2.0 Introduction

A multi-faceted problem

2.1 The problems

The Titanfall community has been dealing with groups of hackers who manipulate the game and assume peoples' identities in addition to members in the community who doxx and harass, both as individuals or coordinated groups. Amidst the chaos, we have a community made out of people who love Titanfall.

This is not only the story of gamers who cannot play the game that they paid for: we are human beings who built and invested time in the community. We are the community. We build relationships, share our creativity, teach each other and help each other. Titanfall is only the background dressing.

Not only are doxxing, harassment and hacking illegal, but they are also destructive towards the Titanfall community. We should not let a handful of individuals speak in the name of what we've built-- they are willing to sacrifice this for their personal interest.

Their campaign of misinformation led to many victims due to doxxing and harassment as well as lies and manipulation

All of this happens while Respawn watches ~~their~~ our community torn apart while selling ~~broken products~~ menus simulators. Should we blame everyone working at Respawn Entertainment? No; a video game is the passion and labor of many individuals working as a team over the span of years.

They are being held from acting by the ones who manage the studio; they are not being respected and neither is the community.

2.2 The consequences - personal testimonies of players impacted

Starting in mid-June 2021, we started conducting a survey to understand people's experiences with the attacks on Titanfall and Titanfall 2 to not only gather some basic information such as their platform and region, but also to gain insight into the human perspective. They remind us why we are working so hard to save our game and why we have to bring these injustices to light. To the unheard, to the one who has been ignored, left alone and being lied to all along. To the one who matters the most. To you Pilots, the community: you deserve the truth. Thank you for sharing your pain, thank you for sharing your emotions and thank you for giving us the fuel to keep up during those past few months.

Here are a few examples of what we received:

"It's disheartening, sad, discouraging, and makes me feel hopeless. The titanfall franchise has been a big part of my life since i was 12 years old. I'm 17 now and it's sad to see one of my favorite games of all time, a game that helped me when i was down, a game that changed my life for the better go out in such a dishonorable way. This game introduced to me some of my best friends, and even helped me find other games that i enjoyed just as much. It's sad, very sad to see this game go. It's sad that the people who made it showed such negligence, such lack of care not only for one of the best FPS games of its era, but for the community who held it so close to their heart. I hope that this problem isn't unfixable, i hope respawn and the hacker(s) find some sort of motivation to put an end to this."

"I feel cheated and disappointed. They took money from me for a non-working game that is tied to multiplayer. I could not play the game with constant server crashes due to DDoS attack by hackers. It also annoys me that in the game since 2014 they have not been able to make a normal anti-cheat protection and ban all attackers. Also, I do not like the imbalance in the game due to which everyone uses only the Smart Pistol and ignores the rest of the weapons in the game. I tried to get justice and wrote messages on Twitter asking when Respawn and EA would fix the game, but I was ignored for more than 6 months and now I realized that they don't care about the Titanfall community and they are only interested in Apex and Battlefield since they constantly bring them big money for maneuvering cosmetic items in the game. But EA and Respawn have the audacity to sell the game in Origin and Steam knowingly knowing about the problem with the servers. From now on, I will write to my blacklist so that I never forget that Respawn Entertainment and Electronic Arts are vile liars and scammers. Respawn as a game company making games for me is dead. EA already had a bad reputation, but it was able to fall even lower than it had previously. I will not buy more than one game from these developers and publishers."

"it's disappointed me heavily, as i truly love this game. and it's been part of my childhood. so coming to play, and not being able to play it makes me pretty upset. i also have many friends who play and feel the same way aswell."

"I'm just crushed that I only got such a short time on one of my favourite multiplayer games ever. It was amazing being able to play it on PC, and ever since the issue started I was right on it reporting it to EA etc. As many have been told, "it's being addressed", but it's been 4/5 months now. Even before then there were issues with racist hackers, but leaving the game completely unplayable is beyond unfortunate because this game deserves so much more."

"The constant DDOSing of the Titanfall series has taken a toll on my mental health. This may seem ridiculous, given that it's a game about shooting people and vaporizing them with your 20 ton death machine, but I grew stupidly attached to this game."

"I come in from a shift working in mental health rehab and my usual way to blow the day away is killing some dudes in big-ass robots. It's my stress-ball, it's my Candy Crush. I've played it almost every day.

But since last weekend I've not been able to stay in a game. It plays a while, it freezes, I have to leave the game. It sucks. One of my favorite pastimes is just gone, taken away.

