

My experience with DrApeis when I was 10

Disclaimer: All screenshots will be at the end of the document to prevent pages from being filled up too much.

You can contact my discord if you have any questions: magimoon#2020

UPDATE: I have received news that Apeis is deliberately telling their mods and other people to not read this document because it's "Just Drama"
They are also silencing anyone talking about it on the reddit, you can only talk about it on the discord server where Apeis is not located/not the owner.

UPDATE 2: Added more screenshots at the end

UPDATE 3: Just 1 more screenshot to add :)

I wasn't planning on making a document since its gotten pretty cliché by now, but I'm tired of people constantly trashing me and saying things for me when they don't even try to find out what happened and just say shit like "Apeis cursed at a 10 year old LOL", so I'll be explaining what happened between us and what I actually think of the situation.

This all took part back in 2017, when I was getting into Yandere Simulator and becoming slowly active in the community, I used to be subscribed to a bunch of YS YouTubers, one of them being DrApeis, formerly known as Dr Lamccar/Dr Gaming.

One thing I used to do was befriend tons of YouTubers on things like discord or skype in hopes that I'd get famous one day, yes I know I shouldn't have been using anything like that anyway since I wasn't 13 yet, kind of a weird and scummy thing to do, but I didn't care back then, I was just a child with dreams, this was how I started talking to Apeis.

I don't clearly remember everything, but I am assuming we met either by their discord server or they could have put their discord tag in the description, which quite a people used to do.

In the beginning of our convo, judging by the way I type you can clearly tell I was very young and pure (there will be proof that I told Apeis my age back then later on)

I sent them a picture of my old YouTube PFP, probably after commenting something on their video and them responding, so they would know who I was, I used to be a cringy fan back then.

We bonded right from the start, finding tons of similar interests, I trusted Apeis a lot from day 1, I started telling them things about me, also about how I was constantly bullied at school etc.

We ended up talking to each other for a long time that day, Apeis later admitted that they have never talked to a fan this long and called me a special one.

Also, from day 1, he started talking about sexual topics with me, the first of them randomly being Justin Biebers dick size?

After that message, they shortly after proceeded to ask for my age, I hesitantly told them it, and they didn't say much except "cool" and how they didn't care much because they were a "chill" dude.

Then for a second time, they started up another sexual convo, this time bragging about how they stole pornography from someone's laptop and put it in their flash drive, again, they clearly knew my age, very weird thing to tell me.

And exactly right after, they tried to justify it by asking me if I would do the same if I had the chance.

Then the THIRD sexual thing from the same day, we were talking about one of their series, and they kept trying to squeeze sexual jokes in every few minutes.

Apeis was very sexual towards me after we became friends, they would constantly and I mean CONSTANTLY encourage me to masturbate, they would make tons of sexual jokes, they even pressured me into answering if I liked how dick looked.

After looking at our convo, I also found an instance where I made them a special fan video and asked their opinion on it, they told me they would have preferred seeing Osana jerk off everywhere in the bathroom.

Sent me porn once without any warning or anything.

They also told me about how they don't need porn because they lost their virginity at 9 years old.

Apeis also chose to tell me about how they cut themselves because of them having a bad incident with their cousin, getting grounded a lot, being colorblind, almost being kicked from their home and becoming homeless, not having a job to sustain their 'fat ass' mother, etc. and then proceeded to compare their life to starving kids in Africa saying how they have it worse.

Now we come to a controversial point: Apeis told me back then that they were 'intersex' and that they had a vagina, this was and still is confusing as hell. I can't confirm if what they truly said is true, but what I can say, is that it's odd to me how much weird queerbaity shit they do. When we started speaking, they said they were gay, later on a few months later they also claimed to be intersex and that they have a vagina, then they claimed to be a trans male, and for now they are also identifying as non-binary. It's also confusing to me how they want to be referred to as they/ them and expect everyone to respect that but can't respect other peoples pronouns.

There is also the time they were emailed by a company who wanted to partner up with them, Apeis was interested in the idea but I wasn't, as I knew the moment they would sign up for it they'd forget all about me and our friendship (surprise, surprise, turns out I predicted the future.) They promised me how they would never forget me and even asked me to make a contract for them to sign saying they will never forget me.

For some reason, Apeis also loved to use me as something similar to a relationship counselor, they would constantly tell me about how they broke up with whatever boyfriend they had at the time, they even told me how they were going to kill themselves if their boyfriend did so.

