

Meow/Max Suicide Note

Note meant to be read AFTER my death!!!

I do NOT want to be sectioned (again)

I do NOT want to be resuscitated

GRATEFUL FOR THE TIME I DID GET

LIFE WAS WORTH IT OVERALL!!

I tried to survive but just can't take it anymore and NO ONE can help me, but I still trust

God has my soul he just didn't decide to heal me

I regret leaving my loved ones && ex loved ones such as Liv whom I never won't care for behind but I'm going to where my grandma is <3

Peace and love upon everyone no matter their color or creed

I regret not living by my principles but at least I get to die by them ~ life doesn't forgive weakness but suicide takes decisiveness && extreme strength of will

Life is way too short and miserable my hope is that one day functionally immortal organism or being roam this reality pulling off the veil of what's behind this whole thing. Why do we exist? What's behind the edge of space? Answer questions of this nature!

Absolving everyone of guilt

Liv privately told Yakko she felt responsible for my plight/situation.

I DO NOT want to traumatize anyone by offing myself, especially NOT Olivia.

She's one of the lights I look back on in life and I'm grateful I met her <3

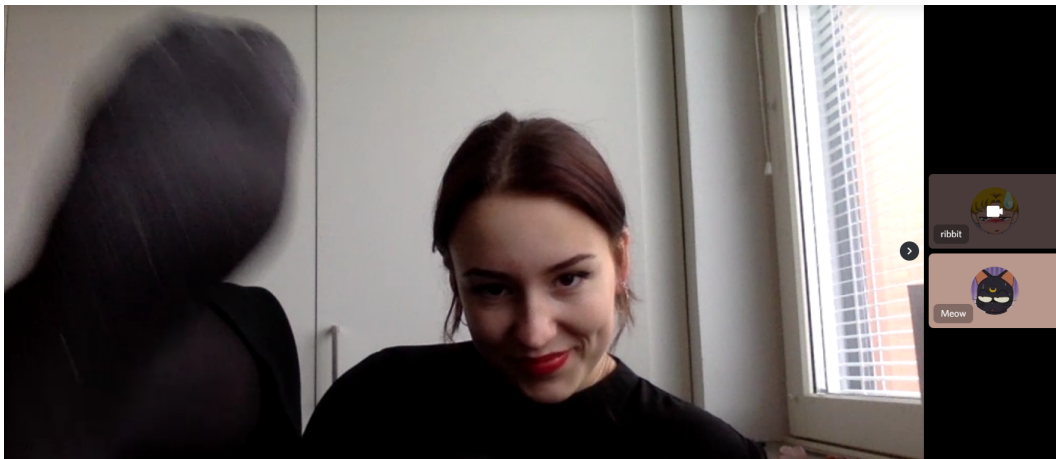

My final happy (or bearable) year 2021 was spent with Olivia.

Same for everyone else, life is a gift, don't be hung up on a dead clump of cells (me).

If I end up in HELL I'll draw comfort from the good memories/moments!

Do take into account the excruciating mental pain && anxiety I am in whilst typing this all down! At the end of the day the only things that matter are loved ones && kindness.

Liv for reference (check appendix section for context)

Childhood trauma

Early days 2018 - 2021 Moon Chimps Media

I came across MoonChimpsMedia, a mental health server on April 25th of 2019.

I was quickly taken into the fold especially by Olivia (Ribbit) & Oleg (Haxor).

Heaps of drama and shenanigans ensued and loads of people vanished or were traumatized by what happened in this server but time is short and they're not relevant to my suicide so in 2021 I got extremely close to Liv to the point we spend 1750+ hours together on VC some months 250+ hours and after my ban May 2021 and grandma's death June 2021 my entire support network was basically Olivia for a while. I went to Ghent to cope with the ostracism from the community and my grandma's death which led to "Max & Liv in Ghent 2021" in a specialized OCD program which led me to gaining some swell memories and ward friendos.