What makes it even worse is there is little to no support or communication to assure that this will get fixed.

I love this game and I don't want to see it die like this."

"I've been playing titanfall since the days its been released, and that's pretty much all I ever play on xbox, I switched to Titanfall 2 when it was released.

It's affected me greatly because of my son. He's turning 7 in a week but got into titanfall 2 multiplayer because of me about 6 months ago. He loves the titans and the pilots, draws them all the time, builds them out of lego, he's even having a titanfall themed birthday party. It's all he can talk about without even really playing the game for more than an hour per day. It's been something we do together every night before bed, taking turns playing 5 lives each in Attrition.

I told him on his birthday weekend, we could play all day together before and after his party. He was really excited about it, but since these attacks began, he's been really sad. He checks the game 3-5 times per day to see if the game will freeze when he jumps out of the dropship. Obviously it never works, and every night before bed he still asks me, "dad, do you think the hacker will turn nice soon and let us play" or "why doesn't anyone care that the game doesn't work anymore?" or "why are we frozen, but other people are still running around and shooting, why does it work for them"

I don't know what to tell him, I don't even really know why it's happening to us, I'm not a streamer or anything, we just play casually every night for about an hour, and honestly, for a 6 year old, he's gotten really good.

Anyways, sorry for the rant, I just hate seeing my son sad over something so stupid especially something I have no control over. Wish i could meet the coward responsible in person to show him what feeling helpless is like when there's no computer to give you power over others."

3.0 Individuals

The hackers & their associates

3.1 Hackers

The following individuals are directly responsible for the July 4th Apex Legends hack as well as the blacklist that has been impacting streamers (and more recently, the entire playerbase) for months. Their collusion led to coordinated attacks on the 3 games of the franchise: Titanfall, Titanfall 2 and Apex Legends. Through their research to find new bugs and exploits, they were using different kinds of vulnerabilities in order to render the game unplayable to help them achieve their personal goals

They have successfully spread misinformation regarding the identity of the infamous hacker "Jeanue," which has resulted in the doxxing, harassment and threatening of innocent people. This was done to send people on witch hunts and therefore draw attention away from themselves.

The "DDoS" attacks on Titanfall 2 streamers began back in March 2021, although it wasn't until April and May that the attacks became more widespread and targeted.

Note: These individuals began planning months beforehand, primarily utilizing private channels in the Remnant Fleet discord server (owned by p0358 and RedShield) to discuss methods and delegate tasks. All of these channels have been backed up and they are unable to delete any evidence of these actions.

3.1.1 p0358

Admin of Remnant Fleet Discord server and in charge of the “Titanfall Online” (known as TFO), self-proclaimed “good hacker” who can fix all the exploits in Titanfall.

He and his associates worked over the span of years to target Titanfall, Titanfall 2 and Apex Legends in the interest of his personal project TFO.

Multiple times, he gave information about “Jeanue” to people with the intention to instigate “witch hunts.”. This led to the doxxing and harassment of individuals and even an entire family thought to be behind the attacks. Their personal information such as (but not limited to) their past and present legal names, places of employment, address, contact information and personal social media accounts were spread across various social media platforms. This information found its way across Discord, Reddit, Youtube and Twitter, and ultimately all comes from this source.

3.1.2 dogecore

Develops and sells cheats for different video games, including Apex Legends. He is also involved in the TFO project and is researching more vulnerabilities in Titanfall, Titanfall 2 and Apex Legends.

3.1.3 MrSteyk

Develops and sells cheats for different video games, including Apex Legends. He is also involved in the TFO project and is researching more vulnerabilities in Titanfall, Titanfall 2 and Apex Legends.

REDACTED

3.2 Associate

3.2.2 RedShield

Admin of Remnant Fleet Discord server and long-time friend of p0358. Although he was not involved in the technical aspects of their plans, he had a major hand in their planning and execution in the public eye.

4.0 Evidence

Evidence will be provided in various forms, including but not limited to images and videos. Each piece of evidence will come with an allocated File ID which is used to browse the list of files included in the folder that came along this document.

