

PAGE 1-2 DE-BUNKING ALLEGATIONS

PAGE 2-3 MY SIDE OF THE STORY

On the 27th of October it was revealed to me that the person i had been dating for almost 3 months had been grooming and manipulating me, on top of this it was revealed to me that they had been leaking my dms and private info to spin a narrative of lies about me that ill rebuke one by one before moving onto tonidas actions

1. "Rivernook is a pedophile"
2. "Rivernook is in colony & talks to bu5t"
3. "Rivernook is a foodist"

1:

1. If we observe the definition of pedophilia below

"Pedophilia is a psychiatric disorder in which an adult or older adolescent experiences a primary or exclusive sexual attraction to prepubescent children"

Given youve seen the screenshots tonida uses to claim i fit this description, you may quickly realise that his claims are baseless

Incase you havent realised how already, ill go over some main explanation of his on how im a pedophile

1. The "I don't care about minors in condos" screenshot

To say the context here was taken out would be a huge understatement, here i was confided in someone i believed i could trust and that could help morally guide me

What i was saying is that i was FEELING like i didnt care about minors in condos due to me being in them for so long, not that i BELIEVED they should be there, obviously not

How would you expect someone to respond to this? How would tonida respond to this? Well you can see in the screenshot itself, he clearly didnt care himself, its likely why he censored himself in it, if he truly cared about the moral shit hes preaching now, he wouldve said alot more than "Nah u fine for that" in the screenshot

2. Having minors in my server

Given the definition of pedophilia provided above, i dont think its fair to say having made moderation mistakes when it came to banning minors, in a large server with a moderator shortage would count as pedophilia, yet he still pushes this narrative

Not to mention he purposefully leaves out the effort from me and my staff to ban minors whenever they were found to be there, he also forgets to include the fact that my server did indeed have an age verification system for the NSFW portion of it, and that nsfw was banned outside that half of the server

He also claimed in our latest debate that i got my first actors for my first videos, through grooming innocent roblox players into ro-porn, and this is untrue and hes aware of it, he knows the people i got to assist for all my videos previously were already into condos and yada yada, he has zero evidence for that claim outside the fact i once mentioned had a minor kink for introducing friends of mine into the genre, but his use of this screenshot is deceptive and leaves out important context

3. "Roblox is a kids game, the genre of content you made makes you a paedophile"

My content was purely uploaded to xvideos only, an 18+ site, not to mention the claim that roblox is a kids game is outdated, many diverse agesets play roblox now, i honestly dont have alot to say regarding this argument as i find it silly and senseless

4. My use of the word cunny

I admit my use of the word cunny was irresponsible and i apologise for that, but when i had first started using it i didnt truely know what it meant, ever since i have ive stopped using it all together, additionally me having it in passwords from forever ago isnt sufficient evidence, its a normal trope for people to put edgy shit they dont mean in their PRIVATE passwords

1. "Rivernook was in colony"

I admit i had been in colony for a short amount of time after i had found the sharty, reasoning being that i wasnt fully aware of its wrongdoings at the time, it was advertised to me as a sharty themed matrix room, and that sounded interesting to me

2: "Rivernook talks to bu5t"

Again, there was a short period in time where i had until i had uncovered the depth of what bu5t had really done, which had lead me to quit talking to him, there have been numerous instances where ive condemned his & colonies actions

Tonida claims im a "Foodist" because i do what he claims foodists do, for example using DNB, I believe his use of the word foodist to describe me is deceptive, as foodists are commonly known to be CP spammers which i dont fall into the description of, but alot of the things he described that foodists do, many soyteens on raid threads already do? His claim is senseless and retarded Additionally he forgot to include the times where i had openly done things to prevent foodists in my communities, and other communities i loved, a way i had done this is by compiling a huge list of aliases foodists and cp spammers and sharing it with mine and other communities, one of them being Andre's wrld

Onto the next segment of the document i would like to highlight the wrongdoings and manipulation tonida has committed to not only myself but many of you, ill begin this segment by giving a breif overview of our relationship

3-4 months ago as of writing i met tonida on a twitch raid thread, he had asked me if i wanted to be his friend and i accepted, as his friend i wanted to play things with him, roblox being one example, and he had revealed to me his avatar in the process (It was a femboy), he had expected judgement in the process but didnt receive any, following this he began to tell me how appreciative he was of how unjudging i was towards him, despite us meeting in a community that he claims has a plethora of judgement, a few weeks later, he had asked me to be his partner, i asked him if i could truely trust him with my heart and he had told me yes, now i feel ashamed in myself for believing him when he told me this

