SANTA ROSA COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF:

JASON STOKES
Petitioner

and

JACQUELINE STOKES
Respondent

Case No.: 17001352DRMXAX
Division: B

FAMILY LAW STANDING PRETRIAL ORDER

The following Family Law Standing Pretrial Order ("Order") shall apply to both parties in an original action for dissolution of marriage. Service of this Order shall be made with service of process of a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and shall be effective with regard to the Petitioner upon filing of the petition and with regard to the Respondent upon service of the summons and Petition for Dissolution of Marriage or upon waiver and acceptance of service. The following Order shall remain in place during the pendency of this action, unless modified, terminated or amended by further order of the Court upon motion of either of the parties:

1. Neither party shall sell, transfer, encumber, conceal, assign, remove or in any way dispose of, without the consent of the other party in writing, or without an order of the Court, any disputed property, individually or jointly held by parties, except in the usual course of business, for customary and usual household expenses or for reasonable attorney's fees and costs in connection with this action. This provision is not to be interpreted to control property which is co-owned with a third party. In such case, either party may file an appropriate motion with the Court with notice to all whose property rights may be affected.
2. Neither party shall incur any unreasonable or unnecessary debts, including but not limited to, further borrowing against any credit line secured by the family residence, further encumbering any assets, or unreasonably using credit cards for cash advances against credit or bank cards.
3. Neither party shall permanently remove the minor child or children of the parties, over whom the Court has jurisdiction from the State of Florida, without written consent of the other party or an Order from the Court.
4. Unless there is another order in effect, the parties shall share parental responsibility for any minor child(ren) of the marriage. The parties shall familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Santa Rosa County Shared Parental Responsibility Statement which may be obtained from the Clerk of the Court. Any timesharing schedule shall be established in writing. The parties may agree to any timesharing schedule they believe is in the best interest of the child(ren). Absent a written agreement to the contrary, each parent shall have equal time (50%) with the minor child(ren) and each parent shall cooperate to facilitate equal timesharing (50%) with the minor child(ren) until further order of this Court. Parents are cautioned that in determining primary residence of the minor child(ren), one factor the Court will consider is the parent who is more likely to allow the child(ren) frequent and continuing contact with the other parent as set forth above. For cases in which child abuse and/or neglect is alleged by a party against the other parent, that party shall promptly file the appropriate pleadings with the Court to seek immediate relief from the above timesharing schedule.

5. Absent a written agreement to the contrary, holidays shall be governed by the Family Law Standing Pretrial Order Holiday Schedule, a copy of which is attached.
6. Neither party shall cause the other party or the child(ren) of the marriage to be removed from any medical, hospital and/or dental insurance coverage, and each party shall maintain the existing medical, hospital and dental insurance coverage in full force and effect.
7. Neither party shall change the beneficiaries of any existing life insurance policies, and each party who has traditionally paid the following shall maintain existing life insurance, automobile insurance, homeowner's or renter's insurance policies in full force and effect.
8. If the parties have a child or children, a party vacating the family residence shall notify the other party or the other party's attorney, in writing, within forty-eight (48) hours of such move, of an address and telephone number where the relocated party can receive communication. This provision shall not apply if there is a conflicting court order.
9. Failure to obey this Order may be punishable by contempt of court. If you wish to modify this Order, you must file an appropriate motion with the Santa Rosa County Family Law Clerk's Office.

DONE AND ORDERED at Milton, Santa Rosa County, Florida this 29th day of August, 2017.

- C. Easter: Easter often falls within Spring Break vacation. In the event it does not, then the Respondent shall have the child on Easter from 8:00 a.m. through 9:00 a.m. Monday morning during odd-numbered years, and the Petitioner during even-numbered years. This vacation period shall end the morning school reconvenes. The parent who is exercising time-sharing shall take the child to school on the scheduled morning that school reconvenes, return the child(ren) to the other parent, or day care provider, no later than 9:00 a.m.

Fall Break time sharing shall commence from the time school recesses, or one (1) hour after school recesses (the one [1] hour does not apply if both parents supply all clothing, accessories, etc.) or it starts otherwise at 6:00 p.m., if a parent is unable to start time-sharing after school recesses. This vacation period shall end the morning school reconvenes. The parent who is exercising time-sharing shall take the child(ren) to school on the scheduled morning that school reconvenes, return the child(ren) to the other parent, or day care provider, no later than 9:00 a.m.
- F. Birthdays: In odd-numbered years, the child shall celebrate his or her birthday at the home of the Respondent. In even-numbered years, the child shall celebrate his or her birthday at the home of the Petitioner. If the child attends school, time-sharing shall commence from the time school recesses, or one (1) hour after school recesses (the one [1] hour does not apply if both parents supply all clothing, accessories, etc.) or it starts otherwise at 6:00 p.m. if due to work related reasons a parent is unable to start time-sharing after school recesses and shall conclude the following morning when the child is either returned to school or by 9:00 a.m. to the other parent's residence, or daycare (if applicable). If the child is not of school age, that child can be picked up as early as noon, if a parents schedule permits for exercising birthday visitation. If the birthday celebration falls on a weekend, it will be from 8:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m. When appropriate, the parent holding a birthday celebration for the child may wish to consider inviting the other parent to the child's celebration. If the parties have more than one (1) child, the above time-sharing applies to all children of the parties.

