brats and bring no conversation. You don't give any points of how it could be good. At least one person on her actually gave her reasons! Saying "so shut the fuck up" doesn't prove anything. Honestly just don't come on to MY account and expect everyone to have your back to have me feel sorry ok? Like I've ranted about this a MILLION times. You're life may be bad but don't use it for sympathy. If you want help that's fine. But there is a damn difference between help and attention.

Another point someone made is in my REALLY early chapters (like my second one) and said how Bella was brave because she survived vampire bites and shit. Ok credit where it's due, I'll give you that. There's one thing. I'll give credit where it is due. Butttt that was only in the first book. Yeah she survived the demon spawn coming out of her. I'll give her that too. But the rest of the time she doesn't even break a fingernail. Soooo...

Than they also said that if Bella died it would break everyone's hearts....

AH HAHHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA

you've got to be kidding me hon. Bella was a HORRIBLE role model.

Then they pointed out Gale's flaws (I mentioned him as a better role model than Alice, who she described as a party animal to make her character seem better which it didn't) that he was the reason Katniss sister Primrose was dead. Here's the thing, he realized how badly he fucked up. When was the last time any of Twilight's characters realized any of their fuck-ups?? NEVERRRRRRRR is the answer.

Anddddd now for all Twihards saying Edward isn't abusive. He isn't necessarily abusive in a physical way butttt mentally he definitely is. And I know this because I've been in an abusive relationship. It started just how Edward acted and turned HORRIBLY wrong. They would full on beat me. They once fucking stabbed me. So I think I have a LITTLE fucking experience with Abusive relationships. See you don't see them as abusive until it's too late. To people who aren't in the relationship it isn't abusive. But when you're in them you're either miserable or brainwashed.

Anyways...that was the most recent chapters. Nice to see Twihards are fighting back though.

Arguments vs Debates

WARNING: These are surprisingly my own opinions! Don't get your vampire teeth in a twist.

Ahh something I have noticed very recently on here is the arguments with Twihards. While the people who are against twilight debate, debate meaning in a civil manner, and the Twihards argue, meaning in a very impolite and uncivil manner. The only times I see others who don't like twilight be rude is when the Twihard is rude first. Twihards advice, if you want me to take you SERIOUSLY than don't get all defensive and throw a tantrum. It's not gonna make me think any differently.

Abuse

So I personally am a victim of abusive. Sexual abuse and physical abuse and verbal abuse. So when people say I DON'T understand what abuse really is it kinda pisses me off. Tell me you're more qualified to see abuse? Go on tell me how your boyfriend slit your stomach and beat you? Tell me how he used to say you could do no better than him and was nothing more than a sex toy?? Tell me how you were sexually abused by your neighbor for a year? I think I have just a TAD bit of experience in seeing abuse.

What Edward did to Bella was ABUSE! If not physical abuse than verbal and mental abuse. Brainwashing her into thinking he is the best she's got and later getting EXACTLY what he wanted. He was abusive. And you (Twihards) who are between the ages of 8-14 than grow up and realize it. Because honestly you don't know what abuse is. And I hope you never experience it first hand. But see I'm almost 16. And yet all of that has happened to me. And I'm alive.

I haven't done drugs. I had a drinking problem only because the man who sexually abused me forced me to get drunk so I wouldn't remember in the morning. I self harmed but I stopped and saw how much it hurt my loved ones. Bella doing dangerous shit after her boyfriend left her to PROTECT her is down right stupid, ignorant, and pathetic. Don't try and defend her stupid behavior because look at me. I've gone through more shit than most elders. And I am still breathing.

On a different note if any of you struggle self harm or depression or suffer anxiety and suicidal thoughts you can always contact me and I will give the best advice I can give. I love you all so much. I can't believe how many views this has! It's amazing. I love the support from you all.

Twihards FUCK OFF

Ok I've honestly gotten fed up with a lot of these dimwitted twihards who don't understand comedy and discussion!

It's. About. Opening. A. FUCKING DISCUSSION! Honestly if you can't admit that there are flaws in something you like, you're not a fan. You're an obsessed fangirl/boy.

True fans realize characters and shows and writing all have flaws. Harry Potter has flaws. Buffy the Vampire Slayer has flaws. The Walking Dead has flaws. If you can't accept each thing has any flaws than you're no better than Edward being fucking obsessed with Bella.