Additionally around this time, tonida had revealed to me his 2nd identity that hed use for things such as RR34 (Roblox rule 34) and Roblox r34 related activity called LemonHearted, i was fairly open to hearing this as i admittedly had similar interested, he would show me custom commissioned NSFW artwork of his avatars he had purchased with robux he had gained through catfishing and manipulation, however upon me hearing the inefficiency in his methods i wanted to suggest to him my personal method of robux revenue of which was alot more efficient, and additionally honest, using my method he had gained around 5k+ robux anyways, after he had fully revealed himself to to me in that regard, he would begin grooming me through telling me how proud he was of the nefarious things id do, hed specifically tell me the video that made him fall in love with me was one where i had mistakenly made a woman cry, as our relationship aged his affection has begun to dwindle and i would desperately do these things more and more to try seek out his love, late into the relationship i had mostly quit roblox ERP, hadden gotten sick of it, and he would often tell me how he missed ERPing with me, and wished we did it together more often

On the 19th of october it had been revealed to me by his new girlfriend that he had been cheating on me with someone within my own friend group, this left me incredibly isolated, as i couldnt bring it upon myself to forgive or talk to him, or talk in my friend group either as it felt awkward for me to be around the 2 of them, but regardless i continued to do the nefarious things hed tell me he was proud of me for, hoping he would love me again

On the 25th of october i had brought up the courage to forgive him, even though he did not deserve it, i felt as if i was neglecting my responsibilities as the leader of my group over a petty personal relationship, and i felt ashamed for that

After i had forgiven him, he would overwhelm me in flattery and love about how long he was waiting to hear that from me, and how he was so proud of how productive i was without him, we had gone back to our typical routine of playing things together and raiding together

This was short lasting however as on the 27th i was awoken to a large barrage of notifications from my pc, seeing countless friends of mine that i had loved for so long abandoning me or ridiculing me, the stress i was feeling in that moment was immeasurable and im sure it wouldve been for almost anyone

I requested to be added to a private gc with tonida where i could confront him for knowingly lying about me, and betraying me after everything i had done to him, however this discussion was framed more like a debate, and given my sheer amount of stress i did not have the capacity to give well written responses, however in this discussion he had revealed to me that he was manipulating me the whole time, and excuses his participation in all the things he claims im "Evil" for as a "Sting operation", however alot of evidence goes against this theory but ill get into that later

I had been offering to debate him against since 28/29th of october, and he only decided to do so on November 3rd, i intended for this debate to be a 1on1 where he could debate on the claims i made against him, and the claims he had made about me, however what actually happened is he had me added to a gc with 3 people, he kept adding more and more people, and he kept turning down responding to any of my pre-written claims against him, to give context i was the first person there to have posted anything regarding topic or anything, yet tonida and his friends repeatably kept trying to swap topics, i was insistent that i would NOT debate with multiple people and that i would NOT switch topics from the one i had first chosen unless both me and tonida agreed to, tonida continuously derailed this discussion alongside the EIGHT friends he had added to the groupchat

Is it not morally questionable to claim someone is a pedophile, take away their platform to defend themselves, then afterwards give them ZERO chance to speak their own side? Or defend themself? Is there ZERO respect or humility? Friends of mine who i have been loving and kind towards recently have been so disappointed in me due to his lies that im a pedophile, and he has given me zero chance to rebuke them

It was soon later revealed to my knowledge that tonida and his friends had been planning this for a while, tonida presents himself as some person with all the screenshots and evidence, but how does he expect me to meet that same standard given he had time to prepare and i had not?

In regards to the debate here is all the arguments i had pre-written and planned to debate on first id like to start the conversation by apologising for my disappointing response in our last discussion, as you could likely have imagined the stress at the time made it impossible to think straight

id like to frame this discussion claim by claim to try prevent any derailment, if either one of you would like to suggest we change to a new claim free feel to do so, aslong as its in reason (obviously)

My first claim id like to debate with you on is that not only are you a groomer that has manipulated me, but everyone else youve spread your numerous lies to
The metropolitan police claims the definition of grooming is

"Grooming is when a person builds a relationship with a child, young person or an adult who's at risk so they can abuse them and manipulate them into doing things.