Dear Santa Rosa County Clerk,

The police were called once to our home in Milton, FL in early 2017 and I was not able to return to the house afterward (my spouse ejected me from the house without any items while the police were there). I have been struggling since that time to get back on my feet. I rented an apartment in Pensacola for 3 months but I was too afraid to be so close to him after he threatened my life.

Since my husband managed all the money during our relationship and I was not allowed to do so, I have no visibility into any assets including the house he lives in, which I bought with my Veteran's Affairs loan. It is the only house I have ever had.

I believe he has delayed this divorce intentionally, and has lied to me repeatedly to keep me from contesting it.

I have spent most of my money doing what I can as much as possible for our 5 year old daughter [REDACTED] I have flown back and forth to Pensacola to pick her up from out of state, and am the person who buys all her clothes. I have serious ongoing concerns about her health and welfare and I don't know how to resolve them.

She did not have any clothing that fit her, her teeth don't look cared for even though I have mailed her toothpaste, toothbrush, etc. and he says she is going to the dentist (she say she has not been to the dentist). She did not know how to wash her body, care for her private parts, dress herself (I am working on all these things), and is delayed in many ways compared to other five year olds. He does not consult with me or allow me any decision making for her care.

My ex husband insists that he be the sole caretaker for my daughter and only lets me see her for short times. He is out of town for 2 weeks of every month and he leaves her with his parents, who also do not communicate with me.

She is currently with me in my apartment in California since July 2. I am returning her to the airport in Pensacola on August 2. I am so worried about her.

I gave a sizeable amount of money to a divorce lawyer (Antonio Pagan) in Miami, FL in January 2019 who has failed to do anything at all with my case, and he will no longer respond to me, and I am not sure what to do about this. I consulted a second lawyer who is in Pensacola over the phone and they told me nothing has been done with my case whatsoever.

I have a fiancé who has stepped up 100% since June 2017 and we have a 2-month old baby together. This baby was born in FL during this marriage. My fiancé signed the birth certificate.

I am afraid to write this and for my husband to see it. I don't know what he'll do.

2. JURISDICTION

The United States is the country of habitual residence of the child(ren).

The State of Florida maintains the most significant contacts with the child(ren) and is the most appropriate forum for addressing parenting contact.

The State of Florida is the child(ren)'s home state for purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

This Parenting Plan is a child custody determination for the purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the International Child Abduction Remedies Act, 42 U.S.C. § 11601 et seq., the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, and the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction enacted at the Hague on October 25, 1980.

Venue is proper in the county of: Santa Rosa

3. PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY:

Each parent has been given shared parental responsibility. This means:

1. Both parents shall communicate so that major decisions that affect the child(ren) shall be made in consultation with each other. Said decisions include, but are not limited to, education, discipline, religion, medical, and the general parenting of the child(ren).
2. Each parent shall diligently remember to encourage and promote, between the other parent and child(ren), good relations, love and affection, spending time with and giving attention to the other parent when that parent has the child(ren). Neither parent shall obstruct, impede or interfere with the other parent's right to associate with and enjoy the company of the minor child(ren), unless there is a court order that prohibits such contact by the other parent.
3. Each parent shall have access to records and information about the minor child(ren) including, but not limited to, medical, dental and school records. Each parent, where possible shall independently obtain this information. When this information is not readily available to the other parent, each parent is encouraged to obtain and share this information with the other parent. If there is a cost of obtaining information for the other parent, that parent must pay the cost to the other parent before that parent has a duty to obtain the information. Should a parent have concerns regarding the academic, social, or emotional development of the child(ren), that parent has an obligation to contact the appropriate school, doctor, or other individual regarding same. A parent cannot rely totally upon the other parent to supply all of the information which he/she deems necessary regarding the care and development of the children. Neither parent shall in any way obstruct or hinder the other parent's right and ability to seek and obtain information pertaining to the child(ren) (unless otherwise permitted by Court order).

