This document is to only inform people on what happened between Geno and I, as well as some other things that he and his wife “Shackles” have done.

I do not support any acts of harassment, and if found harassing anyone, you will be blocked. I don't think that they are “bad people”, just people who made bad choices, and need to learn from their mistakes.

This has been mentally draining at me for a long time, dealing with this, Forsaken News, and now with my great grandfather's death and upcoming funeral, It's getting to me, so this will hopefully be my last time I ever talk about this.

For context, this all happened between September until now.

This started when I was 16, I turned 17 on October 24th.

Geno, the creator of Kingverse, is 21 years old.

His wife, Shackles, is 23 years old, 5+ months pregnant, and is a “Roblox software engineer”.
