MANIPULATION

Mereio is well known for doing things such as lying, victimizing himself, spreading false information, etc.

Here are the things that he has done that have to do with manipulation.

He allowed his members to spread false information about me such as my race, my age, and what I do in my free time.

He claims that I'm white in order to make it look as if I'm a bad person for saying the n word yet he has no clear evidence to prove that I'm white but because of this his members continue to say that I'm white despite there being videos of me on my channel that show that I'm NOT WHITE. I even sent a video to his server and in that video I was showing off my arm yet they continue to say that I'm white and one of them even said that I'm whiter than them.

His members claimed that I'm a grown adult in order to make me look like some sorta weirdo that lies about his age to get closer to minors or something like that but once again, they have no evidence that clearly prove that I'm not 14, one of his (now former) moderators even claim that I'm a cyber terrorist that gets minors to spam cp in other servers. He also said that I'm sexist and homophobic.

@Jerma whats one of them

mereo 05/30/2024 12:18 PM

The crazy part is he is a minor and I set my videos to not be shown to minors but this fag keeps on watching them

These ss were taken from a server called "the oven", which is a server that I will get into later on

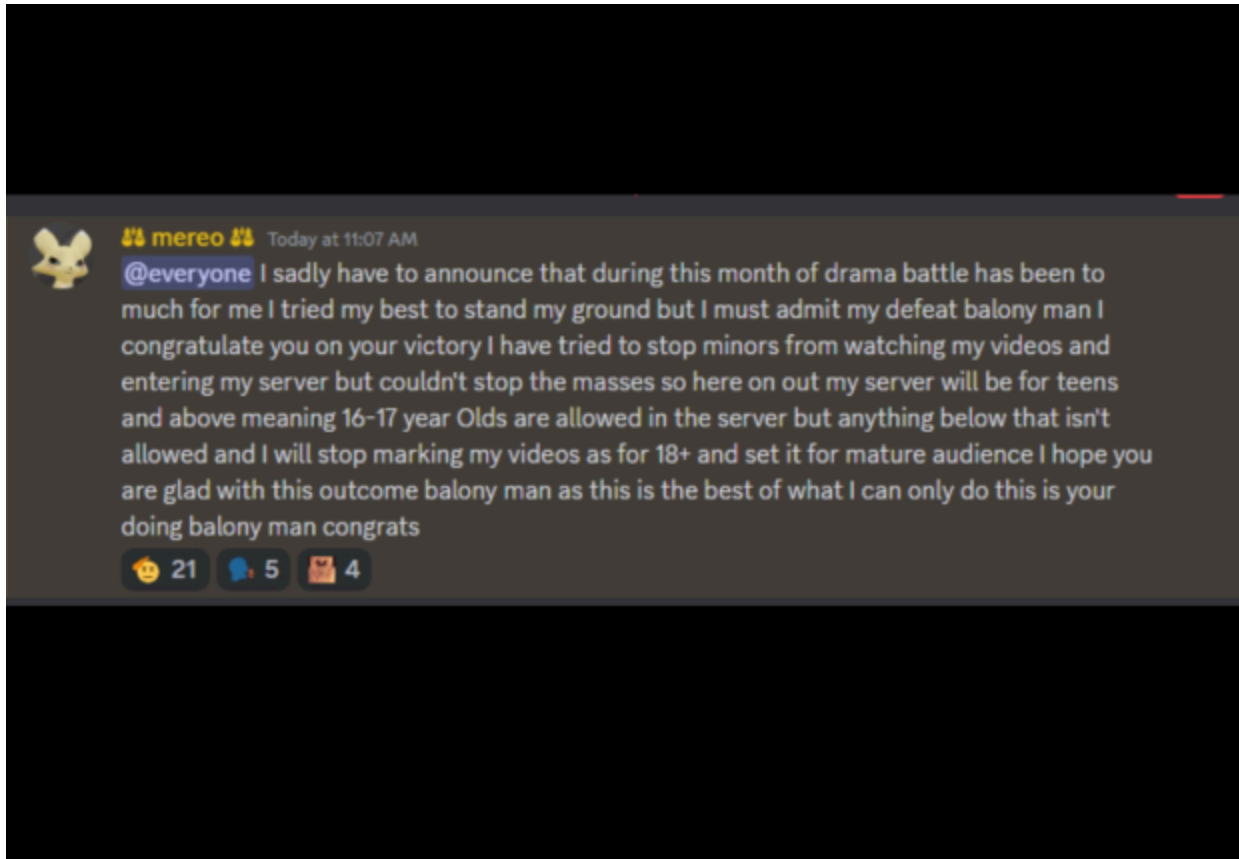

This can also apply to that.

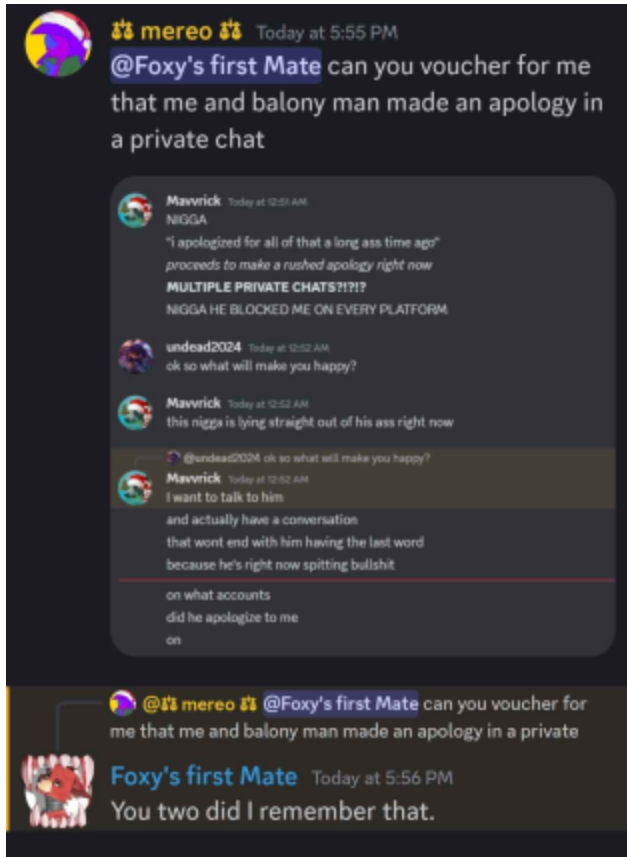

Mereo says that he has apologized to me on four different occasions yet he has only apologized to me ONCE in a gc when the first drama ended.

Also its funny that he allows people to spread rumors about me that could get me investigated and yet this is his apology XD (FFS HE PUT MORE EFFORT INTO ANNOUNCING TO HIS SERVER THAT HE WAS SURRENDERING TO ME OMFG)

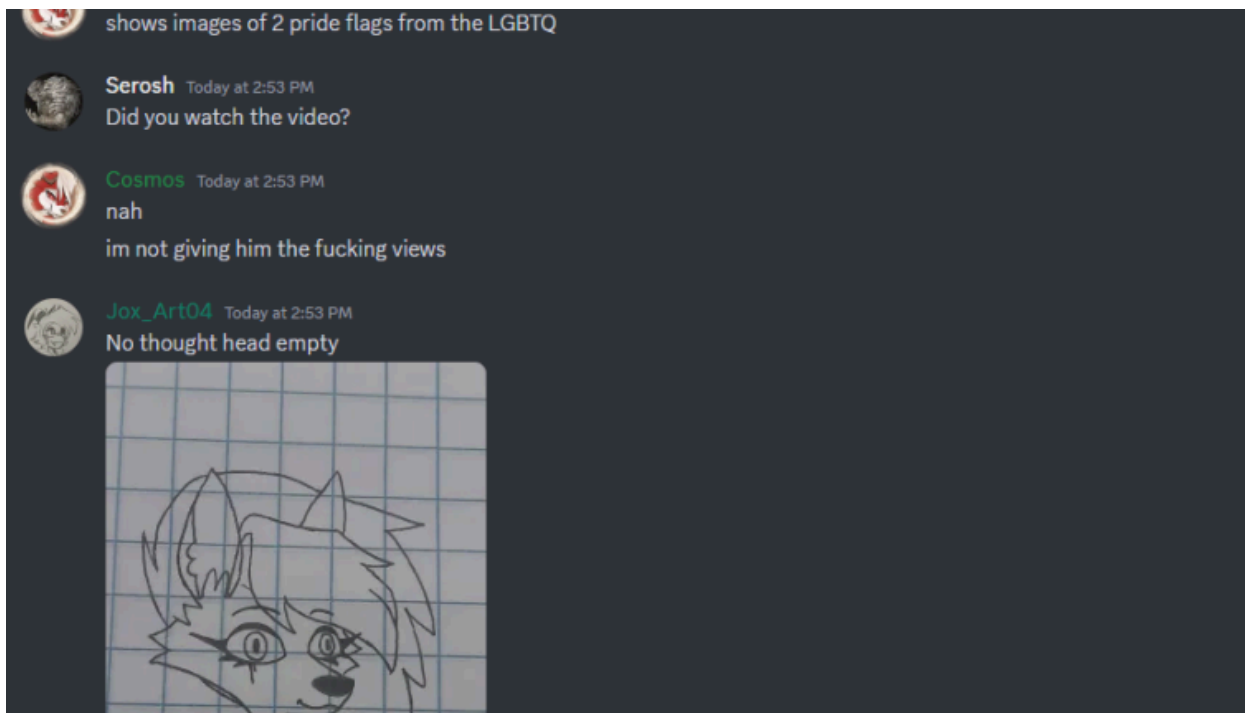

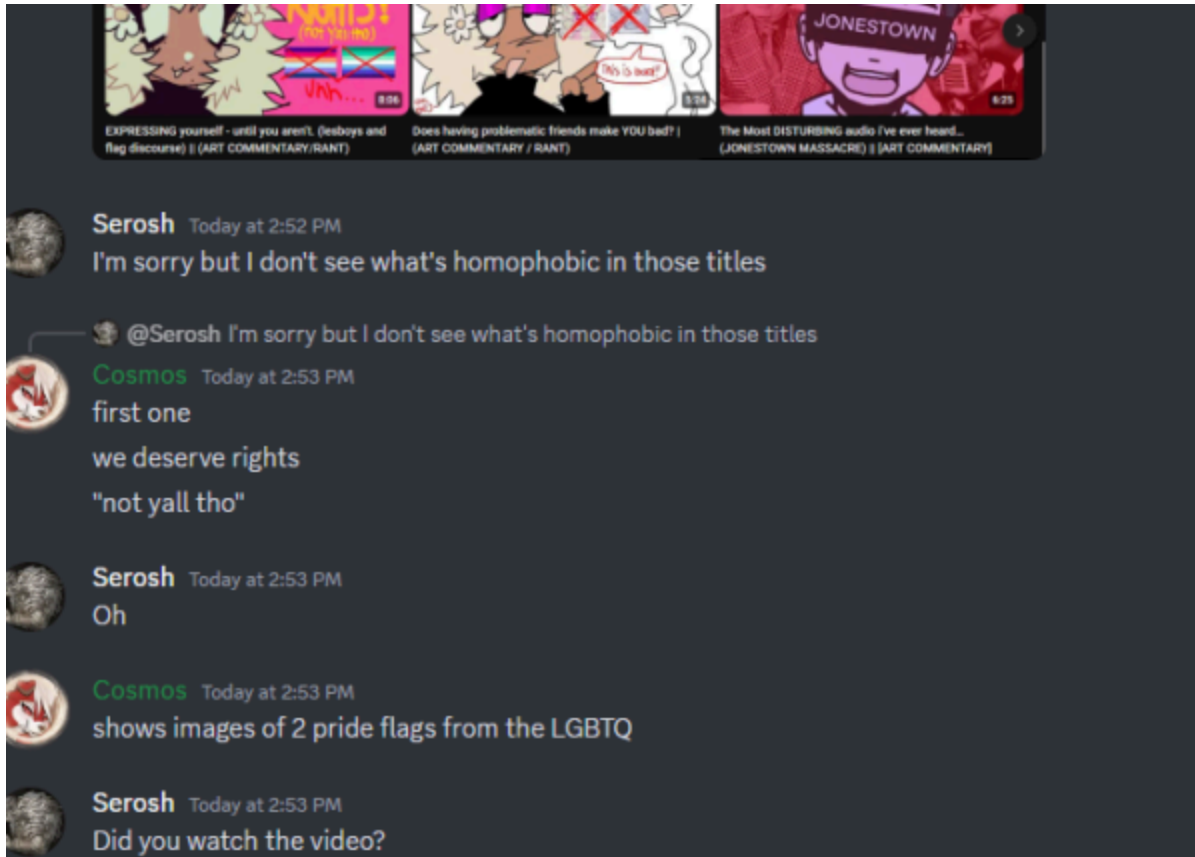

And as you can see here he asks for a voucher that he apologized to me before but...

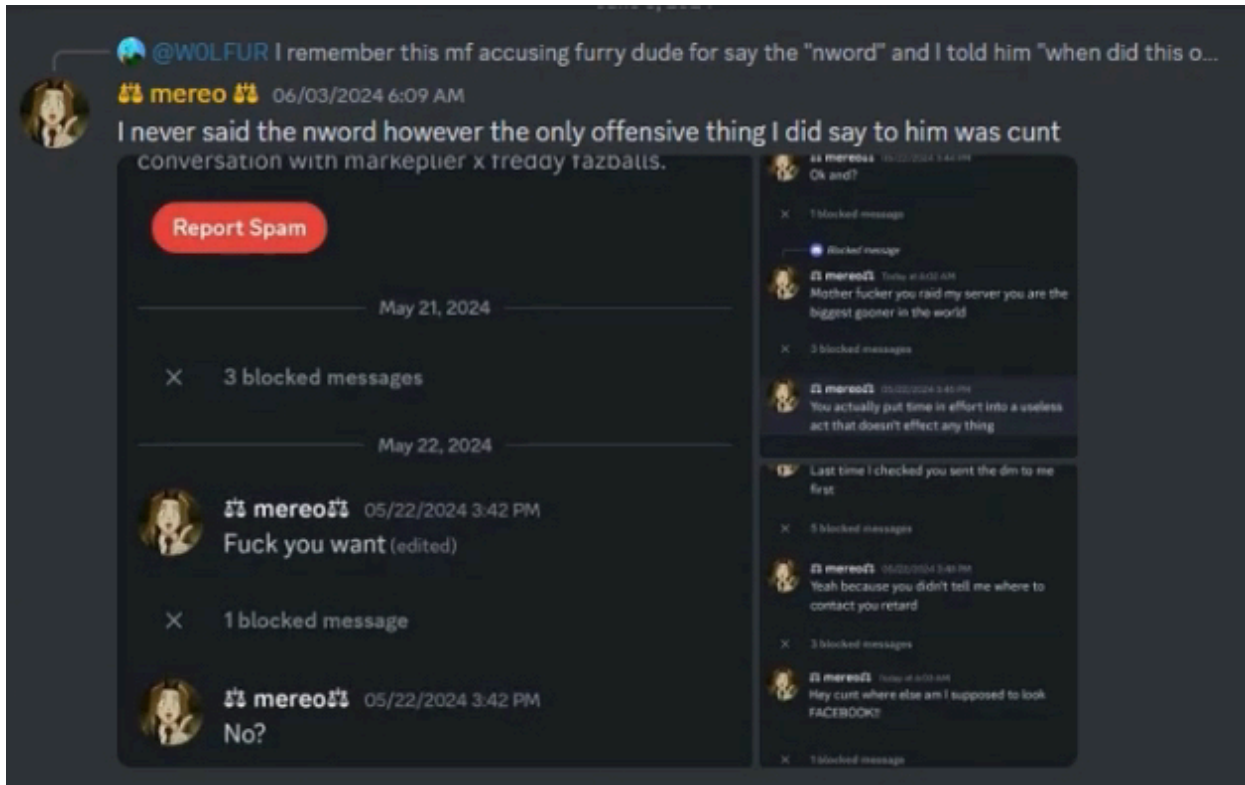

Why'd he word it differently here? Maybe it's because rat (the foxy dude) would have said that he apologized to me only once if he added that "apologized 4 times" part lol.

One of his (now former) moderators decided to spread false information about YOU KNOW WHOOOOO because of one video that he DIDNT EVEN BOTHER TO WATCH!

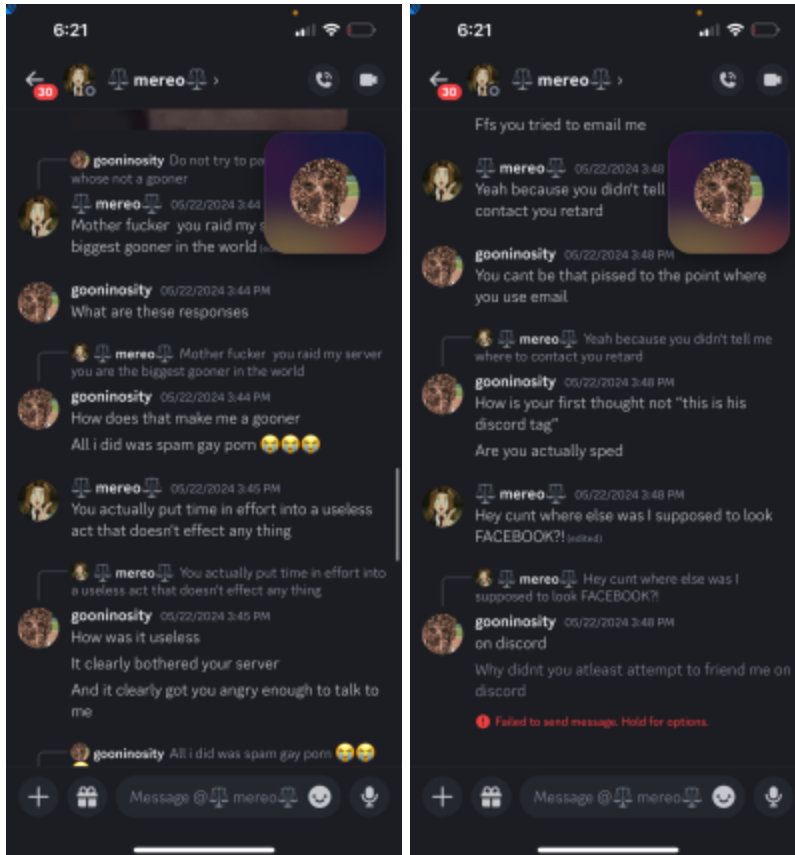

He called me the n word twice and when he was confronted about it by one of his moderators he went back into our dms and edited the messages then took screenshots as evidence that he never called me the n word.

Heres what he pretty much showed

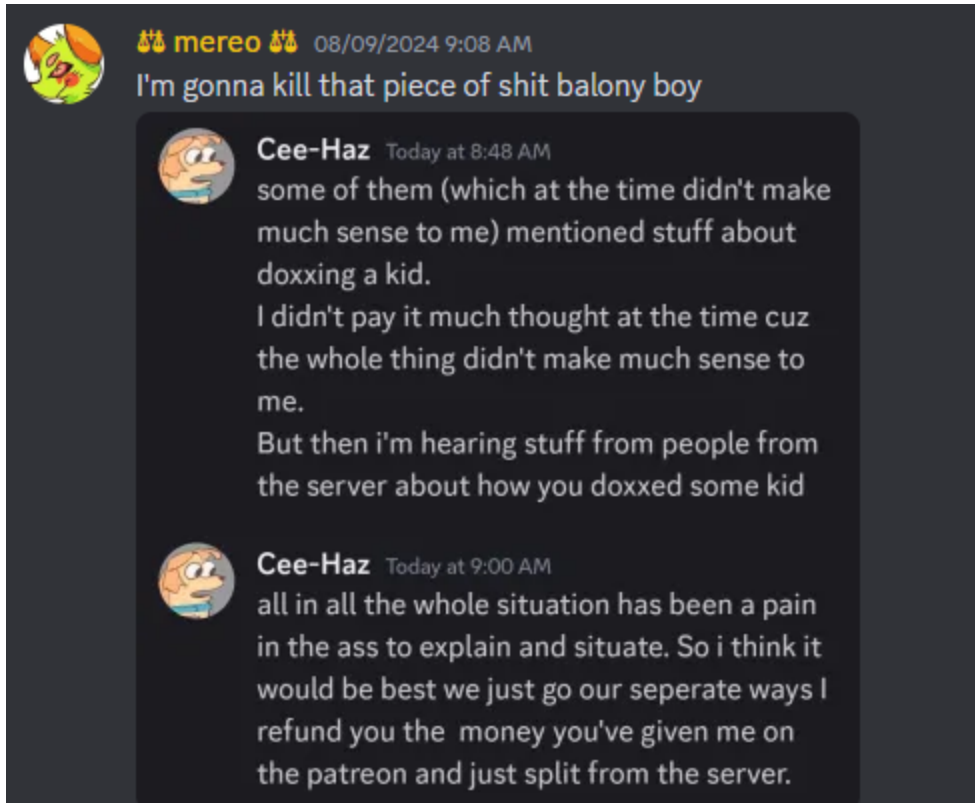

And heres what was there before he edited the messages

He has made several announcements about me on his server making me look as if I'm a huge danger to everyone there and he highly discouraged his members from speaking to me even though none of his members had a problem with speaking to me when I contacted them. In reality he didn't want any of his members to communicate with me because I was telling them about his actions, I was not trolling or harassing anyone, I was simply spreading awareness. This is one of his announcements.