4. Medical Condition: Each parent has the right to know of any significant illness of a child or significant injury sustained by such child(ren). "Significant" is hereby defined as any such condition which would require a child to miss school or to be taken to a health care provider. Each party shall notify the other promptly of any significant illness or injury affecting the minor child(ren).
5. Unless otherwise provided by a court order, the parent enrolling the child(ren) in school shall list both parents on the student registration card(s) or other document(s) required by the school to allow either parent to pick the child(ren) up from school or check the child(ren) out of school. Absent an emergency or the consent of the other parent, a parent should pick up or check out the child(ren) only on days assigned to that parent under the parties' time sharing schedule.
6. Neither parent shall in the presence of or around the child(ren) make any disparaging remarks about the other parent or call the other parent by an obnoxious or offensive name, use slang or curse words when referring to the other parent, or ask the child(ren) about the other parent's private life. Any feelings of ill will, dislike, hatred, lack of respect, or anger held by one parent against the other or held by both parents, shall not be exhibited in the presence of or around the child(ren). The relationship between the parents shall be as respectful and courteous as possible, when dealing with matters relating to the child(ren).
7. Each parent has a duty to communicate directly with the child(ren) concerning his or her relationship with the child(ren) to the extent warranted by the child(ren)'s age and maturity. Neither parent can expect the other parent to act as a "go between" or "buffer" between the other parent and the child(ren). For example, if time-sharing is missed or changed by a parent and the child(ren) asks why, that parent should discuss this with the child(ren).
8. Both parents shall be entitled to participate in and attend activities in which the child(ren) is/are involved, such as religious activities, school programs, lunch with the child(ren) at school, sports events and other activities and important school and social events in which the child(ren) participate(s). A school's policy may supersede a parent's right to attend certain activities. Each parent has the duty to independently obtain knowledge of and information about these events. If information is exclusively or uniquely known to one parent, then that parent has the duty to timely inform the other parent, within a reasonable period of time before the event.

9. The child(ren)'s legal surname (last name) shall not be changed except by court order. The child(ren) shall be referred to by the child(ren)'s legal surname in all proceedings (including but not limited to: school, medical, religious, day care records, etc.) and occasions (including but not limited to social events, religious events, school activities, family gatherings, at home, work or play). While legal stepparents often participate significantly in the life of the child(ren) and bonds of love and affection are formed, enjoyed and encouraged, each parent must remember that the stepparent is NOT to overshadow or displace the role of the other parent in the child(ren)'s life. While it is acceptable for the child(ren) to use a respectful name commonly associated with the role of a parent when talking to or about the stepparent, that name shall not replace the name of "Mother" or "Father" (or common derivative, e.g. mom, dad) used by the child(ren) to refer to the child(ren)'s parents.
10. The parties shall follow these general rules of safety conduct, including, but not limited to the following: (1) Neither parent nor anyone entrusted to care for the child(ren) shall knowingly or willingly expose the child(ren) to any illegal activity; (2) Neither parent nor anyone entrusted to care for the minor child(ren) shall knowingly or willingly expose the child(ren) to any harmful situation, such as riding in a motor vehicle without a safety belt or an age/weight appropriate child safety device, riding a bicycle without a helmet, etc.
11. Each party has a right to confer with the other pertaining to all major decisions affecting the welfare of their child(ren) (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order, entered after the Court order incorporating this schedule, for example: Domestic Violence Restraining Order). Both parents shall confer so that the advantages and disadvantages of all major decisions affecting the welfare of the child(ren) will be determined jointly. Such major decisions may include, but are not limited to, the education, medical and dental care, religious training, and discipline of the minor child(ren). For example, this duty would include an obligation to discuss a decision to remove a child from public school in order to enroll a child in private school, it may include allowing a child to participate in a school related activity, e.g., field trip. It would not include a decision to have a child's hair trimmed.

Parents are cautioned that if they cannot agree on an issue involving the minor child(ren), that the Court can take a parent's lack of cooperation or unreasonableness into consideration when formulating or modifying a

Parenting Plan in the minor child(ren)'s best interests.

This Shared Parental Responsibility Statement is a general order of court. Some cases contain Court orders that are unique and specific to that case. If in your case there is a court order that directly or indirectly conflicts with any provision of this Statement, you MUST obey that court order unless or until the court expressly instructs you to do otherwise.

Parental Disagreement/Conflict Resolution

The parents shall attempt to resolve the issues between the parents outside the presence of the child(ren).

In the event of a disagreement on decision-making between the parents:

The parents shall submit the issue to mediation. However, if a parent refuses to attend mediation or is unable to pay for mediation, the matter may be filed with the court.

These provisions are not applicable if immediate court action is required to protect the child(ren) in an emergency situation.

Attorney's Fees and Court Costs: In the event a contempt hearing is held and one parent has been found in contempt for violation of this Parenting Plan, then the parent found in contempt may be subject to appropriate sanctions, which may include (but are not limited to) payment of the other party's attorney's fees and costs.

4. ACADEMIC/EDUCATION DECISIONS

The child shall attend: The school in the district in which the Father resides.

5. MEDICAL/HEALTH DECISIONS

Parents shall discuss all medical, psychological, counseling, therapeutic, optical, orthodontic, dental or other health related care and needs of the child(ren).

In the event of serious illness, accident or hospitalization affecting the health of the child(ren), the parent with the knowledge of such event shall immediately notify the other parent.

A parent scheduling a routine appointment for the child(ren) shall give the other parent advance notice of the appointment to allow the other parent to attend.

