General

I wanted to warn others about @translesbiantop AKA Lucy Dissler. She is a pedophile, a rapist, and an abuser. She groomed & raped me when I was 14 and she was 21, and she has been named as a rapist and abuser by others. Some of the screenshots below have been redacted to protect other victims and because I want to abstain from misgendering Lucy as much as possible. If you'd like me to add anything to this post, please email me at disslerarchive@gmail.com. Please feel free to share this document using this link.

1/12/21 Update: On January 8th, 2021 I publicly replied to Lucy on Twitter and described my story. You can read my thread here at this link. After posting this, Lucy has to my knowledge deactivated all of her social media accounts listed below; none of her "inner circle" has responded to me. I also posted my story in the Discord server Lucy was adminning at the time and was immediately banned. The other mods on the server later removed Lucy and her inner circle of defenders; however, the server was deemed a lost cause and was deleted entirely a few hours later.

1/14/21 Update: I'm not sure what's going on with the new server or the subreddit moderation, but it seems like some people's posts on the sub are being deleted by mods, including a post from the old server's admin explaining why it was deleted. I reached out to the first moderator listed on the subreddit when I found a podcast episode that described /r/LesbianGamers as "Lucy's subreddit". That moderator then reached out to me via Twitter and tweeted at some of the people mentioned in my thread. I stopped responding to them on Twitter the night of the 12th because they were taking the conversation in directions I wasn't comfortable with. After I was allowed into the original server, I saw several people say that this mod had also overstepped boundaries and that they weren't comfortable with the mod being affiliated with the new server, which I believe. I was never involved in the subreddit or Discord before I posted my story, and I never knew any of these people before then either, but I'm inclined to believe people who come forward about being harmed. No matter what happens with this community in the future, it won't change the fact that the below info is all true, well-documented, and posted in good faith.

Lucy, I know you've read this because you've deleted some of the below accounts since this link was published. No matter how many accounts you remake, others will find out about your history of abuse and pedophilia. Stop trying to evade the truth with your circle of sycophants and accept responsibility.

My Story

In August 2010, when I was 14, Lucy groomed me into a BDSM-style relationship and sexually, emotionally, and psychologically abused me daily for months. She made me wear a dog collar, isolated me from my friends and family, and degraded me until I was volatile and desperate. She threatened me by telling me she planned to kidnap and murder a girl who had once “falsely” accused her of rape.

Our relationship culminated in me trying to kill myself twice. I never received any resolution nor justice, even when I reported what happened as an older teenager and adult. Ever since then, I’ve struggled with depression, self harm, C-PTSD, eating disorders, and general mental health issues.

Other Evidence

A search of her legal/deadname reveals a public criminal record for assault and battery in the state of Michigan. (I don’t have a way to link this or screenshot this without revealing her deadname or other sensitive information.)

In the early 2010s, Lucy was semi-well-known in anime and cosplay circles. She had a popular tumblr account, helioscentrifuge, and a reputation for being charming, witty, and “seductive”. Searching for “helioscentrifuge” on Google images reveals a couple of her more popular posts, including old selfies which I will not link uncensored here.

A search of this username or the name “Primarch Dissert” reveals many different accounts from around 2015 of Lucy pursuing minors for sex and sexually abusing her friends, along with more general accounts of abuse. Right after the most popular tumblr post gained traction, she scrubbed and abandoned her old social media, rebranding under her current handle.