Max & Liv in Ghent 2021

Liv ALWAYS cheered me on, occasionally as her brother, and told me to stop being such a Debby downer and that she wouldn't be okay if I left. She saw me make new friendos e.g. Ginger Boy, Birthe (Victorian era looking Dutch girl), and Karel De Meestere (semi-famous painter), Seppe (stinky roommate), etc. She told me she'd give me a little kitty necklace for my birthday 🎂 30th of November, in person ❤️

Liv got upset I would chose euthanasia over life or me rattling of "Hoe Men Van Even Klaproos een Korenbloem maakt" in Dutch and excitedly telling me she understood parts of Swedish being an adjacent language.

We watched hecking spooky movies and Liv read me her favorite novels e.g.

"Wuthering Heights", etc. It was the final time I would ever be genuinely happy.

I will never not be grateful for all the good Liv brought into my life during this time despite our friendship deteriorating over the course of November 2021 🕯️

She even said we'd wait until Agnes comes back to take better Tinder pictures :c

Me circa late 2021:

Max's final death spiral

Late 2021 I was doing my best to get my life back in order, meeting Discord friends IRL like Ted and even getting a PC system:

My own server that was kicking off late 2021 "Sweet Home" was supposed to be a 2nd chance and it was successful until they re-branded and re-opened MCM as "Rooftop Raccoons" seemingly to spite me too (changed the "Helper" role to "Mini Mod" after how I called my mini moderators.

Liv blocked me 19th of January 2022 and rejoined Rooftop Raccoons 24th of February 2022 which led to me telling my shrink I was going to commit suicide which led to a 4 month ward stay then another 4 months because Olivia called over things I said in this other server "The Insane Asylum" which made it so I couldn't go to my grandma's house right before the foreclosure to “decontaminate”. There’s also a whole “stalker”arc here with one of them “Angel” doing his best to entirely destroy my reputation.

Yakko (Wild Man Fischer) && Fern (Benevolent) on Olivia’s block:

Wild Man Fischer ✓ 05/09/2023 01:36

Tbh, meow would have never completely lost touch with Liv if he didn't reach out to someone he saw venting in the discord server he got banned from, which he did out of solidarity since that person was also struggling with being ostracised for other reasons.

and that person basically made it his mission to completely destroy meow's reputation to gain my favor he thought that finding proof to vindicate or hurt meow would make me forgive him for other shit.

 @meowy6200 She wasn't gonna speak to me after she blocked me the first time

Dr. Benevolent 🐱 21/12/2023 13:18

I am almost positive it would have been a transient block until she saw all the leaks from Magick's server. (edited)

Wild Man Fischer ✓ 13/10/2023 00:38

She never cursed him actually. She just wants zero contact and has repeatedly stated that she wishes for him to recover his life and be happy.

Afterwards, I was homeless for 2 months which forced me to squat my grandma's foreclosed house (&& shit on the lawn like a dog) because plumbing didn't work but the gas did and this was during the Russo-Ukro war's peak so it cost 3000 EURO which got me put under financial conservatorship in June 2023 which meant I could no longer do compulsions to get rid of my OCD stuff (not able to purchase anything online like towels) which means I'm stuck and is also the reason I want to kill myself so much but I hope everyone involved has a happy life regardless <3

Max's final six months

Since August 2023 I developed akathisia and other nasty side effects that make my life a living hell 24/7, every second of every day, for 5 months and now I'm on the verge of ending it all to shed the pain, regrets, ... this isn't a life ...

I'm in-and-out of crisis wards trying to get through the days or SECONDS

Here's a visualisation of my second-to-second life the past 5 months:

<https://youtu.be/byFP0IZSdR4?si=bCdzyjqyNTDknjAk>

I met up with IRL friends (Jawad <3) and forged other bonds like with Axi, Ella, countless others so it wasn't all bleak ... Wish I could've told Liv about it o-o!