The abuse is usually sexual or financial, but it can also include other illegal acts."

Additionally here are some common tropes signs and behaviours of groomers

1. Isolation
2. excessive attention
3. gaslighting
4. subtle shaming
5. playing the victim
6. inconsistent behaviour

I believe you fit most the descriptions up above and some of my evidence for such goes as follows

"Grooming is when a person builds a relationship with a child, young person or an adult who's at risk"

1. You were fully aware i was younger than you
2. You were fully aware of my growing mental illness due to greif
3. You were fully aware of my mental disability of autism

"so they can abuse them and manipulate them into doing things."

You claim what you did to me was a "Sting operation", but there are countless instances of you encouraging me to continue the behaviour youre now vilifying me for, i did alot of what i did for you

"1. Isolation"

You purposefully cheated on someone in my main friend group as a means of making it feel uncomfortable for me to talk there, furthermore isolating me from the people i knew

"2. excessive attention"

I dont believe i have to explain this one much

"3. gaslighting"

After i had forgiven you when you didnt deserve it 6 days after you cheated on me, you attempted to vilify me for not wanting to share any of my personal information with you in our relationship due to past trauma, you had made zero attempt to communicate your dissatisfaction with me or help me get past this trauma, yet you still found a way to make me feel sorry for you

"4. subtle shaming"

Theres a few instances of this but its not that important so imma skip over it

"5. playing the victim"

Given your recent activity i dont believe there is much reasoning for me explaining this one, you claim i "Took advantage of your loneliness" however do you have any evidence of that? you were the person who initiated the relationship, you were the person who began being affectionate with me in the first place

"6. inconsistent behaviour"

I believe your recent activity has shown this on my behalf ill go deeper into detail later

If you would like me to go deeper into detail on specific points or whatever id be delighted to do so

My next claim is that you neglected your responsibility to handle the situation responsibly, additionally i 100% believe you are a morally bankrupt person with next to no shame for your wrongdoings

Some instances of the former would say would be

1. You continued to groom me, ro-fuck me and encourage me to make clips&pornvideos when you couldve just sat me down and explained you wanted me to quit, with my strong love for you at the time i most likely wouldve, but instead of this you almost drove me to suicide
2. You present yourself yourself with some unhumble hero attitude for what you did
3. even if your claim was "good" making a big show and dance about it really goes to show your character, most people would agree doing "good" things only in public shows signs of malice, compared to people who good deeds in private (Proverbs 27:2)
4. You claimed my server was a "Groomercord" implying all 5k people there would be victims, if you GENUINELY believed all 5600+ people there were victims you wouldnt have approved yourself and your friends to nuke it with some insensitive bullshit like "Evil KSI", thats morally comparable to wearing a hookers outfit to a funeral
5. You made an account impersonating me (@oblinity) to spew paedophilic nonsense under my name, not only calling into question your morality but making the validity of ALL your screenshots very questionable, and i know you were responsible as you used a name i havent shared with anyone in over 3 years

Some instances of the latter would be

1. You openly admitting to having made up a story of having an abusive father to someone with past trauma of something similar
2. When i suggested to you that i should add a mental health portion of my server, you turned down the idea, claiming no one would care, but when you nuked my server you again, made a big song and dance about "Muh porn addiction bad! Start the easypeasy method now!!"
3. You would praise me and flatter me for doing morally wrong things, promoting me to do them further (For example, sending dead babies to streamers o algo)
4. You were very much so aware of a trauma i had regarding doxxing, and you abused that, even when it wasnt necessary

My next statement is that im NOT a pedophile

The definition of pedophilia goes as follows

"Pedophilia is a psychiatric disorder in which an adult or older adolescent experiences a primary or exclusive sexual attraction to prepubescent children."