Two posts on a forum thread of “cosplayers to watch out for”:

Dudes name is Disser, dunno the first name. They target young girls. They're 25, and have targeted people as young as 16 and has on one known occasion had sex with someone underage. Their handle most places is HeliosCentrifuge. Texas based, but goes to cons in other states. They will deny any accusation brought up so it is best to avoid them, as most of the manipulation/coercing/etc will go on in private or seem very charming in public.

disser was a personal abuser to me for years. they go after anyone who's vulnerable and attractive and will butter you up and then as soon as you have a differing opinion will shut you down and make you feel afraid of speaking up. they cosplay as nic cage and carlos the scientist for reference

I'm not sure if they still go by the name, but when I knew them they went by the name Primarch Disser. They frequent anime conventions in Texas and other states, for example Youmacon in Detroit and ACEN in Chicago. When you meet this person their charisma is overwhelming and they use that to their advantage. In the couple years that I knew them they basically had a bunch of people following them like dogs. If someone contradicts them or does something that makes them mad, they do their best to socially isolate that person. For example, they told all my friends that I was crazy and manipulated them into abandoning me when I was basically suicidal. They also go after underage girls and raped one of my friends when she was still a minor. Disser is a terrible person who uses their charm to manipulate people and pursue young girls. Please avoid them and/or keep them away from young girls.

A tumblr post with first and secondhand accounts from several people describing assault, abuse, and sex pest boundary pushing, including supporting reblogs:

posted 5 years ago with 462 notes

ok so do i have a tale to tell you about tumblr user helioscentrifuge aka primarch disser aka sun-spiral

content warning

- abuse
- rape
- pedophilia
- general grossness
- nsfw text

names are changed for safety reasons. i'd rather anyone come at me than other people because they were minors at the time and don't deserve any flack from this.

- They tended to be very very flirty to the point of being aggressive and would count 16 as "fuckable" even though they were in their mid twenties already. They constantly told me how sexy our friends KAMI and KYO were even though they were barely 16 at the time.

I went along with it, dismissing it as them just being flirty because i was TERRIFIED of the backlash of disagreeing with them at the time.

- they don't take no for an answer and push and push. they are also KNOWN to try and break people up by causing fights and going after the "weaker" of the relationship to do so. hell Diss was talking to me regularly and sending me unsolicited porn gifs of my kinks. the conversations stopped when i demanded them to not do that any more because i was uncomfortable
- when you finally tell them NO they alienate you from the group and turn people against you, because they have the charisma and words to do it. they have been known to delete entire skype chats because of falling outs because they don't want people having proof of their shitty behavior

[REDACTED] im sorry i didnt think about it until like

[REDACTED] dude im sorry

heliosCentrifuge because had i known this was going to be a thing i would have made different arrangements thank you for making my delightfully awful night worse

My friend [REDACTED] is 18 now, but it took her almost 2 years to come out and say what happened.

On one of the nights that youmacon she and Disser got into it. She told Disser that she wasn't ready for sex, and handjobs were fine, and Disser up and told her they were going to try something, and proceeded to stick their dick in her without any protection, and asked her "does it hurt?"

She responded with a yes, that hurts, and Disser then spent the rest of the con ignoring her for R

When I met Asshole, I was 19 and they were 23 and I was already concerned that they were too old for how hard they were flirting with me, and the thing is the entire friend group they added me to was almost entirely high school age girls, and they hit on them just as bad

There was a period of time after I got added where we did google hangouts frequently (the days before group skype video calls) and somehow they set up the expectation that everyone be shirtless, so they were seeing underage boobs on the regular as an expectation of acceptance in the group

They had a really pervasive habit of assuming arousal was consent

One of our conversations the first few weeks we talked, they talked about how they were at an alternative bar and decided to slam their casual friend against a wall and start fingering her without warning and they said they had a worry about her consent and then interpreted her moan as 'oh good she consents'

They did this to me a lot, and I don't know if I will ever know if I wanted a lot of the things we did or not