Max method && place of death

“night night” method (hanging) in a solitary place listening to “BMO song” from Adventure Time ✨ I’ll pretend it’s February 21’, Liv on VC, grandma downstairs, community intact as I asphyxiate! I’m expecting gruesome, slow and painful but as long as it does the job it’s okay. My worst fear is surviving with OCD but with brain damage

The original method was euthanasia but after going there since September 2021 it's STILL ONGOING because time in-between appointments takes so hecking long

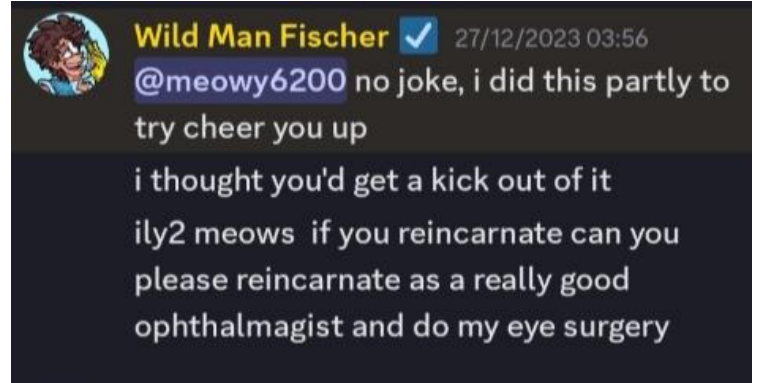

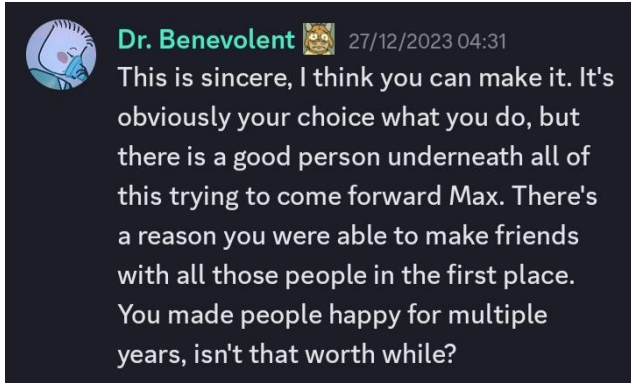

Max's gravesite

Kortrijk (my hometown) graveyard in a cosy meadow near my grandparents urns, full of ladybug friends so hopefully won't be lonely :3. Feel free to visit!!!

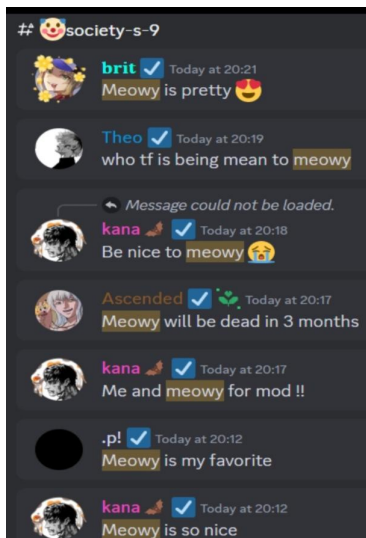

Blessings

Yakko && Fern ~ love them both they dragged my sick ass through 2023 <3

Dave, Ella, Axi, Kad, Kana, Cooper, Kai, etc. In 2022 && 2023, I met too many amazing people I befriended ...

Liv's snarky younger sibling/sister-hood (or older depending on my deteriorating mental state 2021).

With Liv watching Disenchantment, Little Witch Academia, Adventure Time, South Park, Please Like Me (FAVOURITE ~ Liv said the protagonist reminded her of me) etc in 21' 🍿🐱 some final happy memories

Liv is the only familial light I look back on other than my grandma. She's flawed as anyone but for a good 3 years she graced my life with her presence && care and for what it's worth was the closest I felt to having a sibling.

Regrets

The way my friendship with Olivia/Liv ended && harm we caused each other 😞

Leaving my loved ones (internet/IRL friends) behind 😞

I was so caught up in the MoonChimpsMedia Discord drama the last time my late grandma ever saw me was distraught and crying June 2021

Dying in my mid 20's without reaching my full potential

Offered Liv Disneyland trip late 21' told her I'd off myself after ~ she got angry and told me she'd rather have me alive so never meeting Liv IRL IG

Never meeting Yakko (he proposed this as late as September 2023), Fern (this would be possible if I was still healthy enough), Axi, Kad, Cooper, Ella, etc

Making the wrong choices 2021 that led me down this path towards oblivion

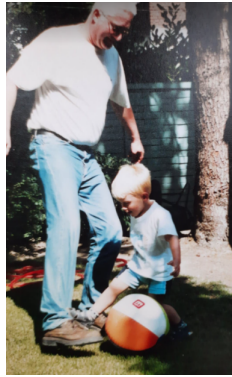

Never playing Fallout 5 && The Elder Scrolls 6, ...