(eg. File ID 089 is associated with files starting with 089_xxx)

4.1 Their lies, manipulation and campaign of misinformation

|              |                        |
|--------------|------------------------|
| File ID: 111 | Date: 4th of July 2021 |
| File ID: 112 |                        |

On July 4th, Apex Legends was hacked to display a message containing a link to this website. In Remnant Fleet, any time a new member joins, they are greeted with this message:

They were very quick to make sure everyone knew they had nothing to do with the incident that day.

p0358 07/04/2021

Titanfall 1 seems to be currently in a playable state at the moment. Enjoy playing it while it lasts. [EDIT: it's now down again and 100% impossible to play as usual]

However, do not get fooled. Respawn has nothing to do with it and they did not fix any issues. It has happened numerous times before - whenever our cause goes into spotlight for any reason and everyone's looking, the attacker takes down his bots for a while as a means of self-preservation. It's worth to note that at the same time Titanfall 2 is still under attacks.

I want to say that we are not the people/server behind the Apex situation and the messages you have seen directing you here, and we don't know who it is. It appears that someone did want to spread the info about Titanfall situation and we feel them, we want to play our game again as well. Our site is probably the best source of information packed into one place, so it's probably logical they have selected that one to link with such goal in mind. So please don't be angry at us, those who are.

While this was a pretty surprising news to us in the morning, we would like to welcome all the new players and express a hope that Titanfall will soon be in a better condition and that you will stay with us while awaiting that to happen. Make sure to pick platform roles to see the rest of the server if you want to play with us. (edited)

We're sorry though for any Apex players who were unable to play their game in this situation. This should be possible to mitigate by selecting a different data center in case it's happening to you.

At the same time, please imagine that we've been dealing with something worse for past three years, most of the time being unable to play our game, Titanfall 1, at all, with no workarounds possible anymore. The servers were and are taken hostage by a hacker and his friends out of hatred towards our community and Respawn fails to do anything about it, despite fixes and exploits used being so trivial (yet there's many of them - it's what you get if you fix none of them).

Spread the word, there is no excuse for letting this happen knowingly for 3 years, meanwhile releasing the game on Steam and putting it on numerous sales like nothing's wrong, while people who buy the game can only watch the main menu screen, since it's online-only game.

TLDR:

- welcome everyone new
- we are not the people behind Apex situation (also raiding/spamming won't help, will only get you banned)
- Titanfall 1 is currently temporarily playable, for now, but not thanks to Respawn EDIT: it's down again!
- stick with us for more news in the future (edited)

@Beddoburēkā U know whats funny, no one cares smh

p0358 07/04/2021

you know, if the hackers pasted this message wanting to save titanfall, I guess they ain't gonna stop seeing such reactions however it's fucking annoying that our server gets raided for this, while we have nothing to do with this

like bruh

@StonerSquid(unfair) @Administrator you caused a problem in apex and now your blaming it on respawn you motherfuckers fix apex

RedShield 07/04/2021

It was not us

p0358 07/04/2021

Why would we take down our website. Not our fault someone is linking it somewhere. We may as well say you could shut the fuck up and that would be a better argument than yours now.

@Nikk I didnt say take down your discord server? I said the website and you do have a lot to do with it because of these images down below. 📎

p0358 07/04/2021

so what? it's not us hacking apex and pasting the link there, why would our website suffer because of this by being took down? Titanfall cause and its problems remain up to date

H 10 E 10 L 10 P 10

Message could not be loaded.

p0358 07/04/2021

would you buy it regardless? but t's not us doing it anyway, so it's not like we're a side of this and we have any control of what's going on with any of these servers and you know what?

@phillis then why are they shouting out your community?

[Kohi] 07/04/2021

Cause it's now a public website.

Xpsychonauticon 07/04/2021

Wth is going on

p0358 07/04/2021

you all should blame only Respawn for this @Mick I'm just here for Titanfall news cause I like the game. What have people done here to Apex to deserve being raided?

p0358 07/04/2021

someone hacked apex game with message to save titanfall and they're pissed cause they think it's us, even though we clearly say everywhere it's not @demshoes I don't think this was a good way of getting the message across

p0358 07/04/2021

it's Joe job, we have no control over who's pasting this link and where 1

but we're not responsible for this

p0358 07/04/2021

because of Respawn, both Titanfall and Apex is fucked now, and you're jumping to our throats instead of theirs