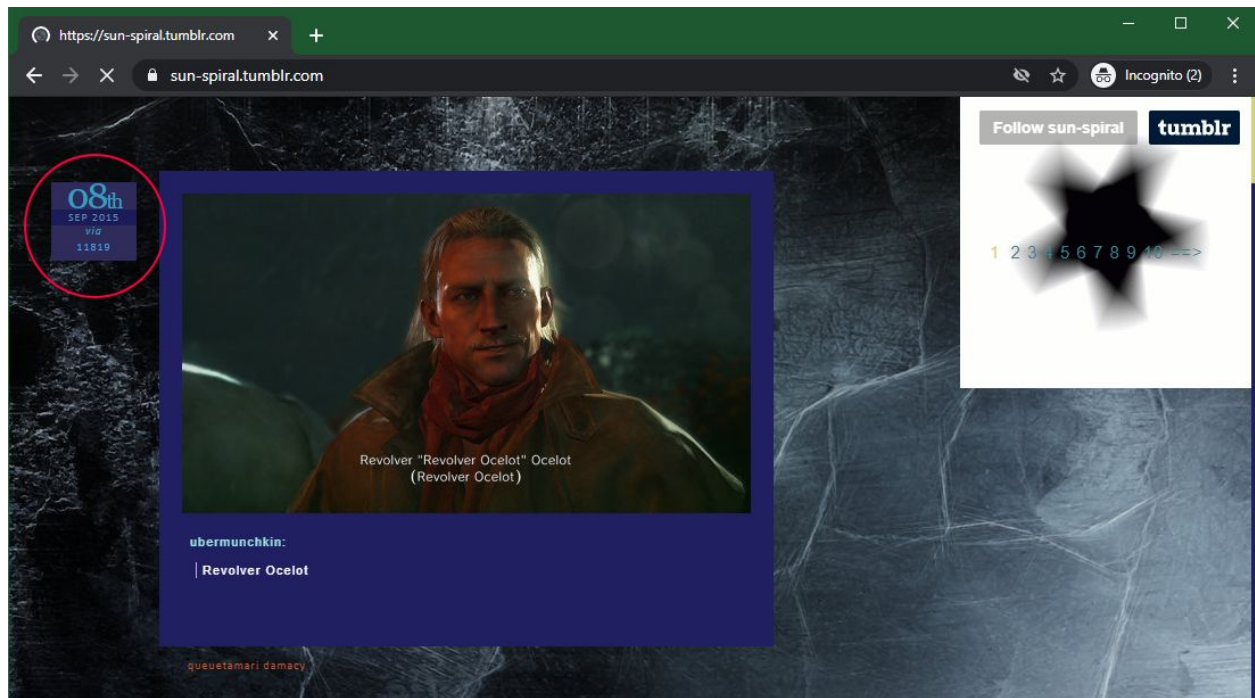

There was at least once that they didn't even pretend to care if I was having fun, they treated me as something to put their dick in because we were sleeping on my friends' couch and my friends hadn't specifically said 'don't have sex on that couch' and they just pulled my pants down without talking to me and did their thing until they were satisfied because they hadn't gotten laid since I visited last and apparently that needed to be remedied immediately

There were a lot of times that sex happened because they decided they wanted it to

I don't even know how to touch on the emotional effects of my relationship because like, how the fuck do I describe what they did? And by they I mean both of them, because DJ backed them up every time

Shortly after these posts were circulated, she wiped her blogs of easily identifiable info and stopped using these accounts; her last post was a queued reblog on September 8th 2015.

She never apologized or addressed any of her victims, which saddened and disappointed me, especially since Lucy appeared to espouse feminist and anti-abuse rhetoric on her blog. I had hoped that this meant that she had taken time away from social media to reflect and seek help.

However, I noticed that Lucy's partner/spouse, DJ, still used the same handle \(umami_party\) on their social media accounts. DJ's twitter revealed that after the tumblr callout post about Lucy was circulated, Lucy immediately rebranded to her searchthenight handles, then changed to translesbiantop sometime in 2020. Her first post on her searchthenight tumblr is from September 6th 2015, and her current twitter has tweets referring to herself in third person with her last name.

Reviewing her photos on her current accounts confirms that Lucy is the person who raped me at 14 and, as such, abused the others mentioned in this post. She has several hundred followers and a close-knit group of flirtatious admirers, not unlike her presence in the early 2010s. She can rebrand as many times as she wants to try escaping accountability, but her current tweets show she is the same grandiose, boundary-creeping sex pest that I and others knew before.