During our friendship, they told me about some projects they were working on, most of them were stupid series for their youtube channel like 'Samantha Plays' where they spoke in a high pitch voice to create the illusion of a female playing games while telling their audience it wasn't them.

There was also a horribly made project called "Magic and the Undead" which consisted nothing more than free models on the internet and a few npcs here and there just standing.

And then there's scratch projects that featured bad drawing, I only know of 2 that they made during our time speaking, one was a Club Penguin remake and one was a spinoff to their Dandere High School mod.

We stopped talking around early 2018, I didn't hear of them until recently this year when the love letter trailer released and everyone was speculating Apeis was Lamccar/Narwhals. I knew the name Lamccar sounded familiar, It took me a moment to remember who they were. I searched for their account and tried to find any chat logs between us, I couldn't find anything until I remembered the Discord Data Package system exists, with the help of that I got their ID a few days later and found all the messages between us.

Now that I have grown up and matured, I am disgusted by the things I was told, I didn't know what sex was back then and yet Apeis constantly told me about shit like it, I feel manipulated in some sort for being friends with this guy for over a year without ever realizing how disgusting it was.

This led me to make a video about why I dislike Apeis, which got a lot of hate and mass disliking.

A few days prior to the time I'm writing this document, someone arranged a meeting for me and Apeis, because they wanted to apologize, you've probably seen the screenshots by now.

I didn't accept Apeis' apology, it was all a mix of empty words written only to clear up their name from any drama. I somewhat believed them at first, it felt kind of real, but I woke up later to see it all shared around without any sort of hint they would be doing this.

I feel like the act was very performative, it was weird how Apeis took the dms publicly if their only intention was to truly just clear things up between us, it's like it was all only, so they could clear out their name from the drama between us.

A few hours ago, Apeis posted a short document talking about a small portion of their controversies, the replies on Twitter and on YouTube were filled with shit like "The drama with the 10-year-old is stupid, its old", "I forgive you, you're innocent! I will continue to support Love Letter!", "I'd cuss the 10-year-old out too if they were annoying me", "These things aren't so bad", and so on.

I've gotten massive hate both on Twitter and YT for simply coming out against Apeis, I've gotten hundreds of comments like "This video is fake, you don't show proof, your showing screenshots with someone called Darkness Within, that's not Apeis", some of them even being the length of an essay, or "You're a clout chaser, go away Alex defender".

Did I handle the twitter situation well? No, it was late at night, and I was frustrated, it all kind of just happened. Do I regret the twitter situation? No, it felt good to stand up against Apeis, it also showed how their only excuse for it is "I was 15, I wasn't mature, my brain wasn't developed!"

I think its funny how much of a double standard LL fans have, they will be quick to rightfully cancel Alex for pedophilia no matter how old the incident was, but when it comes to Apeis, the comments say "it's not a big deal unless the child was molested/raped", or "It was from 3 years ago, Apeis has changed!". Why? All because Apeis can create a unity project and have it run at a higher frame rate than 30? The people saying shit like that are also the same people who go around spamming “Love Letter is better, they remade YS in 2 weeks!!!” like it's a huge accomplishment to take the mechanics of a game and add it to your own game with all the assets layed out for you too, they also raid videos talking in a negative light on LL with dislikes because they can't handle anything negative said about LL since they don't have any other alternatives to support.

Now, why have I made this? I made it because people still don't understand my view to this day, nor do they try to educate themselves on what happened between me and Apeis, they only make up bullshit like ‘The kid was chill about it’ or ‘Apeis was kidding when they said the inappropriate things’.

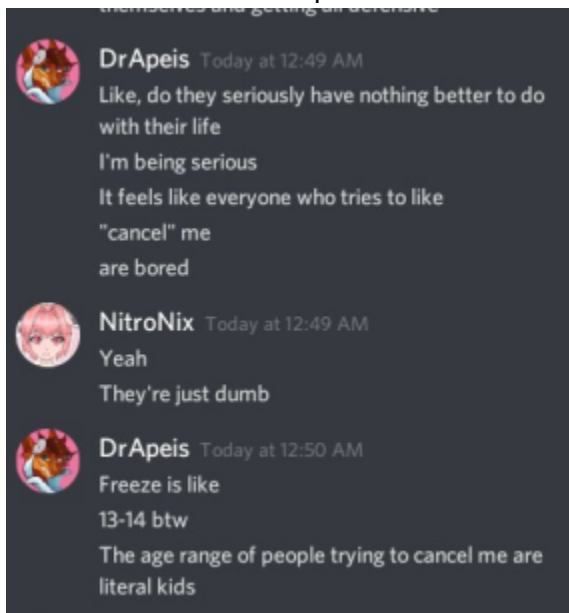

None of the people replying on the community post/tweet are really ‘qualified’ to accept the apology, it is not for you, you did not have any bad experience with Apeis to be accepting the apology and writing brain-dead remarks like “Wow finally a developer who admits their mistakes! We forgive you.”