Twihard the age of 25 calling a 16 year old a bitch because I said that Twilight sucks and I can see it's flaws and I call out those flaws. I was a fan of twilight when I was 12. I even wanted to write a fanfiction. But I saw the flaws. See I would see myself and Twilight haters as bigger fans than twihards, because we see the mistakes and call them out.

You Twihards aren't fans. You aren't helping Stephane Myer. You're not a true fan since you can't point out the flaws and call them out. If you can't call out simple grammar and spelling errors on a story because you're that obsessed with it, you're not a fan and are hurting the series more than saving it and making people only hate the fan base more than normal.

Twihards say im abusing Harry Potter?!

I wish the title was a joke.

First of all, explain how I'm "abusing Harry Potter" please. I actually favor the Harry Potter series. And this was all made on the comment where I said "Warning: these are my opinions" which shows you are just triggered and want me to seem like a horrible person. Again you twihards think what you want, but if you had one ounce of dignity or humanity you'd see that a lot of people who hate Twilight have good reasons and are people of abuse, family problems, sexual assault, people who have been suicidal and depressed. Yet you Twihards who are so young that you have little to none life experience say shit like this and can't get it threw your skulls that out Reasons are valid and you can't even come up with a sentence properly when someone harms your precious story. See at least me and others have the thinking capacity to think critically about stories. In the whole two years I've had this story, I've only come across two Twilight fans (I call them fans and not twihards because they genuinely see the flaws in the series and still like it when twihards attack people who point out any flaw in the series) who have been respectful, polite, and in no way let their liking of Twilight effect how they treated people who didn't like Twilight. Even if they were crazy rude and came off bitchy the two fans were still polite. They wanted open discussion. They wanted civil debate. And we both saw things from each other's views and respected those views. For example, one fan said her parents had been through a divorce and that's one of the reasons she related to Bella with. I can see that from her point of view but she can also see from my view why I strongly dislike Bella.

Twihards take a page from the REAL fans. Because you are not fans. You're obsessed little Edwards who will harass and abuse others because you're either little children or have the mental capacity of a little child.

Are some of Twilight's themes pedophilic?

Ok hear me out on this one. So everyone makes jokes about how Edward is so much older than Bella so that's weird, now while that's REALLY weird hey start dating when Bella is 17 (almost 18) so almost a full grown adult which is not really pedophilla. It's weird but not pedophilla.

While we have Jacob over here who "imprints" on a baby. And what usually happens when you imprint in Twilight? You get married, date, have kids, have a romantic relationship. So saying that Jacob is somewhat attracted to a baby romantically. You can't just see someone grow up and once they turn a certain age you're like "I wanna hit that!" It doesn't really work that way. Now I got nothing wrong with age gaps, me and my bf have an age gap, my grandparents on my mom's side were 15 years apart, my bf's parents are 11 years, I got no problem with it.

But isn't it a TAD bit weird that in some way Jacob is romantically or at least REALLY friendly of his "best friend's" child once she is born? Than you got the fanfics where once the baby hits a certain "age" (or age she looks since she could be 7 stop growing and look 18) Jacob and her start having relations. And some begin at the age she was in the movie, where she's a little girl and then she grows up playing with Jacob and then once she starts looking like 16 Jacob and her start to have a relationship. Sometimes sexual. Most times romantic.

Just a little creepy. Is it pedophilla to have a romantic attraction to a baby? Hell yes. Is it creepy? Fuck yes. But is Twilight reflecting those messages of pedophilla? Answer that for yourself in the comments.

End?

I don't really have much else to say on the matter of twilight and Twihards. It seems repetitive at this point. The Twihards being cunts, my same responses, it's all quiet boring. So for now I think this is the end of this series. But do not worry your pretty little heads! Mama Fai Fai has some more reviews coming out! Reviewing Creepypastas With Fai Fai is another thing I'm working on and I also have many stories for all you lovely people to check out! It would mean the world for you all to check those things out and comment and all that good stuff! Anyways I don't have much else to say other than:

Twilight was the end of an error This was the end of an era

Reviewing My First Anti-Twilight Argument Almost 5 Years Later

Wow it's been a while. Well if you're already familiar with this series you know that I sure as hell don't like twilight and had a burning passion for shutting down "Twihard" arguments on why Twilight is God's gift to teenage girls and middle aged bored mothers. And while, yes it's fun to still poke them and troll them, my life has changed greatly from when I was younger. I started this series when I was 14 and continued writing till I was 16. I am now a few months from 19, you all saw me kinda grow up. Saw my arguments change and grow and saw how I went from a far more confrontational 14 year old girl who had no friends to the woman I am now. Updates on my life since then:

- I am in a new relationship that I am very happy in and hope to have children with my partner
- I have expanded my traditional art skills with painting
- I have finally graduated high school
- I am going to school to become an elementary school teacher

But that's not why you're all here. Let's revisit and revise my first ever argument against twilight. Enjoy!

I could summarize twilight's plot in one, single word. BORING!!!

I still agree with this statement. The plot to twilight is very uninteresting and frankly puts me to sleep even all these years later.

The plot drags on and on and on about how Bella is just Soooooooo in love with Edward and every 2 minutes/sentences we are remembered of his "perfection".

Relooking at this sentence I think I could have written it a little better like:

The plot just goes on about how Bella's love for Edward is so great that it is needed to be mentioned every few minutes and to remind us all how Edward is just the definition of perfection.

AND Meyer does no good making the character(s) grow and mature. They NEVER do. Bella does the same things.

How I would re-write this sentence now:

Meyer has a major flaw as a writer: the ability to portray a character as a character. She writes all her characters in a way that they never grow as people, this being most evident in Bella's character as she repeats the same mistakes with no lessons learned in the long run.

She never goes through hell and back which is what makes a good character, it's what makes you attached to the character!

This still rings true. A good character will go through hell and back, they learn from lessons and make mistakes. Bella doesn't and I feel this was one of my biggest problems especially at the time due to my own suffering at the time and how it felt like I had no control in my own life so it felt almost offensive to see a character like Bella get whatever she wanted despite never really working for it.

Good examples of characters in books who grew and went through hell and back are:

Harry Potter (he lost his parents at 1, and later hundreds of wizards and witches die protecting him)

This is also still true: Harry Potter's character not only loses a lot in his life and feels the responsibility of other's losses in life but he also makes a LOT of mistakes throughout his life and has actual flaws that he learns to overcome in his life.

Buffy Summers (people die because she was too late to save them from demons and her mom dies when her boyfriend leaves her and she still has to slay demons notice she never jumps off a cliff)

Even now Buffy is one of my favorite characters and I feel if Bella has been written like her the series would have been better. The beauty in Buffy's character is the fact that she's seen as like the last person ever to be a warrior. She's a teenage white girl in California with a decent living and on the outside it looks like the worst that had happened to her was her parents divorcing. But it showed that she was capable of a lot more than people thought a girl like her was able to do. That she also had flaws but would also fight rather than curl up and cry till it stopped. She's basically the opposite of Bella.

Katniss Everdeen (she loses her father at a young age and risk her life almost every day to hunt for her family and her friends family)

Katniss' character I still rather enjoy because she did grow through the series especially when it came to things like romance. Another reason I felt the need to list her is because I feel like bringing up actually strong female characters would better illustrate how horrible Bella's character is for younger girls.

Rick Grimes (he's wife not only cheated on him, which made her pregers with his Best friends child, BUT she also died later on and his sons straight up hates him, on top of that he has to kill he's best friend, who he said to be his brother, TWICE)

Now I haven't watched The Walking Dead in years, I dropped out around season 4. So most of what I say is related to that point in the show. I did love Rick's character because he fought like fuck to keep people safe even at the risk of his own sanity.

Just to name a few people. People who never go throw hell.

*through.

Bella Swan (she never loses anyone, in fact she ignores her father and old friends to be with Edward 24/7)

And that's why I hated Bella's character. She repeats the stereotype that women will go in the corner and moan and whine until our SO comes and saves us from whatever harms us. And for me at that time hurt me to see.

At that time I was going through a rough time. I was being sexually abused, I was being degraded and bullied at school. I was also struggling with depression and self harm. So to see a character who almost reenforced this self pitying and weak character made me furious when I had grown up with strong female role models. It hurt me to see that other girls like me would see Bella and think she was strong and brave when I had grown up with much better ones in my life.

But that was my review of my first ever argument almost 5 years later. I hope this fuels any want for more chapters lol.

Reasons why I Hate Twilight