@vengeancekun do you know who's behind the apex thingy

p0358 07/04/2021

No idea, probably some Russians xd

p0358 07/04/2021

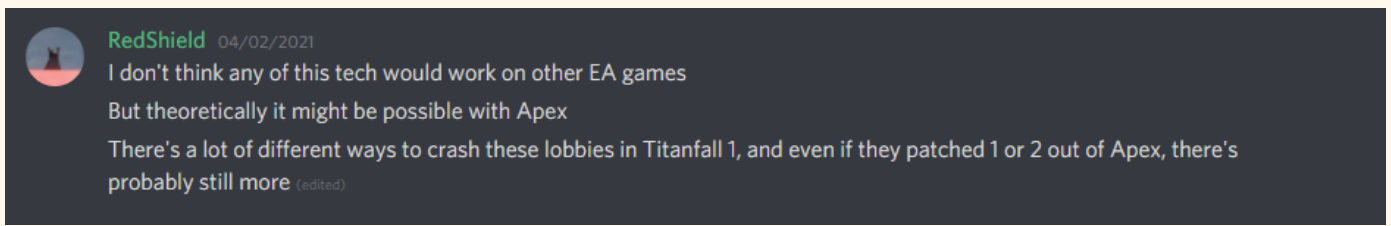

it's not us and not our fault apex got what it got

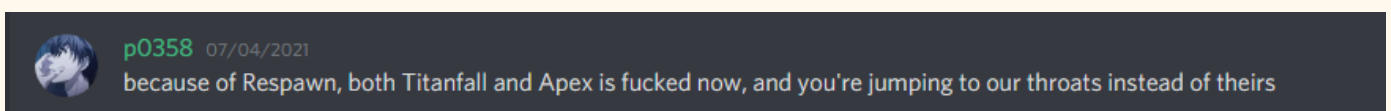

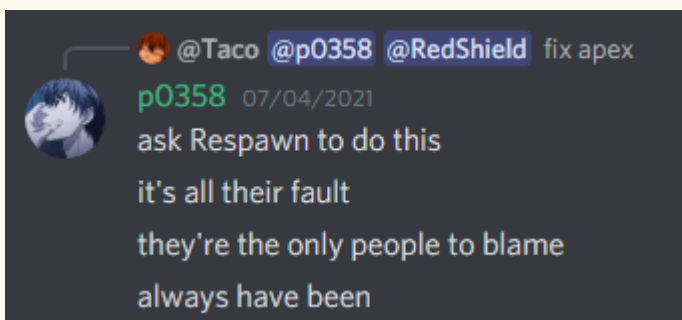

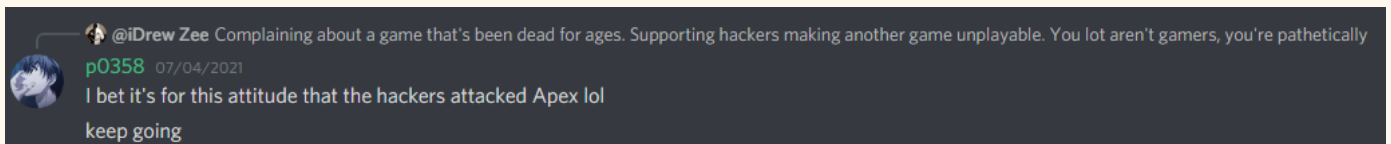

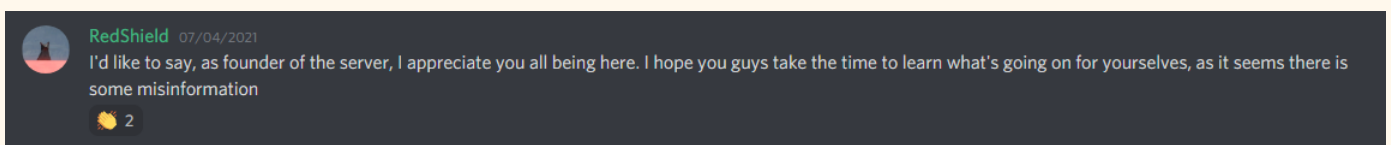

p0358 07/04/2021

I don't care if hackers link it somewhere, it has nothing to do with us

They lied.