I also don't need anyone writing what I felt during this or that situation with Apeis either, none of them know what I was feeling.

If anyone thinks that from now on using “Apeis apologized to the kid, this piece of information is irrelevant now” is a valid excuse for anything said about my experience, then remember, an apology won't fix 1 year of pedophilia and sexual behavior, it never has, it never will.

Infact, I don't even think Apeis is feeling bad about what they did at this point, considering they had alot of shit to say days after I published my doc, with shit in their bio like “CaNcEl CuLTuRe? ToXic! PeoPlE ChanGe....” Guess what, pedophilia is a toxic and jailable offense too, you aren't special for calling cancel culture toxic just because you're affected by it :)

And not to mention this pathetic dm with their friend saying people cancelling him are “bored”

With that said, the rest of this document will be screenshots corresponding to things I've mentioned in here, there's probably WAY more than just these but any group chats or servers we shared are now long gone and I have no idea how to recover them, I'd probably be able to recover my own messages if I even got to them but those would mostly make no sense without the full convo either.

My last statement towards mods/people related to LL who choose to victim shame me

Dear Outset,

Don't you ever dare talk about my situation like you did, completely invalidating it and comparing it to meeting your significant other at 13 while they were 15

Did you really think 10 and 15 was comparable to 13 and 15? Fuck off with that bullshit, absolutely not funny to invalidate my experience with Apeis saying shit like "She doesn't sound 10, I don't think she is 13, I think she is 18, She types like my 18-year-old sister."

What does my birth gender have to do with anything? Are you scared that if I were a boy, it would be more pedophilic since Apeis is gay, weirdo? 10 and 15 IS pedophilia, you can't actually think just because Apeis was 1 age off that it's considered okay and safe to be defending their actions?

Its an odd subject because I met for example my irl husband playing an MMORPG together. He was a few years younger than I at the time and we met when he was 13 and I was 15. At one point we were together for a long time that way even when I hit 18. Heck my mom used to make those pedo jokes to me. Great for the self-esteem, but we never did anything dirty till marriage. That's just me being honest. But it's times like this I hate the internet.

Wed 4:37 PM

Apeis did apologize to them though. He said he was 15 and going through a rough patch. I'm not saying he is denying accountability, I just don't know what could further be done about this and as far as I know they have not talked since 2017.

Wed 4:38 PM

yeah Apeis is 18 currently uhhhh im trying to think Also if they where 10 why where they even on discord isn't that against the tos

Also do you know what gender magimoon is? They seem like a girl to me. I however do not know there birth gender.

If you don't know thats fine i am just wondering for myself.

Wed 4:28 PM

Yeah just a bit but this is the thing and I may just be ignorant. If he was 15 and she was 10. Is that really considered like actual pedophilia or grooming per say. Ill be honest about my age I am 25 and with how they act from messages I have seen (magimoon) that just does not read 10 year old to me. Maybe I am just old. They act like my little sister who is 18 currently lol.

Wed 4:31 PM

Sorry to bug ya Omnia but what was the stuff on magimoon you where told. Or heard, because as far as I know is DrApeis and magimoon where talking with one another and where both really young. DrApeis was like 15 and Magimoon was idk. I think they are claiming they where 10 but I personally do not believe those claims.

4:19 PM

Ok so a lot of the information for your reference and you have every right to not trust it and I understand if you don't. So Cameron we just want nothing to do with. DrApeis specifically. He has had it out for DrApeis since before any of this even got big. We just avoid him all together because thats what Drapeis wants and that is entirely his decision. Stuff involving Magimoon is another thing that is a DrApeis personal business situation. If he wants to deal with that he can, but with how they have been acting in the comment sections of our twitter posting nothing but spam I had to block them. The monstergirleve stuff was before there was even a development team. Same as with the magimoon stuff.

ooof, yeah I have no clue. Why does the internet gotta be this way. I do not know the best course of action for this situation because its so odd. I am not defending either of them honestly. That was bad on both there parts. Yes DrApeis was the oldest, but they where both minors. So the situation is like super grey and its hurting my brain. What do you think personally?