A parent requesting a change of schedule shall be responsible for any additional child care or transportation costs resulting from the change.
- If one parent must pay for an unplanned expense of the child(ren) when it is the responsibility of the other parent to do so, the parent initially responsible shall reimburse the other parent for these costs within ten (10) days of payment.

All parents shall keep contact information current and each shall notify the other in writing of any changes. Each parent shall maintain a working telephone.

Each parent shall have the right to contact the child(ren) by telephone at the reside or location of the other parent with reasonable frequency, or other electronic communication (including but not limited to Skype and FaceTime), during reasonable hours, and for reasonable duration (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order). Unless an emergency arises, "reasonable frequency" is defined as once per day. "Reasonable hours" is defined as 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m. (child(ren)'s local time). "Reasonable duration" is hereby defined as no more than one-half (1/2) hour per call. Each parent has a duty to promptly return telephone calls placed by the other and to see that the child(ren) do the same. The child(ren) shall be allowed to initiate telephone calls, during any period of parenting time. ## 10. DAYCARE/AFTER SCHOOL CARE PROVIDERS

Daycare and after school care providers shall be selected by the parent exercising his/her time-sharing.

11. MODIFICATIONS TO THIS PARENTING PLAN AND TIME-SHARING SCHEDULE

Flexibility: Each parent is encouraged to mutually agree to change his/her schedule to suit the needs of the child(ren) first and themselves second. The parents may, by mutual agreement, change the terms of this Parenting Plan or time-sharing schedule on a per activity basis. For example, switching weekends due to a relative's wedding. If the parents wish to make permanent changes, which are enforceable by the Court, this should be accomplished as set forth below.

Adjustment of Parenting Plan and Time-Sharing Schedule: The parties are permitted to mutually adjust this Parenting Plan and Time-Sharing Schedule either temporarily or permanently. It is strongly recommended that the parties reduce any adjustments to this schedule to writing and signed by both parties. The parties may also reach an unwritten agreement, but if the Court, in its discretion, chooses to recognize their adjusted agreement (written or oral) it may choose to only adopt and incorporate into a Court order an agreement that has been reduced to writing, signed by both parties and notarized. Additionally, the Court does not have the authority to enforce, by contempt or otherwise, an agreement of the parties until after the agreement has been approved by the Court and incorporated into a Court order. When the parents do not agree in writing to change the terms of this Parenting Plan or time-sharing schedule, this Parenting Plan and time-sharing schedule remains in effect.

12. TRANSPORTATION REQUIREMENTS

All necessary information will be sent with the child(ren) including:

- o Medicine and dosage in its original packaging
- o Homework assignments, school projects and directions
- o Social activities with equipment
- o Appointments
- o Sleep / meal schedules

During all transportation exchanges, parental communication shall be limited to issues required for the child(ren) and neither parent shall display anger, sarcasm or profanity in the presence of the child (ren).

Required child(ren)'s belongings will be provided to the other parent by the transporting parent. Child(ren) will not be required to take overnight bags or personal belongings to the school.

All transportation will be provided by the Mother.

13. TIME SHARING PLAN

Spring Break: The Mother shall have the time-sharing with the child for Spring Break during even-numbered years and the Father during odd-numbered years. Spring Break time-sharing shall commence from the time school recesses, or one (1) hour after school recesses (the one [1] hour does not apply if both parents supply all clothing, accessories, etc.) or it starts otherwise at or before 6:00 p.m., if a parent is unable to start time-sharing after school recesses. This vacation period shall end at 6:00 p.m. the day before school reconvenes.

Summer Break: The Mother will have time-sharing with the child during summer break beginning at 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses for summer break and will continue until one week before school reconvenes for the new school year. However, the Father shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted time-sharing with the child during the first or last two (2) weeks of the Mother's portion of summer break by providing the Mother with an advance thirty (30) day written notice.

Christmas Break: The Mother will have time-sharing with the child beginning December 27th each year continuing until 6:00p.m. the day before school reconvenes.

A. Waiting: The child(ren) and a parent shall have no duty to await the arrival of the other parent for more than thirty (30) minutes. If the child(ren) is/are not picked up by a parent within that time, then time-sharing shall be forfeited for that period, unless the parent's delay is excused by illness, extended work hours, or a physical impossibility to arrive on time, or a telephone call explaining the reason for the delay before the thirty (30) minutes have elapsed.

B. Cancellation by a parent: Forty-eight (48) hours notice shall be given by one parent to the other parent if time-sharing will not be exercised for any scheduled time-sharing. Otherwise, the parent who will be exercising his/her time-sharing is expected to pick up the child at the appointed time. Any time-sharing that is canceled without forty-eight (48) hours notice by a parent shall be forfeited unless the lack of time-sharing is caused by illness, extended work hours, or a physical impossibility to pick up the child(ren). In that event, and if make-up time-sharing is requested, it shall be in accordance with Paragraph C below.