Within none of your screenshots can i see any real evidence of me falling into this category, only mistakes in moderation

In your defamation of my character youve forgotten to include details like when ranoyacord had an age verification system for the nsfw portion, or when i banned loli shit from negev battalion

I 100% believe that not you even yourself truly believes the claim that im a pedophile, youre manipulatively using the word to dehumanise me so people cant sympathise with me, even if the claim isnt true

Additionally you also claim im a pedophile for not having strict enough age verification on the roprostitution system, yet you were admin and had power at the time to fix this, yet you only now mention it? if you truly always had a problem with it, you wouldnt only be bringing it up now

And heres all he responded to in our debate due to derailment from his side

"Grooming is when a person builds a relationship with a child, young person or an adult who's at risk"

1. You were fully aware i was younger than you
2. You were fully aware of my growing mental illness due to greif
3. You were fully aware of my mental disability of autism

Heres how his responses went, do note these are copied verbatim

1. "You told me you was 17"
2. "Your mother died over a month ago it was my assumption you were over her already"
3. "If you was REALLY mentally ill you wouldnt be here debating right now"

My responses to these went as follows

1. I criticised his inconsistency for dating what he believed to be a 17 year old when he was 18, yet hes been commonly criticising me for allowing 17 year olds to stay in my community
2. I had zero words for this one, the insensitivity had really left me shocked, i did attempt to tell him I had the funeral the day prior to the debate, and his response was "Proof???"
3. I had repeatably referenced times to him where i communicated with him i wasnt, but i also believe this statement from him is very much so self incriminating, and goes to show that he was AWARE i wouldnt be able to respond to the allegations for a long time, especially due to the fact i had recently communicated with him about a trauma i had surrounding doxxing, that he had abused during his campaign of defamation against me

Heres some pictures of the debate below, pay close attention to just how many blocked messages there are due to how many people he added @Tonida and what about all of the people you FRIENDED ON ROBLOX for erp?

Rivernøok Today at 00:27
Your claim is that i promoted it on roblox, and thats your evidence?

Message Rivernook... the Peely.

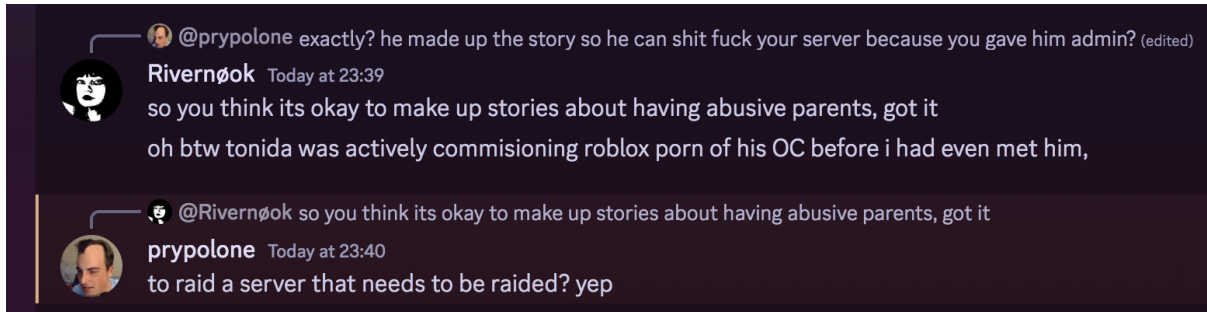

●●● Tonida is typing...