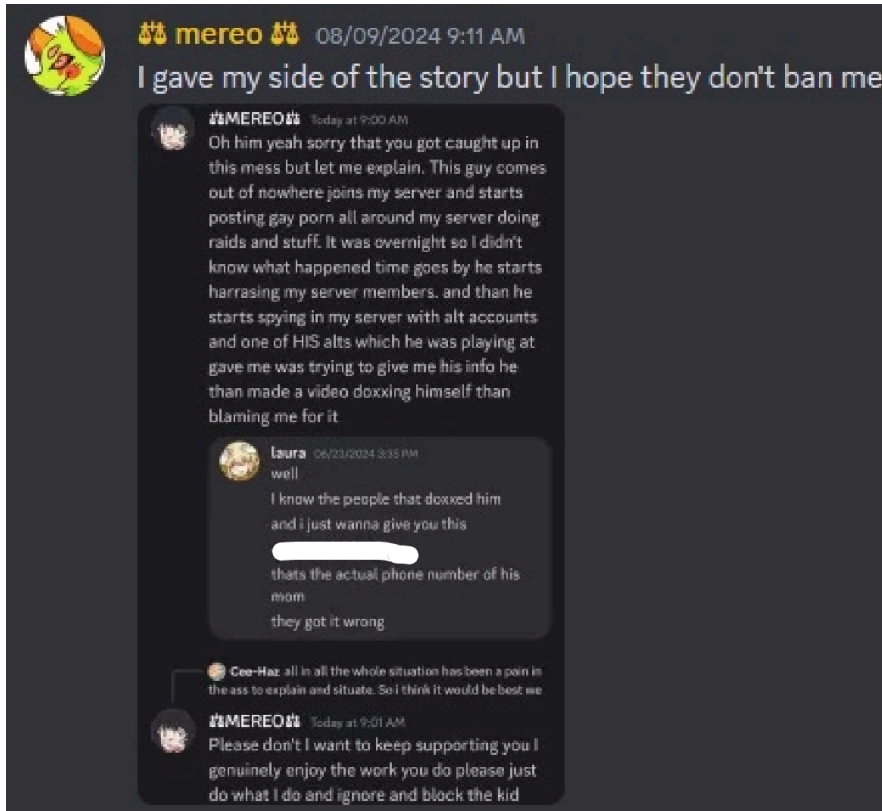

A very popular nsfw artist banned him from their server because they found out about mereos actions and this is what they told him.

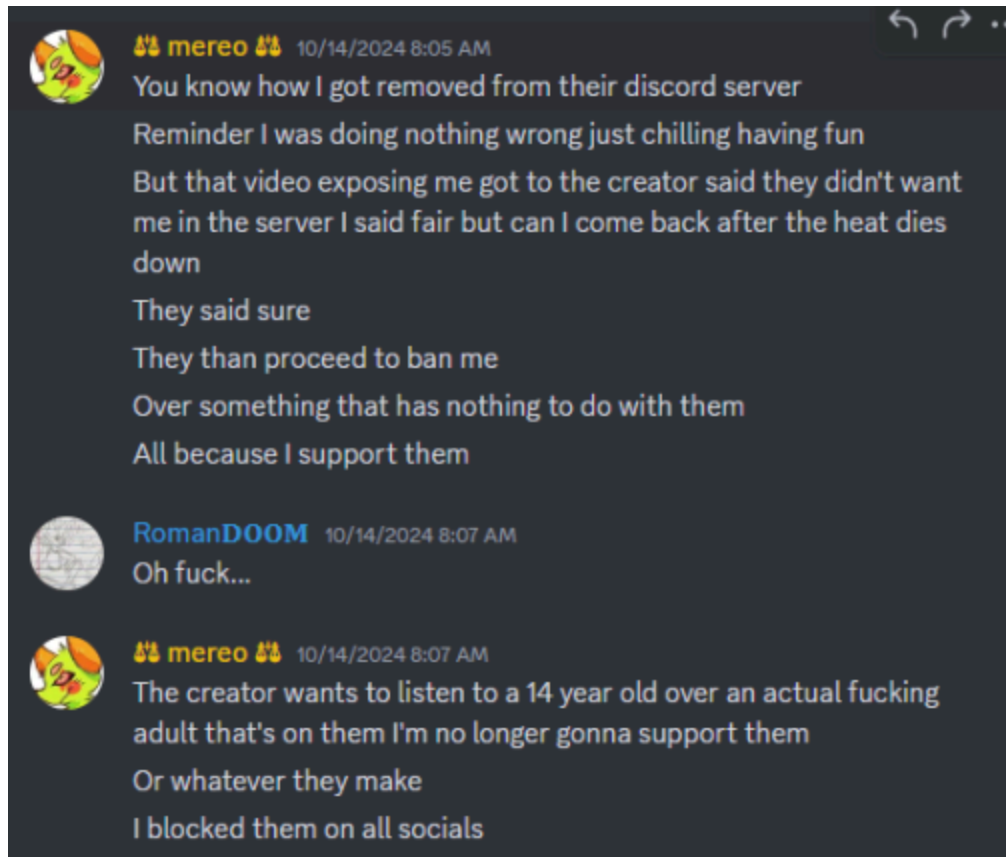

Some of the members in ceehaz's server saw undead2020's video on mereo and kept telling them about what mereo did so credits to undead2020 lmao

And of course, mereo tries to save his ass by twisting the story and leaving out his actions in order to make him look good. He always does this whenever someone asks him about the drama because he's aware that he has done some terrible shit, yet he'd rather just hide it from people instead of holding himself accountable and showing actual guilt and regret for what he has done.

Also last time I checked I never gave mereo permission to show an ss that contained my number to someone that I don't know lmao.

Then he shittalked ceehaz after they banned him from their server because it was so fucking obvious that he was victimizing himself.

He's rocking that "you should believe my side of the story because I'm an adult and hes a minor" and "dont punish me over something that had nothing to do with you" mentality fr (jokes aside next time try to explain the whole story and provide more evidence when you're trying to prove your innocence lmao).

He asked his fanbase this and made it sound as if I'm actually doing illegal shit. In reality, he was asking "if a 14 year old on the internet starts making fun of me, a grown adult, for being a fucking degenerate, then said 14 year old begins to spy on my degenerate discord server and releases screenshots from that server to the public despite me telling him to stop is it justifiable to report them to law enforcement?"

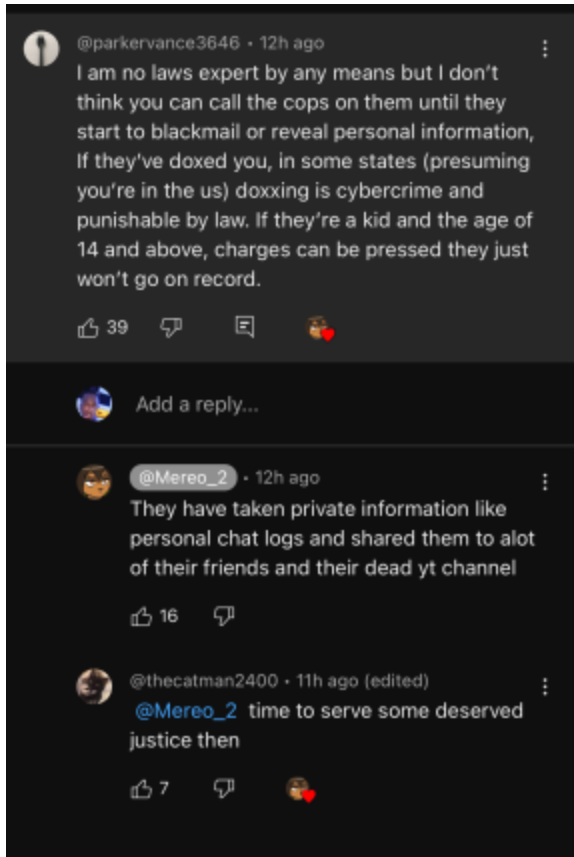

MERED 3 weeks ago

Is it justifiable to report someone to the cops for stalking and harrasing you despite their age? Let's say hypothetically you couldn't block a hater on youtube because youtube doesn't have a block button and this guy starts harrasing you in your own discord server and creating alts to spy on the server and have their friends spy on you and than share that private information publicly and despite the constant asking to stop they just don't? hypothetically of course ill be watching you...

Also gotta love how he has absolutely zero evidence to prove that I was doing things such as “taking private information”. (yes, he did attempt to report me to law enforcement even though I was doing nothing illegal nor was I doing anything that could jeopardize anyone’s safety, but ironically enough, he ended up jeopardizing MY safety! I’ll get into that later though)

He got people to raid my server with gay porn and claimed that his friend, captainnuttynugget, was the one who began the raid.

But later on it's gonna be proven that mereo was the one who began the raid, not captainnuttynugget.

Conclusion: It's safe to say that you cannot trust mereo in any way when it comes to getting information. He likes to shape people's opinions instead of letting them form their own opinions and it's kind of disgusting how he's too much of a coward to even admit to his fanbase or his server members that he has done some bad shit. And by the way, he has not corrected himself, his fanbase, or his server members on anything that they have said about me or about my friends, so even though he literally said it himself that the "balony man is a terrorist that gets minors to raid servers with gore and cp" thing was a rumor, he has not made that information public yet even though a rumor like that could get me investigated by law enforcement. (the same thing can apply to his community because they only listen to mereo and you already know how he explains everything!)

Before I get into the next section, I'd just like to point out how we explain this situation to anyone that doesn't know anything about it. Whenever I tell someone about the drama, I try to establish that mereo is the bad guy but I'm not too innocent either, then I explain my actions and mereos actions and provide evidence. Doing this allows the individual to think before hopping on either side. They could say “balony started the drama but mereo was the one who kept doing fucked up shit and overdoing everything” yknow stuff like that. But how mereo does it is pretty much “balony man is a hater that has been harassing me and my fanbase and raided my server” and if you’re LUCKY he will provide evidence. You can clearly see why this method is considered manipulative.

BAD STUFF

Mereo has done a lot of bad shit throughout the drama. From making fun of me for my disability to doxxing, I’ll cover all of it here.

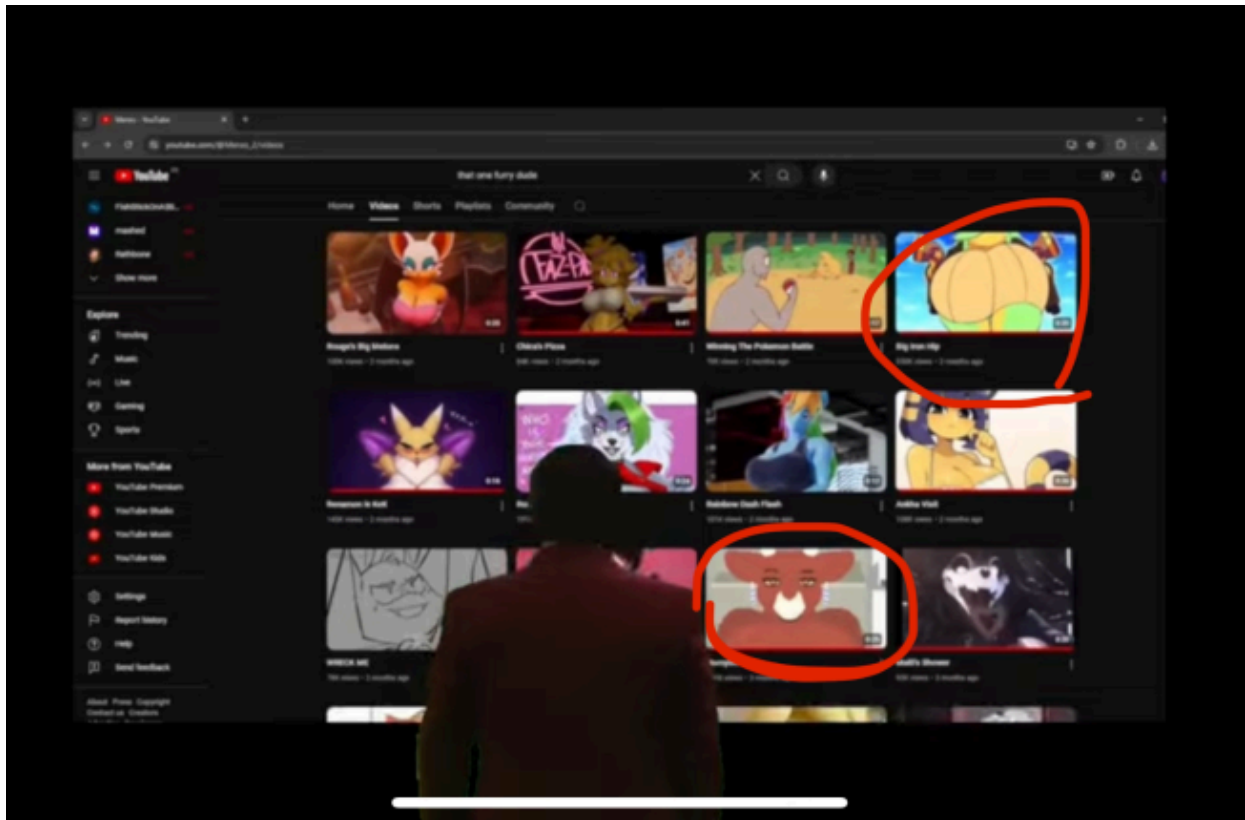

Mereo is mostly known for his youtube content farm career that eventually crashed and burned by the end of the first drama (he went from 60k subs to 1k subs lmao)

There are many issues that come with this content farm shit like:

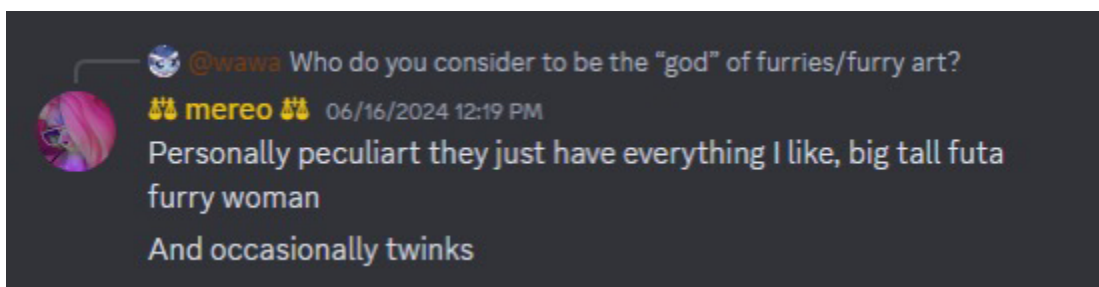

The fact that he doesn’t ask any of the artists for permission to “promote” their content. If I was a furry porn artist I wouldn’t want someone who doxxed a 14 year old to be showing off my hard work to his fans who are most likely minors (ill get to this later).

He also has a thing for supporting/”promoting” artists that are fine with drawing things such as incest.

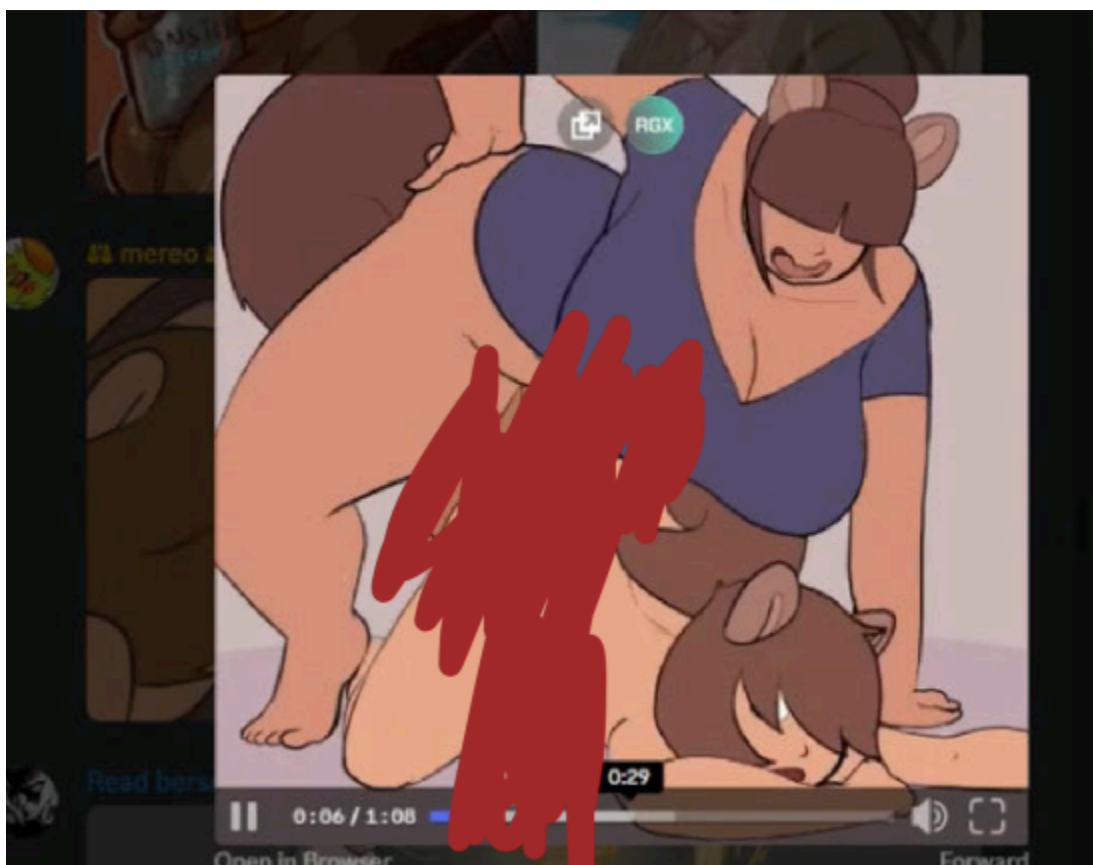

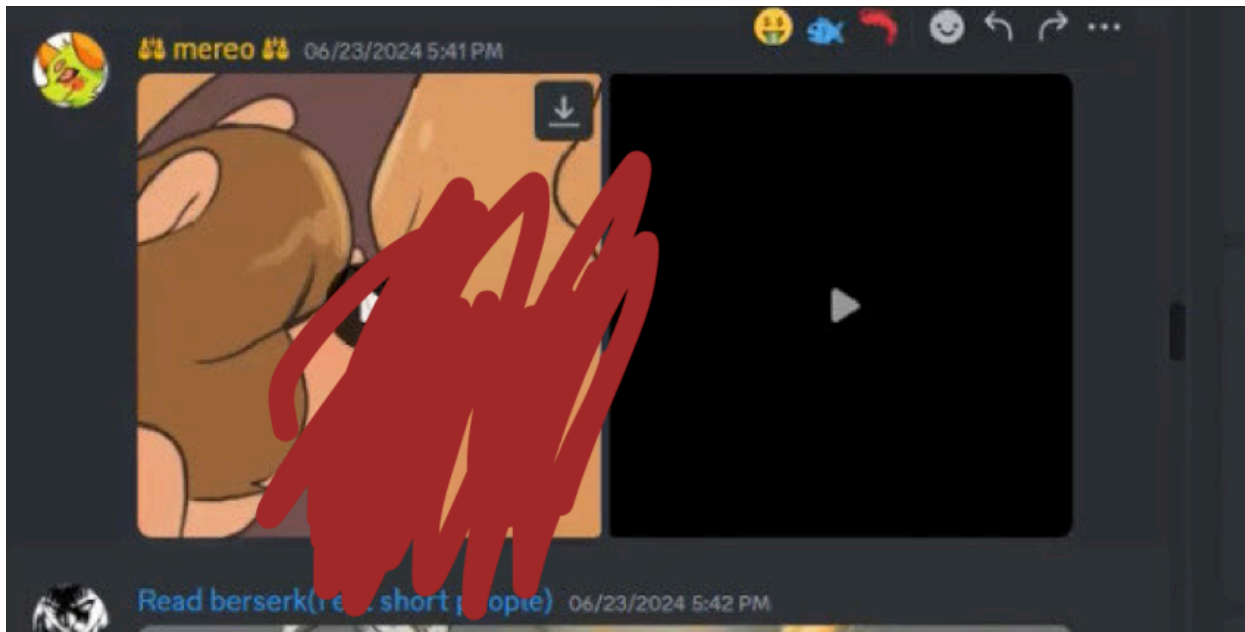

In this ss (I got this from undead2020's video because he posted these on one of his TERMINATED channels) the two thumbnails that were circled contains content from two animators (their names are welwraith and shoestrang. Please note that these may not be the only two incest-lovers that he has promoted on his channel, these are the only ones that I could confirm at the time) that have drawn incest. Shoestrang has also drawn porn of underage characters.