Dear Calixta,

It's very funny to me how you repeatedly tried to say you were "Neutral" on this topic, yet you knew when NO ONE could get proof, you chose to victim shame me on multiple levels in the Voice Chat, "Where's her parents?" "Why was she on discord?" "Was the kid even 10? I don't believe they were 10"

If only you knew how GLAD I am that you got caught with a recorded clip of you making fun of me, completely proving everything people have said about you, you are a horrible person and no amount of discord leaving and staying silent on the situation will make what you did and you as a person look any better.

Lmao its ok, (about the 10yo) you were on the internet doing what you want, you were not aware that you will become known in the future. If i'd be annoyed by a 10yo on the internet, i would verbally fight them.

Yo he should have been more specific!! I didn't know about the 10y/o drama and seeing "talked explicitly with a 10 year old." My brain went to sexual explicitness because I don't see the need to apologise for swearing at a kid on the internet lmaooo

Also, I don't know if you already know, but the girl is a really diehard fan of YS. So, she complains about ""pedo"" jokes, but she supports an actual pedo? Yeah, that's bullshit. Lol also she complains now of it, instead of doing it back then in 2017...
Again, bullshit.

I don't know you but parents usually teach their kids to not talk to strangers, so the girl could just leave and report the ""pedo"" jokes... Again, they were kids, even if there is a huge distance of mature between 15 and 10 yo, still kids that made mistakes and cringey shit.

And the girl awnswers really calm, following the jokes of a 15 yo Apeis. Dude, it's not hard to understand that they were kids, and obviously, they made mistakes and cringey things.

Hey dude. Thank you for your apology.. I believe you have taken responsibility of your actions and are now becoming a better person. You were 15... And idk how old you are now. But The most important thing is that you know what's right and wrong now.

You're still young and you're gonna make stupid mistakes and meet people who pretend to be nice and in reality aren't. I see your growth and I still think you're valid.

YanDev is a 30 year old creep. We're talking about a kid half his age making a really stupid mistake which happened 3 years ago. (edited)

You're right. This is all absolutely stupid. Going on and on about pedophilia. You realize none of this helps the game yeah? All its going to do is make things worse for the fans who are here for the game not anyone's personal drama.

 Today at 2:44 AM

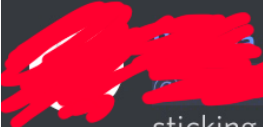

I am downplaying this because where did you all hear this from? Did you actually talk to both Apeis and victim personally? No! So stop instigating more drama. Focus on the game and only the game.

 Today at 2:39 AM

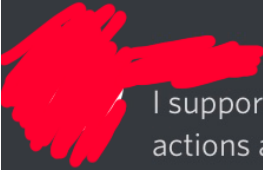

Just leave sleeping dogs lie. If you go looking for trouble you're going to find it and find everyone here has something they aren't proud of. Don't tote yourselves like you're completely innocent and never have made stupid mistakes in your life before.

 Today at 2:37 AM

I don't care because it's not our place to be sticking our nose into something that has been dealt with and Apeis has stated they regret and are disgusted and the person in question is okay with them.

I support Apeis because they took responsibility of their actions as a teen who made mistakes. They owned up to it publicly. No one should give a shit what's going on with management unless it directly affects how the game is being developed. They're not some top of the line AAA game studio so don't expect top of the line perfect way of handling everything.

 Today at 2:26 AM

Focus on how the game is coming along not the management.

My two cents, stop scrutinizing and bringing up old issues. Apeis addressed that they did indeed do some of these things and they themselves are disgusted by their old behavior. Try to support the game itself in good faith and stop acting like they're some 50 year old repeated criminal. (edited)

So from everything I read, you were 10 and they were 15.

It might be wrong to have those convos, but it sounds like you were talking to a horny troubled confused teen.

Yes, what was said was wrong. Obviously, but despite what you may feel, I can't call it pedophilia and if you truly feel wronged, go to court about it.

imagine bitching about something that literally happened 3 years ago, so what if this is worse than Alex, he's a different person, Alex doesn't matter here, he had nothing to do with this, even if apeis did copy yandere simulator with the two week thing it still is a impressive feat, even if apeis is a shitty person the game is not going anywhere and the pedo shit is none of our buisness. we should all just fuck off and follow the games development.