They barely tried to hide how they truly felt and what mattered to them- attention. And they were willing to throw anyone under the bus to get that. RedShield and p0358 were by far not the only offenders in the damage that this group has done to the Titanfall community, but they were the most vocal. Their hubris will be their downfall.

 p0358 07/04/2021
I don't know who and how, but we definitely can't complain, it's nice to see all the spotlight we get with this

 Couterspelled 07/04/2021
I got my tf2 account ddosed today Pretty angry with that

 p0358 07/04/2021
Because the state of Titanfall games (mostly 1, but 2 as well) doesn't come without bad will from Respawn and people should be aware of that 2 at least works for most people usually, but 1 is annihilated for so long
This is why the website focuses on 1, if they fix the issues plaguing 1 (and there's more of them known to the hackers), then it's trivial to just copy those fixes over to 2 to fix both

 Minutewave 07/04/2021
who made the site lol

 p0358 07/04/2021
But they pretty much refuse to do anything
It's people from our community, but they're not affiliated with the Apex thing

damm
thats mental someone hacked apex tho

 p0358 07/04/2021
Looks like someone was full of the situation and the website was the best thing to point to in order to spread the news
Because it has all the info laid out in one place

 time machine 07/04/2021 @p0358 personally I think it'll harm the cause, via its image

 @Minutewave thats mental someone hacked apex tho

 p0358 07/04/2021
True, though we're not even surprised given in how many ways Titanfall games can be crashed for example xd

 p0358 07/04/2021
We have 1700 members now, nice

 Imply 07/04/2021
doesnt matter @p0358 wait are people joining the server from this

 p0358 07/04/2021
After a period of stagnation

 Imply 07/04/2021

 @Minutewave when this shits over i wanna learn tf modding
p0358 07/04/2021
and there's lot to come in this regard soon, we're working on something new so stay tuned if anyone's interested, will be pretty good stuff xd

Originally, savetitanfall.com was a partnership between different Titanfall communities united to bring attention to the state of the game(s) and give accurate information about the problems. Unfortunately, they decided to put their personal goals-- promoting their server and personal Titanfall community project-- above the good of the game and instead took advantage of the hard work of others when it was convenient for them:

 @JonBolds Hey y'all, games journo here, been trying to convince editors to get something about the TF situation written for a while and the Apex hack is the moment I needed. C...

Generally 2018/2019, with some breaks here and then. February 2019 was the first time we got a media coverage when the game was unplayable completely at the time, but it started few months earlier, and the group we know was notorious for being annoying to Titanfall community in many ways before that. Generally savetitanfall website has some more info on this subpage too (many people miss it): <https://savetitanfall.com/what-is-this-about>

What is this about? | Save Titanfall

Titanfall is a beloved franchise by many, and hacker issues have been at rise. The community has been begging Respawn to fix this issue for over three years, but to no avail. It's time we speak up.

But when it was more convenient for them to throw the SaveTitanfall project under the bus, they jumped on the opportunity:

|--------------|-------------------------|

Everything was deliberate and planned in advance, and they almost got away with it. The community deserves the truth.

Why so scared? There's no reason to be afraid of the truth.

Everything contained in this report has been extensively documented through screenshots in addition to screen recordings of the conversations. Each piece of evidence has a corresponding file number-- the single screenshot per entry is only a small snippet of the entire conversation and as such are labelled for ease of browsing.

Their plotting against the Titanfall and Apex Legends communities began months ago and below you will find everything that you need to connect the dots that they so desperately tried to hide from us.

tell them that if they don't sort their shit out that someone might come to Apex or Titanfall 2 and do the same shit there with 1000x bigger player base and they won't be happy then

Discussion

When i confronted the guy who was killing the game by cheating and stealing account he outright said that he will go after titanfall 2. Ive heard that there is noting we can do. At least we will have the campaign

That'd be really interesting, having both Titanfall games and half of Respawn's titles completely locked down and unplayable Especially since the Titanfall 2 fanbase is one of the loudest and most vocal fanbases I've seen

ah true, I remember there was tfall-pugs, and then tfall-shelter

if this all succeeds, we will need to thank jeanue for reviving the game that would naturally go dead without him, that will piss him off xd

Ok what do you guys think

SUMMARY:
I am an ambitious, goal-oriented person with a long-standing passion for video games. I am always trying new things, I am always willing to rise to the challenge, and as a result, over the past few years I have acquired a number of different skills and knowledge.