One of his favorite artists also draws incest.

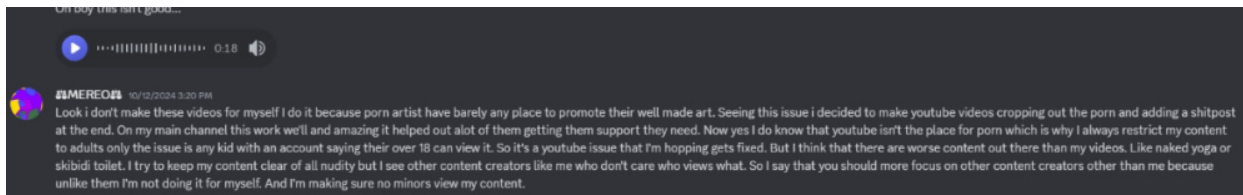

HE EVEN POSTED AN INCEST ANIMATION THAT WAS MADE BY THAT SAME ARTIST

These ss were taken from a server called "the oven", which is a server that I will get into later on

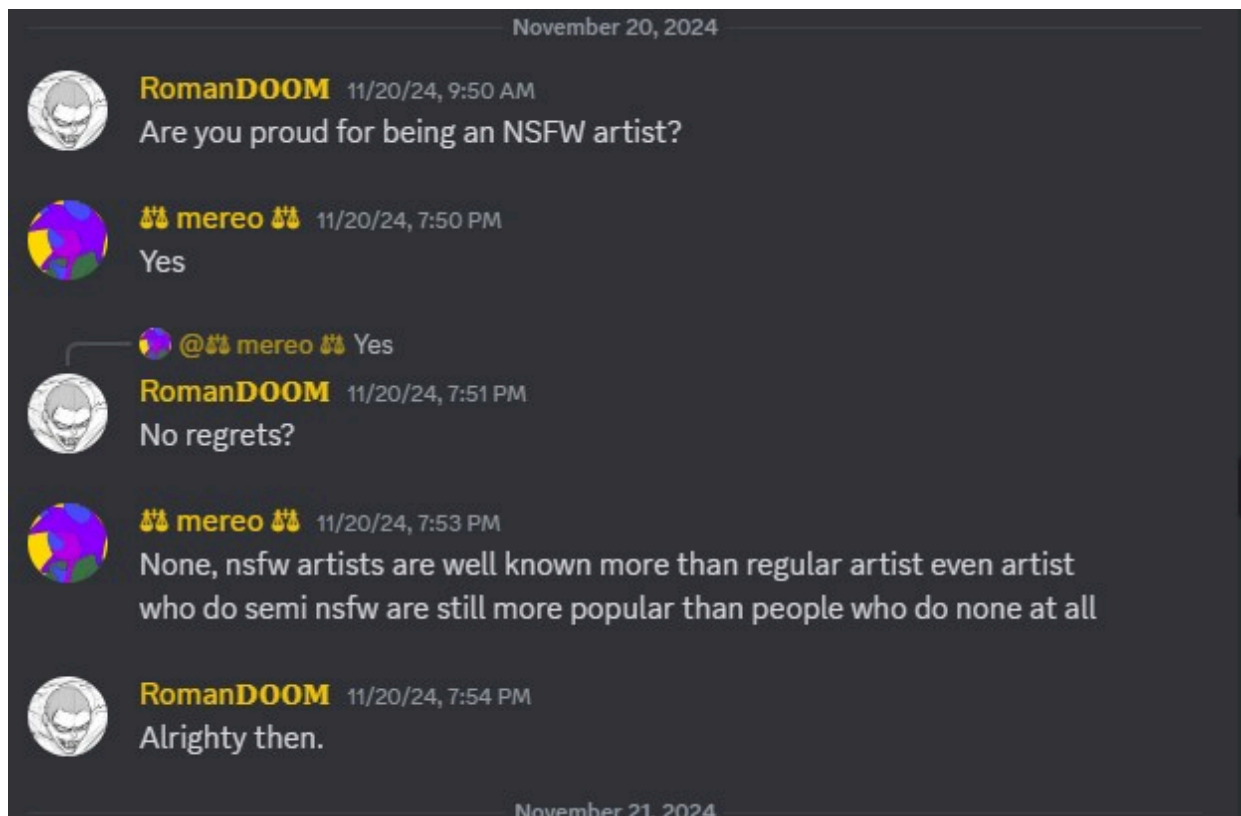

Alright alright I think I've already established that he supports people who draw incest, time to get back on topic.

You may be wondering why I put the word promote in quotes and that's because it's so fucking obvious that he's just trying to mooch off of the popularity of certain artists/animators.

“Because porn artists have barely any place to promote their well made art” this is bullshit because there are platforms where they could promote their art, platforms like youtube (for sfw shit ofc, no cropped porn or suggestive shit) popular porn websites like e621 or rule 34, twitter, bluesky, the list can go on and on and on. It's also well known that porn artists get WAYY more attention than sfw artists so I don't get why he doesn't prioritize the artists that get two likes on any platform for drawing sfw shit if he cares so much about “promoting well made art”.

He even said it himself that nsfw artists get more attention than sfw artists yet he does this because nsfw artists need more recognition for their art like WHAT!??!

Also he “promotes” artists and animators that are already very popular on platforms like twitter so I dont get why they would need his help (like ur channel is at like 1k subs rn how tf are u gonna make a difference lmao)

He also says that he restricts his content to adults and makes sure that minors dont watch his content, then blames youtube if any minors see his content but 1. You can still watch his videos and see his posts even when you’re using youtube without an account. 2. He promotes his videos in a server with minors in it (ill get into that later) plus his server allows minors in it and he makes an @everyone announcement in there whenever he posts a video. 3. HE IS POSTING HIS VIDEOS ON A PLATFORM THAT'S WELL KNOWN FOR HAVING MINORS ON IT!!!

And the fact that he says that skibidi toilet is worse than cropped furry porn is HILARIOUS. Ah yes, toilets fighting men with camera heads is worse than stuff that could ruin a kid's life by giving them a crippling porn addiction.

Anyways he has this sort of "there are people who post worse stuff than me so you shouldn't go after me and instead go after them" mentality which doesn't make any fucking sense, like yeah there are people out there that post worst shit but that doesn't mean that people should allow you to post that type of content. If it causes harm, it doesn't belong on the platform, and your content could harm children so of course, it doesn't belong on youtube, doesn't matter if anyone else is doing the same shit.

Also the "I try to keep my content clear of all nudity" part is funny cuz he doesn't do that.

Also isn't it ironic that he says that he supports artists yet he uses ai art for his chat bot pfp's.

You know, love isn't for the faint of heart.
It takes a strong man to tame a beast.

Plus I don't think any artist would like it very much if you were using their art and their characters for your Chai bots.

In undead2020's video exposing mereo he showed that some sort of pornographic content is shown before the unfunny meme pops up. And btw he still does this, though it seems to be less frequent now.

The one on the right is a bit low quality cuz I cropped it using google docs so srry

In this same conversation with undead2020 he says things like this

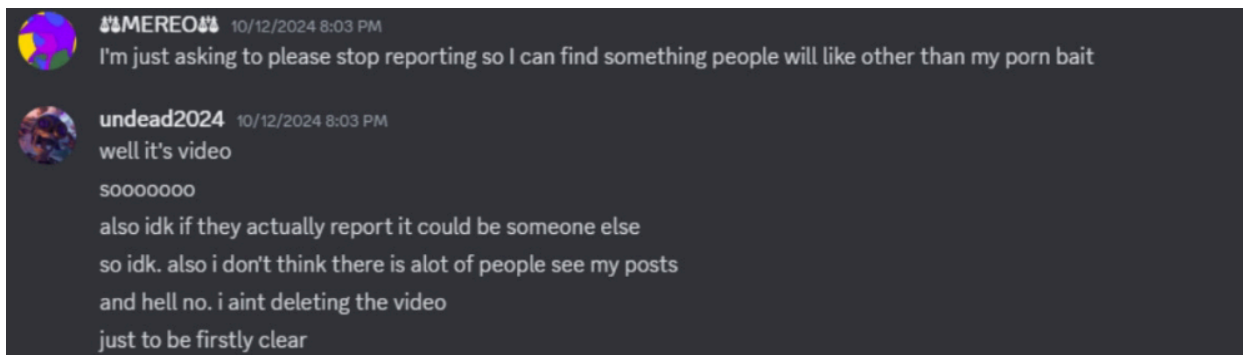

You hear that? The guy that makes 3d furry porn and gets popular off of posting cropped porn onto youtube said that he cares about porn addiction, THEN SAYS THAT ITS WORST FOR KIDS LIKE BRUH YALL ARE GONNA SEE WHY THIS IS SO FUNNY

He also says this

“Porn iz bad but it can stop ppl from raping women” do I really need to explain why this logic is so fucking retarded especially because its coming from a nigga that (probably) graduated from high school? Also that last message from him is so fucking rich coming from someone who profits off of the porn addiction of individuals.

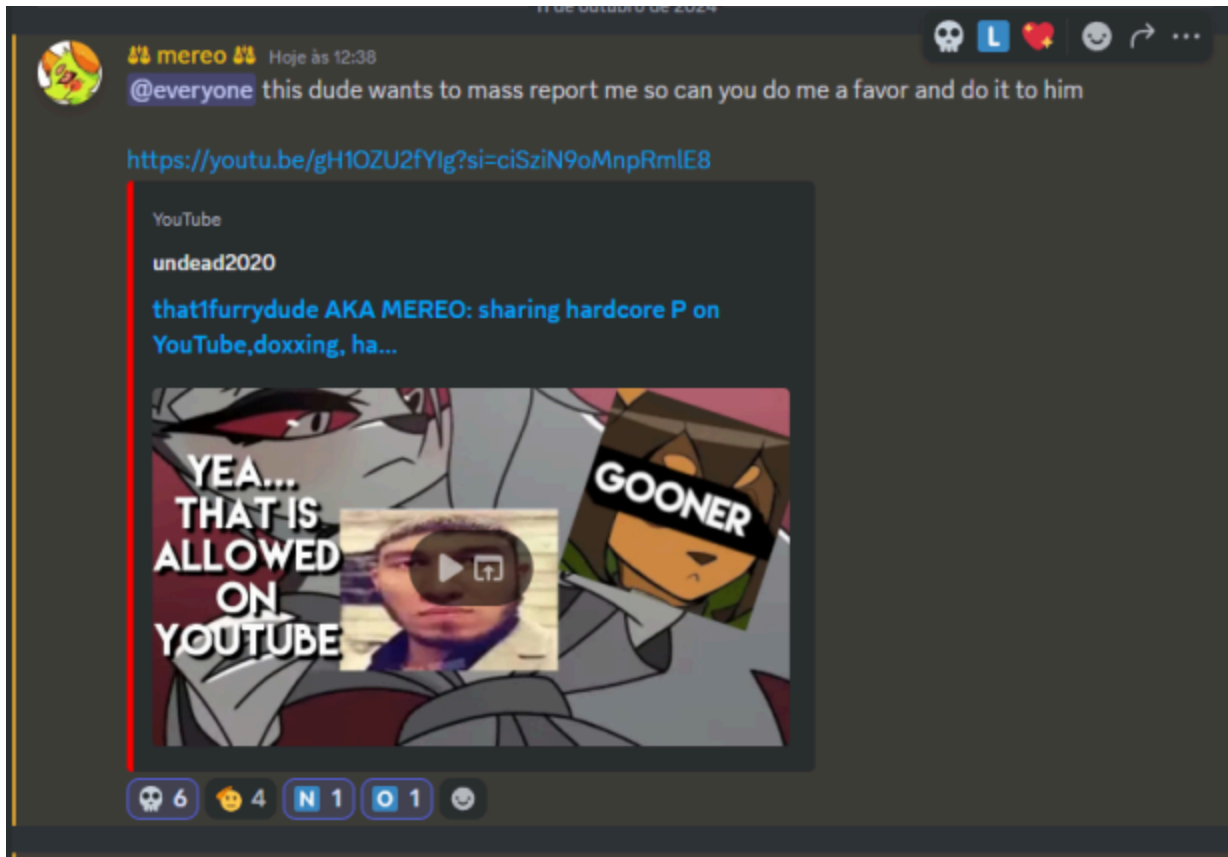

Alright one more thing then ill get back on topic

Sorry but wasn't your content about promoting artists not about finding people who would watch anything other than your goonbait? It's almost like... you care about becoming more popular! Wow shocker!

Anyways back on topic.

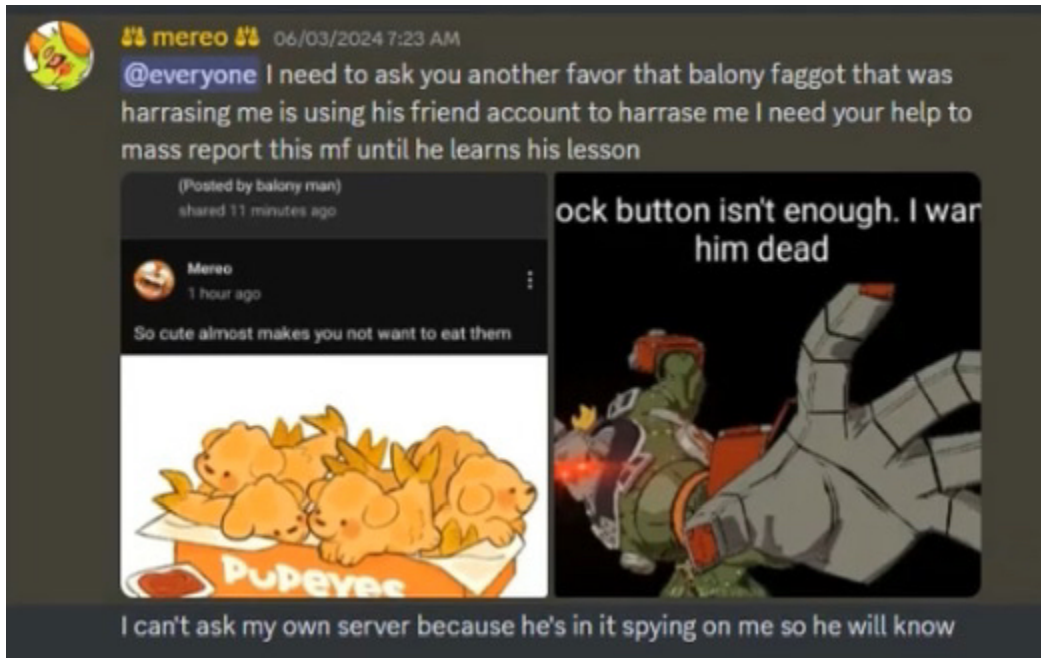

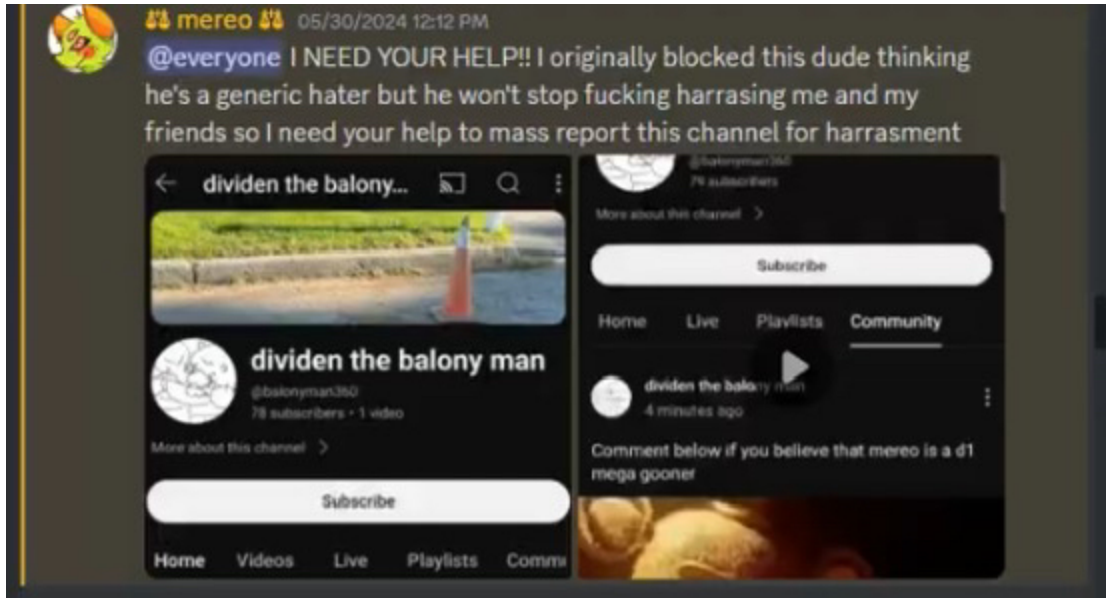

This entire conversation between undead2020 sparked after mereo attempted to silence undead by trying to get people to mass report undead's video.