Heres him dogpiling while i was busy typing a response to a previous arguement

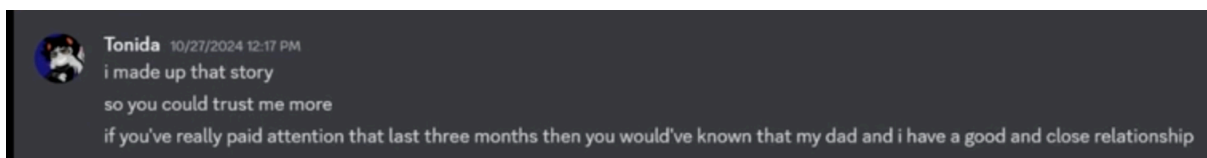

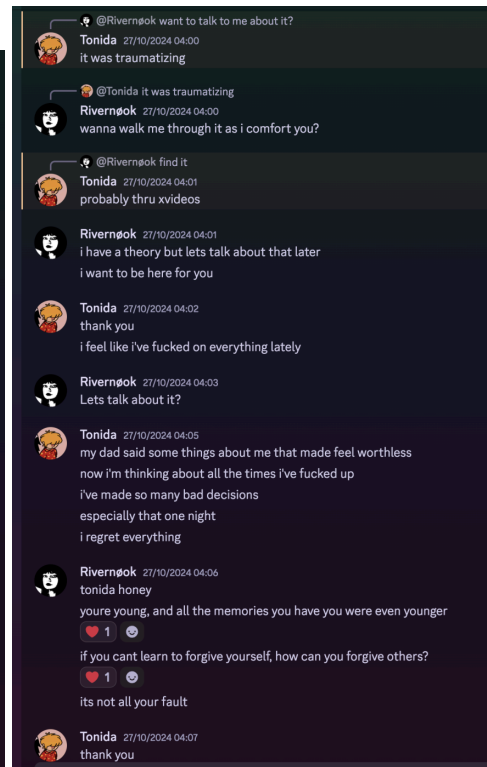

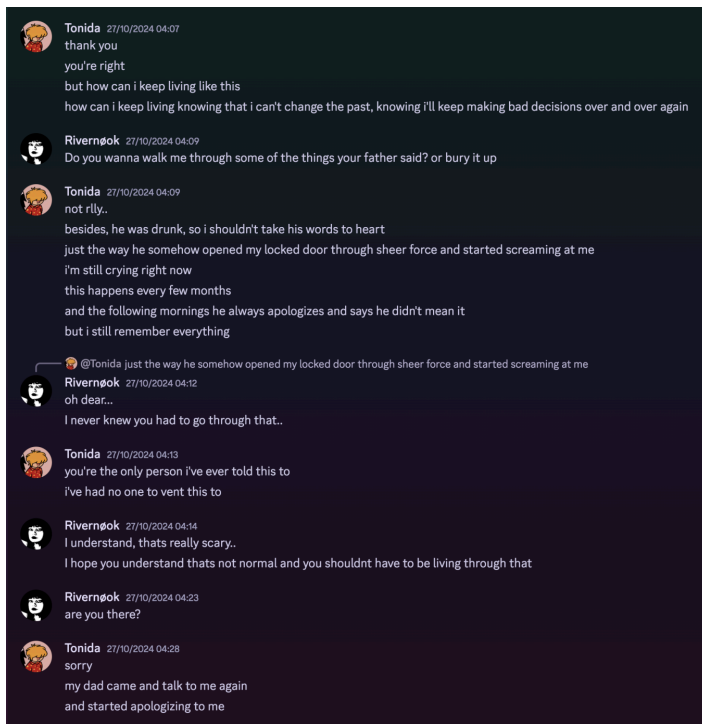

Prior to this he was insisting i response to a pre written “response” he had made that barely responded to all the points in my original message, and while i was writing a response you can observe him trying to swap topic again, derailing, and dogpiling, he claims to be some “hero” yet has zero professionalism

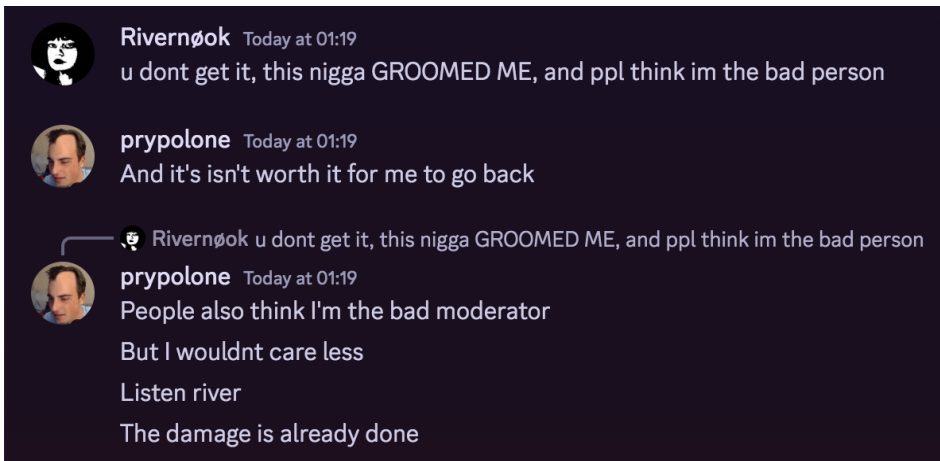

Additionally i had a small debate with a friend of his, and an ex friend of mine by the name kirce

He insisted on defending tonidas action of making up stories about having an abusive drunken father, you can see him doing this here

After our small debate kirce had changed his mind on tonidas morality, yet still insists that him grooming me doesnt really matter, how lovely!