In the event a child is ill and unable to safely leave the home, the parent who has the child in his/her care shall give the other parent twenty-four (24) hours notice, if possible, in order that appropriate alternate plans can be made in accordance with Paragraph C below. If medication has been prescribed for a child, then that medicine shall accompany the child, and shall be given as prescribed. The doctor's name and phone number shall be shared. In the event an accident or illness occurs while in the care of either parent, that parent shall notify the other parent as soon as practical.

C. Make-up Time-Sharing: If weekend time-sharing is missed, it shall be made up on an "alternate weekend" (presumably the weekend immediately following the missed time-sharing period). The regular time-sharing shall then recommence the following weekend. Summer, spring break, fall break, and Christmas make-up days shall be added to the time-sharing schedule the following summer, spring break, fall break, or Christmas. Make-up time-sharing for weekday parenting shall be made up the next day, or otherwise is forfeited unless the parties otherwise agree.

D. Trip Itinerary: Each parent has the right to know the whereabouts of the child(ren) when time-sharing will be exercised in a different locale other than the home. Should either parent have the child(ren) away from their normal residence for a period of more than 24 hours (e.g., for a trip or vacation) then prior to exercising that time-sharing, such parent shall provide the other with an itinerary of where the child(ren) will be staying providing addresses, telephone numbers of each location, the length of the stay, the name of all persons who may provide care for the child(ren) during the stay, the departure date, and the date of return/arrival. In case of an emergency involving the child(ren) and in the best interest of the child(ren), each parent is encouraged to communicate with the other(unless prohibited by Court order) when he or she will be traveling away from home for less than 24 hours. Each parent should provide the other parent with telephone number(s), pager, voice mail, or contact information for a third party so that the parent may contact the other parent if there is an emergency involving the child(ren).

If either parent plans to travel outside of the United States with the minor child shall provide the other party with an advance thirty (30) day written notice so that the other parent may object.

E. Scheduled Events: In the event the child has an extracurricular activity or social event, e.g., softball game, ballet, Scout meeting, then both parents are required to assure the child's attendance, provided the parents have agreed in writing that the child will participate in these activities, and the child is not otherwise ill or unable to attend due to extraordinary circumstances.

Both parents have the right to be informed as to the schedule of such activities in which the child(ren) are involved and both shall be entitled to attend such activities (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order). Both parents shall make good faith efforts to get the child(ren) to such activities on time and in appropriate attire. If not attending such activity, the parent who drops the child off for such activity has the duty to ensure that the child(ren) is/are picked up from such activity

F. Adequate Clean Clothing for the Time-Sharing: Clean and appropriate (correct size, seasonally correct, etc.) clothing shall be supplied by each parent during his/her time-sharing and all clothes belonging to the other parent shall be returned to that parent in the same condition.

G. Grandparents: Grandparents usually have a desire to maintain a relationship and contact with their grandchildren. Likewise, grandchildren benefit from maintaining a strong and loving relationship with their grandparents. The parents are strongly encouraged to share time with the paternal and maternal grandparents.

H. Child Support: Non-payment or late payment of child support is not a legal or acceptable reason to deviate from or refuse to follow this time-sharing schedule. Conversely, denial of time-sharing will not legally justify non-payment or late payment of child support. Denial of time-sharing may subject the denying parent to sanctions (punishment) by the Court.

JTS

14. Relocation of a Parent: When a parent intends to relocate more than fifty (50) miles away from his or her principal residence at the time the last Court order addressing residential issues was entered, that parent must follow the provisions of Florida Statute §61.13001. This statute also has provisions for an agreement by the parties and approval by the Court. This statute does not apply if the intended move will place the new residence less than fifty (50) miles from the other parent.

2. JURISDICTION

The United States is the country of habitual residence of the child(ren).

The State of Florida maintains the most significant contacts with the child(ren) and is the most appropriate forum for addressing parenting contact.

The State of Florida is the child(ren)'s home state for purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

This Parenting Plan is a child custody determination for the purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the International Child Abduction Remedies Act, 42 U.S.C. § 11601 et seq., the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, and the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction enacted at the Hague on October 25, 1980.

Venue is proper in the county of: Santa Rosa

3. PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY:

Each parent has been given shared parental responsibility. This means:

1. Both parents shall communicate so that major decisions that affect the child(ren) shall be made in consultation with each other. Said decisions include, but are not limited to, education, discipline, religion, medical, and the general parenting of the child(ren).
2. Each parent shall diligently remember to encourage and promote, between the other parent and child(ren), good relations, love and affection, spending time with and giving attention to the other parent when that parent has the child(ren). Neither parent shall obstruct, impede or interfere with the other parent's right to associate with and enjoy the company of the minor child(ren), unless there is a court order that prohibits such contact by the other parent.
3. Each parent shall have access to records and information about the minor child(ren) including, but not limited to, medical, dental and school records. Each parent, where possible shall independently obtain this information. When this information is not readily available to the other parent, each parent is encouraged to obtain and share this information with the other parent. If there is a cost of obtaining information for the other parent, that parent must pay the cost to the other parent before that parent has a duty to obtain the information. Should a parent have concerns regarding the academic, social, or emotional development of the child(ren), that parent has an obligation to contact the appropriate school, doctor, or other individual regarding same. A parent cannot rely totally upon the other parent to supply all of the information which he/she deems necessary regarding the care and development of the children. Neither parent shall in any way obstruct or hinder the other parent's right and ability to seek and obtain information pertaining to the child(ren) (unless otherwise permitted by Court order).