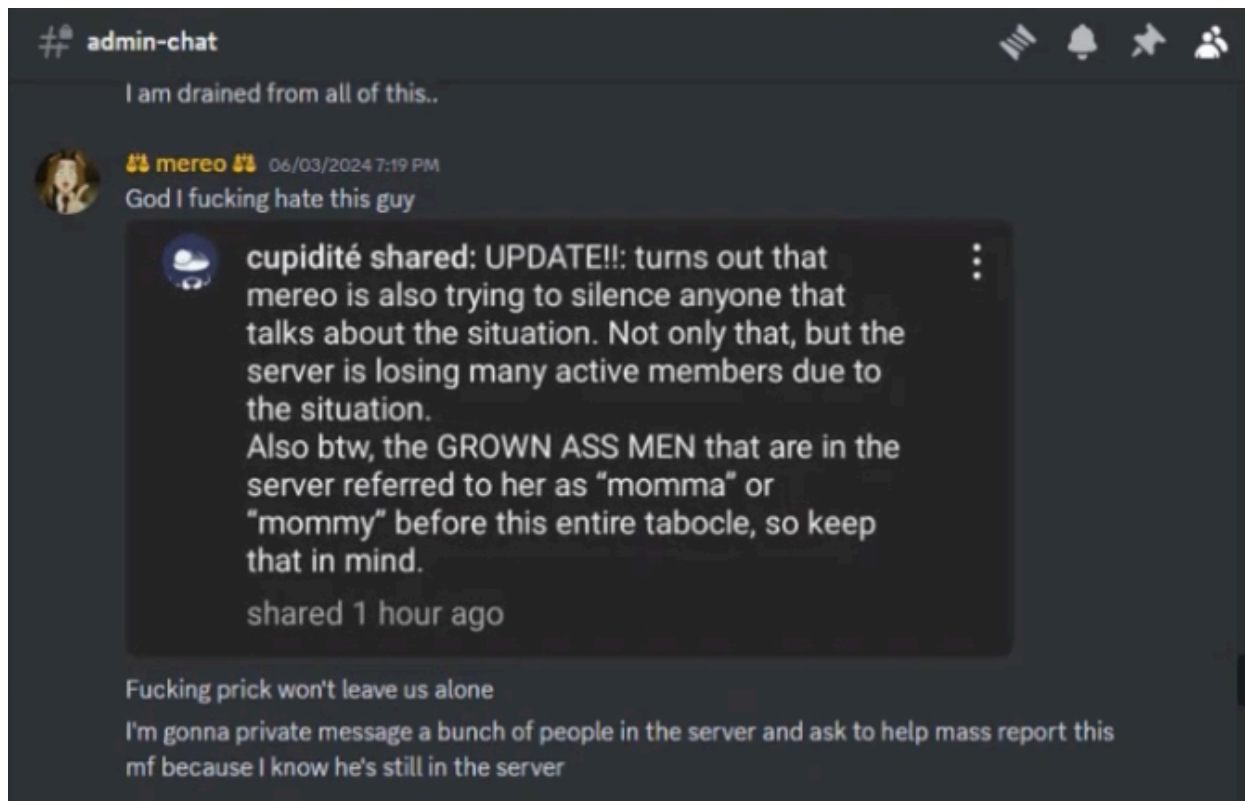

If it wasn't for one of his members snitching on mereo to undead we would have NEVER known about this and he would have gotten away with doing this. Also what's funny is that he's like "hes getting people to do something to me so I'm going to get people to do that same thing to him!" even though undead is in the right for trying to get people to mass report mereos content because MEREOS CONTENT DOES NOT BELONG ON YOUTUBE.

Undead and mereo "resolved" this situation but undead believes that mereo still should be exposed for doing this so here it is.

This isnt the only time when mereo has attempted to get people to mass report someone for the most pettiest reason ever.

These ss were taken from a server called "the oven", which is a server that I will get into later on

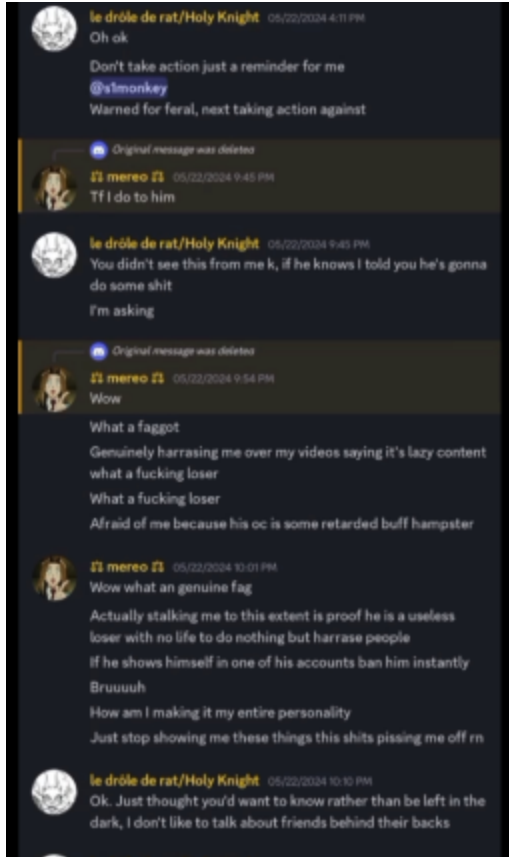

He attempted to mass report me and my friend's account just because I was clowning on him on my community tab + exposing him to his members lmao.

So it's safe to say that mereo has a knack for mass reporting and silencing people if they do/say something that he doesn't like, neat.

Here's him calling me things like "Sped master" even though he's aware that I was diagnosed with autism.

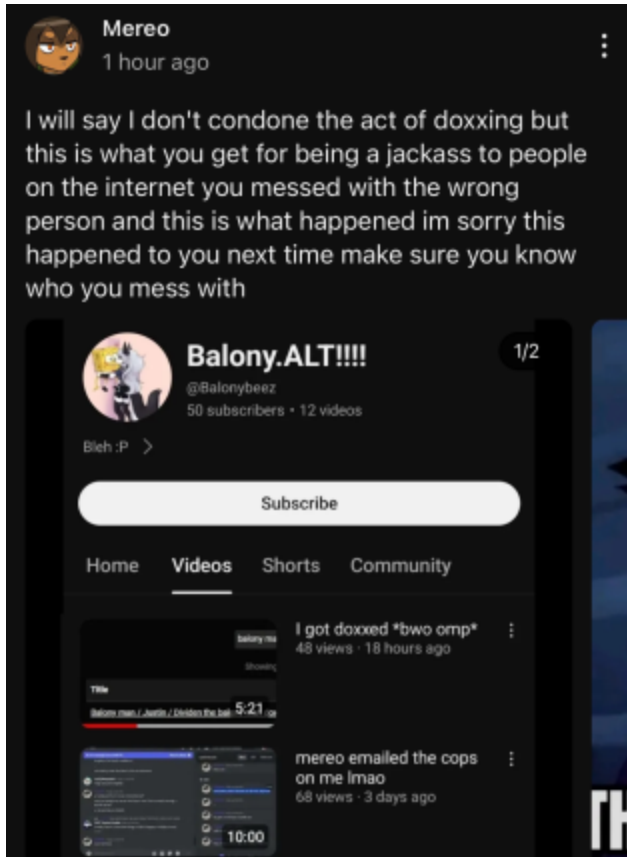

Here's ss of him calling me many slurs while talking about me.

Innocent people DEFINITELY talk like this when someone who's in the wrong exposes them.

When I posted a video that was about me getting "doxxed" (in reality I was just trying to bait him) he saw the video and posted this onto his community tab.

“I dont condone doxxing but I think that this 14 year old getting doxxed is funny”

He also did a nice job with showing how much he doesn't tolerate doxxing by posting about it onto his channel with 60k subs and pretty much bringing more attention to the video which is bad because his fans would do god knows what with my sensitive information after finding out that my personal info is on doxbin.

He also said this in his server when he found out about the fake

But that's just what happens when you be a jackass on the internet nowadays you gonna mess with the wrong mf and now looked what happened

Message #general

*** Sponge is typing...

And of course, he words it differently to make it sound worse than it actually is.

He exposed my number to his server and after finding out that it was actually my number he flexed that he had my number instead of deleting it from his server.

Btw he was aware that I was 14

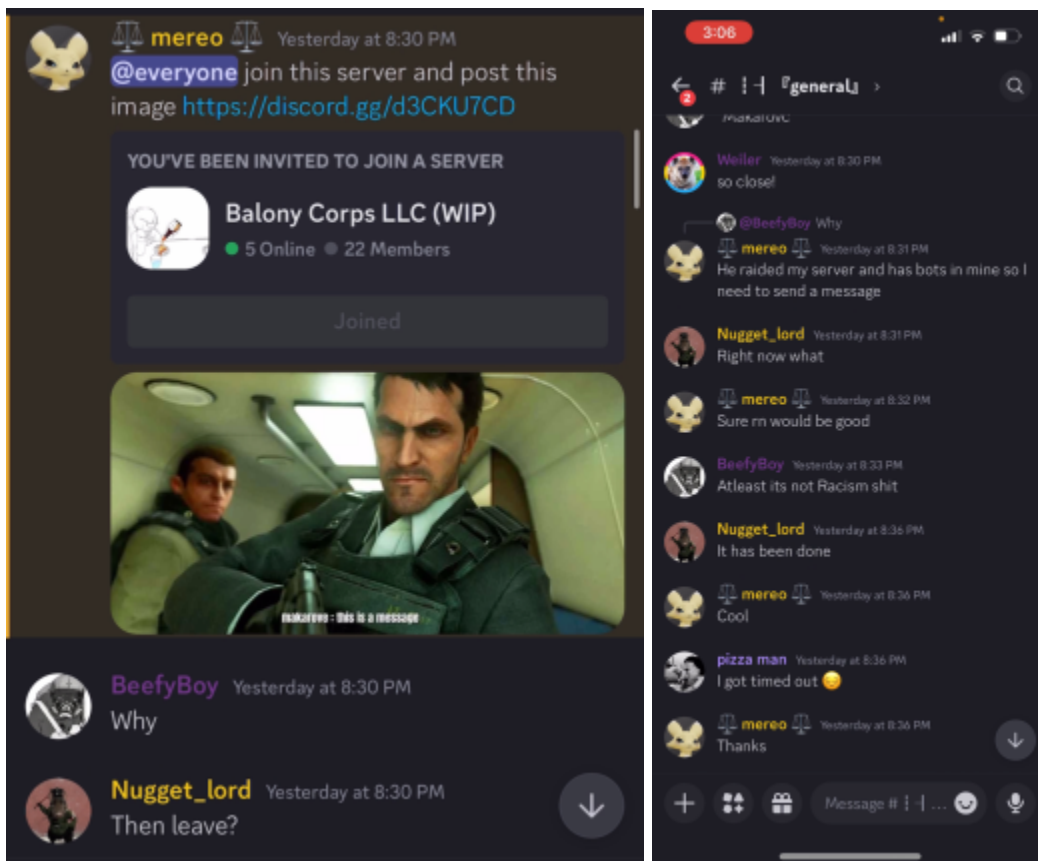

At the time his server had like 1k members so knowing that a fuck ton of furry gooners probably have my number saved now is NOT a fun thought. Especially since a few of them have said very uhh... not good things about me.

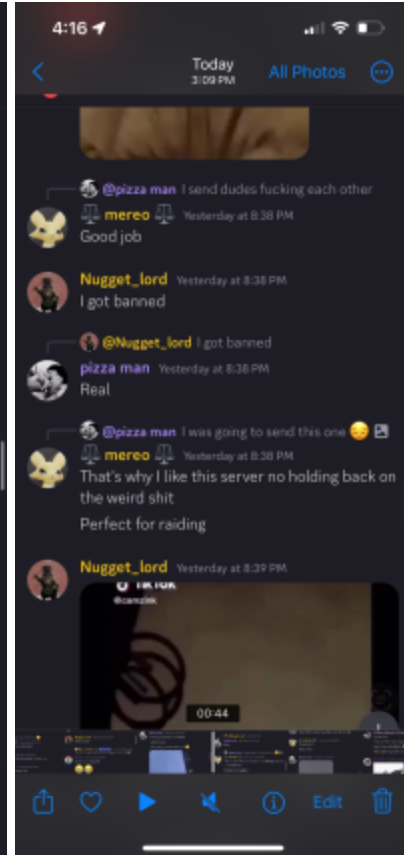

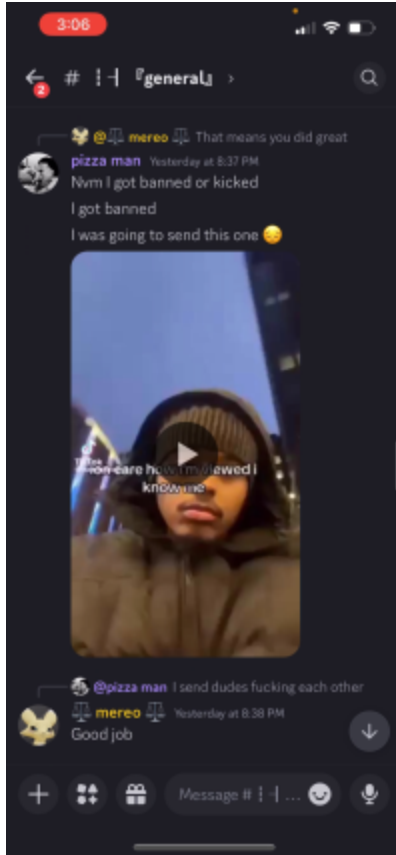

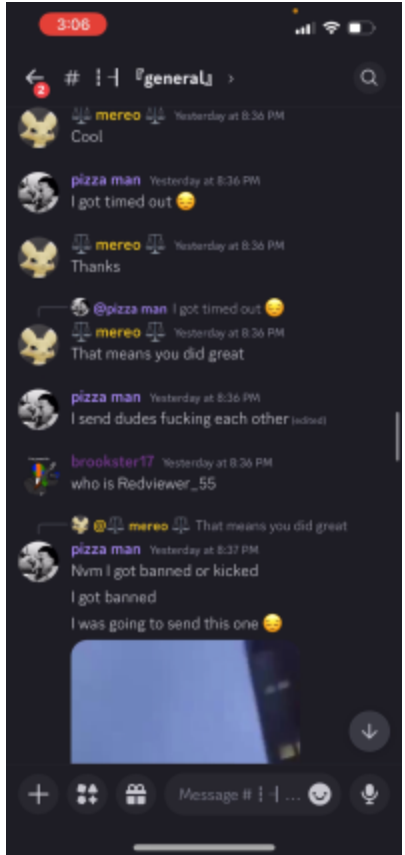

Anyways I was trying to bait him again by seeing what he would do if he had something like my phone number but I somehow had my burner number mixed up with my real number and before I could notice that it was my burner number it was too late, some nigga with no caller ID was calling me and I had no choice but to pick up because he already heard my custom voicemail and knew that it was me.

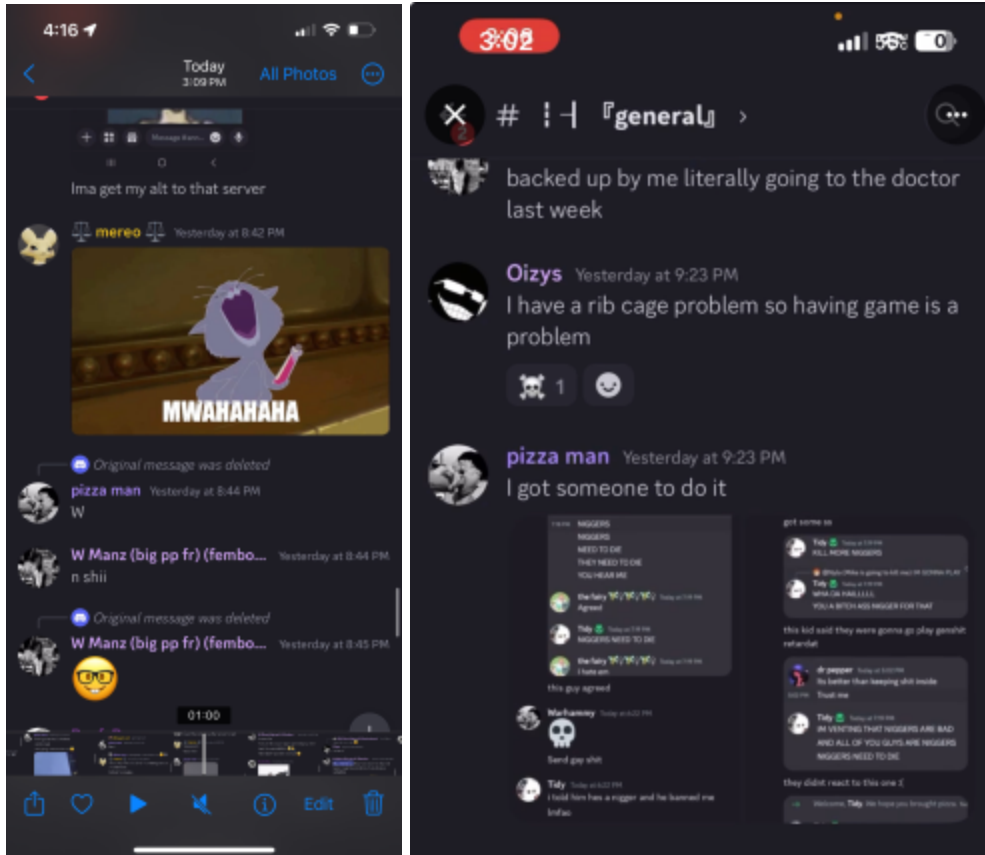

I wholeheartedly admit that the doxxing thing was mostly my fault because I should have played it smarter, but mereo is a grown ass adult with a job and a community. He should have deleted the announcement instead of boasting about having my number and keeping that same announcement up for MONTHS (the only reason why it got deleted was because I told one of my friends who is a moderator of his server to delete it, so if it wasn't for that guy, the announcement would still be up).

Mereo was not forced to post my number onto his server, that was something that he decided to do. I can be blamed for the cause of the dox though, but I'm not going to take the blame for the actual doxxing.

He got people to raid my server full of minors with GAY PORN

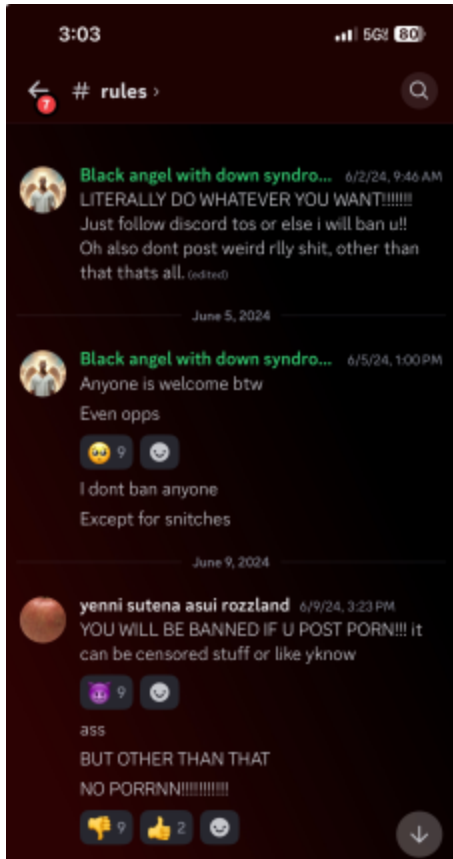

These ss were taken from a server called "the oven", which is a server that I will get into later on

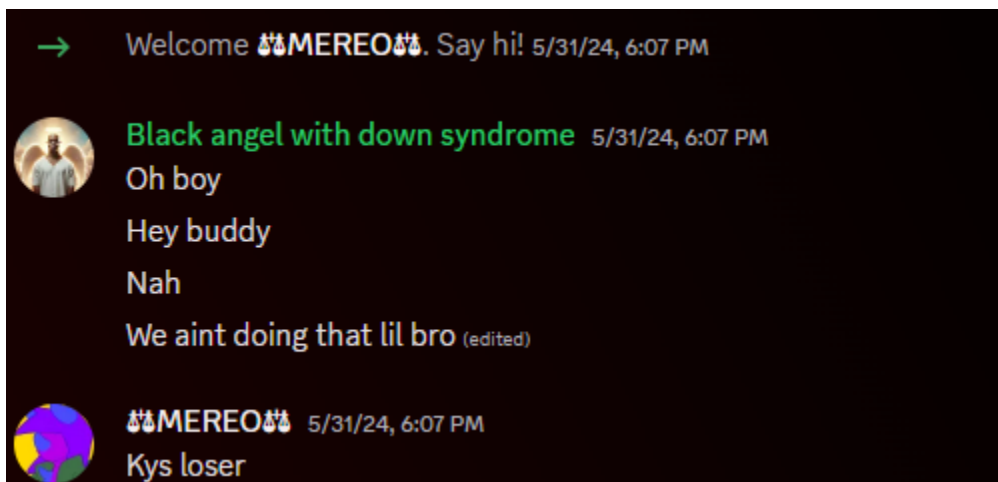

Yes, he didn't tell them to send gay porn but he was aware that they were going to send weird shit + he literally gave someone a pat on the back for sending gay porn in it.