2023 ~ midway through right before my final spiral that started in August

Max & Liv friendship

Romani Swedish girl I was very close to for 3 years ~ VC && DM caps here for context && remembrance!

Liv drew this for me:

Extreme love bombing

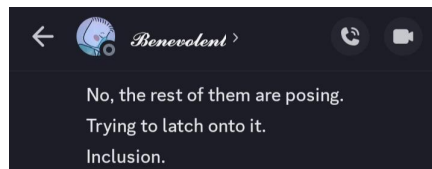

I spend 1500+ hours with her on VC 2021 and 2019 && 2020 stuck-up for me heaps in the community

Google docs links:

Journals 2023

Misc (delete later)

A lot of folks in Liv's new friend group 2022 used me as a crutch 🖋️ to be included e.g. Tina, Pyro, etc

The only 2 folks that have valid complaints and concerns are Yakko && Olivia

Reasons for Maxim's suicide are simple:

- OCD "contamination" && limerence
- The MoonChimpsMedia "drama" aftermath 2022 && 2023

Suicide, to me, is an escape, but please don't let this note ever inspire anyone to take their own lives <3

DISCLAIMER:

Liv isn't responsible for my death but some of her actions definitely didn't help but I'm aware she'd rather I live a long happy life than die miserable alone.

My life was worth living despite the past 2 years being hell and it's hard for me to say goodbye or the world because it has everyone && everything I love ❤️

Dear Olivia 🍷🍷🍷^.^!

Song for the minute Liv might need to grieve me after I'm gone:
<https://youtu.be/7n2GQ0Fo24Q?si=Yj8Lnvw9CH5mC8cc>

I know you've told Yakko you felt responsible for my situation && I asked Yak whether you'd cope in my position and his answer was resolutely "no".

I believe your actions (partially) led to my death. It honestly wouldn't have been hard for you to prevent all of this (Yakko himself approached Olivia by his own volition early 2023 to add me to a mutual server) but by the time you (ever) read this I might be a rotten clump of cells and if I end up in hell there's NOTHING you could do to help me see (like spending 5 minutes of your time to give closure which might fix my limerence) so don't waste time blaming yourself and APPRECIATE the wonderful life that God gave you (as much as you liked to exaggerate trivial issues back in 2021 && undoubtedly still do today).

I'd like to die by my own hand 🖐️ but also make sure Olivia is aware that I died and have it be a proper everlasting goodbye even if completely one sided.

Max's 2016 - 2021 bloomer arc ends

Olivia's victory is my funeral wreath

Liv discredited everything I lost late 2021 partially because of her hysterics && Liv got the best possible outcome for herself yet couldn't spend 10 minutes to talk to me/save my life.

If she came back March 2022 - July 2023 it would've made a HUGE difference but that's water under the bridge meow I guess ^.^

Liv didn't have to go out her way either since Yakko himself asked whether she wanted to add me to a mutual server.

Max's near salvation late 2021

Max's true downfall ~ 8 months in solitary confinement Ypres 2022

Yakko's return 2023

Fern & Yaffy The Yiff Hound (??) Approach Yakko in my behalf and Gran reads the messages I send to shady family character and Yakko develops a deep sadness and decides to reach out and give me a leg up coping with existence. We develop somewhat of a friendship.

Hilde Forger reaches out to Olivia because of concerns for my well-being which is seen as a manipulation attempt by Liv.

Yakko immediately antagonizes me and writes:

I managed to explain that I had no hand in her reaching out so disaster averted for a little longer

August 11th bombshell

Hookup led to the worst contamination stint in my entire life that lasted until my death 🦴 && made me realize the value of life but a little bit too late