4. Medical Condition: Each parent has the right to know of any significant illness of a child or significant injury sustained by such child(ren). "Significant" is hereby defined as any such condition which would require a child to miss school or to be taken to a health care provider. Each party shall notify the other promptly of any significant illness or injury affecting the minor child(ren).
5. Unless otherwise provided by a court order, the parent enrolling the child(ren) in school shall list both parents on the student registration card(s) or other document(s) required by the school to allow either parent to pick the child(ren) up from school or check the child(ren) out of school. Absent an emergency or the consent of the other parent, a parent should pick up or check out the child(ren) only on days assigned to that parent under the parties' time sharing schedule.
6. Neither parent shall in the presence of or around the child(ren) make any disparaging remarks about the other parent or call the other parent by an obnoxious or offensive name, use slang or curse words when referring to the other parent, or ask the child(ren) about the other parent's private life. Any feelings of ill will, dislike, hatred, lack of respect, or anger held by one parent against the other or held by both parents, shall not be exhibited in the presence of or around the child(ren). The relationship between the parents shall be as respectful and courteous as possible, when dealing with matters relating to the child(ren).
7. Each parent has a duty to communicate directly with the child(ren) concerning his or her relationship with the child(ren) to the extent warranted by the child(ren)'s age and maturity. Neither parent can expect the other parent to act as a "go between" or "buffer" between the other parent and the child(ren). For example, if time-sharing is missed or changed by a parent and the child(ren) asks why, that parent should discuss this with the child(ren).
8. Both parents shall be entitled to participate in and attend activities in which the child(ren) is/are involved, such as religious activities, school programs, lunch with the child(ren) at school, sports events and other activities and important school and social events in which the child(ren) participate(s). A school's policy may supersede a parent's right to attend certain activities. Each parent has the duty to independently obtain knowledge of and information about these events. If information is exclusively or uniquely known to one parent, then that parent has the duty to timely inform the other parent, within a reasonable period of time before the event.

9. The child(ren)'s legal surname (last name) shall not be changed except by court order. The child(ren) shall be referred to by the child(ren)'s legal surname in all proceedings (including but not limited to: school, medical, religious, day care records, etc.) and occasions (including but not limited to social events, religious events, school activities, family gatherings, at home, work or play). While legal stepparents often participate significantly in the life of the child(ren) and bonds of love and affection are formed, enjoyed and encouraged, each parent must remember that the stepparent is NOT to overshadow or displace the role of the other parent in the child(ren)'s life. While it is acceptable for the child(ren) to use a respectful name commonly associated with the role of a parent when talking to or about the stepparent, that name shall not replace the name of "Mother" or "Father" (or common derivative, e.g. mom, dad) used by the child(ren) to refer to the child(ren)'s parents.
10. The parties shall follow these general rules of safety conduct, including, but not limited to the following: (1) Neither parent nor anyone entrusted to care for the child(ren) shall knowingly or willingly expose the child(ren) to any illegal activity; (2) Neither parent nor anyone entrusted to care for the minor child(ren) shall knowingly or willingly expose the child(ren) to any harmful situation, such as riding in a motor vehicle without a safety belt or an age/weight appropriate child safety device, riding a bicycle without a helmet, etc.
11. Each party has a right to confer with the other pertaining to all major decisions affecting the welfare of their child(ren) (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order, entered after the Court order incorporating this schedule, for example: Domestic Violence Restraining Order). Both parents shall confer so that the advantages and disadvantages of all major decisions affecting the welfare of the child(ren) will be determined jointly. Such major decisions may include, but are not limited to, the education, medical and dental care, religious training, and discipline of the minor child(ren). For example, this duty would include an obligation to discuss a decision to remove a child from public school in order to enroll a child in private school, it may include allowing a child to participate in a school related activity, e.g., field trip. It would not include a decision to have a child's hair trimmed.

Parents are cautioned that if they cannot agree on an issue involving the minor child(ren), that the Court can take a parent's lack of cooperation or unreasonableness into consideration when formulating or modifying a

Parenting Plan in the minor child(ren)'s best interests.

This Shared Parental Responsibility Statement is a general order of court. Some cases contain Court orders that are unique and specific to that case. If in your case there is a court order that directly or indirectly conflicts with any provision of this Statement, you MUST obey that court order unless or until the court expressly instructs you to do otherwise.