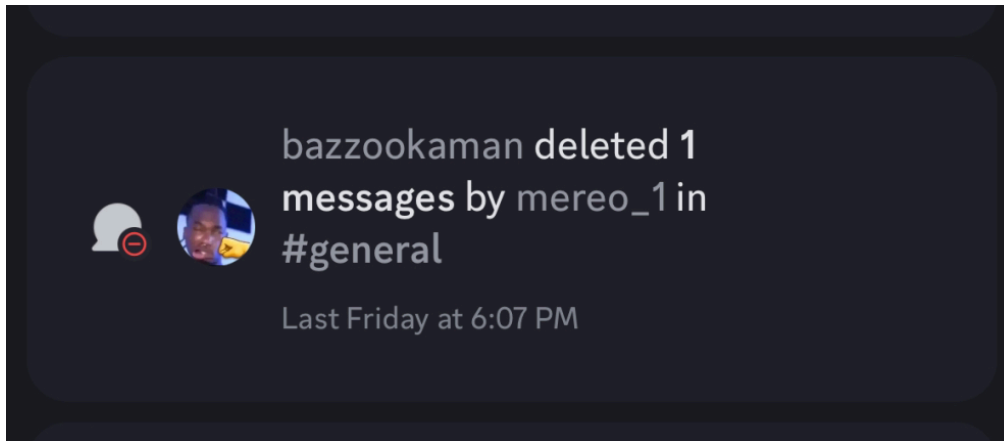

And yes, I did raid his server which is how this entire drama began but ill discuss that later. But the difference between my server and his server is that my server is full of minors AND HIS SERVER ISN'T MEANT TO HAVE MINORS IN IT BECAUSE OF ITS GOD AWFUL ENVIRONMENT

Ffs it literally says in my server rules that you can't send porn

One time mereo joined my server, sent straight up furry porn (i had to delete it cuz remember, there are minors in my server), then sent this wonderful message before leaving.

Conclusion: You can see why he hides his actions whenever he explains the drama to someone. This grown ass adult (I'd rather shit on my hands and clap than to call him a man) does ALL OF THIS in response to me making fun of him on my community tab, exposing him to his server members, and spying on his server. He feels no guilt for his actions and if he ever did it's most likely an act to get people to hop off of his ass because how come he starts feeling guilty and begins to apologize for his actions after all of this information becomes public and a lot of people begin to tear into him? Just think about it. He's better off getting bullied off of the internet because if he's so immature to the point where he'd do all of this to a 14 year old for the most retarded reasons ever then who knows what he will do in the future.

WEIRD SHIT THAT HAS TO DO WITH MINORS

Mereo has done a lot of sketchy things that have to do with minors. This section is to show that not only is he extremely irresponsible when it comes to managing his server but he's also had some...

strange interactions with minors.

By the end of this section you're gonna see why my community sees him as the grooming kingpin.

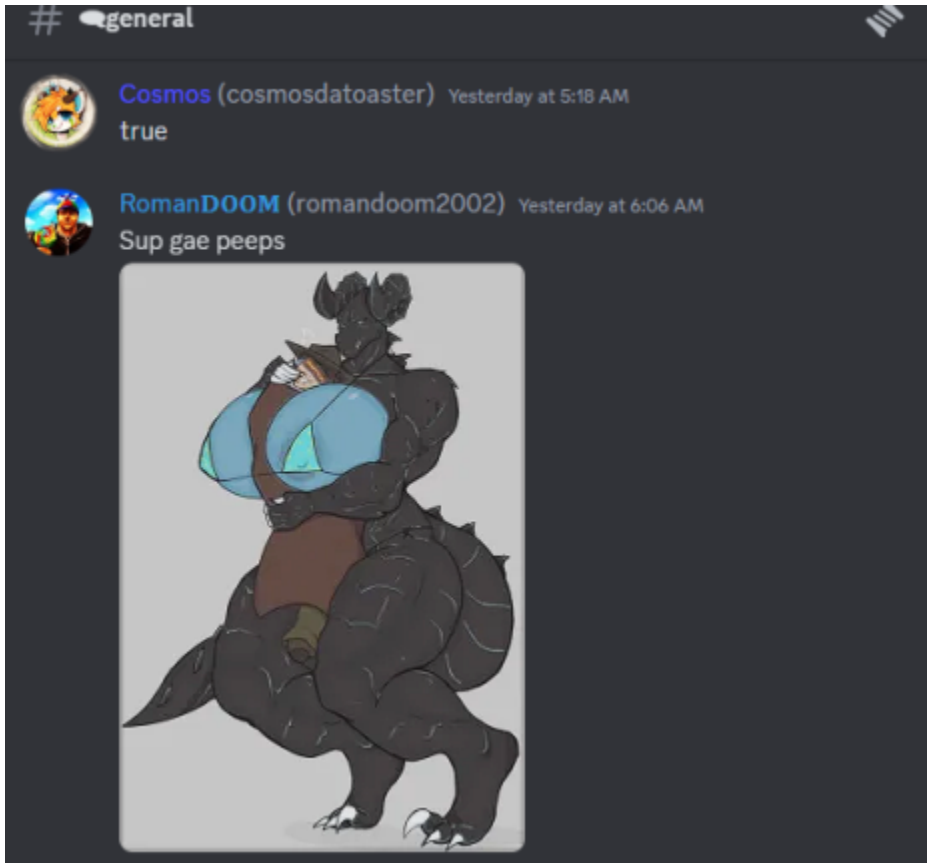

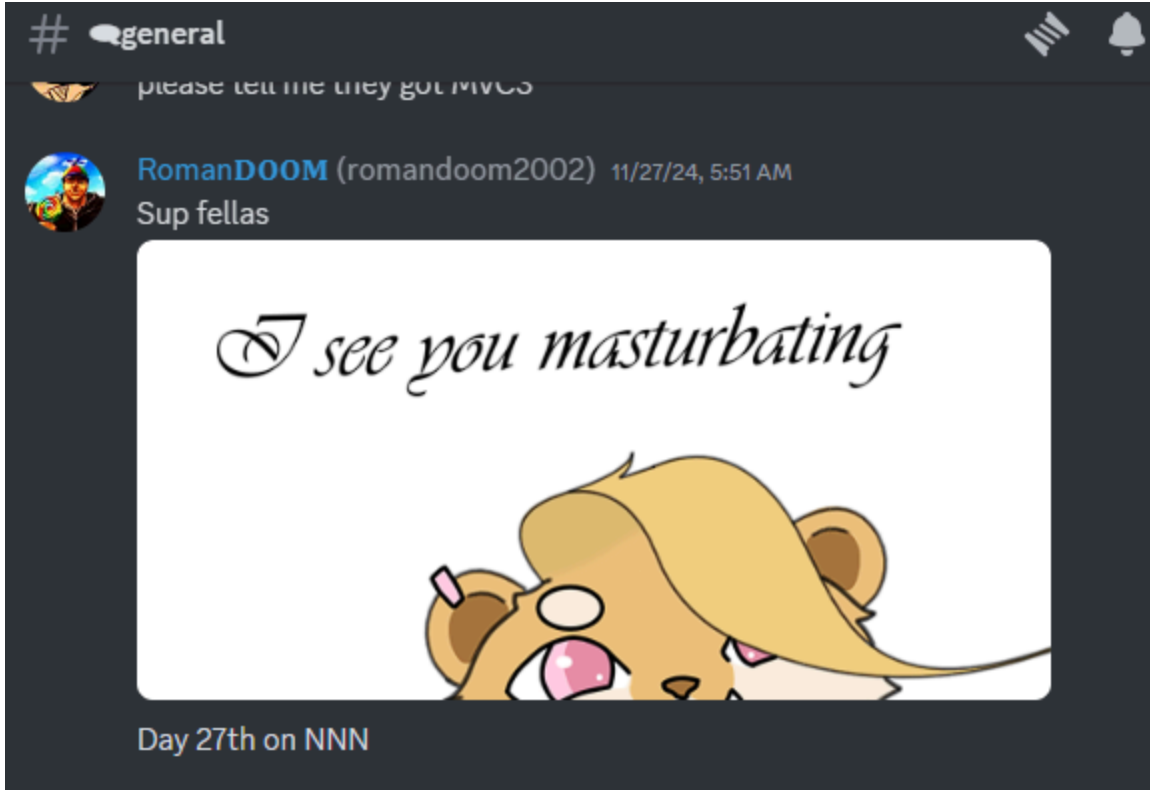

Mereo has some odd obsession with having minors in his server, even if they're SUPER close to being adults.

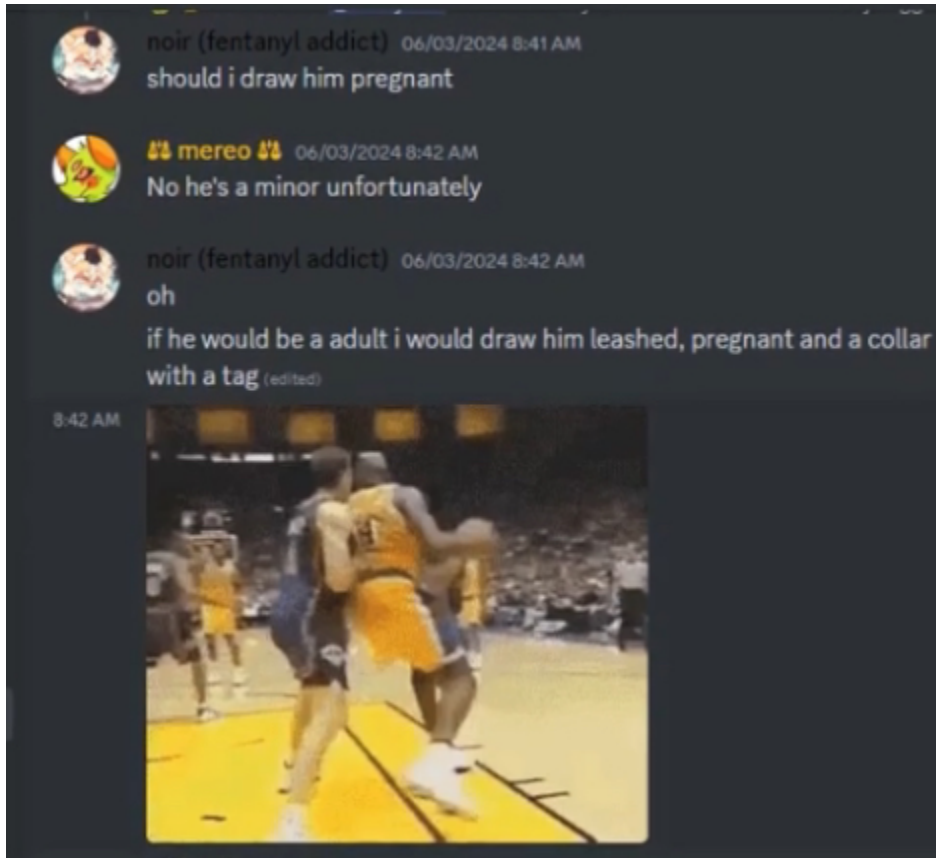

Like mf is it that hard to just make your server strictly 18+? Also he never added the verification bot lmao.

Here's evidence that mereo's server is a minor friendly environment despite it being owned by an nsfw content creator plus its filled to the brim with 18+ year old gooners!

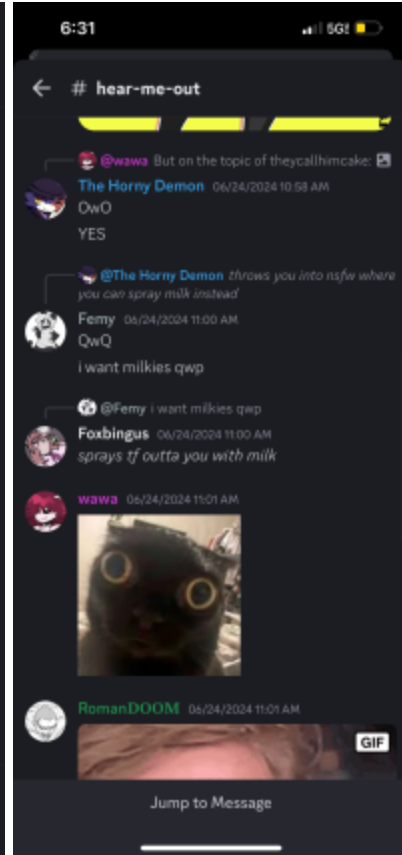

Romandoom is 22 btw

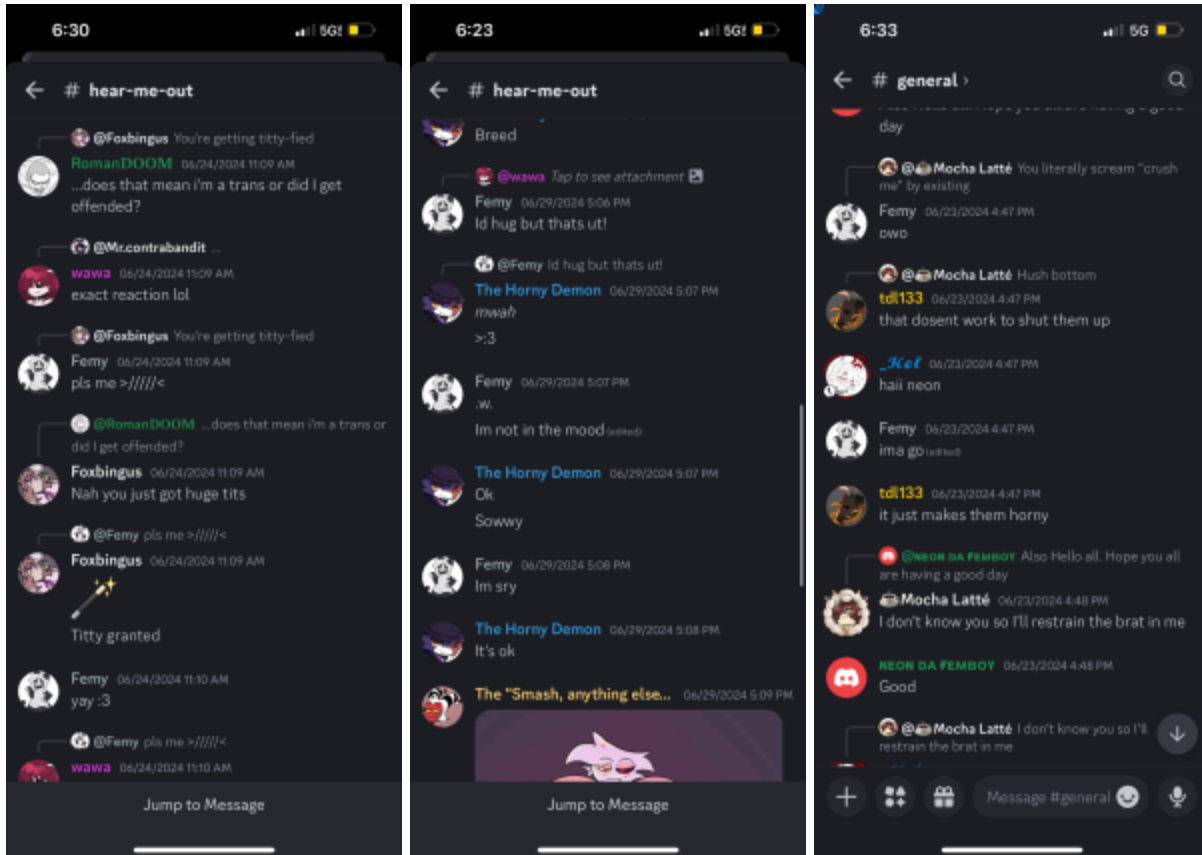

Mereo... fym unfortunately??? You would want them to draw me pregnant if I wasnt a minor (or in your case, if it wasn't fucked up to draw that typa shit of a minor)?

These ss were taken from a server called "the oven", which is a server that I will get into later on

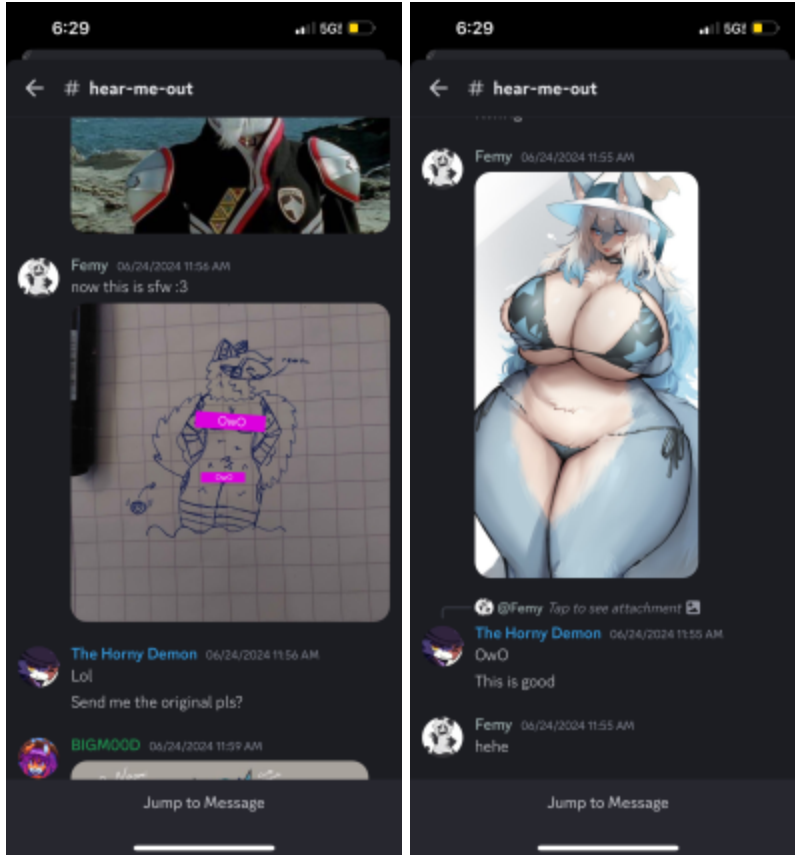

There's a member (i dont know if they are still there) named femy who has been in the server ever since they were 15. And I will show some of the screenshots that I have of their WONDERFUL interactions with the adult members in mereos server!

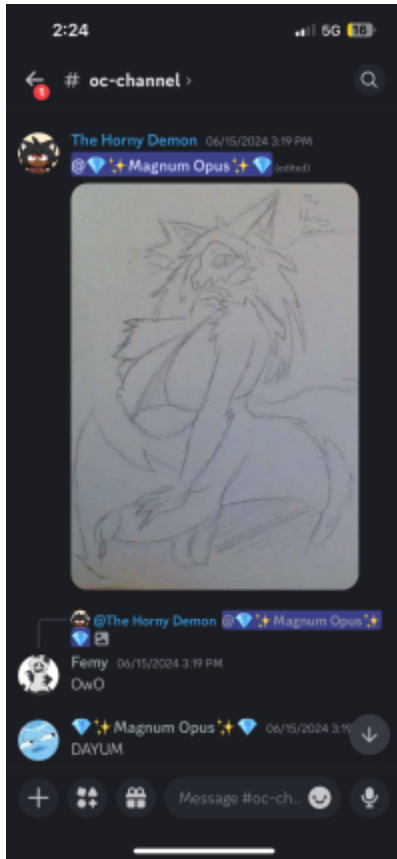

By the way anyone else who isnt femy in these screenshots are not minors.

No need to explain this.

