WILLIAM JAMES MITCHELL v KARL JOBST

We refer to our letter of even date sent to you as a concerns notice.

As intimated our instructions are to commence proceedings against you for defamation damages.

Our client will however not do so if the following settlement can be achieved.

The terms of any settlement with you are:

- 1 The deletion of the Youtube publication which was published on or about 25 July 2020.
- 2 Your written undertaking never to repeat any of the allegations contained in the video about our client or anything similar.
- 3 A written apology to our client in terms which are satisfactory both to ourselves and to our client.
- 4 Payment of our client's costs which we estimate to be in the order of $1,500.
- 5 Payment of compensatory damages in the sum of $150,000.

This offer will remain open for seven days and will then lapse and be incapable of acceptance.

Yours faithfully