Parental Disagreement/Conflict Resolution

The parents shall attempt to resolve the issues between the parents outside the presence of the child(ren).

In the event of a disagreement on decision-making between the parents:

The parents shall submit the issue to mediation. However, if a parent refuses to attend mediation or is unable to pay for mediation, the matter may be filed with the court.

These provisions are not applicable if immediate court action is required to protect the child(ren) in an emergency situation.

Attorney's Fees and Court Costs: In the event a contempt hearing is held and one parent has been found in contempt for violation of this Parenting Plan, then the parent found in contempt may be subject to appropriate sanctions, which may include (but are not limited to) payment of the other party's attorney's fees and costs.

4. ACADEMIC/EDUCATION DECISIONS

The child shall attend: The school in the district in which the Father resides.

5. MEDICAL/HEALTH DECISIONS

Parents shall discuss all medical, psychological, counseling, therapeutic, optical, orthodontic, dental or other health related care and needs of the child(ren).

In the event of serious illness, accident or hospitalization affecting the health of the child(ren), the parent with the knowledge of such event shall immediately notify the other parent.

A parent scheduling a routine appointment for the child(ren) shall give the other parent advance notice of the appointment to allow the other parent to attend.

A parent requesting a change of schedule shall be responsible for any additional child care or transportation costs resulting from the change.
- If one parent must pay for an unplanned expense of the child(ren) when it is the responsibility of the other parent to do so, the parent initially responsible shall reimburse the other parent for these costs within ten (10) days of payment.

All parents shall keep contact information current and each shall notify the other in writing of any changes. Each parent shall maintain a working telephone.

Each parent shall have the right to contact the child(ren) by telephone at the reside or location of the other parent with reasonable frequency, or other electronic communication (including but not limited to Skype and FaceTime), during reasonable hours, and for reasonable duration (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order). Unless an emergency arises, "reasonable frequency" is defined as once per day. "Reasonable hours" is defined as 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m. (child(ren)'s local time). "Reasonable duration" is hereby defined as no more than one-half (1/2) hour per call. Each parent has a duty to promptly return telephone calls placed by the other and to see that the child(ren) do the same. ## 10. DAYCARE/AFTER SCHOOL CARE PROVIDERS

Daycare and after school care providers shall be selected by the parent exercising his/her time-sharing.

11. MODIFICATIONS TO THIS PARENTING PLAN AND TIME-SHARING SCHEDULE

Flexibility: Each parent is encouraged to mutually agree to change his/her schedule to suit the needs of the child(ren) first and themselves second. The parents may, by mutual agreement, change the terms of this Parenting Plan or time-sharing schedule on a per activity basis. For example, switching weekends due to a relative's wedding. If the parents wish to make permanent changes, which are enforceable by the Court, this should be accomplished as set forth below.

Adjustment of Parenting Plan and Time-Sharing Schedule: The parties are permitted to mutually adjust this Parenting Plan and Time-Sharing Schedule either temporarily or permanently. It is strongly recommended that the parties reduce any adjustments to this schedule to writing and signed by both parties. The parties may also reach an unwritten agreement, but if the Court, in its discretion, chooses to recognize their adjusted agreement (written or oral) it may choose to only adopt and incorporate into a Court order an agreement that has been reduced to writing, signed by both parties and notarized. Additionally, the Court does not have the authority to enforce, by contempt or otherwise, an agreement of the parties until after the agreement has been approved by the Court and incorporated into a Court order. When the parents do not agree in writing to change the terms of this Parenting Plan or time-sharing schedule, this Parenting Plan and time-sharing schedule remains in effect.

12. TRANSPORTATION REQUIREMENTS

All necessary information will be sent with the child(ren) including:

- o Medicine and dosage in its original packaging
- o Homework assignments, school projects and directions
- o Social activities with equipment
- o Appointments
- o Sleep / meal schedules

During all transportation exchanges, parental communication shall be limited to issues required for the child(ren) and neither parent shall display anger, sarcasm or profanity in the presence of the child (ren).

Required child(ren)'s belongings will be provided to the other parent by the transporting parent. Child(ren) will not be required to take overnight bags or personal belongings to the school.

All transportation will be provided by the Mother.

13. TIME SHARING PLAN

Spring Break: The Mother shall have the time-sharing with the child for Spring Break during even-numbered years and the Father during odd-numbered years. Spring Break time-sharing shall commence from the time school recesses, or one (1) hour after school recesses (the one [1] hour does not apply if both parents supply all clothing, accessories, etc.) or it starts otherwise at or before 6:00 p.m., if a parent is unable to start time-sharing after school recesses. This vacation period shall end at 6:00 p.m. the day before school reconvenes.

Summer Break: The Mother will have time-sharing with the child during summer break beginning at 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses for summer break and will continue until one week before school reconvenes for the new school year. However, the Father shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted time-sharing with the child during the first or last two (2) weeks of the Mother's portion of summer break by providing the Mother with an advance thirty (30) day written notice.