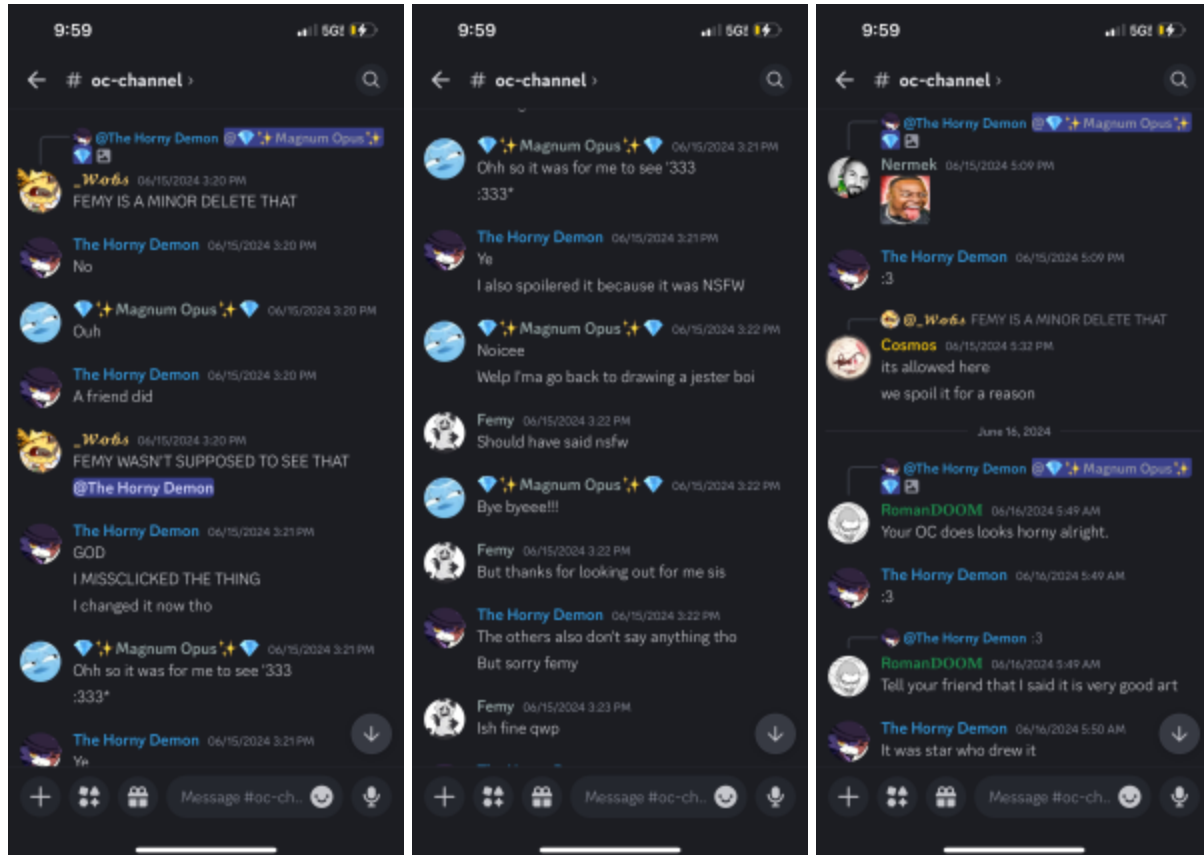

Oh also they had a channel where you could post nsfw and minors were still able to see even if they had their nsfw perms removed, and they did not fix this issue nor did any of the members tell the mods about the issue because for some reason the members there are fine with showing porn to 15 year olds.

Oh wait... the minors were allowed to see it.

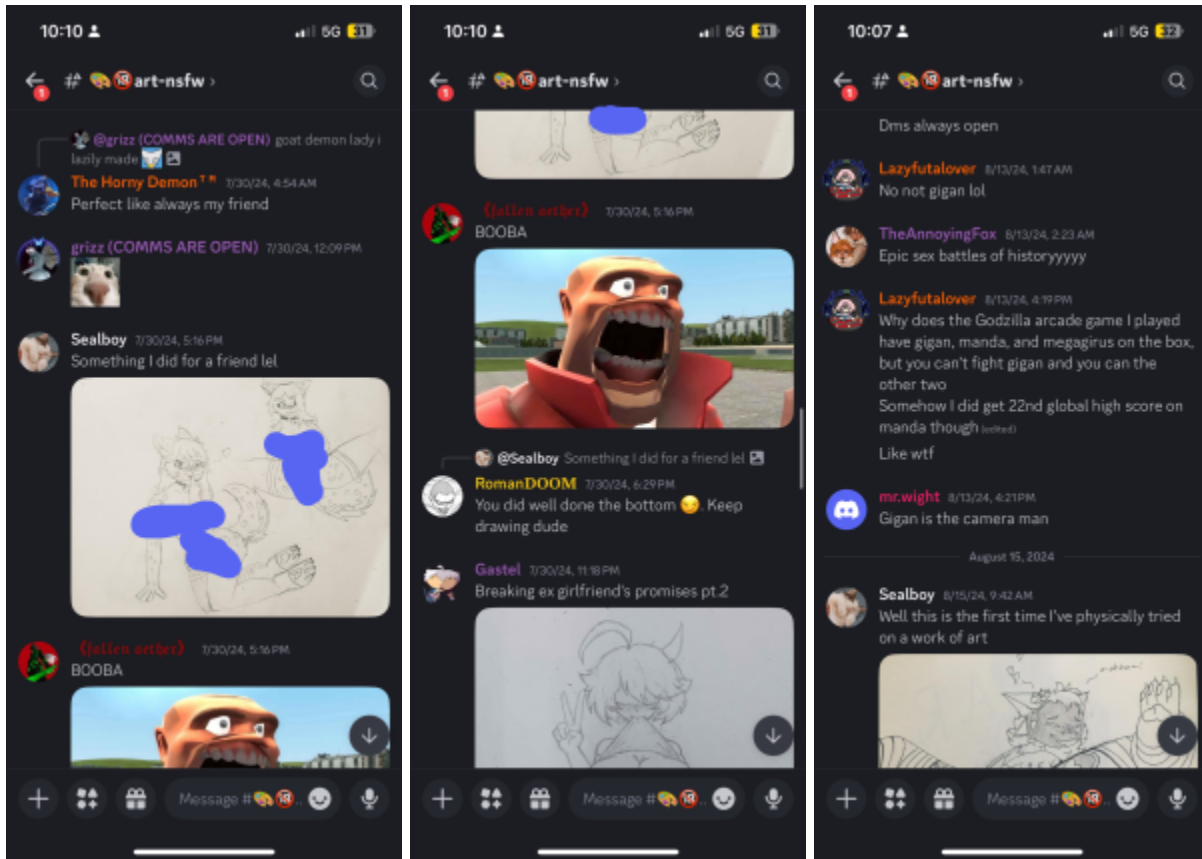

Nevermind then, I guess his mods and his members like to show furry pon to minors.

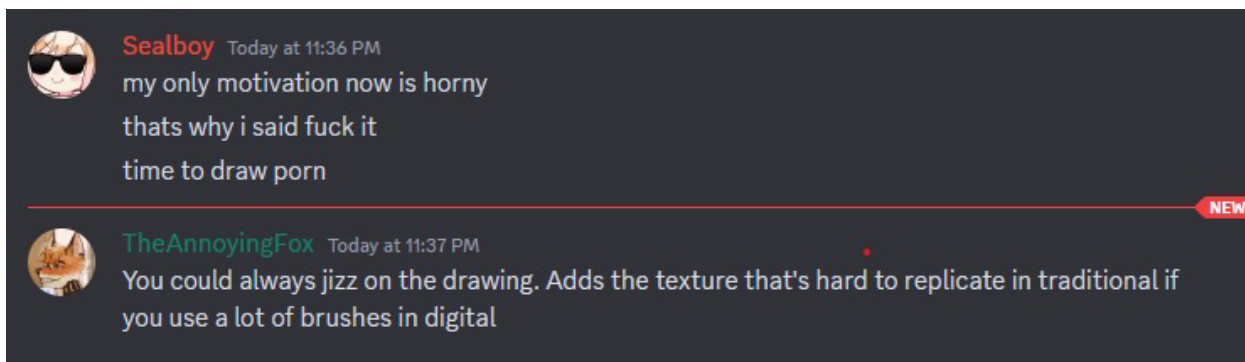

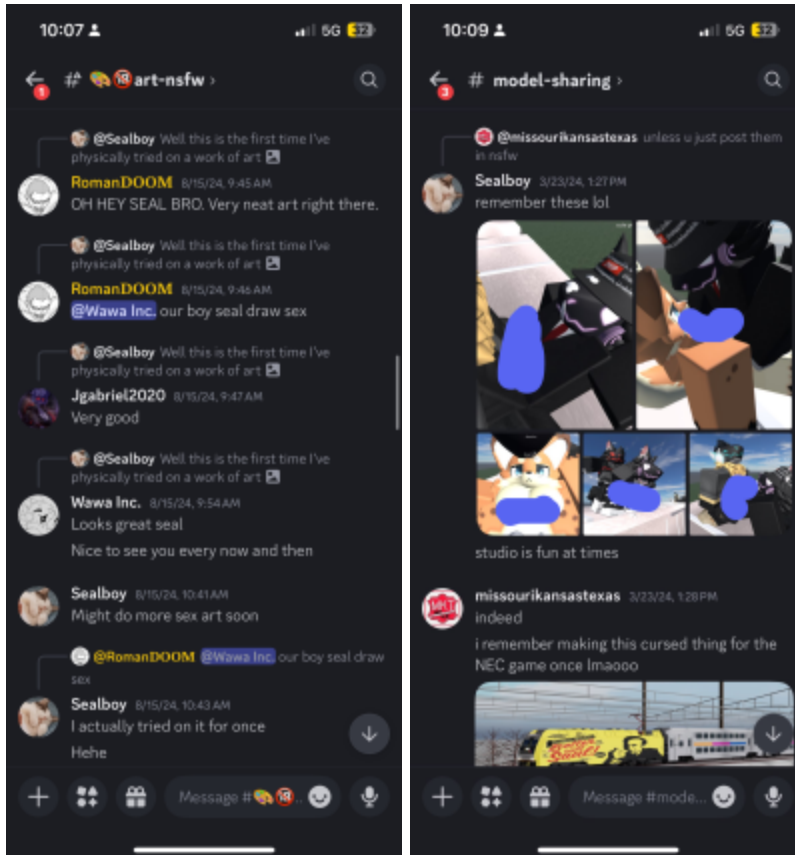

They probably fixed this issue by adding separate oc art channels after mereo turned the server entirely into an exclusively 18+ server (spoiler alert! He went back to allowing minors back into the server after a while because mereo simply did that so that id hop off of his ass) but the fact that none of the members had an issue with sending porn in a channel that minors can access is pretty worrying. Not only that but even the moderators didn't have an issue, and of course, mereo himself didnt care because why would he?

Here's another underage member, sealboy.

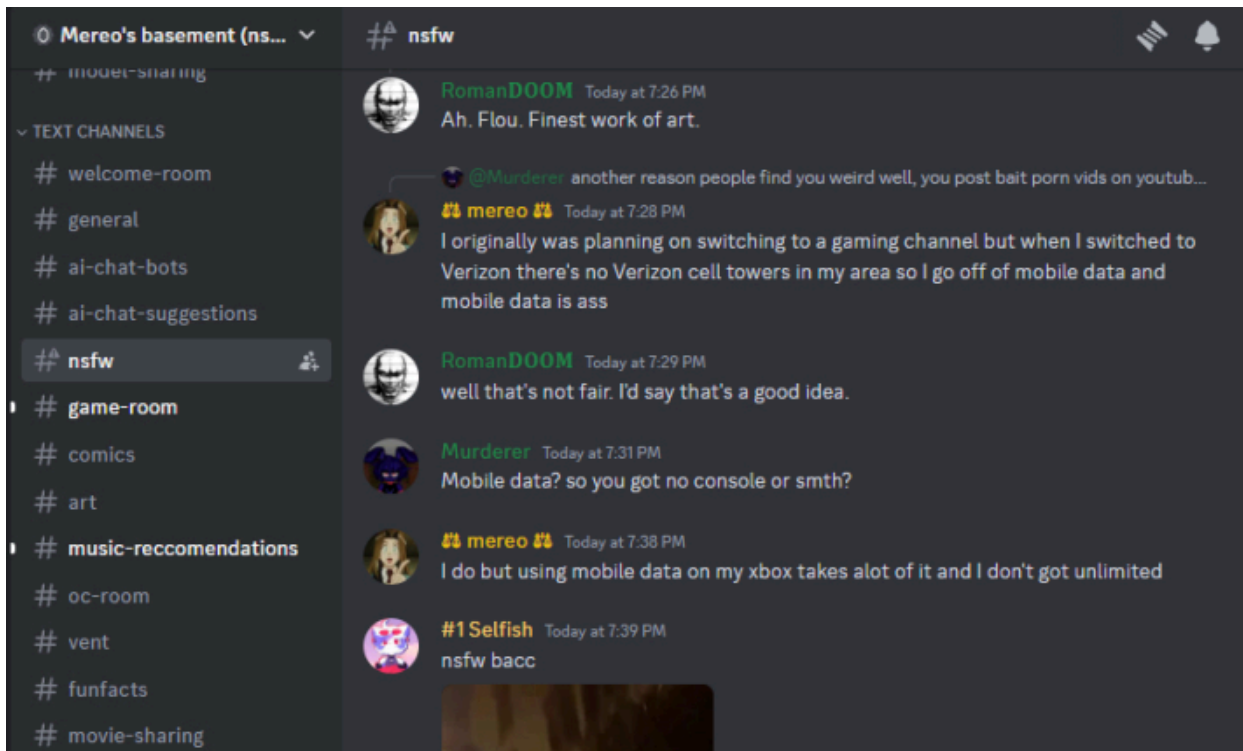

And he was encouraged by the ADULT members in that server to draw pornographic content! :D

He also took nsfw requests from the members in that server who were adults!

Heres another underage member who was able to access nsfw channels

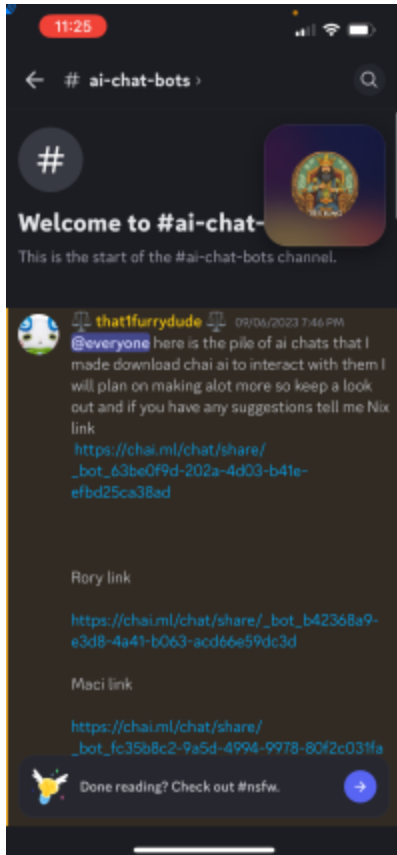

Also mereo rp'd with them

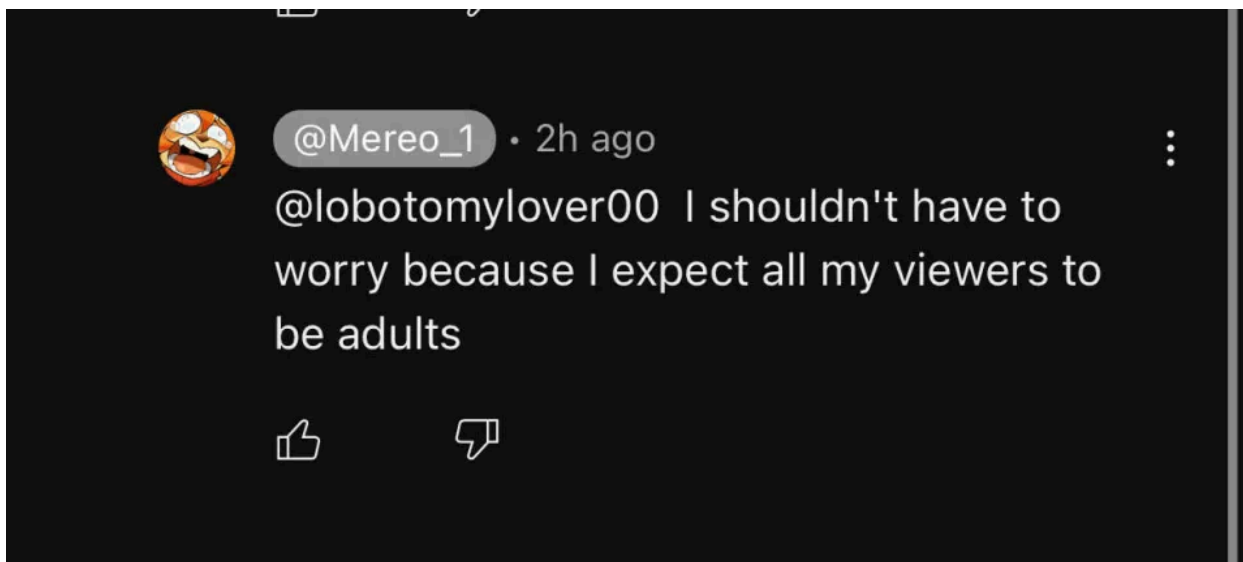

I have no evidence to prove that it was an erp but knowing mereo, it was most likely not an sfw rp.

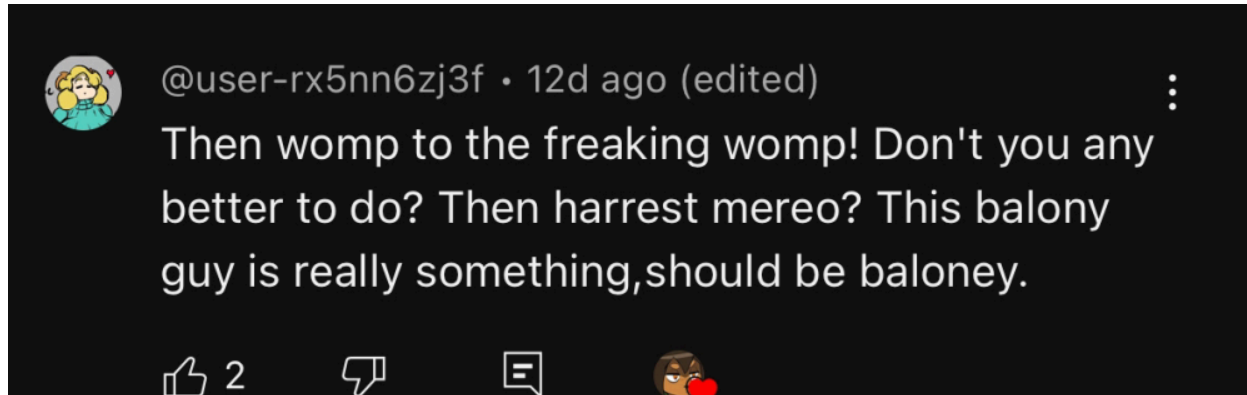

I MEAN COME ON THE DUDE MAKES AI ERP CHAT BOTS!!! (this might not mean anything but im tryna to show that he is familiar with the entire erp thing)

Mereo saying that he expects all of his viewers to be adults even though he advertises his content in servers that have minors in it (his server included).

Ah yes this individual is DEFINITELY an adult lmao.

By the way you can still view his content and see his posts even without a youtube account, plus even when he began age restricting his videos (idfk why he stopped doing that) his server still had minors that came from HIS channel.

Someone entered mereos server and asked mereo why he posted porn of deku from mha and some mf really said the thing that lolicon fanatics say in order to defend themselves whenever someone calls them a pedophile.

THATS LITERALLY FOR GAMES
I could say R rated movies need yoh to be 18+
But that doesn't relate

Also for some reason mereo doesn't see 16-17 year olds as kids, like yeah they are teens but LEGALLY they are still considered as kids so I dont get where he was going with this shit.

Here's a minor who's a member of mereo's server (I'm not sure if he is or isn't in mereo's server currently).

And here's his WONDERFUL messages.

Both horny demon and cosmos were 18+ at the time.