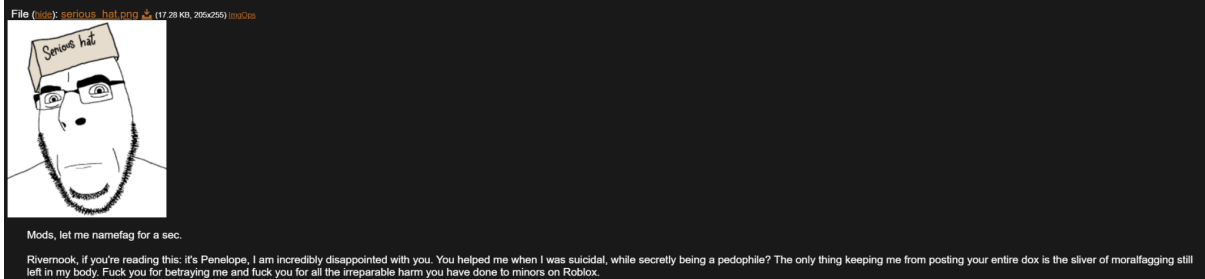

TONIDAS DISHONESTY, COWARDICE & IRRESPONSIBILITY

In this next segment i intend to reveal to you tonidas true character, ill attempt to structure is so that the smaller points are up at the top, and the larger ones are at the bottom

1. Tonida some reason felt the need to censor himself out of ALL the screenshots he posted of our dms, not only is this manipulative as it can stir the narrative that all of the screenshots are with different people, but its also very cowardly and shows hes too afraid to stand on his own point
2. Tonida has deleted all of his messages with me, and all traces of his “Lemonhearted” identity, this of which includes 2 (many years old) roblox accounts, and one discord account, if he was truly innocent, what would he be feeling the need to hide? He claims he did this to prevent me stirring a false narrative out of our dms together, but that 100% comes off as reflection
3. Tonida was aware i had been wanting to debate him since the 29th, but had continuously delayed, and whenever someone neutral or friendly towards me would offer to host it, he would fully ignore it, he only conceded on the 3rd of november when his friend tarowo was the one to host it, does this not show cowardice? If he truly believed what he preached, what would he be so afraid of? Hes had all the benefit given the circumstance, yet hes afraid of an honest debate, without a gorillion friends with him to back him up when he makes nonsensical points against me
4. Tonida continuously suggests that all five thousand members of my server was actively being victimised by my activities yet he allowed his friends to nuke it with some immature bullshit like “EVIL KSI”, if he and his friends truly had sympathy and worry for the people in my server, why would he or anyone else morally approve of his behaviour and conduct?
5. Tonida continuously criticises me for things such as limited ID/age checking, or a few minors slipping through moderation, yet he was admin for a LONG time, even if he eventually did plan to nuke the server, if he genuinely believe all members were being actively victimised/groomed due to the problems he raises, he wouldve suggested/implemented some reforms/fixes to help limit the amount of victims THEN, he does NOT believe in what he preaches
6. Was it all necessary?
Given my loyalty to tonida during our time dating, if he had sat me down earlier and explained to me the error of my ways, or that he wanted me to quit certain things for him, I 100% wouldve, But no instead he believes the necessary course of action was nuking doxxing harassment & isolation, Is this not irresponsible behaviour?

I cannot exaggerate the sheer amount of damage his defamation has caused, people i have been loving and caring to for so long have abandoned me

Tonida is fully aware of what hes caused, and he feels no a single ounce shame or empathy, this person in particular i had expressed to him that i had missed and longed to talk to again, yet tonida has taken from me

7. IMPERSONATION

As you may have noticed in the debate screenshots you might have noticed theres a second account there resembling mine, he makes zero attempt to establish it doesnt belong to me, instead he uses it to harass fans of mine with racial slurs and harassment, not only does this make his morality questionable, it makes all of his screenshots questionable, hes dropping the poison of pure dishonesty into one of the chalices, and now no one can logically trust any of them at first glance, this was a severe moral and logical blunder on his end

He may try to respond to this that one of his friends are running the account, but that doesnt change the fact that hes associated with it and doesnt care to condemn it at all, its objective evil