Christmas Break: The Mother will have time-sharing with the child beginning December 27th each year continuing until 6:00p.m. the day before school reconvenes.

A. Waiting: The child(ren) and a parent shall have no duty to await the arrival of the other parent for more than thirty (30) minutes. If the child(ren) is/are not picked up by a parent within that time, then time-sharing shall be forfeited for that period, unless the parent's delay is excused by illness, extended work hours, or a physical impossibility to arrive on time, or a telephone call explaining the reason for the delay before the thirty (30) minutes have elapsed.

B. Cancellation by a parent: Forty-eight (48) hours notice shall be given by one parent to the other parent if time-sharing will not be exercised for any scheduled time-sharing. Otherwise, the parent who will be exercising his/her time-sharing is expected to pick up the child at the appointed time. Any time-sharing that is canceled without forty-eight (48) hours notice by a parent shall be forfeited unless the lack of time-sharing is caused by illness, extended work hours, or a physical impossibility to pick up the child(ren). In that event, and if make-up time-sharing is requested, it shall be in accordance with Paragraph C below.

In the event a child is ill and unable to safely leave the home, the parent who has the child in his/her care shall give the other parent twenty-four (24) hours notice, if possible, in order that appropriate alternate plans can be made in accordance with Paragraph C below. If medication has been prescribed for a child, then that medicine shall accompany the child, and shall be given as prescribed. The doctor's name and phone number shall be shared. In the event an accident or illness occurs while in the care of either parent, that parent shall notify the other parent as soon as practical.

C. Make-up Time-Sharing: If weekend time-sharing is missed, it shall be made up on an "alternate weekend" (presumably the weekend immediately following the missed time-sharing period). The regular time-sharing shall then recommence the following weekend. Summer, spring break, fall break, and Christmas make-up days shall be added to the time-sharing schedule the following summer, spring break, fall break, or Christmas. Make-up time-sharing for weekday parenting shall be made up the next day, or otherwise is forfeited unless the parties otherwise agree.

D. Trip Itinerary: Each parent has the right to know the whereabouts of the child(ren) when time-sharing will be exercised in a different locale other than the home. Should either parent have the child(ren) away from their normal residence for a period of more than 24 hours (e.g., for a trip or vacation) then prior to exercising that time-sharing, such parent shall provide the other with an itinerary of where the child(ren) will be staying providing addresses, telephone numbers of each location, the length of the stay, the name of all persons who may provide care for the child(ren) during the stay, the departure date, and the date of return/arrival. In case of an emergency involving the child(ren) and in the best interest of the child(ren), each parent is encouraged to communicate with the other(unless prohibited by Court order) when he or she will be traveling away from home for less than 24 hours. Each parent should provide the other parent with telephone number(s), pager, voice mail, or contact information for a third party so that the parent may contact the other parent if there is an emergency involving the child(ren).

If either parent plans to travel outside of the United States with the minor child shall provide the other party with an advance thirty (30) day written notice so that the other parent may object.

E. Scheduled Events: In the event the child has an extracurricular activity or social event, e.g., softball game, ballet, Scout meeting, then both parents are required to assure the child's attendance, provided the parents have agreed in writing that the child will participate in these activities, and the child is not otherwise ill or unable to attend due to extraordinary circumstances.

Both parents have the right to be informed as to the schedule of such activities in which the child(ren) are involved and both shall be entitled to attend such activities (unless otherwise prohibited by Court order). Both parents shall make good faith efforts to get the child(ren) to such activities on time and in appropriate attire. If not attending such activity, the parent who drops the child off for such activity has the duty to ensure that the child(ren) is/are picked up from such activity

F. Adequate Clean Clothing for the Time-Sharing: Clean and appropriate (correct size, seasonally correct, etc.) clothing shall be supplied by each parent during his/her time-sharing and all clothes belonging to the other parent shall be returned to that parent in the same condition.

G. Grandparents: Grandparents usually have a desire to maintain a relationship and contact with their grandchildren. Likewise, grandchildren benefit from maintaining a strong and loving relationship with their grandparents. The parents are strongly encouraged to share time with the paternal and maternal grandparents.

H. Child Support: Non-payment or late payment of child support is not a legal or acceptable reason to deviate from or refuse to follow this time-sharing schedule. Conversely, denial of time-sharing will not legally justify non-payment or late payment of child support. Denial of time-sharing may subject the denying parent to sanctions (punishment) by the Court.

14. Relocation of a Parent: When a parent intends to relocate more than fifty (50) miles away from his or her principal residence at the time the last Court order addressing residential issues was entered, that parent must follow the provisions of Florida Statute §61.13001. This statute also has provisions for an agreement by the parties and approval by the Court. This statute does not apply if the intended move will place the new residence less than fifty (50) miles from the other parent.