Here's ANOTHER minor

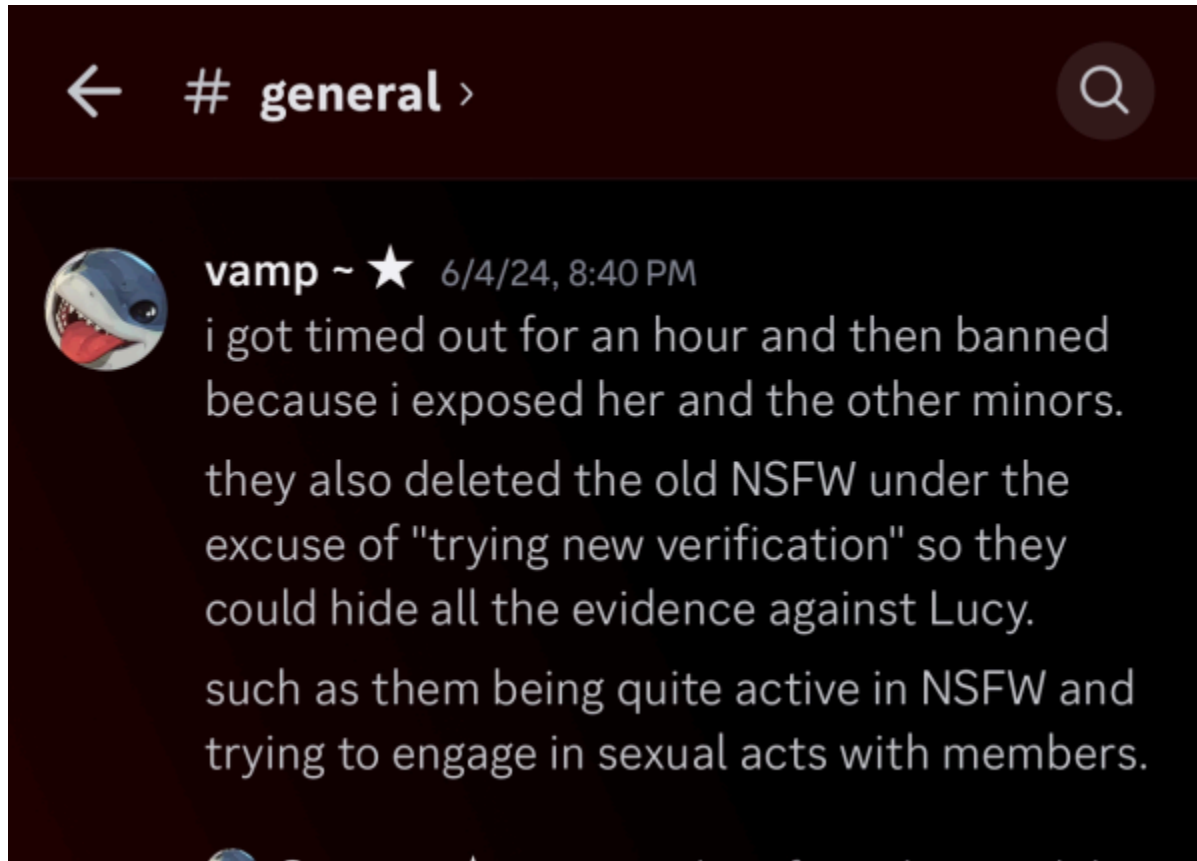

Now, this minor is a special one because she was actually the co-owner of mereo's server.

Yes thats right, a 17 year old was co-owning a server owned by an nsfw content creator, and almost everyone was unaware of her age despite her being public about it.

The members in mereos server only found out because one member named vamp outed her for being a minor, and later on that same member would be banned.

Also heres this

vamp ~ ★ 6/4/24, 8:42 PM

also, one of the creeps that was encouraging the minors to stay got junior mod before i was banned! so that was cool.

HASHAKAH 6/4/24, 8:42 PM

vamp ~ ★ 6/4/24, 8:43 PM

Cosmos

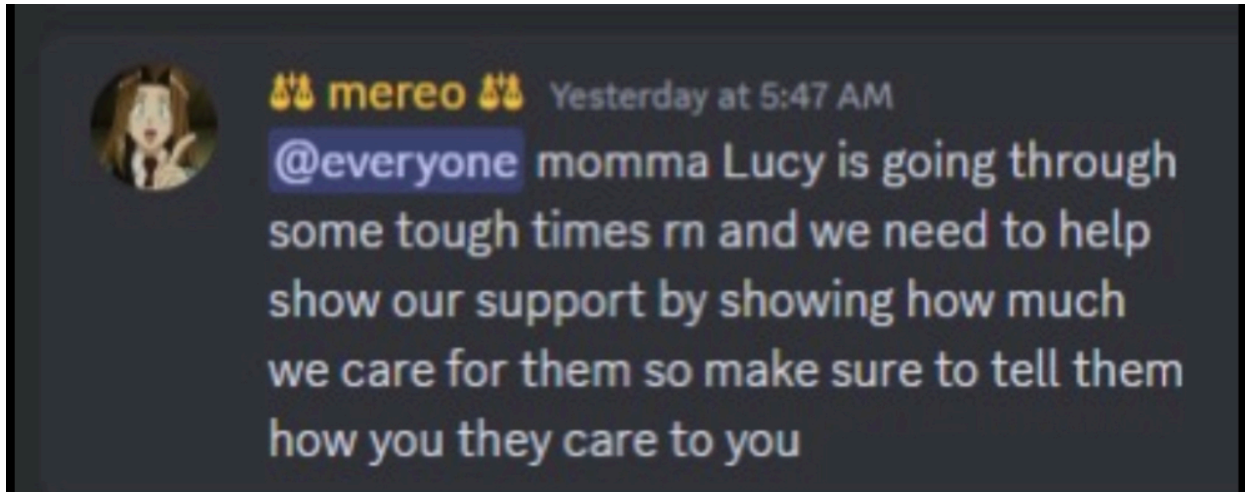

and Tdl i guess.

AND THIS

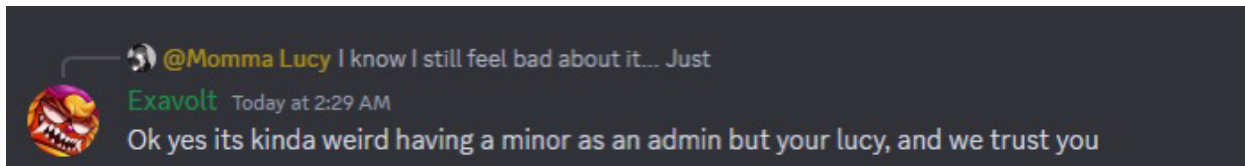

Anyways mereo refused to remove lucy from the server nor did he even remove her mod perms despite his server telling him to NOT LET HER MODERATE THE SERVER BECAUSE SHES A MINOR. And Instead of solving the situation, he worsened by adding a verification system where the members in the server had to send their ID's to lucy, yknow, the co-owner who was recently outed for being a minor.

Then he attempted to get the members to sympathize with lucy.

Then he began banning and muting members who were against having Lucy as a moderator.

So members like these weren't punished.

He was also confronted about this in his comment section and here's how it went.

@fupoflapo2386 well it's not like I can do anything now plus they are great help to the server just because my server is classified as 18+ doesn't mean all we do is 18+ stuff it's a normal server where people have fun conversations if you don't like it than don't join it

 @fupoflapo2386 · 1d ago
@Mereo_1 for your sake you should really reconsider your position because in the future this can come back to bite you, Also im not in the server but my friend is.

@Mereo_1 Yeah It's A Teen/Almost Adult But Still A Minor!

Also the pugparty guy is actually braindead. Like yeah an 18 year old cant drink or smoke but they can be in sexual environments and have sexual interactions with people who are 18+, 17 year olds cant do that because BY LAW they are still considered as minors.

And heres a convo mereo and lucy had.

Idc anymore as it makes my health and degrade it even fucking more

 mereo Yesterday at 12:26 PM
Look I'm sorry I just had no idea you were going through this I didn't check vent

Also this convo confirms that lucy was allowed to access nsfw channels and the fact that even after learning that lucy was a minor he gave her an option of whether or not she wants to moderate the nsfw channels is actually fucking wild.

Also lucy is a good person but it doesnt make sense for her to get upset at vamp for outing her.

Wanna know what's the best part about all of this? According to one of the moderators, Mereo was aware of Lucy's age the entire time.

So this means that mereo was aware of lucy's age yet still allowed her to do things such as start a whole ass esex session in the server.

By the way the verification system was removed because of how shitty it was, and yall already know why it was so shitty.

She also had this entire “mommy kink” thing going on with the server members and it got so bad to the point where her role was above everyone's roles INCLUDING MEREOS ROLE which was suppose to mean that lucy was above everyone, which is weird cuz lucy was a minor and mereo was aware of it.

The members in the server also played along with the entire mommy thing which was even weirder because most of the members in his server were ADULTS.

Serosh, one of mereos former server members, explained this situation perfectly.

Serosh 6/7/24, 9:40 PM

The entire controversy is so black and white.

You have a vulnerable TEENAGER in a position of authority in a discord server specifically targeting horny furies and their name is momma.

She made no indication that she lied about her age. I haven't seen anyone say she did. Mereo almost certainly knew, and if he didn't before he did when this blew up. Not to mention the screenshots of people admitting their age.

Bringing it up brought mutes and bans.

She had access to all the NSFW channels, and when this blew up, they had her verifying people's ID to allow them access to the NSFW channel... Like these horny bastards were sending cropped ID to the teenager to get back into the NSFW channel that was locked because of her age controversy..

Eventually the drama died after lucy left the server because of pressure, so mereo pretty much did nothing but cling onto the 17 year old moderator that was not even supposed to be moderating a server like that because it's a community full of GOONERS.

For fucks sake even lucy herself admits that the situation was caused because of mereo's stupidity.

bloopy 6/8/24, 9:57 AM

I am sorry but I gonna put my weird observasion from my perspective

The drama which started because of mereos stupidity and just bad behavior which I had accualy no clue which was happening which was for me very stressfull as I tried doing damage control and been lost

after which I comunicated with yall to kinda make it more straight and let myself not be as stressed and well just exit whole drama turns this server into just a normal comunty which..

is weird..?

but wholesome?

By the way, I want to make it clear that this isn't Lucy's fault. She was public about her age so it was pretty much mereo's responsibility to let everyone know about her age because he was pretty much the only person that was aware of her age prior to the drama. But instead, he let her do things such as moderate nsfw channels and starts a whole ass vrchat esex session in a server with a bunch of horny furry gooner adults.

Lucy is genuinely a very sweet individual once we got to know her, it was just very unfortunate that she was in such a terrible environment.

Here are some other minors who were (and are probably still are) in the server.

And despite there being an alarming amount of minors, they still decide to not add age verification and then say "HOW WERE WE SUPPOSED TO KNOW THAT THEY WERE A MINOR?!?!" when a member scolds a mod because a minor managed to access the nsfw channels. The fact that they usually have to rely on the members being public about their ages in order to actually block any minors from viewing the nsfw channels is wild because they are aware that they do have a lot of minors on their server.

Btw the lucy drama proved that they are able to implement age verification it's just that mereo and his mods are too fucking lazy to actually go through with it. And I know that there are nsfw servers out there that allow members to actually look at the nsfw shit without verifying but the difference between those servers and this server is that the non-nsfw channels are actually minor friendly and the moderators are actually competent. Plus the owner will most likely not allow a goddamn minor to moderate the nsfw channels while being aware of their age.

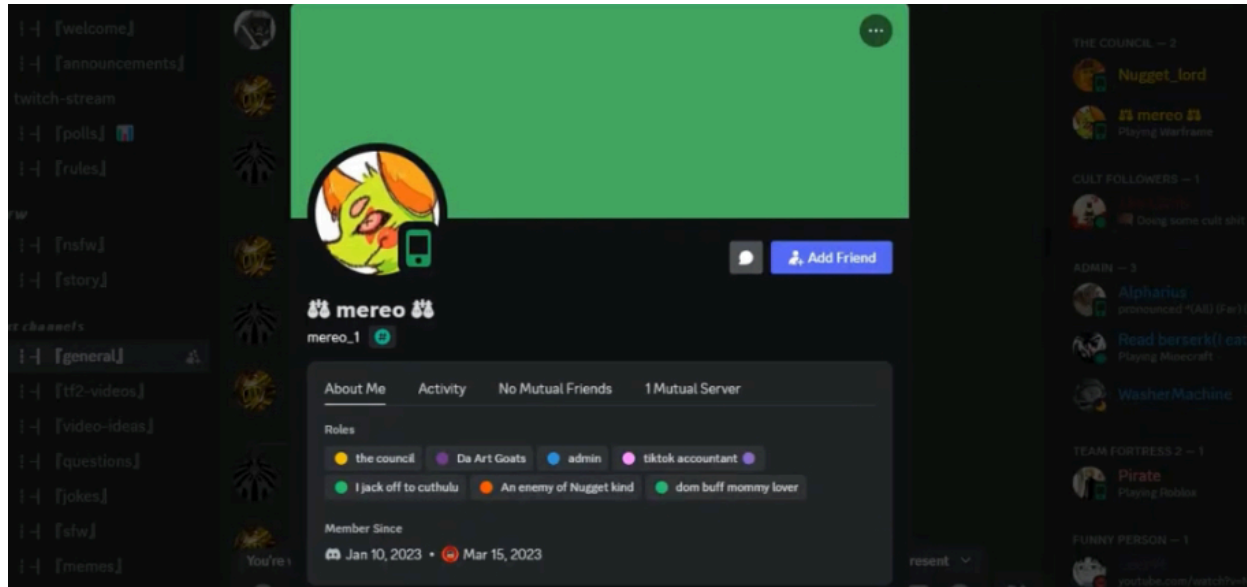

Mereo allowed a pedophile known as cosmos to moderate his server for a long time (even AFTER finding out that he was a pedophile). And after the lucy drama, he was given the head admin position.

Mereo pretty much grooming a 15 year old.

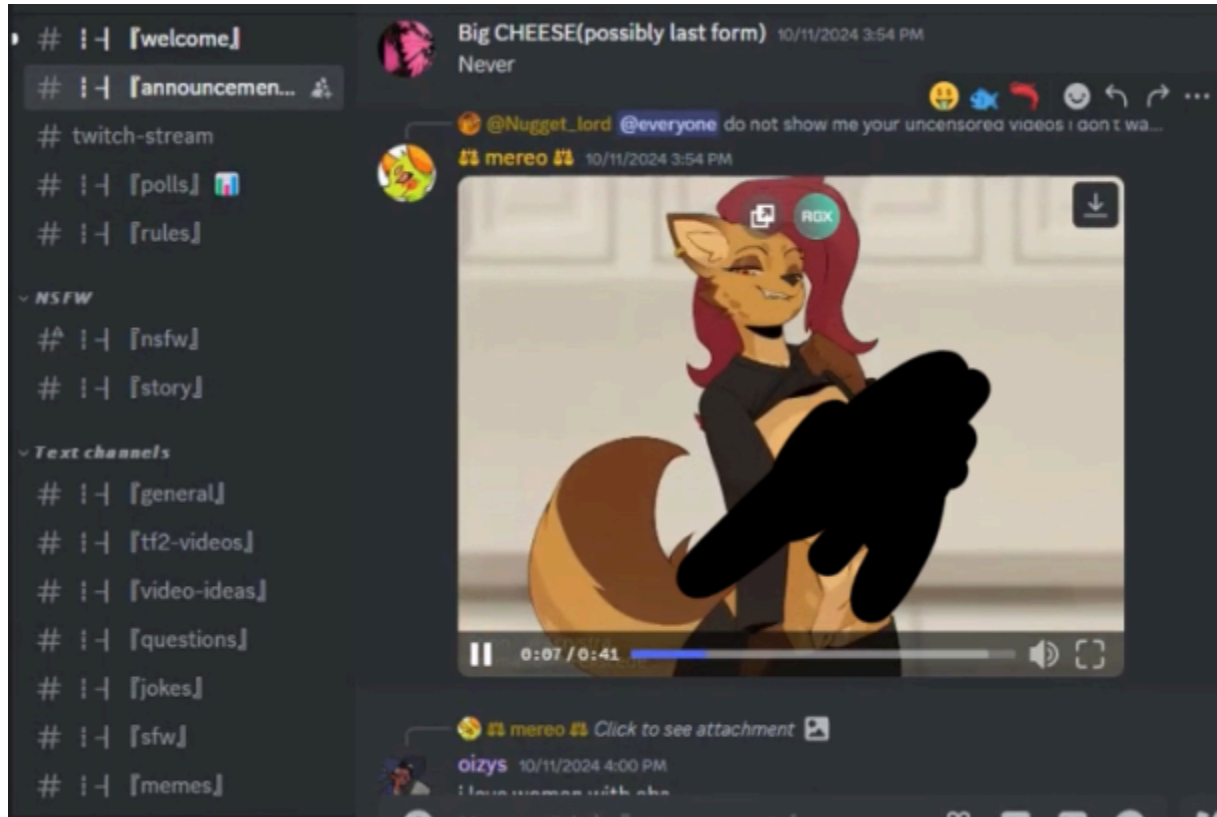

Also rule 8 makes me believe that gore used to be in the server

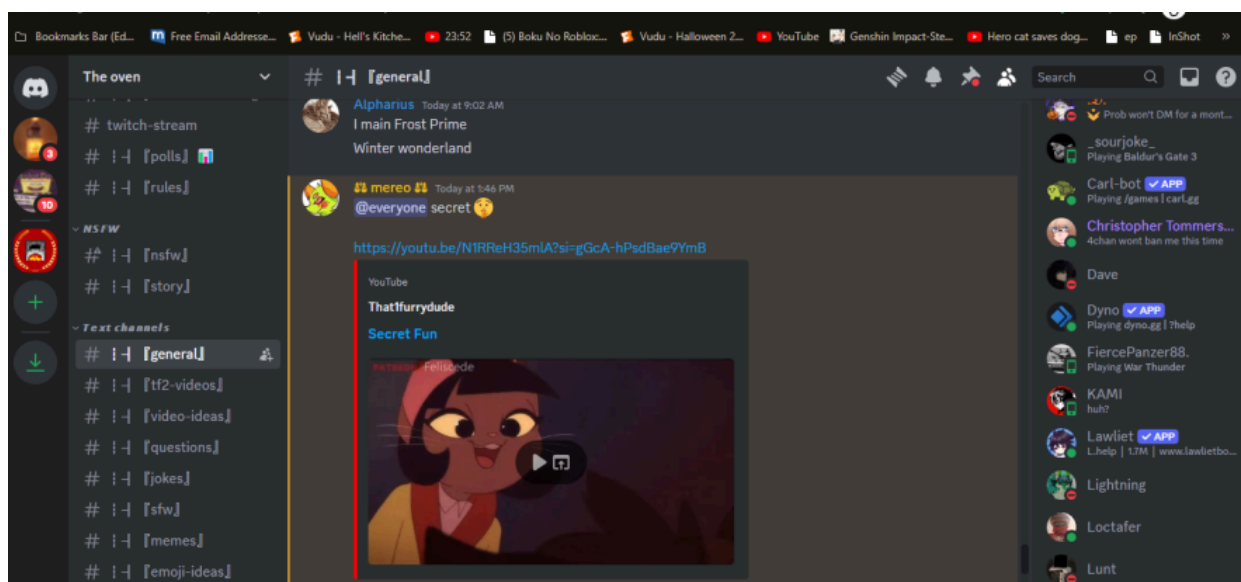

He cant say that he wasnt aware of the rules either because he has been there since 2023.

