

QUEER KID STUFF

EPISODE 1: WHAT DOES GAY MEAN?

When a man loves a man or a woman loves a woman, they are called gay. People who love each other sometimes choose to become a family, and, whether you're a bear or a kid, families come in all shapes and sizes!

What does your family look like?

A family can be the people you might live with – one, two, or many parents, like moms and dads, and siblings, like brothers and sisters – as well as the other people who love you, like grandparents, aunts, uncles, friends, neighbors and pets.

TEDDY THE TIME TRAVELER

Words can mean different things at different times. Let's see how the word "gay" has been used throughout history!

PUZZLE PLAY

Teddy loves puzzles. Can you help him find the missing letters from his talk with Lindsay?

Gay means h__ppy or __ove.

Teddy's __amily is different than Lindsay's!

A family can be 1, 2, or many m__ms,

da__s, or other people who l__ve you.

TEDDY TALKS

Want to talk more about the topics covered in Queer Kid Stuff: Episode 1? Here are some questions you can ask to begin a conversation:

- Do you know anyone who identifies as gay?
- Have you ever heard anyone use the word "gay" in a bad way? Why do you think they would say that?
- What are some different types of families you have seen?