SKILLS:

|---|---|--|
| Social Media Proficiency – Experienced with Reddit, Discord, and Online Forums.   | Positive Attitude – Always approach problems as things that can be solved.  | Team-player – Works with others to maintain the TF Remnant Fleet .  |
| Proactive – Have started a number of projects on my own and without help or motivation from others.   | Self-Manager – Went to an online school for 2 years, where my learning and development was largely my responsibility.                             | Knows How to Learn – I am constantly engaging in new activities to try to further expand my skills.  |
| Self-Starter – Started and managed a community discord server from scratch and worked constantly to grow the community and add new members. | Strategic Thinking - Long-term fascination with strategy games and literature, followed by application of learned lessons to real-life scenarios. | Creative – Kept a journal where I recorded all my ideas for video-game mechanics, concept arts, and comic strips; I have filled to varying degrees four notebooks. |

ACTIVITIES:

- Volunteered to entertain the children at House of Hope
- Helped my family collect donations (toys, clothes, toiletries) from the neighborhood for Christmas gifts for the House of Hope.
- Owner and Founder of the TF Remnant Fleet, a Titanfall 1 community discord server that is over a year and a half old, with 586 members total. July 2019-Present.
- Ran weekly gaming events coordinating 10-15 people at a time to play matches of Titanfall, only missing 2 weeks over the 5 months the project ran. July 2019 – December 2019.
- Spent time during summer landscaping front-yard and reclaiming areas of property that were overgrown. Summer 2020.
- Organized and "reclaimed" our cluttered garage. Fall 2020 and Winter 2021.

EDUCATION:

[REDACTED]

PERSONAL INTERESTS:
Learning new things - refurbishing broken game consoles and reselling them - assisting my brother with caring for his 3 goats - entertaining others - playing the piano - playing the guitar - playing video games.

Could this resume get me the Social Media Manager job at Respawn?

 @Sun-Wind_Dragon Well, if we mess up tf2 and Respawn doesn't care, we have two ruined games.

 p0358 05/02/2021
It's not like that either keeping a game taken down in this case would be a continuous and active process jeanue's bots are running all the time if we wanna conduct something like this, it should be temporary, maybe 24 or 48 hours, and then stop, and also have a clear message on why and what do we want and I wouldn't put any names on that also going longer could give them time to look into what's happening and actually fix that and something tells me they would only fix that, one way or another, in Titanfall 2 only as the immediate response at least

Baiting Jeanue into attacking Titanfall 2

File ID: 094

Date: 6th of February 2021

Leprawel 06/02/2021

i mean

personally messing with tf2 would be a bad idea and a waste of time and effort the "proper" way to handle this move would be to somehow encourage/bait jeanue into attacking tf2

if we know any tf2 vourneabilities we can talk about them publicly in #general for example, jeanue, if hes here, might get some inspiration from that also some people here who linke tf2, like Wanty, might object (edited)

so its more of a meme than legit strategy

MOM-2236 The worst thing we can do is have TF|O get painted as a group of people seeking to destroy what little remains of Respawn's work

p0358 06-Feb-21 03:05 AM

It's not like we're gonna say "oh hey it's us behind this project, we destroyed your favorite game so you play ours, have a nice day"

Pretty convinced that pleading to any actions like these would be a bad move

Too bad I didn't leave jeanue any contact information back in a day when he asked xd

p0358 It's not like we're gonna say "oh hey it's us behind this project, we destroyed your favorite game so you play ours, have a nice day"

This conversation started with MrSteyk talking about not being able to forgive one of Respawn's new "sins" in the form of an "improvement" to the engine. He says that if you watch cheater reports in Apex that you could find what he's referring to and that it's a "once in a lifetime thing."

More testing of the exploit used to crash streamers' lobbies

File ID: 054

Date: 13th of March 2021

A quote from the article:

"More recently, Titanfall 2 lobbies began to suffer crashes, too - seemingly due to a player or players overwhelming a server by sending commands en masse to it. The affected server will start to lag, and players won't be able to move. Then, if a threshold is hit, players will be disconnected. Is this the work of Jeanue? No-one knows for sure. "Whether it's actually Jeanue, someone who's imitating Jeanue, or perhaps superstition is up to debate," RedShield said.

According to RedShield, this new series of Titanfall 2 crashes was targeted specifically at streamers, and is thought to have pushed Respawn into action."

But now it's the issue only RSPN can fix Surprised it wasn't used the first time around tbh, since in TF2 it took us (TOS community of one software) a few days until we stumbled upon that randomly
Because there was 3 of us independently lagging server
So we ended up asserting it eckside damn, I feel like I should complain on Twitter to get my IP unbanned, but then it's a shadowban after all, so if I tell it, I could spoil the fact that it's supposed to be not known xdd on the other hand I already had it in my status on Discord, so jeanue has seen probably already anyways

I should just publish this thing, but idk what else to add to closing words eh (edited) or if to ask them for anything else in the Quality of Life fixes