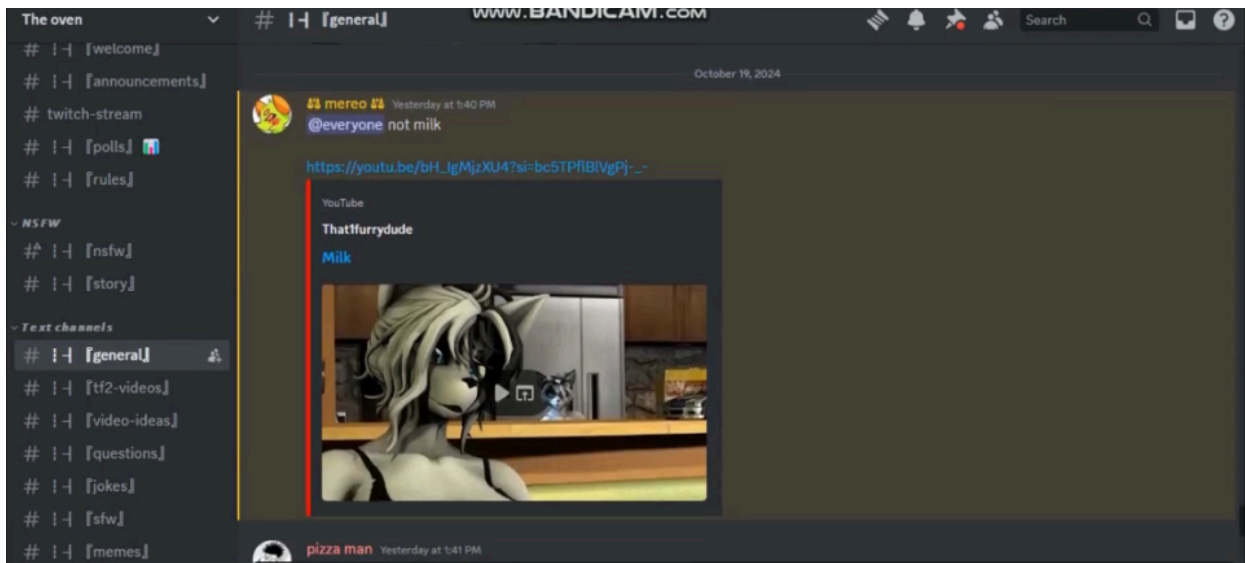

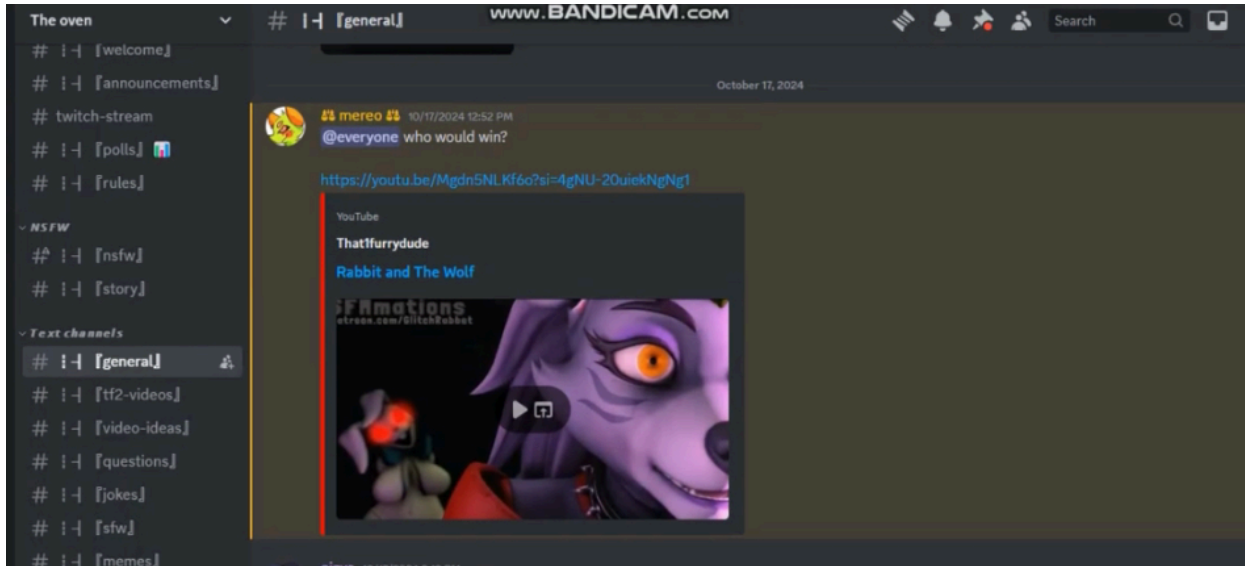

Here's ss of him posting furry porn in the announcement channel of the same server

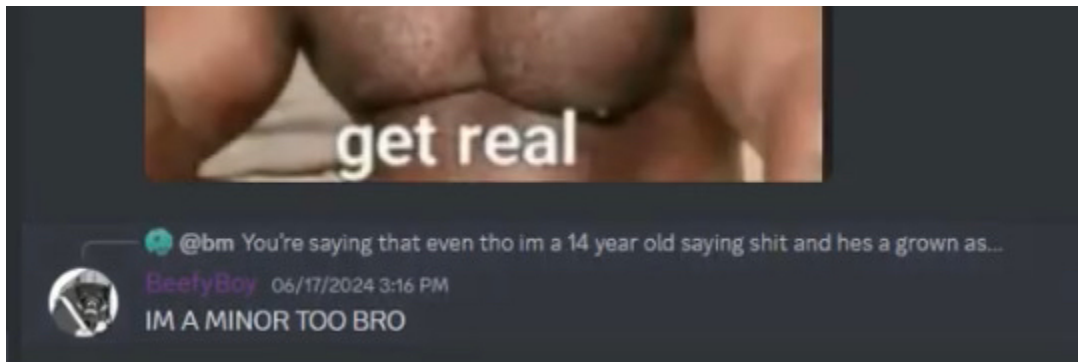

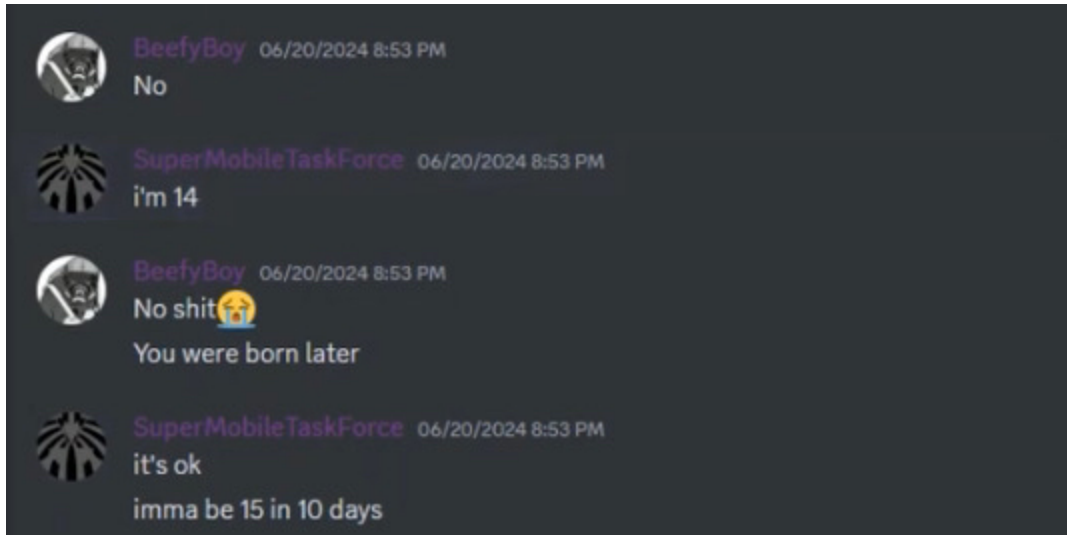

Everytime he posts a video he announces everyone in the server which is strange because didn't he say that he expects adults to be watching his content? Why is he advertising his content in a 13+ server then?

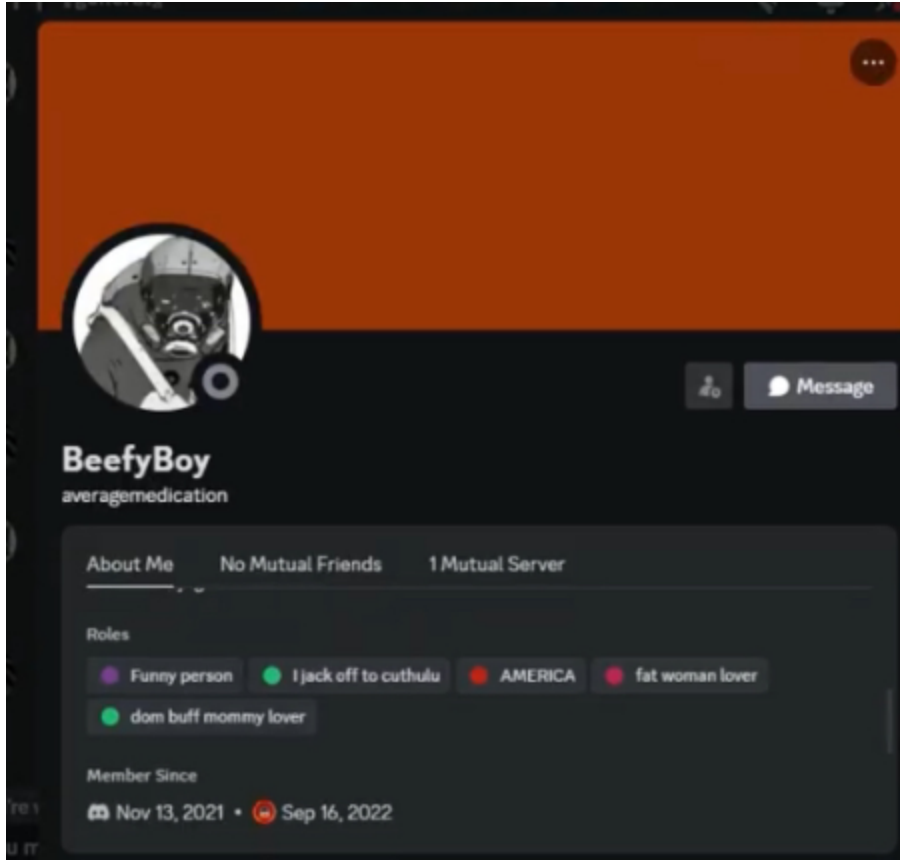

And up to this day he's still posting his content onto that server

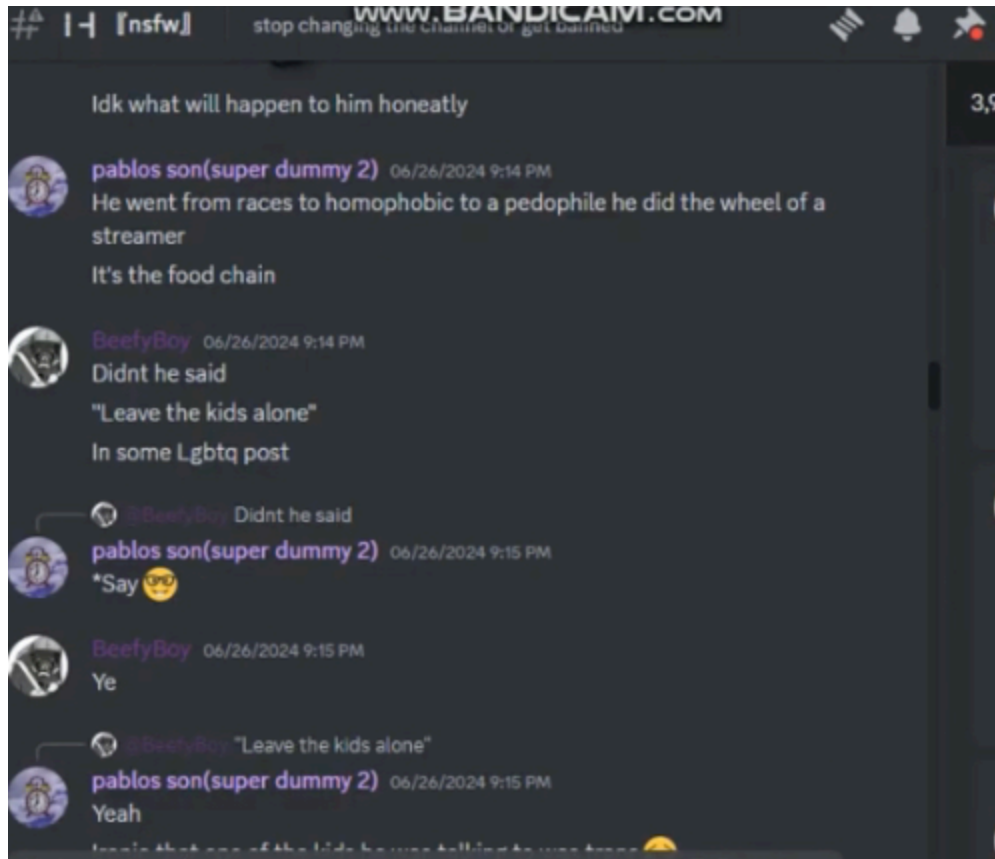

Here are a few ss proving that there ARE minors on the server.

Also look at their weird asf roles ew

Also proof that the minors are allowed to access the nsfw channels.

Sorry for the bandicam watermark I took this from a screen recording of me scrolling through the server

Fun fact: this is the server that raided my server. So mereo pretty much got a bunch of minors to send gay porn into my server with minors in it, that's nice.

Conclusion: WHAT CAN I SAY!?! MEROO LIKES SHOWING NSFW TO MINORS!!! He says that he expects his viewers to be adults yet he advertises his content in the oven and his server, and both servers have minors in them. He pretty much let a minor access nsfw channels. He has shitty moderators which is exactly why the server's sfw channels are FAR from being considered as minor friendly (remember, just because theres no porn in it doesnt mean that minors can be in it). It's a clear case of this dude being fine with showing off whatever gooner shit he has to minors.

Also if he tries to do something like add age verification or ban all the minors from his server again (he did do this but then went back to allowing minors into his server), just remember that he's doing it because he doesn't want to get in trouble, he wouldn't be doing it if he didn't receive any consequences for being a lazy irresponsible fuck.

Also yes, I understand that some of the moderators from the server are gone but let me explain.

They are not gone because of the way that they ran the server, they're gone for different reasons.

Tdl was banned for wanting mereo to ban cosmos because cosmos was outed for being a pedophile at the time.

Wolfur left after he found out that cosmos was dating a 16 year old (tho in the server he lied about the minor's age and he that they were 17).

And cosmos was banned because he was outed for being a pedophile for the SECOND time by another one of mereo's.

(also its funny how mereo continued to allow cosmos to moderate after cosmos was outed for being an individual that erp's with 16 year olds at the age of 20 because it's legal)

So these individuals weren't even banned because of their shitty server moderation skills. And please note that whatever the moderators did, mereo would let it pass, so yes, he will be held accountable for what the moderators did on his server because you need to be a responsible owner if you're gonna allow minors onto your server that's full of horny adult furry gooners!

MY ACTIONS

Of course, I have done some things throughout the drama, some good, some bad, but I'll be talking about the bad stuff that I've done.

First thing I ever did was I guess make fun of him on my community tab? But I don't think that's much.

The first major thing that I've actually done is raid his server with gay porn which set off the drama. I know it was wrong of me to do that so really that was the only time when I actually raided his server. Plus, he said it himself that it didn't do much because his server already has gay porn in it (though you could say that I was exposing nsfw to minors which is fair). And mereo did the same thing to my server so uhh... an eye for an eye I guess?

Second major thing I've done was nuke his server after one of his admins gave me admin perms on my alt. This was during/after the Lucy drama so you can see why they did it.

This is both a bad and not bad thing because at one hand, I did nuke a server, but at the other hand that same server was breaking discord tos because of the owner's stupidity and incompetence (allowing a minor to access nsfw spaces is against discord tos, wow shocker!).

Also at the beginning of the drama (and throughout the drama) I did call him a few slurs buuuutttt.....

1. I called him slurs that I can say

2. I called him slurs that didnt apply to him (for example I called him a retard but to anyone's knowledge he doesnt have any disabilities)

3. And I didn't go out of boundaries like calling him a faggot (I did call him a nigger before but it was at the beginning of the drama)

And for mereo, he did the opposite of what I did when it came to slurs.

Other than that I haven't done much that could be considered as morally incorrect. So if you hear anyone saying that I've done anything such as harass his members, make sure to ask for evidence before jumping to conclusions.

This was when we made our compromise (that he broke by trying to get his members to attack undead2020 and by allowing minors back into his server) in order to end the first drama.

Heres my apology.

 cramps Today at 5:34 PM
Back

Anyways

While i do believe what you did was morally wrong I also understand why neither of us were in the right since some of my actions were also morally incorrect.

The raid, the nuking, and the entire cosmos situation was completely my fault. It was wrong of me to do those reckless things like spam gay porn in your server and i apologize for it. I simply did that out of poor judgement, though, I had no reason to nuke your server nor was my excuse for attacking cosmos good enough.

I understand why you and your server may not forgive me but I don't expect to be forgive, I just want to sorta get rid of a bit of tension before ending this drama since i believe that it's the right thing to do.

But ay, atleast this entire shitshow is done
I got what you wanted and you got what you wanted

There is no need to continue this nor is there a need for me to push for more anyways
Honestly im kinda shocked that one action situation was completely my fault. It was wrong of me to do those reckless things like spam gay porn in your server and i apologize for it. I simply did that out of poor judgement, though, I had no reason to nuke your server nor was my excuse for attacking cosmos good enough.

I understand why you and your server may not forgive me but I don't expect to be forgive, I just want to sorta get rid of a bit of tension before ending this drama since i believe that it's the right thing to do.

But ay, atleast this entire shitshow is done
I got what you wanted and you got what you wanted

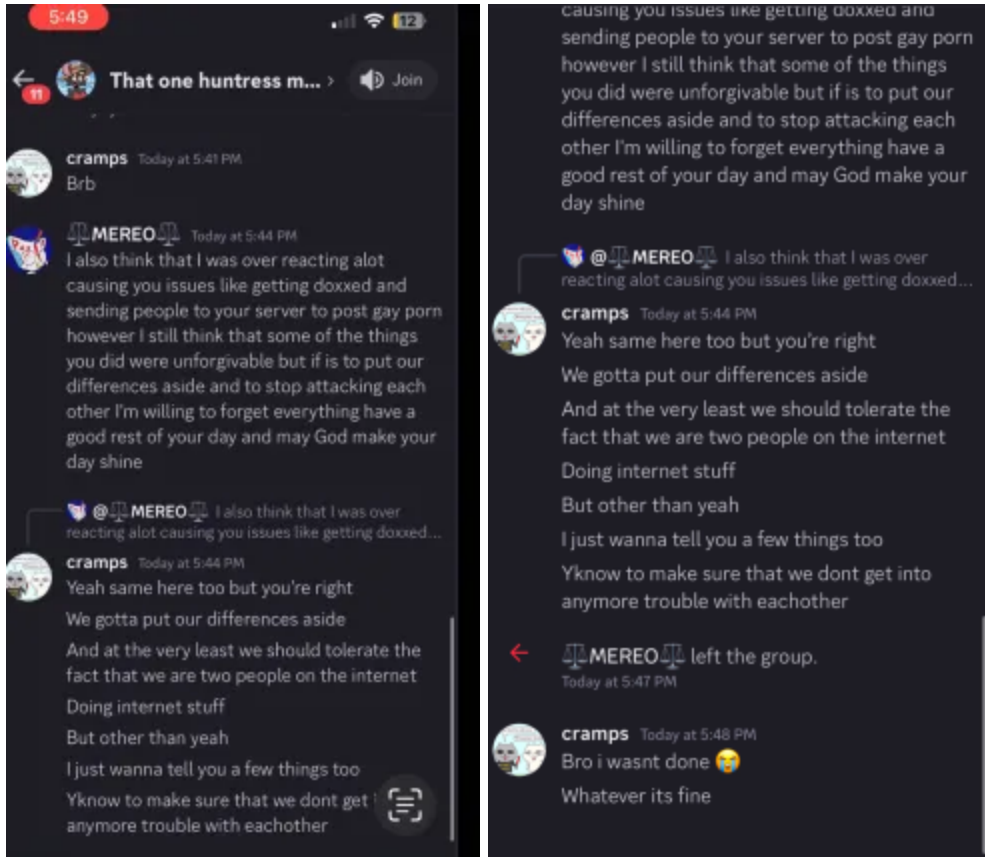

There is no need to continue this nor is there a need for me to push for more anyways
Honestly im kinda shocked that one action completely killed my drive to continue this drama lol

I was also talking about how i wanted you to be held accountable and allat stuff but tbh
You were already held accountable for your actions if you think about it

So yay

Other than the server raiding part, 90% of this apology is bullshit lmao

Here's his apology.

I love how he says that some of the things I did were unforgivable as if raiding someone's server is worse than doxxing a 14 year old lmao. Also he admits that the doxxing was mainly his fault so I don't get why he tried to tell ceehaz that the doxxing was my fault.

Conclusion: It's safe to say that mereo reacted and the fact that people keep treating him as if hes innocent is kinda funny. I have nothing else to say. If he says that I've done anything other than this, ask for evidence.

MY CONCLUSION

Mereo is an irresponsible man child who's aware that what he did is fucking terrible so he tries his best to hide his actions from his fanbase in order to prevent anyone else from going against him.

Not only that but his fanbase and his server members are also extremely disgusting. They continue to whiteknight mereo despite there being so much evidence that he isn't innocent, and why do they whiteknight him so much? Honestly, I wish that I knew the answer to that. It's crazy how so many adults would rather take the side of a manipulative gooner than someone who has a crap ton of evidence to prove that the manipulative gooner is... well... A manipulative gooner!

I don't want to add too much stuff here because I want you, the person reading this doc, to form your own conclusion.

So yeah uhh thank you for reading this document that took me WEEKS to finish,

I'll see yall next time!

EXTRA EVIDENCE (WIP)

Pretty much video evidence for anyone that wants to make any sorta video spreading awareness about mereos actions.