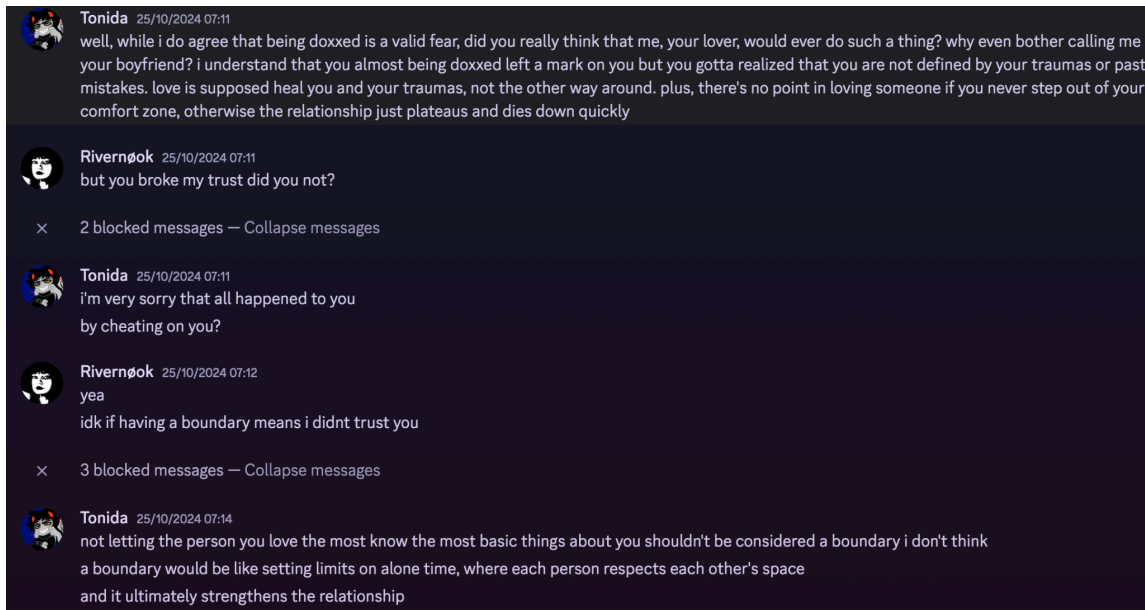

8. MORE insensitivity?

If you would watch any of his or friends edits, you would notice theres a lack of seriousness within them, again, if he genuinely thought over 5k people in my server were actively being victimised, he wouldnt approve of immature BS such as "evil KSI", you would expect someone capable of grooming someone younger than them to be more mature than this but no And again he may try to combat this claim that his friends made the edits but during the 27-28th his discord activity showed him on capcut so its hard to honestly dispute

9. Tonida blames me for falling back into his porn addiction while dating me, however i had not heard of this until this day of writing (November 3rd), tonida actively made ZERO attempt at communication during our relationship, he would bottle things he would dislike about me and only release them at large quantities at a time, using problems in our relationship i was unaware to make me feel sorry for him (Common groomer trope BTW)

One of my favourite instances of this is where he expresses to me that one of the reasons he stopped loving me is because i would never share with him any real information/pictures about myself, this was due to a trauma around doxxing he was fully aware of, but during our ENTIRE relationship he had made ZERO comment about this, only did he mention this after we had broken up from him cheating on me, and somehow he still gaslit me into feeling sorry for him

He claimed i didnt truly love him or trust him, and thats why i never shared my personal information with him

He claimed that “Love was supposed to heal your traumas, you just didnt love me” or whatever, however he made zero attempt at trying to help me get over the trauma in question

NOTABLE MENTION: INCONSISTENCY IN TONIDAS RESPONSES

Tonida has went from claiming that he lied to me our entire relationship as a “Sting operation” to cover up his misdoings, however once hes now noticed that admitting to manipulating someone more vulnerable than himself is a bad look hes now claiming that ive somehow took advantage of his loneliness and encouraged his porn addiction??

Inconsistency in your telling of “your side” very much so a trope of groomers and manipulators, he cant stick to any real story so he relies on taking chats of mine with someone i trusted out of context

IN CONCLUSION, Tonida is a groomer that FAILED to stand on his statements, he FAILED to stand on his morals, he FAILED to stand by his allegations, hes a loser that needed 8 people to back him up in a debate against his victim and still managed to humiliate himself

I hope this is well received, i most likely wont return to places like the sharty given the irreversible damage hes caused to my reputation, even if im innocent,

However i can assure you part 2 will come as tonidas 2nd hvlloween sorry if my formatting was kinda ass this was my first time using google docs

If you wanna ask me questions or whatever send it to negevist@onionmail.org

TL;DR tonida gets mugged by superior facts and logic
